NEWS OF THE WEEK

-Daniel Ellis, a hotel keeper at Ringtown, Penna., on the 26th shot and dangerously wounded his wife. Both are reticent, he denying the shooting and his wife refusing to say had been drinking for several days. Frankfort, Indiana. On the 25th, while the boys were standing together in a store, the girl passed and Hoard threw a kiss to her. This so enraged Paxton that he struck his rival on the head with a stick, fracturing his skull, and then stamped on his face. "Paxton seemed to have become mad, and foamed at the mouth. Before he could be secured he rushed to the woods, waving his hands and shrieking. The young lady remains by the bedside of her dying lover." Cheese Hensley, a wealthy stock man of Fort Worth, was shot and mortally wounded by a bar-keeper, named Kauffman, in Dallas, Texas, on the 25th. Kauffman fired in self-defence. Near Akron, Ohio, on the 25th, two "plausible looking strangers" called at the home of Baynhardt Stillwell, aged 60, a wealthy farmer. Under pretense of wanting to look at part of his farm, they got him put into the woods, and there, with revolvers, forced him to give up $1,000, which he had a short time before drawn from the bank to make a purchase. He some could give only an incoherent account of the affair.

-It is reported from Puerto Cortey, Honduras, that, on the 10th inst., Gensral E. Delagdo, Lieutenant Colonel Juda Indalicio Garcia, Commander Mi- an elevator in J. F. Nickerson's groguel Cortez and Lieutenant Gabriel cery store, in Boston. Loyono were taken from the prison at Comayagua and shot, in accordance with the sentence pronounced by the nilitary court martial, Delgado and is comrades were leaders in the recent ilibustering expedition that descended in the coasts of Honduras in the interest of ex-President Soto.

-On the 27th the body of a well lressed man was found in an old mill sond near New Rochelle, New York. The Coroner found in his pockets apers which established his identity as feremiah Weaver, aged 47 years, of Pottsville, Penna. There is no knowldge as to how he came to get in the wnd.

-Two freight trains on the Louisfille, New Albany and Chicago railwad collided near Cedar Lake, Indima on the 27th. An engine and sevral cars were thrown down an embanknent and wrecked, and several cars of al and merchandise were burned. It was rumored that two train hands vere killed. Two freight trains on the Pennsylvania railroad collided on the 7th at! Thorndale, Lancaster county. Three cars were smashed and seven sthers and one engine derailed. The rack for some distance was torn up.

-Dominico Milchiondo, charged with a murder in Chester, Penna., was in the 27th surrendered to a Pennsyl in Boston had been kept prisoner by strangers ern Abattoir at Montreal, on the 28th, and was turned loose on the 28th. He had less than $100 m his possession.

-A limited express train on the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railroad ran into an open switch at East Rio, thirteen miles east of Portage. Wisconwhether it was accidental or not. He sin, shortly before one o'clock on the morning of the 28th. The engine, Two school boys, named Alexander Hoard and John Paxton, "loved" a school girl named Inez Hollis, in New fire from the stoves. Four sleepers on October 22d and broke his neck, baggage car and two coaches left the from Baraboo, Wisconsin, says that track, were badly smashed, and caught John A. Hamilton, who fell from a car remained on the rails, and three of from which resulted a complete paralthese, with the rest of the train, were ysis of the body from the neck downconsumed by fire. In one of the coaches thirteen passengers were burned to A post-mortem examination was made death. All those in the sleepers got out on the 29th ult. by physicians, which uninjured except for slight bruises, but showed that the spinal cord had been many of those who escaped from the coaches were severely injured.

-Two men were killed and severa others dangerously injured by the caving in of an ore bank at Dillsburgh, York county. Penna., on the 28th.

