-Mrs. Sarah Neff seems to be growing weaker which leaves little hope of her enduring any length of time.

-Next week the school teachers will run Beliefonte and we expect to hear of a number of them getting to jail-as visitors.

-It is rumored that we are to have a new grocery in Centre Hall, and probably another business establishment at the station.

----Prof. Mauger expects to make a visit to his home in Berks county during vacation. A merry and happy, &c., to you, prof.

-Mr. John Hefty and wife, of this place, expect to spend the holidays in Lewisburg. Hope they'll have a merry Christmas.

-Monday and Tuesday were clear but cold; Wednesday cloudy with indications for more snow. Steighing is tolerably good.

-Tweaty six snows are booked for the present winter, according to some snow prophets. Suppose the prophets mix in a few of them for the July and August term.

-In this issue of the Reporter we have reduced the usual amount of general Leas matter and substituted selections suilable to the season.

-Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Potter and son Harry expect to visit Sunbury, Danvilte and other places during the holicays. Hope they will have a pleasant trip.
