BIRTHDAY.

Saturday evening was the scene of one of the most remarkable and pleasant gatherings that has assembled in Boalsburg for some time. On the invitation of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Kuhn about thirty young people of the neigborhood began to gather at their residence to celebrate 18th birthday of their son Will. It did not take long to fill the pleasant home with a crowd of most agreeable and pleasant people, who came and de-posited their gifts until a very fine and valuable selection covered the table. The ladies looked beautiful and happy in their white and flowing dresses, and the gentlemen were radiant with de-light. Refreshments of the first order were served which all relished, and at the close of which the young man in honor of whose birthday the assembly met, delivered, in an able and manly style, an address of welcome to his friends. The evening was, on the whole, an enjoyable occasion and will be long renembered. G. P.W.

-Decoration day in Centre Hall promises to be full of interest. The Good Templars are making arrangements for an ice cream and strawberry festival on that occasion. Center Hall will be the place to spend memororial day. -Hud Love moves from this place is in very feeble health. -Mrs. Hubler, wife of W. C. Hubler, nee Musser, of Penn twp., died on Tuesday morning last of consumption, from which she had been ill for some time. ----Mrs. Harter, wife of Isreal Harter, died at Fulton, Ohio, suddenly on Thursday last. -----The REFORTER is under obligations to Miss Flora Neff for a basket of nice apples. -Howard Homan has his new house in the hands of the plasterers. Howard's head seems level, he thinks he'd pay $50 if he could tap the water as handy as our town folks and let the cistern go to the dogs.

--- The memorial exercises in memory of John B. Gough given by the Good Templars, Saturday evening, were quite interesting. The recitations delivered by Messrs. James Gregg, C. F. Deininger, J. W. Dinges and R. B. Wolf were well spoten. The music on the occasion was excellent.
