----Communicated. IN MEMORIAM.

Died April 9, 1886, Mrs. Margaret, wife of Hon. Samuel Gilliland, of Oak Hall, in the seventy-second year of her age. The deceased was a native of Penns Valley, born near Potters Mills, and was united in marriage to Mr. Gilliland by Rev. David McKinney, March 16, 1841. Having been trained under religious influences she was early brought to Christ and admitted to the full communion of the Presbyterian church of Spring Creek. She showed by a subsequent consistent Christian life that religion with her was a reality. She was a prudent and devoted wife, domestic in her habits and tastes, she delighted to make home attractive, a sanctuary of affection and confidence. She was an affectionate, faithful, self-sacrificing mother. Her constant aim was, by proper training, to promote the highest weltare of her children for time and for eternity, and as a ted to see them memoers with her, as members in full communion of the church of their birthright and choice. She was a sincere friend. Those who were intimate with her could safely confide in her undissembled friendship. humble, unpretending, faithful and sincere. With an abiding sense of her own unworthioess she had an apprecia tive sense of the worth of Christ. Called murmered but bore with patience, resignation and even cheerfulness the dispensations of her Heavenly Father's hand, resting for comfort and sustaining strength upon the grace and promises of God. Conscious to the last, and patiently awaiting the Master's will, she peacefully passed away. Her last utterance was: "I shall soon be at rest." Life closed with her:

"As sets the morning star, Which goes not down behind the darkened west,

Nor hides obscured amid the tempests of the sky,

But melts away into the light of Heaven."
