Important!

We have one line of invisible check in Dress Goods entirely new, that are admired by every body, in fact our whole stock is spoken of in the highest terms. IN PRICES WE DEFY ANY ONE TO BEAT US! We don't buy goods JUST BECAUSE IT IS CHEAP, but IT MUST HAVE STYLE and GOOD QUALITIES COMBINED, or we pass it.

LOCAL ITEMS.

Painters are at work on Rishel's house. The prohibition meeting last Friday evening was well attended. Miss Arnold, of Centre Hill, was a caller at the Reporter office. Centre Hall has prospect for a little boom next summer. We are bound to grow right along.

A party of four or five Centre Hall marksmen went to Sugarvalley on Monday last for a deer hunt. The frame work for the reservoir is about completed and will be put in place and finished in a few days. Pheasants are reported plentier this year than for some. Sober, the crack wing shot, of Coburn, got a bunch of twelve in one day.

Mr. Chas. Hewes, of Bellefonte, was in the valley several days of last week. Charley is a Republican, and we suppose he was trying to do mischief.

We print in this issue the closing chapter to the campaign, copied from the Patriot. As the points in it have their origin at Bellefonte, we ask all to read it.

Grandfather Henry Noll, of near Pleasant Gap, died suddenly on Saturday two weeks ago, while seated in his chair. His age was 81 years, 5 months and 23 days. He was a veteran Democrat.

Mr. Hefy, miller in the roller mill, was caught by a shaft a few days ago and had the entire shirt torn from him. Fortunately he was quick enough to brace himself, which saved his life.

Some have an impression that Sheriff Walker was not straight as regards the ticket. This is an error which we desire to correct by stating that he was for the entire ticket from the start and openly so.

Woll's new house, on Church st., is different in style from any other in town. These variations in style of buildings are what make a town pretty, and the monotony of sameness in houses can be broken with very little, if any, additional cost.

Now, since the election is over, orders are going in thick and fast to the Prindl. Branch for new suits for the Salt river delegation. Times are hard up there and the tourists want to save all the money they can, hence they have Lewins take their measure. Very sensible, indeed.

An exchange in an adjoining county is informed that there are 100 cases of typhoid fever in Pennsylvania. This is misinformation. We do not think the number exceeded 25, and there are not now over 5 or 10 cases. The Spring Mills and Georges valley localities were the most afflicted but are now comparatively free. Marshy grounds in the one and impure well and cistern water are supposed to have been some of the causes of fevers there, a condition attributable to the dry and changeable state of the weather from hot to cold. At no time was there sickness to such an extent in the valley as to cause outsiders to feel alarmed to come into our usually healthy valley.

Kennedy, jeweler, moves back to the old Witmer homestead just vacated by Isaac Smith. Will Curry goes where Kennedy leaves, in the Miller building, upper end of Church at B. F. Arney goes to the Fauver property recently purchased by him and thus get close enough to our bore to throw stones over the line.

The Centre Hall Lutheran Sabbath school contemplates having a fine literary entertainment in the church on Christmas eve. Vocal and instrumental music will be one of the pleasing features of the program. The exercises throughout will be of a high order, and of a character commensurate with the events for which Christmas is celebrated.

Get your boots and shoes of Powers, he knows just what suits the community and keeps the article that you want, price and quality of goods to please. What Ed. Powers does not keep in the line of boots and shoes, certainly can not be worth having. It is the same old place for honest dealing and honest goods which it always was.

Our next door neighbor Mr. Isaac Smith, son-in-law of Henry Witmer, has moved back to Williamsport, after residing here since spring. We are sorry to lose him, he was a good neighbor and citizen. He will be engaged in one of the large dry goods houses of Williamsport in which branch of business Mr. S. is an expert.

What about a walk from Kerlin's to the station? The time of year is approaching when the mud along there will be so annoying to footmen that it will be extremely trying to their religion.