-William M. Dustin, banker, of Lincoln, Illinois, failed on the 28th for 000, and a tramp was dangerously $188,000, of which $78,000 is due de- injured. At Forest Green, Missouri, $188,000, of which $78,000 is due depositors. The assets, according to the on the 28th ult., a colored woman sworn statement of Dustin, made in a locked her three children and two law suit last winter, reached $67,000. others in her house and went to church. These assets are entailed by an Injunction levied in the interest of the bank- four children were burned to death. er's wife, who has a suit for alimony pending in the courts. Shipley, Dorsey & Co., wholesale dry goods dealers of Cincinnati, have been compelled to ask Pennsylvania, was found dead in bed an extention from their creditors, on the 30th ult, He had either blown Their assets are believed to be over out the gas or not turned it off properly. was roughly handled, and when he got $$00,000, and members of the firm say Joseph B. Anthony, aged 44 years, a that "this sum is fully $100,000 above their liabilities."

-Henry Currier, Simon Norris and Joshua W. Knowles were probably fa-

-While men were unloading heavy iron bars at Cofrode & Saylor's bridge volving flywheel and was hurled among | Charleston "a spring of clear, pure the workmen. William Betz, aged 50 | water appeared in the Custom House years, foreman of one of the depart- yard, and is still running at the rate of ments, was killed, and John Doncolton, a gallon a minute. The water is said another employe, was dangerously in- to have been hot when the flow jured.

-The mixing mill of the Miami Powder Works, near Xenia, Ohio, blew up on the evening of the 22d. One man-Armel Miller-was killed. -The wheel and chair shops in the Ohio Penitentiary at Columbus were burned early on the morning of the 21st. Loss $40,000, of which about half falls upon the State. A fire at Grand Ledge, Michigan, on the morning of the 21st, destroyed a curtain roller factory, saw mill, planing mill, chair factory and other buildings. Loss, $30,000. Forty men are thrown out of work. Sutton's saw mill and lumber yard at Aurora, Ohio, were burned on the 21st. Loss, $20,000. -It is estimated at the Treasury Department that the ultimate issue of the new one and two dollar certificates may aggregate $50,000,000, and of the five dollar silver certificates $60,000,000.

-John S. Kerr and W. P. Kerr, with blood and too weak to fight any than outraged morals. But on Milly's difference, and it was generally under- "Happy? I should think so when ers, quar Wyoming, on the 21st. W. P. shot John in the leg, and John returned the fire, causing a mortal wound. W. P. Kerr had betrayed his brother's wife, The wives of two Bohemian farmers, who lived nine miles from Cedar Rapids, Iowa, were murdered on the 21st, by a Bohemian, who cut open destroyed the hog slaughtering house with 400 dressed hogs and 500 barrels of refined lard. Loss $27,000, An adjoining lamp factory was damaged to the extent of $10,000.

--- Two tramps were run over and killed by a train near Little York, Ontario, on the 30th ult. A telegram ward, died at his home on the 28th ult. broken and entirely disconnected. How the man lived a week in such condition is a mystery. Two freight trains on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad collided at Blackhand, Ohio, on the 29th ult. Two engines and twentyseven cars, with their contents, were destroyed, causing a loss of about $100,-The house took fire from a lamp, and The fifth is dangerously burned. William Irwin, of Rowlandsville, Maryland, visiting his nephew in Lancaster, prominent citizen of Fall River, Massaharbor on the 29th ult.

-There were slight earthquake ult. at Charleston and Columbia, South Carolina, the time of the shake being about 20 minutes past 2 o'clock: There were two slight shocks at Sumbegan."

-News was received in New Zealand on September 31, that some native villages were destroyed by a volcanic eruption on the island of Niafu, in the Tonga group of the Friendly Islands. The whole island has been devastated by volcanic deposits. White Island, in the Bay of Plenty, is in a state of active eruption, a vast column of smoke ascending from the island to the height of 1000 feet.

-The wife of George Donaldson drowned herself and two children in the Potomac river. two miles from Georgetown, on the 30th ult. It is supposed she was insane. In Jersey City on the Wayside Flowers.

The cultured flowers in gardens bloom And scatter wide their rich perfume For the merry, careless soul; The rose, the lily, mignonette, Geranium, the purple violet, And the ruddy marigold.

