In Our New Quarters. —China, —Glass. —Our new Art Department attracts more attention, in its incomplete condition, than we had thought.

LOCAL ITEMS.

—Fog concerts will soon open—free for the season. —Baseball is being agitated at present.

—The weather has been quite warm the last few days. —New walks are being laid in different parts of the borough.

—Good assortment of bird cages for sale at Murray's drug store. —Mrs. Mary Dinges was unfortunate in having a cow die on Sunday morning.

—Dandelion hunters are preparing for their usual spring campaign. —Misses Celia and Rose Sternberg, of Bellefonte, are stopping in Centre Hall.

—The Reformed parsonage has been fenced in. Guess because there's good land in it. —We hear some talk of the borough dads putting down a walk to the station.

—Farmers are busy plowing. The ground is in an excellent condition for sowing. —When in Bellefonte don't fail to see Jas. Harris & Co's new hardware store.

—Mrs. Love, on Church street, had a handsome wire fence built in front of her premises. —A number of our citizens attended the funeral of Mr. Emanuel Wolf, at Bouslog, on Tuesday.

—Our neighbors Mr. Wolf and Mrs. Neff are putting up handsome iron fences in front of their residences. —Have you seen Jas. Harris & Co's new mammoth three-story hardware store, the finest in the state.

—Cleve Dinges has returned from the west after several weeks visit. He thinks of going back again in Sept. —The boiler at the Centre Hall roller mill has been rebuilt, and the mill will start running again in a few days.

—If you want a nice boy's suit go to the Philad. Branch where you can find just what you wish and at the lowest prices. —The Sanbury News says that the Sanbury mill works use coal brought there from Wales and sold seventy-five cents cheaper than Pennsylvania coal.

—Our neighbor Mrs. Sarah Harpeter has returned to Centre Hall again after several months absence in the west visiting relatives. —Complete stock of clothing, hats, caps, boots and shoes, of latest styles, will be sold very cheap to suit the times—J. D. Long & Son, Spring Mills.

—Some wheat fields in this section are looking very bad. It might be a good idea for some to plow up their grain fields and plant something else. —Trot fishermen turned out largely on 15 to get a chance at the speckled beauties, but no big hauls were made. The streams were high and waters cloudy.

—A small building belonging to Jno. I. Thompson, at Lemont, formerly used for school purposes, was burned on Sunday night, 11, supposed to have been set on fire. —Wm. Stover, of Spring Mills, was a caller at our office on Tuesday. Mr. S. has been on the sick list for some time, but we are glad to note that he is improving.

—It is reported that Mr. Bibby, landlord of Spring Mills House, had the misfortune to lose $1248, in cash, the other Tuesday. He was on his way to Lewisburg and before taking the train had put the money into a large envelope and placed it, or thought he did, in his pocket. He did not miss the money until he arrived at Lewisburg, when he immediately telegraphed to the train authorities to look in the seat. They found the envelope but the contents were gone. We sympathize with Mr. Bibby in this unfortunate circumstance.—Ex.

—A special train containing President Roberts of the Penn'a Railroad, and other prominent officials, passed over our road on Tuesday. The party stopped long enough at the Centre Hall station to allow them to eat their dinner with comfort, which was served in the car.

—Three schools are in progress in our borough, with scholars ranging in number from 9 to 20. Jas. Lohr with a roll of pupils exceeding in number the other three schools is making arrangements to secure a room somewhere outside the school house to instruct his little band.

—Irrespective of the war waged by temperance people of Blair county, in that county at the court last week that he did last year. The presence of a host of women and men who thought to wipe out all the liquor houses, did not intimidate the Judge in the least.

—A number of citizens were obedient to the Governor's call on Arbor day and planted shade, ornamental and fruit trees on their premises. A town like this can not well have too many shade trees along its streets, and thus the planting of trees should be encouraged.

—We regret to learn that Mr. D. G. Bash, on Sunday, 11, received a stroke of paralysis which disables his arm and lower limb on the left side. He first felt the sensation while in the bathroom. He has been unwell for several days which gives his friends some concern.—Republican.