Any one having found a pair of gold spectacles, lost between the Redmill and Centre Hill, will confer a favor by returning same to owner, Miss S. Arnold.

The Lock Haven express learns that there is probability of the shops of the Beech Creek railroad being located there.

John A. Erb, of Philipsburg, this county, is on trial in the United States District Court on a charge of appropriating pension money. Erb's grandmother, a very old lady, came into possession of $1,200 pension money two years ago, on account of services rendered by her husband during the war. She gave the money to Erb to put in the bank in his own name, which he did. It is now alleged that he drew the money out at various times in small sums and spent it in having a good time.

Mr. Gettig and his son, of near Tusseyville, met with an accident at the lower end of town. The spindles of the buggy broke, which caused the horse to run wrecking the buggy, the occupants escaping with slight scratches.

Mr. Robert Stewart died at the residence of his son-in-law, Joseph McCullough, near Ramey, Clearfield county, on Monday evening last, aged 109 years and 7 months. Mr. Stewart was the oldest citizen of the State.

We believe Editor Dana's celebrated cat of the New York Sun has been sneaking around this neck of woods—the cat evidently devoured the MSS.

HOW A WESTERN RANCHMAN SECURED A WIFE. Huntingdon, Pa., October 25.—The denouncement of a very singular and romantic courtship transpired here last night. Several months ago, David Mitchell of Petersburg, met an old school mate named A. J. Killman, residing at Forsythe, Montana, who is one of the richest cattle owners in the Territory.

On his return east Mr. Mitchell was requested by Killman to look up a certain young lady for him with the view of matrimony. In compliance with Killman's wish, he selected an accomplished young lady of this city named Jennie Heffner, who in a spirit of fun entered into a correspondence with Killman which terminated in an engagement; but the girl's parents hearing how matters were progressing, suddenly put a stop to any further intercourse between the couple.

Miss Maggie Rhodes, an intimate friend of Miss Heffner, thereupon took up the correspondence where it had been left off by Miss Heffner and after a brief interchange of letters in which their photographs were exchanged, Killman proposed to Miss Rhodes and was accepted. The affair was kept very quiet, and not until noon today was the cause of the marriage known to her friends. She left last night on the 6 o'clock train, and was well supplied with money sent by her unknown western lover. Efforts are being made by her friends to intercept her.

Beside owning a large stock ranch, Mr. Killman has several fine farms and a large hotel at Forsythe.

A FEARFUL DEATH. On Saturday last Mr. William Morgan, who lives on Mrs. Lytle's farm near Henrietta, drove into Martinsburg with a horse and buggy to attend to some business. He left for home in the evening. Mr. J. S. Kenay accompanying him a short distance. The next morning the body of Mr. Morgan was found in the road near the farm of Daniel Schaefer, terribly bruised and mutilated, showing that he had fallen from his seat and been dragged a considerable distance. He was dead when found, and was probably dead when he became extricated from the buggy, as he had probably been dragged over a mile. The horse returned home with the buggy, but was not found until Sunday morning. Mr. Morgan was about 75 years old—Huntingdon Monitor.

Rev. Wm. C. McCool, of Spring Mills, has received and accepted a call from the Board of the Homer, Neb., Academy, as its principal, and has already entered upon his duties with the most encouraging prospects. The institution belongs to the Lutheran Synod of Nebraska, and has every prospect of becoming a college. The people of Homer will find Bro. McCool well qualified to fill the position of principal of said academy, as he has been a successful educator in this state.

The Spring Mills creamery began operations on Thursday last. Everything appeared to be in good working order and the engine gave the cream a lively shaking up and when the tins were over the result was 65 pounds of gilded butter. The parties interested in the enterprise are satisfied with the workings of the concern thus far, and trust their investment will prove a paying one. Let it have proper encouragement from the community and with Wm. Allison as manager, its success is assured. The cream will be collected from farmers, by wagons, as far east as Haines township and west to Harris,