But many a little wayside flower Has had a sweet persuasive power To cheer a pensive mind; The asphodel, the golden-rod, The daisy blooming in the sod And nothing in the wind.

Beside the path of life are strown me flowers we have never known Or heeded as we passed;

They shed their fragrance, fold their leaves As though some inward spirit grieves Snch sweetness cannot last.

THE WAYSIDE FLOWER.

They were walking down "Love her to skate, and row. It was he who Lane" in a gay, chatting procession- brought her the first maple sugar, the girls with laurel-wreathed hats, young first arbutus, he who took her on sleigh- heal. men bearing shawls and baskets, a ma- rides and walked home with her from tron or two: last of all Stephen Fulton, church and the village tea parties. a child on either side of him, and in his Milly received these services not un-Wherever Stephen went children folmagnate. Grown people could not un- but sun and air being never withdrawn, her girlish bloom. chusetts, was drowned at 'Westport derstand this attraction, but the little are rarely noticed or alluded to. "Dear, her voice cooed words of drowsy endear- as only "dear, good old Stephen." ment which made Stephen smile, gloomy as he felt that day. Each cheerful re- stand by and see a stranger appropriate same, and tried to keep his eyes from labors. Day by day all that summer tender and sweet all at once.

Many glances were sent back at this ings, his noons were all spent with the picking up." had done all day.

But, after all, what could Milly, Then he tried staying away, but that in return?" what could any girl, do when an all- was worst of all, for his love did not "Oh, Stephen, I do!" and the fair litboys fought until they were covered spoke was due rather to amour propre poutings and protestings made little look."

protest which she uttured, get it?" Somebody had switched it off its stem time and trouble spent in her service.

and left it to die, so we picked it up." shame to treat flowers so," put in a little boy.

flower. "That was just like you, Step- struggled for composure. hen," she said, very softly, and Stephen brightened for the first time that day.

It seemed to Stephen, looking back, always at her services. Stephen taught as he."

ones never mistook it. Sleepy as she good, old Stephen," she called him.

And now Stephen was doomed to told her so.

air of relief, disregarding the drowsy let's side not quite a year ago. She was patient always, and uncomplaining, "What a lovely rose Stephen!" said but she did not often smile. Perhaps some of the girls. "Where did you Stephen won those infrequent smiles oftener than anyone else, and he count-"In the road," replied Stephen. ed them as precious payment for all

Only once did he see her shed tears. "Yes, and Mr. Felton said it was a This was when hoping to give her pleasure, he brought in the first wild roses of the season, and held them before

The captain listened impassively, but her. Suddenly a spasm passed over her Milly gave a half-pained glance at the face, she gave a gasp, turned aside, and

Stephen dropped the flowers as if they burned his fingers, and hurried out of the room. A. hot anger shot through that his love for Milly had begun when him. "He has ruined everything for he was a boy of five and she a baby in her," he thought. "Even a rose rethe cradle. He could not recollect the minds her of him, coward that he is. time when he did not prefer her to all They hang one for poisoning water other girls. At school he was her springs, why not hang him? though knight; his sled, his jack-knife, his help hanging is too good for such a villain

> Nature's processes of cure are secret;it is in their depths that wounds begin to

Gradually, as months went by, the renovating principle worked in Milly. She resumed her place at home, the litarms little Nannie Forsythe half asleep. gratefully, but as a matter of course. the duties and pleasures, and took up She had been used to them from her again the burden of life. She was pale, lowed, led by an attraction irresistible babyhood, and could almost as well dis- still, but the paleness infolded a sweet as that which draws iron filings to the pense with sun or air out of her life; serenity which was no less lovely than

"Milly Graves was really improved since her disappointment," certain sewas, Nannie's small hand kept patting Now, it is not well for a man to lavish vere old ladies asserted, and they were tally injured on the 28th, by the fall of shocks on the afternoon of the 31st his shoulder as they went along, and himself on a woman who thinks of him not far from right. Stephen adored her more than ever. Two years later he

