GARMAN'S.—GARMAN'S.

LOCAL ITEMS.

—Politicians are cooling down. —Pay train passed over the road on Tuesday. —They say Booser sells beef too fat to eat; go and see it.

—Judge Furst denies the report that he intends to resign. —There has been quite a rush for coal the last few days.

—An infant son of Adam F. Harter, of Millheim, died several days ago. —In some parts of this State enough snow fell last week for good sleighing.

—Hen. Booser, of late, has killed the fattest beaves we have seen for some time. —With six trains per day passing our station we begin to feel our importance.

—The time table was changed on Monday and Sheriff Spangler missed the train. —We regret to learn that Mrs. Joseph Crotzer is seriously ill of typhoid fever.

—Col. Jim Coburn might just as well have had Patton's luck—had he only known it. —A new combination lock safe was put in the station recently. The receipts must be increasing.

—The portrait of Hon. Leonard Rhoads, Master of the State Grange, appeared in the Philadelphia Times last week. —Mr. Bartholomew has improved the appearance of his dwelling by the addition of a handsome iron railing to the top of his portico.

—Mr. Frank Bradford, the assistant station agent at this place, has been looking after the business of the Oak Hall station the last two weeks. —Wilbur, a son of Wes. Henry, on Church street, has been sick for over a week with diphtheria. It is the only case we know of in the valley.

—The Good Templars contemplate holding a festival in their hall, over Harper & Kreamer's store, on Friday and Saturday evenings, December 24 and 25. —Some one has made a suggestion that we bore for gas here. There is nothing easier than to bore for gas if you have the stamps. The striking of gas is another thing.

—Mr. H. P. Sankey, of Potters Mills, stopped in to see us one day last week. His mother, who lives with him, and is quite an old lady, has been sick for some time and at present is in a precarious condition. —The Lutheran and the Reformed Sabbath schools of Centre Hall, are making preparations for Christmas entertainments. There will be a rich treat, no doubt, as Centre Hall schools always get up good entertainments.

—B. H. Arney has received a Durham short horn heifer and bull from Ohio, pure stock, with a view to improving his stock. Our farmers might as well have the higher breeds of horn cattle as not, and get rid of the old revolutionary stock of bones so long roaming hill and dale, is unprofitable compared with the better breeds. —The election is over and we all know who came out best. The next fellow sure to come out best is he who gets his clothing for the coming winter at the Philadelphia Branch; it is the place to save from $5 to $10 on a suit. For an overcoat go to Lewins, he almost gives 'em away, and warrants the goods.

—Will Snyder, of whose illness we mentioned in our last issue, died on last Wednesday evening, 10, at his father's, near Potters Mills. His residence was at Spring Mills, where Mrs. Snyder is also sick of typhoid fever. Mr. Snyder was a very estimable young man and his early demise will be deeply regretted by all who know him. —On Monday a new schedule went in force for trains on the different lines of railroad. On the Lewisburg and Tyrone there will be no more mixed trains; separate trains will be run for passenger and freight traffic. This will be an acceptable change to all passengers, and insure speed in travel over this line with close connections for all trains on the main lines at Montandon and Tyrone. The evening train for Bellefonte will be about 30 minutes earlier. Sept. Westfall will have the thanks of our people for these changes.

A GROWL FROM THE BOHEMIAN OATS PATCH.

(From the Gazette, organ of the Window Smashers and Kickers.)

What has Freddy to crow over? Is there a Jim Burns in Centre Hall? Was there a farm in this campaign? Or did the court house ring promise him all the printing provided Schaeffer was elected? Is it because the "kickers" played their hand well and revealed to Freddy his smallness and unfitness of his organ for any valuable purpose? You may perhaps think that Freddy, with a newspaper at his command, would have some influence with men. If so, what sort of men does he influence? I believe he has one or two men he can influence to a certain extent. Two years ago he sent one down through Brush Valley to fight Leonard Rhoads and one he stationed in the Loop for the same purpose. Although this cannot be proved, yet anyone acquainted with Freddy and his two lieutenants will believe nothing else. What did it amount to? Nothing. Well, how was it this year? Why, Freddy's "puppets" were at work again fighting Rhoads. Were they kickers? A KICKER.

Centre Hall, Pa., Oct. 8.

The nineteenth line contains all the fun in the above.

—Work is going right along for the Millheim knitting factory. A friend at enterprises, says there is quite a difference between the citizens of Millheim and Centre Hall as touching improvements. At Millheim, he says, when any improvements are proposed all its citizens join in and give all possible encouragement, and the result is that although it has the disadvantage of being 2 1/2 miles from the railroad, yet the town is growing. At Centre Hall, our friend says, when any party undertakes any thing, you invariably find certain ones throwing all possible obstacles in the way, by making misrepresentations and secretly stirring up quarrels—they help no enterprises and meddle when others do, anything undertaken has to be fought through difficulties bred by an ugly, jealous disposition. This is only too sadly true, yet, unpleasant as it is, our town is growing pretty fairly in spite of this opposition, but might our town not move on faster if this ugliness were not in it? Every one is interested in the prosperity of his neighbor, but some do not wish to have any prosper but themselves and these are the curse of any community.

