MEMORIAL DAY.

CENTRE HALL, May 29, 1886.

This morning we, the Post members and some citizens of the boro' and vicinity, left Centre Hall upon our annual visit to our cemeteries. It certainly seeemed that Providence provided es pecially for the occasion fine weather and good roads.

Arrived at the Union cemetery we and citizens with flowers. Prayer was offered by Rev. King, after which the it was full of them to within about graves of soldiers and friends were decgraves of soldiers and friends were decorated, followed by an address by Rev. King, of this place, who accompanied us, and who is also a G. A. R. man. The address was very good and much appreciated by all who heard it.

At Spring Mills we were met by many of our Post members who reside in that vicinity, and also by the Spring Mills band and drum corps and a very goodly number of citizens. At the cemetery we found quite a number of people in waiting. The services were opened with prayer by Rev. Stambaugh, followed by an able and well prepared address by Rev. Rhoads, of Mifflinburg. The Rev. R. compared then and now and brought back to us scenes and recollections of ong ago. He spoke feelingly, earnestly, We noticed Rev. J. K. After taking dinner at Spring Mills we continued our drive to Georges Valley church where we listened to an able, oquent and patriotic address by Rev. W. E. Fischer. The address was short but solid, earnest, fiery and patriotic.

We soon found ourselves at Spruceown where we were met by a large concourse of people, the Loop band, Sunday Schools, and J. L. Spangler and J. F. Reeder. The program at this place was somewhat different from that at other places. After prayer by Rev. Fischer the choir of that place rendered a very fine piece of music appropriate for the occasion, after which J. F. Reeder delivered an historical address full of interesting facts and comparisons. J. L. The names of the boys who left Potters Bank and vicinity never to return, were called by the Adjutant and answered Comrade Palmer by a roll upon a muffled drum.

After the services there we resumed our trip, the procession now being much larger, and the Loop band going with us. At Old Fort many of us partook of excellent refreshments at the hands of Comrade Odenkirk.

In Centre Hall we found a much larger crowd than we did elsewhere during the day. The services at the cemetery were opened with prayer by Rev. Fischer, followed by an address by J. L. Spangler, closing with an address by Rev. Land upon "The Graves of the Unknown," both of which were eloquent, earnest and interesting.

Taking all in all, we think it was the most auspicious, most interesting and most impressive Memorial Day we ever write notes of my trip, etc.

First. I left Bellefonte at 5:20 p. m., Monday; Altoona 2:40 a. m., Tuesday Pittsburg 7:20 a. m., over the Pan Handle route via Columbus and Indianapolis to St. Louis. The first thing of note to me was the incline plane of the railroad Old Fort and Mifflinburg turnpike and a in Pittsburg. We passed through part part owner of the old Pine Creek mill, of the Hocking Valley coal regions, Ohio. tation is extended to the neighboring The farmers were not as far advanced with their work as those farther east. Missouri Pacific railroad to Kansas City. From St. Louis to perhaps within twenty miles of Jefferson City the country is hilly, and some of it is rocky and covered with heavy timber. Some of the militia came on board our train and stood guard at each car door until the train arrived at East St. Louis. One regiment was guarding railroad property. Even when taking engines out of the round house a guard walked on each side of the engine. We stopped twenty minutes at Sedalia, where our guards walked back and forth on each side were met by the Farmers Mills band of the train. There was a large number of men and boys on hand at that place; though there was a dead line on each side; if any one would come within, the guards would put them in bad shape.

I left St. Louis at 11:15 a.m. over the

Around this city it is beautiful. The country is very level; there is no timber through the country to Kansas City. The crops are well advanced; I saw some rye almost ready to come in heads. This is a part of country that is hard to get water for drinking and cooking purposes; they use rain water. For stock almost every field has a little pond on the hillside, or where it will drain surface water; they throw them up where the hard pan crops out; they hold water; there are many of them in that country.