To his surprise, she was neither asworks in Pottstown, Penna., on the merville, the second at 4.46 P. M. It ply to the children's questions cost an the object of his life-long devotion. He tonished nor shocked, but looked in his 28th, one of the bars caught in a re- is said that soon after the shock in effort; but he spoke cheerily all the had sown, and another was to reap his eyes with a smile which was sad and > wandering forward to where Capt. Hal- long the glamour grew and deepened. "Dear Stephen," she said, "this is let walked by the side of Milly Graves, Capt. Hallett's leave of absence seemed just like you. Do you recollect the day with his handsome head very near hers, of the most elastic description, permit- in Love Lane and the rose you picked and his voice murmuring low sentences ting him to stay the entire season at up out of the dust. You are doing the inaudible to the rest of the party. Baymouth. His mornings, his even- same thing now, but I am not worth > couple from those in advance, for Ned Milly. Stephen sickened at the inevita- "Milly," said Stephen, trembling with Hallet was the novelty of the moment, ble gold-banded cap that met his eyes eagerness, "there never was a day since a hero and a stranger, and the girls, whenever he entered the house, and I first saw you, and that was twentywho were only too well disposed to pull proved his rival in possession of the one years ago, when I didn't love you caps for him, thought it "quite too bad" field. Milly greeted Stephen kindly al- beyond any other living thing. Pick of Milly to absorb his attentions as she ways, but there was a sense of interrup- you up, indeed! You, my Rose of all tion; Stephen felt himself a third party. the world! Can you not love me a bit conquering captain taking up his posi- notice his absence beyond a careless. the fingers closed over his. "There's tion at her side in early morning, and "What ages it is since we saw you, nobody in the world like you. I always never leaves it until late in the after- Stephen." This state of affairs, of knew that. It's only-the others are 29th ult., William Dingwall and George noon? It is not in girl nature to re- course, set people to talking, but Milly so much fresher you know-fresher and Way, fourteen-year-old boys, living in sist such a tribute, and Stephanie De- was blushingly indignant. "It was brighter, and they might make you hapthe same house, quarrelled about a girl. Witt in front was partly justified in hard," she declared, "if a girl couldn't pier than I can. You are quite sure "Dingwall whipped out a knife and commenced slashing Way, who also icalling it "a desperate flirtation," al-h ve a pleasant friend without having by u really want me? Then I'll do my best "Why Stephen how have you pulled out a small pocket-knife. Both though I fear the pout with which she such things said." But her pretty best. "Why, Stephen, how happy you

Willer, a tobacco dealer of Stephensport, Kentucky, was found dead in bed n a hotel in Louisville, on the 27th. with a terrible wound over one of his yes. "He had been out seeing the own till an early hour, and, having noney, he fell into the hands of bad haracters, who got him into a game of ards and then knocked him on the sead. He got to his hotel and went to sed, and died during the night." Charless Mull, saloon keeper, has been srrested, charged with the crime.

-The fine four-story sandstone buildng of the Case School of Applied Sciences, in Cleveland, Ohio, was destroyed by fire early on the morning of he 27th. The loss is estimated at $200,000; insurance, $75,000. The rolling mill of the Old Colony Iron Works, at Taunton, Massachusetts, was burned on the 27th. Loss, $150,000. Incendiarism is suspected. An incendi-ary fire at Pocohontas, Virginia, on the 27th, destroyed sixteen buildings, including two hotels and several stores. Loss, $50,000. George Baker, of Lynchburg, perished, and several others are said to be missing.

-A gang of youths who had attended a political meeting boarded a passenger train at Tipton, Indiana, on the night of the 26th. Several of them were irunk, and the train had hardly left the station before they commenced fighting among themselves in the smoking car. "One man had an arm broken, two or hree were seriously, and probably atally, cut with knives, while there was no end to black eyes and bloody 108eg. >?