—Spring Mill is agitating the question of building a creamery. We understand two parties from New York are making negotiations for the erection of buildings. A creamery at Spring Mills would be a good thing for the farmers if properly managed, but there is hardly enough territory to support two. Better locate one at Centre Hall.

—Lewins, the boss of the ready-made clothing trade, has just received an immense new stock of ready-made clothing, for men and boys, all prices and styles. The assortment is unsurpassed, and any body can be suited in price and style. The Philad. Branch will keep up its reputation as headquarters for ready made clothing.

—McFarlane & Co., of Bellefonte, are having a tremendous run on the new Link Barb Fence Wire. It is a decided improvement over all other barb fencing and no one should buy without first seeing it. It takes little more than half the time to put up than other wire. It can be taken down and nested up as easy as a rope and is the only wire of which a gate can be made without using hinges.

—Everybody is fixing up about town. Fences are being built, new walks laid, houses remodeled and painted, and things in general improved. This is just what ought to be done. —The Pardon Board on Tuesday refused a pardon in the case of S. M. Longwell, sentenced in Mifflin county for the murder of Alexander Reed.

—Every application for license was refused in Butler county, and leaves the county without a single licensed house for one year. —The Methodists talk of frescoing their church in this place. It would be a decided improvement although the walls are not in a bad condition.

—Geo. Benner is home from Lock Haven where he had been clerking in a grocery store. —Mike Confer, the pike maker, began a good work by piking a part of our street. Keep it up, Mike. —Master William Johnson moved to Centre Hall last week.

(SPRING MILLS ITEMS) P. S. Dale is just putting in a new saw mill of the latest style, and a new Elipse engine with which to run the mill in connection with a planer, furniture factory, &c. Mr. Dale is possessed with a spirit of enterprise and not to be easily outdone.

—The Challenge band was abroad on our streets on Friday evening, discoursing the sweetest music for our enterprising town. —Spring Mills might boast of four Sunday Schools, all well attended.

—Some new buildings are going up in our town, one is a church edifice; and one we dare not say yet lest some boy run away with it. —Three day schools have opened here, and are paying institutions. Prof. Kries and Hosterman are two of the well known educators teaching.

—A fact is that we are going to have another physician locate in our town next week. It is Dr. J. B. G. Allison, and he comes highly recommended, while the name brings with it a certain significance. —Farmers are busy plowing in this section.

—Mr. Samuel Hoover is able to be out of the house again. —The new post office box is an improvement. It looks as though Uncle Sam intends leaving the post office at the old place. —Henry Grim, the expert carpet-weaver, has located here.

ONLY SIX LICENSES GRANTED IN HUNTINGDON COUNTY. —Huntingdon, Pa., April 19.—The decision of the Court in the liquor license applications was announced to-day. Special remonstrances were presented against some of the applicants, and a general remonstrance against all of them signed by about 8,000 persons, one-third of whom were voters.

AN INTERESTING CASE. INVOLVING TEN THOUSAND ACRES OF LAND.

A Dying Daughter Confesses to Complicity in Robbing Her Dead Father's Heirs.

Reading, Pa., April 13.—An interesting case is about being worked up by interested parties. Valentine Brobst, a resident of this city, at the time of his death in 1839, was considered one of the wealthiest men in this part of the country. He owned more than 10,000 acres of land in various sections of Schuylkill, Columbia and Northumberland counties, comprising land upon which the towns of Ashland, Mt. Carmel and other small places are now built. He owned, among other tracts of land, about 5,000 acres in the very heart of the anthracite coal basin in this state.

After his death one of the neighbors of the deceased interested in the estate persuaded one of the daughters to open her father's desk and give him access thereto. He purloined the contents, including deeds, bonds, &c., amounting to hundreds of thousands of dollars, for which privilege he paid said daughter the sum of $3,000. After the death of Brobst all his papers were missing—deeds, a large number of valuable bonds and other documents. It is alleged that a bogus transfer of some of this land was made to certain interested parties, with the connivance of the daughter, conveying quite a large amount of this land to other parties, for which no legal deed was given, the heirs under the will never having signed any papers of conveyance nor having any return made by those constituted to make such a paper.