—Thousands of dollars from this county go into the money drawers of city merchants every year, when more than the half of it might be as well spent at home, and given to our own merchants who would use their profits to enlarge their store-rooms, and build up the town. Some persons send away from home to buy goods, without thinking of the effect it has upon our own community. They do so because they think they get what they want cheaper and better, and while this may be true in some cases, yet it will not hold good in all cases. Sometimes they find themselves badly disappointed and imposed upon, simply because they did not give their home business men a chance. Some, however, will buy in the city because they think it looks big and sounds bigger, to say they get their goods in the city. Always patronize home first.

—We again urge upon our Brush-valley friends the importance of working up the advantages of their route for the projected Milton and Bellefonte railroad. We believe the Brushvalley Narrows to be the shortest and most direct route. Then it is a vast lumber district which would furnish all the lumber the road could carry for years, in manufactured stuff and prop timber. Let the citizens of Mills be alive to their interests, and like us of this valley, hang to it until they accomplish their object. Brushvalley, by all means, should have this railroad.

—Are you thinking of having a fine suit made? If you are, you certainly want a good fit, which above all is the most important. Fleming & Co., of Bellefonte are considered the leading and most fashionable tailors in the county. They have as cutter, Mr. Jackson, formerly of the Bee Hive stores and known to most of our readers, and is considered a first class workman in every respect. Give this firm a trial. They offer special inducements to Pennsylvania trade.

—A Democrat in speaking of the Gazette styled it as the SMUT MACHINE. Very appropriate.

—A board walk to the station would be greatly appreciated by the traveling community. Mr. J. O. Deininger has made a good offer to build one but was not accepted by the town council.

—It was Joe W. Condo, not George, who was elected to the legislature, in Effingham county, Ill. By a slip of the pen we made it George in our last.

—The warehouse belonging to John Ross in Petersburg, Huntingdon co., was destroyed by fire on Thursday night, in addition to several hundred bushels of grain. Loss $3000. Insured for $1500.

—For a good warm overcoat, cheap, go to Lewins' headquarters for ready-made clothing.

—Our old friend, Charley Shredler is back again to his old home. He has been up in the forests of Elk county for some time past.

—Lost—on Monday last, by a citizen of this town, in or about Wolf's store, $30, wrapped in a piece of paper. The finder will be suitably rewarded by leaving same at Reporter's office.

—Quite a number of persons have inquired of us whether Prof. Bierley will raise a singing class at this place during the coming winter.

—Fresh oysters, raw, stewed, or by the quart at Booser's. Nothing but the best brands and at reasonable prices.

—SQUITS—Jake Tom turned out the first sausages of the season, on 11, at ye editors. The Grenoble grain-house at the station has passed into the hands of Mr. Bartholomew. The grammar school under Prof. Manger is progressing finely. The school is in charge of Misses Hanna and McElroy are also flourishing.

—When any one desires a stylish shoe Ed. Powers is the place they always strike for, get a neat fit, goods warranted and save a day's wages on each pair. Only try it.

—The Penn Hill and Gregg' township hunting party, which went to the Clearfield woods for deer on Monday of last week, returned again, Thursday following, not having done more than a day's hunting, and no deer. It seems the party happened to get where deer used to "was in the west by-and-by." After the Nimrods passed through here, on the way out, we had editorial visions of saddles of venison and piles of deer—but we find ourselves as sadly disappointed as the hunters. We hope our Penn Hill friends will strike venison in abundance next time, and make up for last week's disappointment.

—The Millinburg Telegraph, says last Friday afternoon the barn of Mr. Uriah Berger, about one mile east of Centre Hall, was destroyed by fire, including all the contents, consisting of grain of different kinds, farming implements, two calves, fifty chickens, &c. In removing the horses, which were saved, several gentlemen were somewhat burned. Loss about $2300. Insured for $1500. Supposed to have been caused by a little boy who was trying to light a cigar among some straw at the barn. Content of barn was owned by Mr. Lephebus Walter, the tenant.

—Mr. Luther Messer of Penn Hall, was in town one evening last week, with horse and buggy which he tied at a post on Main street. Some time later in the evening when he was about to start for home, he discovered that some villain had stolen his whip and a new robe, which he had purchased that day. It was a cold blistering night and was compelled to go without any covering. No clue has been detected which would point to some discovery of the whereabouts of the thief or goods.