-The eddication of the colossa tatue of "Liberty Enlightening the World," on Bedloe's Island, New Fork, took place on the 28th amid og and drizzling rain. The grand nvic and military parade was reviewed rom a stand on Madison Square by President Cleveland, the members of is Cabinet and the French visitors. On Eedloe's Island tho programme was strictly carried out, so far as the music, speeches, and firing of salutes were conerned. There were no fireworks, these he weather.

-The house of William Poe, near Flat Lick, Kentucky, was burned on she night of the 26th, during Poe's absence, and his wife, eight children and freight train following it, at Cassett's two young women who were visiting them, perished in the flames,

-When F. J. F. Bradley was arrested in Chicago for embezzlement from the Pullman Palace Car company, an examination of the books revealed a 'shortage" of $75,000. Several amounts the largest being $25,000, were taken at different times and changes made in at different times and changes made in the entries. The investigation has re-sulted in the discharge of Chief Ac-countant David Wilson, as being cognizant of Bradley's crookedness.

-J. L. Barklow, Treasurer of Laurel township, Clermont county, Ohio, went to Cincinnati early in September with $4600 belonging to that corpora-tion, and suddenly disappeared. On the 28th he was found walking about the 29th. The payments will aggrestreets in a dazed condition. He had a depression in his skull, evidently caus-ed by a blow. He said he had been as-destroyed 17 stores, all wooden. The saulted on the river bank, after which loss is stated at $50,000, the insur-

their heads with an axe. -A cyclone passed over the southeastern portion of Cuba on the 21st. -Conductor Searle, of the train that was wrecked at Rio Station, Wisconsin, "remembers and can describe 17 persons, and knows that they were more in the coach, so that it is evident that the fatalities must have been at least twenty and probably more." Among the victims were Sister Alphonse and Dionysia, assistants of Mother Alexia, Superior of a Franciscan Convent at Winona, and a novice who accompanied them. It is also thought that Mrs. Peter B. Latz, of Stillwater, Minnesota, was among the killed. She left Reading, Penna., on the 26th for her home. Bishop Whipple and his wife, who were in the crushed train, escaped without injury beyond nervous shock. Other passengers who escaped, say that the Bishop 'was among the most active passengers" and did gallant service in trying train has been found wandering in the woods a raving maniac,

-News has been received in New Orleans from Guatemala, of an exposure in the city of Guatemala, on the 10th inst., of an attempt to poison the President by two brothers, druggists, in the city. "They prepared a poison and gave it to a servant of the President, with $2000 as a bribe to administer it. But the servant proved honest, and handed over to his master both the money and the poison. The druggists were both arrested and put to death."

-The amount stolen from the Adams Express car which was robbed in Missouri on the 25th, has been swelled by claims presented to $81,000. Frotheringnaving been postponed on account of ham, the' express messenger, is accompanied wherever he goes by a detective.

-A inixed freight and passenger train on the Vermont Central Railroad was on the 29th run into by an extra Station, and another freight train ran into the rear of the extra. The result was a general wreck, which blocked the tracks all day. No person was dangerously wounded.

-A widow named Gotham, family, and Miss Kedzle, a school teacher, were asphyxiated by gas from a coal stove, near Grosvenor, Michigan, on the night of the 27th. At last accounts all were in a precarious condition.

-John Greenhorn, 60 years of age, was killed on the 20th by a fall of roof in a mine near Barton, Maryland.

he remembered nothing, except that he j ance at only $3300. A fire in the East-in a critical condition.

-The receipts of the Government during the first four months of the present fiscal year were: $127,844,377, being $14,168,891 in excess of the receipts during the corresponding period of last year. The expenditures during the same period of 1886 were $82,254,-035, being $11,918,451 less than the expenditures during the same period of last year.

-William Moses, an engineer of the Bennett Slope, near Kingston, Penna., on the 30th ult,, accidently caused the shaft, supposing everything to be clear. ces, now cutting the air, now behead- Milly's expectations were not so de-When Moses learned what had happened he committed suicide by shooting himself in the head. The dead body of S. R. Gordon, with the throat cut, was found in Lincoln Park, Chicago, on the 30th ult. The sum of $250 was found in his pocket-book, and he had a silver watch with a gold chain. Letters in his pocket indicate that he was from Philadelphia.