I arrived at Kansas City at 8:50 p. m. Wednesday. I got to see but little of that city : I walked several squares ; it is almost equal to Chicago for life and bustle. left there at 10:15 p. m. for Emporia over the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe railroad, via Topeks, and arrived in Emporia at 3:40 a.m. Thursday. Emporia is a nice town; population about 9,000. The country there looked well. They use the dirty black river water. The farmers are of the German element, from the eastern states. Quite a number of cattle are fed there. I left for Council Grove on Saturday morning. I had a job by noon and went to work on Monday morning. This town is situated on the Kansas Indian reservation; it is about eleven years old and has a population of about 3,000. They have splendid water, also good building stones along the river. There are a great many Pennsylvania, Ohio did farming country around this place. ing and attentively listened to. Roll On Saturday it looks as though the whole country came to town, it is such a business place; Bellefonte is much behind it. Much of this country is used for grazing. They were borning the prairies a few miles east of town, so it would break easier. There are lots of good farms for sale here at from $10 to $25 per acre; also some wild land at from $6 to $15 per acre. It is quite warm here; the thermo neter was 88° yesterday. There is nearly always a breeze blowing. Everybody is tanned, and some of them are almost as dark as Chinamen; the wind has much to do with it. The corn is about four or five inches high. A fellow offered me 340 acres, 150 of which were broken, good spring and running water, three miles from the railroad and a half mile from the postoffice, a good house with seven rooms, and a small stable, about fifteen miles from here, for $4,200 cash. There are lots of such offers afloat. The evenings are good horses here as Iowa or Illinois; so many small horses and ponies, a good many mules, and large and fine cattle I was out in the country about four miles on Sunday morning and saw a man E. He owned the gristmill at Woodward, a sawmill in Haines township, was a stockholder in the Millheim bank, was the largest stockholder in the south of Aaronsburg. About ten days ago Mr. Motz confessed judgment in the sum of $19,000 to various creditors in the valley. This was done in consequence of a judgment obtained against him in U. S. Court, recently for $5200 and costs, by a party of western sharpers who had induced Mr. Motz to invest in a stock ranche, which they had Mr. Motz believe was a bonanza-it was for them. It turned out to be an expensive elephant for Mr. Motz, and led to a lawsuit, which was twice tried in the U. S. Court, and went against Mr. Motz both times, when he proceeded to confess in the suit of the suit udgment to save honest home creditors. We are told, however, that the judg-

-A runaway and a rattlesnake in the way, was the unpleasant experience which two Bellefonte barristers, J. L. Spangler and H. A. Reeder, met with on Decoration day. They were on their way to Centre Hall, with horse and buggy; arrived on Nittany mountain, they concluded to hold up for a little rest and smoke and take in the beauties that surround Centre Hall. As one of them was in the act of tying the horse to a tree, from some cause the horse took freight and ran out along the road on the top of the mountain. Spangler and Reeder followed, and had got along in a sweat for about two miles, when a big rattlesnake hove up in the middle of the oad, and started up a tshune, which was not the kind of music their ears were trained to, and they beat a hasty retreat, thinking the horse might go to sheol and they would foot it to Centre Hall. Whether it was a set up job between the horse and the rattler, we have not ascertained, but at all events the serpent was between the horse and lawyers and that ended the case. There was a nolle prosequi. A man was hired to seek the runapart; the latter somewhat broken.

Farmers of Centre county allow me to say to all who want to buy a self-binder, a front or rear cut mower, a self-rake, do not buy until you see the Johnston Binder, Mower and Self-Rake, which stand in the front rank wherever I have sold them. I can guarantee them to have more good points, quiet running, for lightness of draft, easier to handle all the leavers than any other binder sold in the county. I say buy a Johnson machine whichever one it may be and it will convince you that my statement above is not a false one. The Johnston machines recommend and talk for themselves once they get a trial in the field. Farmers wishing to see a Johnston Binder and latest improvements, can see one set up in my barn at Centre Hill, one at old Jacob Raup's, about two miles above State College: one in Brush Valley, one mile east of Rebersburg, at Austin Granleys. Farmers, go and see the Johnston Binder before buying, and you will see one of the best constructed binders in the market. The knotter is one of the finest you have ever seen. It has but one steel spring and has a double disk and cord holder. The binder attachment can be folded up so a 5-foot binder can pass through a pair of bars 9 ft. 10 in. and 6-foot binder through a 10 ft. 10 in. bar. This is more convenient than to load a binder on a truck to get into your fields allow will work with one.

I will here say I have contracted and handled the following farm implements: The Superior grain drill, which is one of the finest arranged drills in the market; has no gear wheels to change; drives from either wheel with a rachet like a reaper. I also sell one of the finest and easiest Hand-dump Rakes in market; try one and you will work with one.
