Williamsport, Pa., July 29 .- A hail storm of great severity visited the western part of Lycoming county, near Jersey Shore, this evening. The hail fell in great profusion, many of the stones being as large as bens' eggs. Buildings were badly damaged, and corn and other crops in the path of the storm were wholly destroyed. The barn of George and Henry Shafer was struck by lightning and destroyed, with over three hundred bushels of wheat and a lot of other grain. The storm did not cover a wide territory.
