Democrats, turn out.

Fellows who won't stick to a nomination fairly made and of good men, after a pledge to do so, are not honest and for that reason the persons not to give a nomination to. They don't stick to a promise and are doing what they would ask others not to do if themselves were on the ticket. Every man on the Democratic ticket was nominated by the utmost fairness and no honest Democrat can find reason to kick. If such a good ticket could not be elected how long would it be until the Democratic party of this county would be blotted out? But there is an abundance of the Jacksonian timber left in the Democratic ranks in spite of a half dozen who would like to betray their party and are known to be in secret coalition with the Republicans just now and have been in cahoot with them heretofore. They are few and their work is known and only goes to show the truthfulness of the Reporter's warnings in the past and what it has been a faithful sentinel upon the watchtower for which the treacherous would like to tear it down.

Now is the time Democrats to be true to the party and its most excellent nominees and to show that no little knot of malcontents can lead you over to the enemy.

The farmer element never was so largely represented on any ticket as on the present Democratic ticket. Black, Woodward, Rhone, Shaffer, &c.

There is not a single one of the stories and malicious falsehoods which a few disappointed ones have raised against Lew Shaffer, out of sheer spite, that can be proven. So utterly confident are we that they are lies out of whole cloth that we challenge to the proof and will refuse to support him if he can be proven guilty. The Reporter means business.

Lew Shaffer is a Christian gentleman; a man of the purest character; he obtained his nomination by a large support at the delegate elections where the people were, followed up by an overwhelming support in county convention where the people's delegates were.

For any Democrat not to support such a nominee would be political sacrilege and spite based upon the lowest motives. Take up our challenge or quit your lying.

Hall and Betts have done more for the real benefit of workingmen than any two men whom the rads can pick up.

Hon. J. K. P. Hall is a tower of strength in Elk county, where he will get an almost unanimous vote. This is evidence that he is a good man. He has done much for the laboring classes, always making use of his wealth to give them employment. It is the laboring element especially, in Elk county, that is wildly in favor of Hall for Congress, because he has always befriended them.

Democrats don't allow yourselves to be duped by silly lies against any of our nominees.

Read L. W. Schaeffer's straightforward denial of the lies a few cowards raised against him, and which we denounced as base slanders heretofore. It is all spite work a well-known characteristic of the authors of these lies and who think they are bigger than the Democratic party and need not submit to honest nominations like other good Democrats.

The county debt is now entirely paid—the last installment was paid a week ago. That's Democratic management such as we can be proud of. Now vote the entire ticket in November, and you vote for honest men. Democrats don't go back on your party—don't go back on one of the best tickets ever nominated in this county—don't be a sneak to please any Republicans or disgruntled Democrat. Don't be a CLAM.

J. C. Meyer, for district attorney, and J. H. Reifsnnyder, for county surveyor, are both young active Democrats, and qualified for the places. Give them a full vote. Both are gentlemen of pure character.

In answer to the scurrilous article which appeared in last week's issue of the Keystone Gazette, a Republican organ of this county, charging me with corruption and the use of dishonest methods in securing my nomination to the office of Prothonotary, I desire to return my absolute and unqualified denial:

I spent no money in my canvass for the nomination, except what was necessary and lawful for printing and traveling expenses. The assertion that I admitted to a gentleman at Centre Hall, that I had expended $1,200 to secure my nomination, and urged that as a reason why I should be elected, I pronounce absolutely false in fact, and challenge proof to the contrary.

I also brand as a lie the charge that votes were bought on the streets of Bellefonte, or elsewhere, by me or by any one with my knowledge or consent, and I challenge any and all persons to prove it.

I deny the truth of the charge that any hotel was chartered by me or by any one acting under my authority, or with my knowledge or consent, or that any beer or whiskey, or other liquor, was bought myself or by any one acting under my authority, knowledge or consent, to be used for the purpose of influencing voters, and defy proof of it.