—Since writing the above, we are told the young man in question, has no mean opinion of a fair young maiden of this place and was making one of his customary calls. There are several young fellows in town of the same opinion and believing that it is their duty to keep out all foreign influence, stole Mr. Messer's articles and returned them Saturday night, with a warning to make his visits less frequent.

—Those of our readers who will attend Court in Bellefonte next week should not fail to visit McFarlanes hardware and stove store if in need of anything in their line. They are daily receiving new stoves of the latest styles. The finest and best square, single and double heaters and the best cook stoves are sold at low prices and warranted in every respect. Go and see them.

—Rev. W. H. Gotwald, on Sunday, 7, announced his resignation as pastor of the Milton Lutheran congregation, which he has served 14 years. The resignation came unexpected, and the congregation by a rising vote, with one exception, refused to accept the resignation and the members voted him 3 months extra salary as a mark of confidence. Rev. Gotwald is a native of Aaronburg.

—Our neighborhood has been afflicted of late with a great deal of petty thieving. One man tells us he has had about fifty chickens taken, while others complain of such articles as corn and feed constantly disappearing. Mr. J. H. Moore, living near town, has a lot of harness stolen, and is anxious to make the acquaintance of the nocturnal visitor. A dose of shot is considered a very effective remedy.

—Gov. Beaver passed through here on last Friday morning's train. Next myinging Lieut. Gov. Davis elect, also passed through. Next we expect Cleveland or some other big elephant to be along here.

—There are living in Clearfield county, a man and his two sons who are married to three sisters, and, stranger still, the old man is married to the youngest sister. Some of the children don't know their uncles from their grandfather.

—See adv. of the New York Observer in another column. It has been one of our favorite weeklies for twenty years and is one of the best religious and secular journals in the United States.

—The prospectus of the Pittsburg Post will be found in another column. It is an old organ of the Democratic party, and the leading daily of Western Pennsylvania. It is daily edited and sounds in its views on all questions. The Weekly Post will be found most valuable paper for the family circle.

—Mr. John C. Wagner of near Tusseyville, will offer his stock, household goods, &c. at public sale, on Wednesday, Nov. 24. He also offers his homestead at private sale.

—A Democrat in speaking of the Gazette styled it as the SMUT MACHINE. Very appropriate.

—A board walk to the station would be greatly appreciated by the traveling community. Mr. J. O. Deininger has made a good offer to build one but was not accepted by the town council.

—It was Joe W. Condo, not George, who was elected to the legislature, in Effingham county, Ill. By a slip of the pen we made it George in our last.

—The warehouse belonging to John Ross in Petersburg, Huntingdon co., was destroyed by fire on Thursday night, in addition to several hundred bushels of grain. Loss $3000. Insured for $1500.

—When any one desires a stylish shoe Ed. Powers is the place they always strike for, get a neat fit, goods warranted and save a day's wages on each pair. Only try it.

We have just seen a letter from M. C. Henley, the wealthy and well-known manufacturer of the Monarch Fence Machine, of Richmond, Indiana, stating that owing to the severe illness of his attorney at Washington, D. C., they were unable to come here as intended last week to investigate reports made to him concerning statements made by certain parties affecting his agency business here, and stating that if he found sufficient grounds for same, would at once institute suit or suits for damages or other legal proceedings to protect his business.

Mr. Henley, when he comes, will also establish his agency here on a large scale, and Mr. Tooker, who was here recently in his interest, will probably make Centre Hall his headquarters.

—Messrs. Jerry Miller, Geo. Rowe, Yony From, Cal Moyer, and Theodore Schilling left on Monday morning for a two week's deer hunt in the Clearfield mountains with provisions, camping utensils and everything needed for such an expedition, and if they don't get several deer it will be because they are scarce.

—For the benefit of the "boys" we would mention that the National Baseball Association, composed of all the leading clubs and players in the U. S. is in session now at Chicago. By the way the Centre Hall club failed to send a representative.

—Centre Hall's improvements since January 1885, will cost up $75,000, which has been quite an item for our mechanics and laboring men.

—W. H. Harter, of Hartleton, has recovered from a severe attack of typhoid fever.

The Juniata County Wife Murderer Scales the Jail Wall.

W. Josiah McMeen, convicted last spring of murder for wife poisoning, and confined in jail at Milliford, awaiting the action of the Supreme Court on a motion for a new trial in his case, broke jail on Sunday night about 12 o'clock, with the assistance of a fellow prisoner. They succeeded in picking the locks of their cell doors, escaped to the jail yard and scaled the wall. The alarm was given about 12 45 a. m., and search was made by the Sheriff and others, but they failed to find him. Excitement prevailed in that locality. The Sheriff is out with a posse scouring the surrounding ridges. A reward of $200 is offered by the Sheriff for his capture, and the County Commissioners at a meeting offered an additional reward of $400, making $600 the total amount that is promised the man who takes him.