One valuable tract of 3,000 acres cannot be accounted for as a. No clear title could possibly have been given, as far as the records show. The daughter referred to died in this city, and before her death made a full confession of her part in the fraudulent transaction and depositions character of the transfer of the lands in question. The grandchildren of the deceased are now about to push their claims to this property and arguing the heirs in the different parts of the county to take concerted action in the matter.

Among the principal representatives of Mr. Brobst still living are Andrew Brobst Ruffert, 713 Walnut Street; Soppia Christine, of this city; Mrs. Wm. Breiner, 713 Walnut Street; Hamilton Rightmyer, of Philadelphia; Samuel Stump, of Kutztown, and others. Notices to the heirs are now being forwarded from the grand-daughter, Mrs. Breiner. Council has been selected to pass the matter at once. Mr. J. O. Jones, the furniture dealer, is one of the active heirs and workers in the matter. Should they succeed it will be a gain to them of millions of dollars, as the land since then has grown immensely valuable.

THAT DISPUTED LINE.

People Decline to Pay Their Taxes to Huntingdon.

Huntingdon, April 14.—The Commissioners of this county are proceeding with the necessary legal steps to collect the taxes assessed against the citizens of the strip of territory in dispute between Huntingdon and Mifflin counties. These people claim to be in Mifflin township, Mifflin county, and have always paid their taxes there. They were given notice of the time of appeals in Brady township, to which this county claims, they belong, but they paid no attention to it, which is taken as an indication of a determination not to pay their taxes in this county. The next step will be to issue executions and seize their property, where resistance will be made and the matter will be taken into the courts for settlement. The whole power of one county will be arrayed against that of the other in this legal contest.

A series of resolutions was adopted by the George Simpson Post, No. 44, G. A. R., last night, strongly favoring the passage of an act by the Legislature prohibiting the sale of intoxicating liquors on Decoration Day; urging the election of Representatives who will advocate and support such legislation, and requesting other posts of Huntingdon county to concur in the resolutions, or to adopt similar ones. There are eight posts in the county, it is believed that their united action will extend the movement throughout the state, and that the organization will be enabled to secure its passage.

Contrary to expectations, the Court has not announced its disposition of the license question, and it is understood that Judge First will let the matter go until Saturday or Monday next, when he will file a lengthy opinion. It is generally believed that there will be no licenses at all, or not more than six in the whole county.

Sharon, Pa., April 19.—Aber and Lovitt Simpson are the names of two wealthy farmers at Orangeville, Ohio, 6 miles from Sharon. They are brothers. A few days ago they had an altercation over the possession of certain bonds. Lovitt struck his brother on the head with an axe, and also broke two of his ribs. Peculiar as it may seem, Aber did not seem to be very seriously hurt at the time, but has since commenced to sink and is now dying.

The brothers give entirely different versions of the affair. Lovitt has not yet been arrested. —It is rarely the case that physicians will prescribe patent medicines. Koller's Catarrh Remedy, however, is no patent preparation but a medicine of remarkable virtue and many physicians are now prescribing it.

GREAT DISASTER IN CORSICA.

Paris, April 15.—Nine persons were killed and many injured to-day at Ajaccio, the capital of Corsica, by the collapse of a mansion. —For colds, croup, asthma, bronchitis and sore throat, use Dr. Thomas' Eucalyptic Oil, and get the genuine.

ALDERMANIC BOODLERS.

An Even Dozen Arrested for Accepting Bribes.

New York, April 13.—Thomas Cleary, Michael Duffy, Arthur J. McQuade, Louis Wendel, Rudolph Fulgraff, Thos. Shields, Patrick Farley, John O'Neill and Henry L. Sayles, members of the Board of Aldermen of 1884, were all arrested this morning between eight and nine o'clock. Recorder Smith had issued warrants to arrest them, which were entrusted to District Attorney Martine, who placed them in Police Inspector Byrnes' hands. The charges against them are similar to those against the Aldermen previously arrested, namely: the acceptance of bribes for votes on the Broadway Railroad franchise question. They were all taken to police headquarters and locked up. Messengers were immediately sent out by them in search of their bondsmen. Thomas Cleary is a member of the present Board of Aldermen.