I denounce the implied charge of buying up election boards, as utterly false in fact and a malicious libel.

Were any of the preferred charges true, I would not only be a violator of the law, and subject to prosecution and punishment, but might be prevented from qualifying for the office, or after having qualified, be ousted by process of law.

In my effort to secure my nomination I did nothing unlawful, and nothing from which I have cause for fear, nor of which I am ashamed.

I am a candidate for the office of Prothonotary, because I was fairly and honestly nominated, and because I feel able to discharge its duties in a satisfactory manner. I therefore ask you, voters of Centre co., for your support, and should I be elected, I shall be grateful and will discharge the duties of the office with fidelity.

Very Respectfully,
L. A. SCHAEFFER.

In Union county, Mr. Smith, the Democratic nominee for Assembly has withdrawn. The contest lies between Glover, Republican, and Wolf, Independent and Prohibition.

OUR CONGRESSIONAL NOMINEE.

The Clinton Democrat thus strongly endorses Hall's nomination: The Congressional question having been decided, so far as a nomination can dispose of it, the Democrats should now go to work to elect Mr. Hall. The Republicans will leave no stone unturned to defeat him, and they will do their best to introduce dissension into the ranks of the Democracy. But the path of duty is clear and straight. It turns neither to the right nor to the left, but at the end of it is victory. Democrats, roll up your sleeves and put forth your best efforts. Pay no attention to Republican slanders or misrepresentations. There will be plenty of them, but we warn you in advance, to give them no heed.

The boldest lie of all lies this dry weather, is the lie that L. A. Shaffer spent $1200 to make his nomination. Mr. Shaffer will give $50 to any one who can prove that he spent 12 cents to make votes corruptly. The liars know its a lie, when they utter it.

A Harrisburg correspondent to the New York Sun gives the following exposition of a rather small piece of business: "General Beaver is the head of a firm that owns and operates an iron ore mine at Millerstown, Perry co. The men employed at the mines are getting less than sixty cents a day, and are compelled to stand a shave of ten per cent, on their wages. The pay is on the 15th of every month, but the wages are so meagre that the men cannot get along from one pay day to another. On each Saturday, therefore the men are compelled to ask for an advance, and the manager, who is one of the firm, charges the discount on the money they have earned. Labor organizations throughout the State are using these facts against Beaver with wonderful effect."

Democrats don't scratch on the legislative ticket—give Woodward and Rhone a full vote. Don't scratch and don't trade.

L. W. Shaffer speaks German and English and therefore is just the man to suit the farmers of Penn, Brush and Nittany valleys in the Prothonotary's office, besides his other eminent qualifications and pure character. All the stories put out by a few disappointed fellows against Mr. Shaffer are the baldest lies and not even the shadow of truth to go on. All willful lies and very babyish.

The big Democratic meeting in the court-house knocked the talk out of the Republicans and they 'gin to feel there's something wrong.

THE FARMERS AND THE CANDIDATE.

Aside from the fact that agriculturists outnumber those of any other single industry, profession or employment, they have a concern in the pending political contest in this state that is more direct and important than any other. The leading issue in the contest is that of enforcing the neglected provisions of the Constitution. Upon the success of that issue depends the future prosperity of farmers in this State. There is no to conceal or evade that fact. The corporation encroachments are in most cases directed against the agricultural interests and freight discriminations always strikes them the most severely. The candidates for Gov. of the two leading parties are proper representatives of the party on this subject. Chauncey F. Black, trained in the political school that teaches individual liberty and independence, has always been the friend and able advocate of the interests of the agricultural classes. His party in the convention that nominated him declared for an enforcement of the Constitution, General Beaver the Republican candidate, is utterly without convictions or ideas on the subject, and his party has remained silent so that its managers may make merchandise of Beaver's official actions in the event of his election, in the corporation markets.

Ex-Senator Peale has issued a card to "his constituents," asking them to support candidate J. K. P. Hall for Congress earnestly, to a man.

