RUSSIAN RHEUMATISM CURE.

It is not a cure-all. It cures nothing but Rhouma-tism, but it is a safe and sure cure for that disease. Thousands who have been cured will testify to its refiability. If a B. ULMER, of ISI N. 19th St., Philada, wrote four months after he had been cured by the Russian Rheumatism Cure (waiting to see whether it would not return), saying he was bedridden with the disease, and thought he would lose his reason from the agony he had to endure; and inside of two weeks he vas sured by this remedy, although he had his house physician, and used other remedies without result, previous to trying this wonderful remedy.

Arying this wonderful remedy. MR. CHAS. A. COX. American and Morris St., Phila., taid: "My wife was bedridden, and her condition made me despair. Doctors and everything else failed. The Russian Rheumatian Core cured her in one week." EVERY HOX HAS BOTH TRADE MARKS AND

BRIEF MENTION.

SUMMARY OF THE WEEK'S HAPPEN-INGS IN BRIEF PARAGRAPHS.

Accidents and Incidents-Personal Mention-Sayings and Doings in All Parts of the World Upon the Questions of the Day.

There are more cattle than there is grass in Montana, and the stockmen of the territory are becoming considerably alarmed for the future.

The principal horse dealer in Montreal has entered an action against the municipal gov-ernment for $5,000 damages, for permitting the medical health officer to declare glanders epidemic in the city.

It is said in St. Petersburg that Turkey is trying to persuade Russia to leave to the Emperor William the selection of a prince for the Bulgarian throne and that Russian opinion resents England's cordial reception of the Bulgarian delegates. This leads the London papers to affirm that Russia is trying to force a Franco-German conflict, in order to enable her to carry out her own eastern plan.

Fire at Washington destroyed Professor Bell's library of 6,000 volumes and otherwise damaged his elegant residence.

Batavia, N. Y., had a $70,000 fire, The Daily News office being among the losses. Oswego had an $80,000 blaze.

The Mexican International railway, which will shorten the distance between San Antonio, Tex., and the City of Mexico at least 400 miles, is being constructed at the rate of a mile of track a day.

A big toy firm in Chicago made an assignment. It had been in business thirty-one years, and its trade approached $500,000 annually, yet its schedule of liabilities aggregates $102,072.

The house passed the bill creating the department of agriculture and labor, and makng its head a cabinet officer.

Much uneasiness is felt over Russia's alleged desire to get an outlet by occupying north and northwestern Norway.

The mayor of Vancouver and others are to be prosecuted for banishing the Chinese. The explosion of 1,300 pounds of nitroglycerine at the Clinton Powder mills shook the country over a radius of twenty miles. The North Carolina legislature rejected, by vote of 107 to 3, a resolution approving the omination of Mr. Matthews for recorder of deeds at Washington. The resolution was offered by a colored member. Senator Cameron denies the report that Senator Logan owed him money and that he cancelled the note. Lord Iddlesleigh, late secretary for foreign affairs in the British cabinet, died suddenly at the residence of Lord Salisbury. The heirs of Samuel J. Tilden who have segun the suit in equity for the purpose of nvalidating the clause in Mr. Tilden's will creating the so called free library trust, cause it to be authoritatively announced that even if the courts should decide that the attempt to create the trust was void and of no effect . whatever, they will fully and fait fully carry out Mr. Tilden's intentions and give to New York city the largest and best free library in the world.

The laborers employed in the rolling mills at Reading, Pa., struck work because an increase in wages up to the Philadelphia scale was refused them.

The renate was not in session facurday. In the house the interstate commerce bill, as agreed to by the senate, was repo ted, ordered printed and will be considered at an early day. The senate bill for the retirement of the trade dollar was referred to the committee of the whole. A joint resolution look-ing to an investigation of the books, accounts and methods of the Pacific railroad was considered, but not finally acted upon. The river and harbor appropriation bill was taken up and considered.

A large distillery burned at Terre Haute, Ind., caused a loss of life and $100,000.

Doctors who have examined the brain of John M. Wilson, hanged at Norristown, Pa., are of opinion that the man was of unsound mind.

Five masked men attempting to rob a freight train of the Panhandle road, near Sheridan station, Pa., were pursued by the train's crew. One of them fired upon a fireman, wounding him in the leg. The thieves oper escaped.

Miss Van Zant, the young woman who is to marry August Spies, has many wealthy relatives near Pittsburg, none of whom have ever given any evidence of insanity.

Anarchist Grottkau, of Milwaukee, now in prison for contempt, has been indicted for perjury.

The 3,000 workers in Lorillard's tobacco factory at Jersey City are out on strike.

The Rev. Arthur Donnelly took charge of the parish of St. Stephens, in New York, in place of the Rev. Dr. McGlynn, who quitted the pastoral residence. The parishioners held an excited meeting, resolved to boycott the church and to raise a subscription for Dr. McGlynn, Interviews with leading Knights of Labor in various parts of the country show that while there is much dissatisfaction with the general officers, there is little danger of a revolt. It is not probable that a special session of the general assembly will be called.

The question of social precedence at Washington grows more complicated, and is likely to explode at some of the many lunch parties at present the thing in the fashionable world. Judge T. C. Her, of the Arkansas bench, was assassinated on his way home, in Prairie county, that state.

Ex-Governor Robinson's coyness in regard to the United States senatorship does not convince his admirers in Massachusetts that he is wholly unconscious of the sentiment that animated Barkis.

Cattle on the Montana ranges have not suffered greatly from the cold so far.

The western express on the Fitchburg railroad was badly wrecked at Westminster, Mass. The line was completely blocked, but the passengers miraculously escaped with only a few bruises.

Senor Mort, the Spanish minister of foreign affairs, announces that a definite special convention will soon be signed with the United States providing for mutual concessions as to the trade of this country and the Spanish West Indies.

It is stated that the reason why a Chicago business man with half a million dollars married the female cashier in his store was that she got thirteen cents for a shilling every time.

It is believed that the new treaty with China now before the senate is not likely to give satisfaction to the people of the Pacific coast, since it does not effectually prohibit the coming of Chinese to this country.