When District Attorney Martine placed in Police Inspector Byrnes' hands last evening the warrants for the arrest of the ex-Aldermen, it was decided to place them under surveillance, but not to arrest them until this morning. At 7 o'clock orders were issued from the Central Office to bring the accused Aldermen in. The first one who passed through what is now known as the "Aldermanic Gate" was Michael Duffy. He was indignant at his arrest. His wrath changed to amusement, however, when one after the other his colleagues was led in after him. It looked as though the Board of 1884 had come to life again, and was about to hold another early morning "snafu" session.

Recorder Smyth fixed the bail at $25,000 in each case. The Aldermen all looked unhappy while awaiting the arrival of the bondsmen. At 1:30 o'clock the Grand Jury entered part one of the Court of General Sessions with indictments, charging twelve of the Board of Aldermen of 1884 with bribery. The indicted Aldermen are: Fulgraff, Wendel, McQuade, Shields, Duffy, Cleary, Farley, Sayles, Reiley, O'Neill and McCabe, and one other whose name was not made public as he has not yet been arrested.

Messengers were sent to all quarters of the city in search of bondsmen who quickly appeared. As the news spread through the city personal and political friends of the victims hurried to police headquarters and the corridors were rapidly crowded.

Farmers of Centre county allow me to say to all such who want to buy a self-rake, a front or rear cut mower, a separator, do not buy until you see the Johnston Binder, Mower and Self-rake, which stand in the front rank wherever I have sold them. I can guarantee them to have more good points, quiet running, for lightness of draft, easier to handle all the way than any other binder sold in the county. I say buy a Johnston machine which ever one it may be and it will convince you that my statement above is not a false one. The Johns on machines recommend and talk for themselves once they get a trial in the field. Farmers wishing to see a Johnston Binder and latest improvements, can see one set up in my barn at Centre Hall, one at old Jacob Raup's, two two miles above State College; one in Brushvalley, one mile east of Rebersburg, at Austin Gramley's. Farmers, go and see the Johnston Binder before buying, and you will see one of the best constructed binders in the market. The knottor is one of the finest you have ever seen. It has but one steel spring and has a double disk and cord holder. The binder attachment can be folded up so a 5-foot binder can pass through a pair of bars 9 ft. 10 in. and a 6-foot binder through a 10 ft. 10 in. bar. This is more convenient than to load a binder on a truck to get into your fields. Buy a Johnston binder or mower and you will find many more conveniences which I have said nothing about, but you will find it so once you will see it with me.

I will here say I have contracted and handled the following farm implements: The Superior grain drill, which is one of the finest arranged drills in the market; has no gear wheels to change; drives from either wheel with a racket like a reaper. I also sell one of the finest and easiest hand drawn rakes in market; try one and you will admit to this fact. I also sell the Bullard Hay Tedder, the only one built that has a fork outside of the wheels, so that the wheels do not run over the spread grass once it is tugged up. I also have the agency for the Empire Steam engine and Thresher, which all farmers know is one of the best machines to clean grain in our county. I also have the agency for the Henckel Cultivators which need no recommendation. It is known as one of the best cultivators, with Cora Planter and fertilizer attachments in the county. I also have the agency for the Conkling Waggon, my territory including Harris, Potter, Gregg, Miles, Penn and Haines townships. The Conkling stands first in the rank of all waggons, as all farmers know who have used one of them.

I also sell E. Frank Coes and John Ralston Nickerbocker Phosphates. I can say that these goods are a first class article, and have given entire satisfaction to all of my customers for the past four years. Farmers, I simply ask you to try one of these fertilizers and you will get the best results. I always make it my aim before contracting for any fertilizer or implement to get the very best in market, and it will be the cheapest in the end.

I kindly ask a liberal patronage of any who need and will buy a first class implement or fertilizer. F. M. BURKHOLDER, Agent for above Implements and Fertilizers, Centre Hall, Pa.