ANOTHER LIE.

One or two fellows have put out a new lie to hurt L. W. Shaffer, and a very silly one at that, and lest they dupe any one weak enough to believe it, we will contradict it here. The lie is that he had Republicans to vote for him in Spring township, at the primaries. Knowing this to be a deliberate lie we still made inquiry of the Chairman of that district, and he says there is not a word of truth in it, and that Mr. Shaffer's vote was as honest as any ever polled in Spring twp.

Last week's Gazette was loaded with the simplest kind of political balderdash, which would even provoke a smile from a Republican reader. What's the use in putting out such nonsensical stuff? Make better use of your columns, neighbor, and put out decent Republican talk.

J. K. P. HALL.

Mr. Hall is a citizen of Elk county, born in 1844, and named after President James Knox Polk, the patriot President of whose name and memory the Democracy are proud. He is a brother of that sterling and able Democrat, Senator John G. Hall, and is the son of Benjamin D. Hall, who was a brother of the famous Democratic sheriff of Centre county, T. M. Hall. He is a slightly built, pleasant gentleman, courteous and agreeable in conversation, and a man of acknowledged ability. He is a lawyer by profession and has great business interests in coal, lumber, tanneries, etc. which make him to a great extent a man of the people. Two years ago, after having received the nomination of four of the counties in the district for the same position he now holds, and after having stood for a short time as a candidate, Mr. Hall withdrew in favor of ex-Gov. Curtin, which action made the way smooth for that distinguished gentleman and secured his election beyond doubt.

We think the Democracy of this district will find Mr. Hall a pretty nice sort of a fellow, and as they become acquainted with him will realize the fact that he sizes up well, and is abundantly able to represent us in Congress with credit and distinction. He is an excellent speaker, and will of course make the acquaintance of the voters upon the stump and personally.

Men who will stoop to honest nomination schemes and falsehoods to gain a nomination will do the same to injure the candidate who fairly gets his nomination in spite of falsehoods, trade and tricks. Democrats stand by your time-honored party.

W. W. BETTS.

W. W. Betts, the Democratic nominee for Senator, is one of the best citizens of Clearfield county. He is a lumberman well-known to business men all over the district, and a gentleman of spotless character and strict business integrity. He will get a large vote in Clearfield county, where he is immensely popular on account of his moral worth. He has been a friend of the laboring classes and to him they owe much for employment he has made for over a quarter of a century in the Clearfield section for hundreds of men. He has always dealt fairly and honestly with everybody. He is a gentleman of great intelligence and will make a safe representative in the Senate, to which he will be elected by one of the largest majorities ever given in this district.

THE COUNTRY STILL SAFE.

The Pittsburgh Post reminds the public that although this State has had Democratic administration for four years and although Cleveland has been in office for a year and a half, the public credit has not been impaired; the public debt has not been repudiated; the pensions of Union veterans have not been stopped; the rebel debt has not been assumed; pensions have not been given to rebel soldiers; the currency and the revenue have not fallen into disorder; the Treasury is not empty; the National Bank systems have not given place to wild cat State banks; the National authority has not been degraded and a great many other dreadful things have not taken place.

On the contrary the facts and figures have a decidedly cheerful look. The cash in the Treasury the last year has increased $63,416,000, and the secretary is trying to get rid of the excessive surplus by paying it out in $15,000,000 lots on the public debt. The debt has been reduced $90,000,000, and is being paid so fast that the National banks are beginning to ask what they shall do when there are no bonds to base their circulation upon. The net revenue of the Government has increased $12,759,000, and the net expenditures have diminished $17,700,000; and $7,302,000 more have been paid in Pensions to Union soldiers than paid in the last year of the Republican administration. In one word the Government is more strictly and economically administered under President Cleveland and his Democratic Cabinet than it was under any of the Republican predecessors; and not one of the calamities which formed the background of the speeches of Republican leaders in 1884 has come about.

