VOICE AGAINST BEAVER.

Even if there was no law against the payment of wages in store orders...

No workingman can assert his manhood under an employer that defrauds him by paying his wages all or part in store orders.

It has been clearly proved that the firm of which General James A. Beaver is President has been imposing store orders on its men in place of money.

Gov. Black: "There's Gen. Beaver, I've got him on my mind—I've got him on my list."

Cameron: "He never will be missed—no, he never will be missed."

The largest manufacturer of York, Pa., and one of the leading Republicans is A. B. Farquhar.

Mr. A. B. Farquhar, the great manufacturer and a prominent Republican, who followed Mr. Black with enthusiasm.

Blaine is about to make a speech, Democrats should hold their ears, says the Bellefonte Republican.

The Republican papers are trying to fool their readers by talking of dissatisfaction with the state and county tickets.

There is great dissatisfaction everywhere with the Democratic ticket among Republicans.

In the Prohibition convention at Harrisburg, last week, the preacher delegates numbered 138.

RESTRICTION, NOT PROTECTION.

The chapter on the tariff in the Democratic campaign text book, which has been the subject of some criticism...

The professed policy of the Republican party in opposing a reduction of the tariff is protection to American labor and industries.

Table with 2 columns: Occupation and Value. Includes Agriculture (7,670,493), Manufacturing and personal (4,074,238), etc.

The Democratic policy is to commence at the head of the list and as far as possible do equal and exact justice to all occupations...

Democrats should be watchful so the legislative ticket gets the full vote, and the work of the convention ratified on the entire ticket.

"The Tocsin," the official Journal of the Plasterers' National Union, says: "The nomination of Maxwell Stevenson for Congressman-at-Large by the Democratic Convention is a direct recognition of the claims of organized labor."

Blaine is about to make a speech, Democrats should hold their ears, says the Bellefonte Republican.

The Republican papers are trying to fool their readers by talking of dissatisfaction with the state and county tickets.

No good Democrat can say ought against any man on our state or county ticket. No kicker or belly-aching rascal can show that there was any thing else but fair and square work in the Democratic state convention and fair and square work in the county convention...

There is great dissatisfaction everywhere with the Democratic ticket among Republicans.

Rev. J. M. Palmer, the Prohibition candidate for Congressman-at-Large, is a negro. If this colored gentleman had remained in the Republican ranks for recognition, his color would have needed to turn white before he would get it.

HUMILIATING.

Quay, in 1882: "Dear Beaver, don't talk." Quay, in 1886: "Dear Beaver, slip off to California."

Voters who have been clamoring for men who are not identified with grasping corporations can not now refuse to vote for Chauncey F. Black.

The working man has ever had in Chauncey F. Black a sincere friend and advocate.

These important facts are not and can not be denied. Hence the Reporter asserts that it is the sacred duty of the people the toilers to come to Mr. Black's support.

Where is Gen. Beaver? We would like to inform him that there is a Wolfe prowling around and likely to get into his sheep fold.

A dispatch from Reading, Aug. 27 says: There are complaints from numerous districts in Berks, Lebanon and Schuylkill counties in regard to the drought now prevailing...

We think Beaver should insist on talking in spite of Quay's admonition, even if he does talk all nonsense—for a little nonsense now and then is relished by the best of men.

As to Mr. Wallace being a candidate for congress in this district J. H. Lambert says in the Philadelphia Press:

Senator Wallace told me on Saturday that it is useless to talk of running him for Congress; that he would not think of it or consent under any circumstances.

Republicans are looking up the law to see what premium there is on Wolfe scalps, the tracks of the animal are getting "too fresh" for them.

General Beaver is expected home from his California trip one of these days. Quay's "Dear Beaver, don't talk," is not intended to prevent the General from lecturing on Pacific coast sights.

The Clinton county delegate elections last Saturday resulted in favor of Hipple for senator over Caldwell.

The Centre county Prohibitionists have made the following nomination, Robert Glen, of Ferguson township, and R. B. Hartman, of Millheim, for the Legislature.

They expect to have a thorough campaign and make things hot on the cold water issue.

What bothers the rads of this county just now is, where to get material to offset Woodward, Rhone, Schafer and Meyer. Can't match 'em.

Amid all the crazy feasts attempted for notoriety, there remains one not yet thought of, perhaps, viz: What fool will attempt to cross the American continent from Jersey to Frisco, backwards on foot?

Tamaqua, Pa., Aug. 29.—Samuel Jefferson, of this place, died yesterday morning at the age of one hundred and four years.

LARGE GATHERING OF PROHIBITIONISTS OF PENNSYLVANIA.

A Convention Composed of 644 Delegates, Mostly War Veterans, Clergymen and Mechanics—Nineteen Doctors and No undertakers—Opening with Prayer and Song.

Harrisburg, Aug. 25.—Before Chairman A. A. Barker of the State Committee called the Prohibition State Convention to order this morning fifty children on the stage sang "Coming By and By," in the chorus of which the 600 delegates in the hall joined.

At the afternoon session the report of the Committee on Credentials showed that there were 644 delegates present, and upon its adoption A. A. Stens of Blair was made the permanent Chairman.

Some feeling was engendered at this point over a motion to suspend the rules and allow Mrs. Van Kirk of Allegheny county to read a resolution. The motion was so clearly carried that the Chair did not put the negative, whereupon Mr. Wilson of Philadelphia excitedly insisted on the negative vote should be counted.

On motion of Swoger of Allegheny it was determined that the State Central Committee shall consist of one delegate from each legislative district.

By general consent all the delegates who had been soldiers in the war stood up and were counted. One hundred and forty-eight responded, and three cheers and a tiger were given "for the old flag."

On motion, all clergyman delegates were requested to stand up and be counted. The count was made while the Convention sang "Praise God from whom all blessings flow."

An excited delegate said that it had been charged that the Prohibition party was a rich man's party. But it was a poor man's party, he said and now let's take a count of the mechanics.

At the re-assembling of the convention the Chairman announced that the nominations of candidates was in order.

Chas. S. Wolf was then nominated for governor by acclamation amid the wildest applause. A banner bearing the portrait of the candidate was brought to the front of the stage and was greeted with cheers.

A. A. Barker, of Cambria, was nominated for Lieutenant Governor by acclamation.

HEAVY PURCHASE OF COAL LAND. C. F. Berwind and E. J. Berwind, of Philadelphia, purchased of Mary O. White and others, a large tract of coal land in Westmoreland, Clearfield and Jefferson counties.

Andrew Sutton and W. A. Diehl, aged 28 and 25 years respectively, were killed on the Pennsylvania railroad last Saturday night near Lilly's station.

Gen. Beaver in all his travels through the wilds of California never met a wolf when he gets back he will find a mighty big one quite close at home.

The Adams express company's office in Philadelphia was robbed of $29,000 the other day. The money was in a package and given to one of the clerks to put in the safe for Shamokin.

This is a big robbery, but still the express company is guilty of a bigger one—it robs the public of hundreds of thousands of dollars every year in excessive charges for carrying packages.

SUNDAY SCHOOL PICNIC.

On Saturday last, the writer took the 6:50 train at Centre Hall in response to an invitation to attend a picnic near Coburn. The Liberty Union Sunday School invited the Georges Valley school to join them and the Coburn school in spending the day thus pleasantly.

The picnic was a very bright one though very warm. The speakers invited and present were Revs. Deitzler, Yearick and Fischer. The music furnished for the occasion was by the brass band of Millheim and the different schools.

At the re-assembling of the convention the Chairman announced that the nominations of candidates was in order. Chas. S. Wolf was then nominated for governor by acclamation amid the wildest applause.