-The amount stolen from the Adams Express car on the St. Louis and San Francisco railroad on the 25th ult. is now estimated at from $100,000 to $120,000. to save life until the flames drove him | The post-office at Mount Vernon, Ohio, away. The conductor of the freight | was robbed on the 29th ult., of about $2000 in money and stamps. Joseph Green, bookkeeper for a firm in Louisville, Kentucky, was knocked down with a slug shot and robbed of money, valuable and clothes in one of the streets of that city on the 29th ult. His injuries are fatal.

> -President Cleveland has issued a preclamation designating Thursday, November 25th, as a day of National Thanksgiving.

THE MARMETS PHILADELPHIA 0 88% 0 88% * refined..... ler....... enna and Ohio..... da..... -Pork, per bbl..... Beef Hams..... Provisio Fish-Mackerel, m do Codfish. Hay-Timothy. NAW YORK. 4 25 0 851 0 851 115 8 00 24 65 45 8 30 103 do  ----- longer. Dingwall had seven stab side it was not all flirtation. For all stood that the affair, if not an absolute I've got everything I ever wanted in wounds and Way five." Dingwall is her merry, saucy ways she was a sensi- engagement, amounted to "an under- my life." cried Stephen. tive credulous creature, just the woman standing," whatever that may mean.

to give "gold for dust," and stake her At last the long, lovely summer come all in that unequal barter so common to an end, as summers will. Scarlet in this world of misunderstood values. boughs flamed in the forests, golden-Her fair cheeks were flushed, and her rod burned along the brook-side, the blue eyes full of excitement, as they birds flew, and with them Capt. Hallet walked along, talking about-dear me, prepared for flight. His orders had what do people talk about when they come to report in Galveston, Texas, and are young and of different sexes? Capt. his leave-takings were hurried. The Hallett's fine eyes said more than his last moment was Milly's and though no tongue; his martial moustache seemed one knew the exact situation of affairs to give point and value to mere noth- it was taken for granted that another death of a miner in the slope by hoist- ings. He carried a lithe little cane year would bring orange blossoms and ing a cage from the bottom of the with which he emphasized his senten- a wedding.

ing a mullen in a way which Milly finite. No definite promise had passed thought fascinating. And then Love between her and her lover, but she Lane was such a pretty spot, the very trusted him, and waited brightly and spot to be eloquent in. Its winding hopefully. Letters came and went; the turns were hedged with fragrant scarlet boughs burned into ashes, and growths of woodbine, brier, sweet fern, fell to the ground in pale heaps; then and bay. Overhead the trees met, and came snow and the winter, to be in turn clasped in shady arches. Here and scourged away by the whip of the fierce there a pink honeysuckle glinted in the New England spring. Still Milly waitnetwork of green, or a train of shimmer- ed, but not so brightly now, for the let-ing clematis. The pure primrose light ters came less regularly than at first. By of a cloulless sunset sifted down through and by they ceased altogether. Weeks the can spy of boughs; a light breeze passed without a word. Milly, with stirred, full of delicious smells. It was visions of yellow fever and Indians chaslike an evening in fairy land. Suddenly a turning brought them to and wrote again, but had no idea of the a fern-clad bank, against, which, set in real danger which threatened her until a frame work of tremendous verdure, one day opening the newspaper, this met stood one rose of perfect wild-wood her eyes: pink, poised at the top of a cluster of vivid leaves. It was like an enchanted Thomas Dix, Capt. Edward Hallet, queen, Milly thought. "How beautiful !" she cried, but even daughter of the late Pierre St. Cloud, cane flew through the air, flicked the rose from its stem, and sent it into the but when she went down Milly lay on dusty road, a little whirlwind of broken the sofa white and rigid, the newspaper leaves accompanying its fall.

"What a pity!" she said involuntarily. hushed her with a weary sob. "It's only a wild rose you know," surprised. "But don't you like wild roses?"