Democratic officials have brought our county out of debt. What Democrat will allow himself to be fooled to vote against one of the best tickets ever nominated? Don't follow the advice of bad men and desert your organization just at the moment when it is doing good.

The inevitable greenback Rynder has announced himself as an independent candidate for congress. Why not strike higher when at it, and run as an independent candidate for President? The effort and result would be all the same.

All farmers should vote for Chauncey F. Black, for he is and always has been their sincere friend and advocate. Like his noble father, his sympathies have always been with the honest tillers of the ground. If he is elected Governor the farmers can rest assured that they will always have a sincere friend at court.

Congressman Atkinson, of Millintown, and his law partner, George F. Jacobs, are the opposing Republican and Democratic nominees for Congress in the Juniata, Union, Perry, Fulton, Huntingdon and Franklin district. Let the election result as it may, the firm will have the Congressional honors in the shop, and that's worth something these 'days to an enterprising law office.

How anxious the rads are to have Democrats kick, so they get the benefit of it, and elect some of their men. Democrats won't be fools. The kicking they will do in November next will be to send the Republican ticket up Salt river higher than ever, and wall up a grand old Jacksonian majority for Black, and the entire Democratic ticket.

PATTON NOMINATED.

The Republican congressional conference met at Bellefonte on Wednesday, and nominated Gen. Patton, of Curwinstown, for congress, by acclamation, after the withdrawal of Coburn and other candidates. Just wait and see the Democrats Hall Mr. Patton in.

FOUR MEN KILLED.

Hazleton, October 10.—A courier from Black Mountain, ten miles from here has just arrived in town and says that last night four Hungarians were murdered on the highway by a crowd of drunken countrymen. Their heads and faces were badly cut from stones and bludgeons. The people of that neighborhood are greatly alarmed because they fear that the Hungarians will become so enraged over the dastardly work perpetrated that a riot may ensue.

FIRE AT PUNXSUTAWNEY.

Pittsburg, October 9.—Punxsutawney, a mining town of importance in Jefferson county, was visited by a disastrous conflagration this morning. The fire started in the St. Elmo hotel about two o'clock this morning and spread so rapidly to the surrounding property that by daylight thirty-five buildings in the business part of the town were in ashes. Among the buildings destroyed were the St. Elmo Hotel block, Washington House, First National Bank, Washington's establishment, Campbell's grocery and Knorr & Co.'s hardware store. The loss will reach about $165,000, on which there is an insurance of about $100,000. The origin of the fire is unknown.

THE CONDEMNED ANARCHISTS

Still Talking to the Court About Their Conviction.

CHICAGO, Oct. 9.—Samuel Fielden, addressing the court, said revolution was a crime if the revolutionists happened to be poor. He declared that he had been arrested and indicted for murder, but had been tried for anarchy. The foulest criminal, he said, would never have been convicted on such testimony as had been brought here if he had not been a dangerous man in the opinion of the privileged classes. He and his fellow defendants, he claimed, were convicted, not because they had committed murder, but because they were very energetic in the advocacy of the rights of labor. If he was to be taken for advocating the principles of Socialism and Anarchy, as he understood them, and honestly believed them, he freely gave himself up. The price was very small for a result so great. He trusted the time would come when there would be a better understanding and more intelligence.

Fielden's speech was much more temperate than any of the others that preceded it, and impressed the audience favorably. It was the general comment that had Fielden made this speech before the jury instead of letting his lawyers talk for him it might have influenced their verdict in his favor.

