CENTRE HALL MEAT MARKET—The Centre Hall Meat Market having a refrigerator furnished can at all times be supplied with fresh meats, of the best quality, also Bologna sausage. Next door to hotel; open day and evening.

LOCAL ITEMS. Dog days are coming. Centre Hall is getting the baseball fever. Mr. T. Benton Ulrich was in town on Tuesday last. County Grange met at Centre Hall on Tuesday. Borough schools open Monday, September 13. We had a soaking thunder shower on last Friday night. Will Floray is digging a cellar for a new house near the station. Some of our farmers report the potatoes to be rotting in the ground. Misses Mame Harper and Elsie Barr, of Tyrone, are the guests of Miss Jennie Boal. The Misses Kuhn and Nisley, two charming young ladies of Hummelstown, are the guests of Miss Annie Mingle. An excursion to Centre Hall is being talked of by Milliflburg people. When you come, bring your ball team along. Rev. W. E. Fischer left for Berlin, Somerset county, to spend a vacation of three weeks among friends and relatives. A game of base ball will likely be played on Saturday evening between Penn Hall and Centre Hall, on the latter's grounds. Ex-Sheriff Spangler has gone to Indiana county and in company with driver Rankin will arrive here in a few days. Rev. Leisinger, pastor of the Lutheran congregation at Lewisburg, with his family, is spending a few weeks at Spring Mills. Wes Henny has made quite an improvement to the exterior appearance of his house on Church street by the erection of a portico. Harry Camp, son of W. R. Camp, who was kicked by a horse at Milroy some time ago, we are glad to learn, is able to be about again. Mr. George Grossman, executor, advertises the real estate of Michael Ulrich, dec'd, for sale in another column of the REPORTER. Were pleased to have a call and pleasant chat with Rev. Dr. Wilson, of Brooklyn, who is on a visit to the old homestead at Spring Mills. Prof. D. F. Mauger, who will take charge of our Grammar school, is a graduate of Franklin and Marshall college and comes with first class recommendations. Prof. Hosterman's select school at Spring Mills, opened with an attendance of about 50 students from different parts of the county. He is assisted by Prof. Stover. John Danberman, of near Centre Hill, thinks of beginning work for a new house, in this town, in a few weeks, and will become a citizen of the town after its completion. Communion at Centre Hill, Aug. 8, at 10:30 a. m., when the Rev. Oliver A. Kerr, of Bordenstown, N. J., will preach the sermon. Additional services on Saturday, 10 a. m., and on Sabbath at 5 p. m. Any one desiring to invest in some valuable real estate at Spring Mills, read the advertisement in another column of the REPORTER for the sale of a farm and tract of land, estate of Peter Wilson, August 21. A festival will be held in Wolf's Grove, Centre Hall, on Saturday evening, 7, by the members of the Evangelical church. A warm supper will be served, and melons, fruit, cakes and ice-cream be kept at the stand. Proceeds for the benefit of the church. Mr. Wm. Meese, of Tusseyville, desires us to announce to the farmers of the valley that he has a first-class engine and threshing machine and is prepared to clean up their crops in first-class style and at short notice. He is accompanied by a force of good workmen. Henry Keen, of Penn township, has returned from his western trip and gave our readers a call. He reports the advertising folks getting along fairly out there. Michigan and Illinois are suffering from drought. Mr. Keen would prefer old Pennsylvania as a state to live in. On Monday, says the Centre Democrat, James Shope, of Snow Shoe, received a severe shock while sitting along the railroad near that place. The lightning struck the rail and ran along it, shocking him severely. He was picked up insensible and remained so for some time.