"Oh, yes; but there are so many of them that it is hardly worth while to waste sentiment on a single one," and and said no more. the captain showed his fine teeth in a smile that was the least bit cruel. Milly sighed and cast a regretful look behind. Her gentle nature felt for the Milly Graves was down with typhoid fair despoiled thing. But, after all fever. Every one wanted to help to Saguenay, by the Abbe la Flamme, of there were plenty of wild roses, as Capt. nurse, above all, to know the particu-Hallet said, and presently she forgot her sympathy and its cause. Another jelly were sent in that poor Mrs. Graves simple action of the water continued through such long periods that the can-turning in the lane brought them to was at her wit's end to know how to you of the Colorado is called recent in the village outskirts and to Squire Al. dispose of them. But no one could comparison. len's gate, where the rest of party were really aid, not even poor Stephen, who waiting. There were good-byes to scarcely left the house day or night, or make. Mrs. Allen was intent on secur- ate or slept, till the crisis passed, and ing to each person his or her own bas- Milly was pronounced out of danger. ket, Kitty Felton, was counting tearosearches Stephen came up with the shrunken-a mere shadow, and a wreck are equivalent to an ounce of brandy,

The Young Clergyman's First Wedding Fee.

> It was their first wedding. The groom was "new," so was the bride, and the Congregational clergyman had committed matrimony only in his imagination Finally, however, it was all over; the twain was one flesh, and the little wife was weeping in the arms of the mother.

The groom slipped up to the nervous minister, and as that gentleman war about to pass out into the night, pressed a coin into his hand.

"A $20 gold piece," thought the young preacher. His heart beat faster now than when he was officiating at the wedding. He needed the money se much. Indeed, he often wished his meagre salary was only half its size, he had such difficulty in collecting it. And now to receive $20 all at once. Why, it-----then it occurred to him that if was customary for the minister to make the bride a present of his first marriage ee. The good man sighed as he removed his thin overcoat and returned to the room where the guests were offering each other across her brain, wrote ing their congratulations to the newly wedded couple.

"I forgot something," said he as he approached the bride. "This is the first marriage fee I have ever received. I: "At Galveston, Texas, by the Rev. is yours. It should be kept as a reminder of this occasion."

U. S. A., and Blanche Emily, only The young bride stretched out her hand and the coin rang as it touched her marriage ring. The guests looked up; Mrs. Graves up stairs heard no sound, the unconscious wife did not close her hand upon the fifty-cent piece that lay there, and all saw it. The minister was still clasped in her cold fingers. It was glad it was his first marriage: the guests long before her senses came back. Her tried to appear as if they did not see mother flamed with anger, but the girl the half dollar, and the reporter quietly smiled, and thought perhaps the young "We were never really engaged, you husband was saving up to buy the divorce. But Milly turned her face to the wall, Overladen fruit trees mature their fruit while it is yet small. Pick off one was at her wit's end to know how to yon of the Colorado is called recent in It looks as if alcohol stimulants, by and by, would not be used in medicine. It is stated by medical authority. that nitro-glycerine, as a hearty stimulant. is far superior to brandy, and may be given with confidence whenever the ad-spoons, and Stephanle hunting for a fore she could sit up, and week longer ministration of brandy is indicated. Two drops of a one per cent. solution and the effects of the drug are felt immediately. It creates no unnaturel

A recent study of the geology of the Quebec, convinces him that the abysmal gorge of that river owes its depth to the simple action of the water continued

Baymouth was stirred to its depths half before much growth is made, and next day by the news that Capt. Hallet the remaining half may grow to as was married to a southern lady, and many bushels as all would if left.

"Not engaged ! Oh Milly!"

lars. Such masses of blanc mange and know."

Out of danger, but it was weeks bechildren. He looked weary, and put of the blooming little beauty who walk-Nanny into her mother's arms with an ed so gaily up Love Lane at Ned. Halas the words left her lips the restless of Palatka, Fla. No cards."