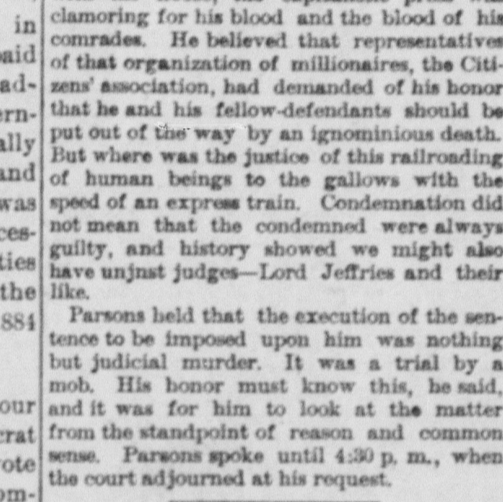

It was 3:30 o'clock when Fielden finished speaking. Parsons, armed with a huge bundle of manuscript, rose and said that it would be impossible for him to conclude he wanted the court to adjourn until this morning. Judge Gary, however, concluded that Parsons might go on.

He said: This trial had been immersed in passion, and even now, standing in the shadow of the gallows, the hangman waiting with his noose, the capitalistic press was clamoring for his blood and the blood of his comrades. He believed that representatives of that organization of millionaires, the Citizens' association, had demanded of his honor that he and his fellow-defendants should be put out of the way by an ignominious death. But where was the justice of this railroading of human beings to the gallows with the speed of an express train. Condemnation did not mean that the condemned were always guilty, and history showed we might also have unjust judges—Lord Jeffries and their like.

Parsons held that the execution of the sentence to be imposed upon him was nothing but judicial murder. It was a trial by a mob. His honor must know this, he said, and it was for him to look at the matter from the standpoint of reason and common sense. Parsons spoke until 4:30 p. m., when the court adjourned at his request.

The New Governor of Georgia.

ATLANTA, Oct. 7.—The state election passed off quietly. Gen. John B. Gordon was elected governor without opposition.

JOHN B. GORDON.

Where the issue was joined, notably in Atlanta, the wet ticket was victorious. Henceforth the Prohibitionists will have to renew their fight with increased energy to carry a dry ticket through. There will be one Republican in the senate and four in the house.

Crushed Under a Roof.

CHICAGO, Oct. 11.—Last evening the iron roof of the North Chicago Rolling mill, at South Chicago, about twelve miles from this city, caved in from some cause unknown. For several years it has been the practice to clean off all the refuse iron on Sunday which accumulates on the roof from the blast pipe during the week. The five men who were on the roof to-day when it caved in were uninjured. About fifteen men were working in the mill at the time of the accident, and Edward Dibbin, an Englishman, aged 35 and married, was instantly killed. All the rest were more or less injured, some of them probably fatally. Fortunately the accident occurred on Sunday, or 100 men would have been killed.

Prohibitionists and Henry George.

NEW YORK, Oct. 11.—The Prohibitionist candidate for mayor, Mr. William T. Wardwell, was conspicuous on the platform in Chickerling hall last night at a largely attended meeting called by the American Temperance union. All the speakers urged their hearers to vote for Wardwell. "Brother" Gibbs said, however, that if any voter could not cast his vote for Wardwell, Henry George was the next best man. The applause at the mention of the labor candidate's name was fully as marked as that accorded to the Prohibition leader.

Slaughter of Bills in Congress.

CHICAGO, Oct. 9.—A Washington special to The News says: "Congressman Lawler is preparing a bill to be introduced at the next congress to prevent congressmen from introducing more than one bill each in any single term. Mr. Lawler thinks that in this way only measure of importance will be brought to the attention of congress, and that better results will be had than under the present system, under which as many as 2,500 bills are introduced at one session, only a small fraction of which become laws."

Ohio Men Will Pay the Tax.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 8.—News comes that the New York oleomargarine men began to balk before they got out of the woods, thinking congress hadn't appropriated any money to collect the oleo tax. But it turned out on inquiry that $15,000 had been appropriated for that purpose, which, although not enough to collect the whole tax, was yet enough to induce a good many oleo men to step up to the captain's office and pay.

The American Wheelmen.

BIDDEFORD, Me., Oct. 7.—The Maine division of the League of American Wheelmen held its fall meeting last night. A run was made from Old Orchard in the afternoon, followed by a business session and a banquet at the Biddeford house.
