BRIEF MENTION.

SUMMARY OF THE WEEK'S HAPPENINGS IN BRIEF PARAGRAPHS.

Accidents and Incidents—Personal Mention—Sayings and Doings in All Parts of the World Upon the Questions of the Day.

James J. Titus has been sentenced to death for the murder of Tillie Smith at Hacketts-town, N. J.

Eighty-five girls employed on the "jinnies" in the Elizabeth (N. J.) Cordage works have struck against a reduction from fourteen to twelve cents a hundred for yarn. Their action throws nearly 600 other hands out of work. The strikers are very determined.

The North German Gazette (Prince Bismarck's organ) states that it is able to confirm the recent pacific declarations of the French premier, M. Goblet.

Professor Edward Coppee Mitchell, of the University of Pennsylvania, the distinguished lawyer, died at Philadelphia of pneumonia. He was 51 years old and a native of Savannah, Ga.

Edingham B. Morris, of Philadelphia, has been appointed as one of the receivers of the Schuylkill Navigation company, in place of William M. Tilghman, who has declined the appointment recently tendered him.

Senator Farwell, Logan's successor to the senate, from Illinois, took his seat at Washington.

The proposed Woman's Suffrage constitutional amendment was beaten in the United States senate yesterday, by a vote of 34 to 16.

A Texas and Missouri railroad train was almost entirely destroyed by the explosion of a large quantity of giant powder at Fort Scott. One man was killed, and thousands of panes of glass were shattered in the city.

George F. Anderson, lately of Detroit, has been remanded without bail in a London police court on a charge of swindling Charles Deakin, of Susquehanna, Pa.

A Berlin editor has been sentenced to six months' imprisonment for publishing the story that the czar of Russia had made an attack upon Col. Vill-man, the German military attaché at St. Petersburg.

The Indianapolis Eastbound pool will be dissolved under the provision of the interstate commerce bill.

The Red Star steamer Zealand has arrived in Philadelphia after a terrible passage of forty-six days.

There is great excitement throughout Chili at the appearance of cholera on its boundaries.

Henry Schwartz has been arrested in Chicago charged with the Rock Island train robbery and the murder of Messenger Nichols.

In Orange, East Orange and Bloomfield, N. J., there exist no less than fifteen cases of typhoid fever and several cases of scarlet fever.

Ex-Governor Eate has been chosen United States senator in Tennessee.

It is stated that Hon. F. W. Kinsley, at present Massachusetts state railroad commissioner, will be appointed under the interstate commerce bill if he will accept.

Ice gorges in the Mohawk, Susquehanna and Delaware districts have caused heavy freshets and much damage to property.

The Anarchists' defense fund has been pretty well exhausted, and the sympathizers with Spies & Co. are to be asked for more money.

Mrs. Phebe Boyd, who was one of society's acknowledged leaders in Philadelphia half a century ago, died in that city of paralysis. She was born in 1774.

Reports from Montreal state that in the forthcoming Canadian elections bribery will from all appearances be carried out to an extent never before known in the country. It is alleged that in the county of Glengarry the Liberals are paying from $200 to $300 for votes.

Philadelphia has a novel strike on hand. Four hundred school children from 5 to 15 years of age "went out" at the George McClellan school because their teacher had been dismissed.

The safe of the express office at Santa Fe station, Tex., was robbed by three masked men, one of whom held the employe at the muzzle of a double barreled shotgun while his confederates secured over $1,400 in cash and checks.

Doc' Wilson is being sued for divorce by his wife on the ground of gross acts of cruelty and of non-support. Wilson still languishes in jail, and is penniless.

Governor Foraker, of Ohio, has issued a proclamation of quarantine against the shipping of cattle from Illinois.

A movement has been started by the politicians and business men of Boston's Bunker Hill district to head off the order of Secretary Whitney converting the Charlestown navy yard into an equipment station.

A prohibition amendment to the constitution of the state has been introduced in the Pennsylvania legislature.

France is calm, according to the Paris papers, and can defy the maneuvers of her enemies. The newspapers of all parts join in accusing the correspondents of the English press of inventing and circulating bellicose canards for the purpose of influencing the stock markets.

The strike among the icemen along the Hudson is at an end.

The ball of the Chinese minister in Washington brought the great American hog to the front in the loudest possible manner, the struggle for places at the refreshment tables being reported to have been disgraceful.

A Cleveland, O., judge has set the rest of the country a good example by fining the principal in a prize fight $100 and his second $25, and sentencing both to the workhouse for thirty days. The pugilists thus punished had engaged in a "glove contest."

President Bartlett, of Dartmouth college, has granted the request of the Unitarian students of the institution to be excused from attending the Congregational church exercises in order to cut off the remotest possibility of charging the college with intolerance in any direction.

Gen. F. E. Spenser, of the peculiar signature on the United States bank notes, celebrated his 84th birthday at Jacksonville, Fla., on the 21st of this month.

It is now believed that the Tristrans, who either committed suicide or were shot after killing young Mr. Mead at White Plains, did not take their own lives, but were shot by the White Plains police.

It cost the state of New York $3,065,820 to afford relief during the past year to 137,420 paupers and temporary relief to 1,788 in addition. In the several county poorhouses there were 10,057 males and 9,350 females on Dec. 1, 1886.

The ex-mayor of Bayonne, N. J., had a lively encounter with burglars who had undertaken to rob his residence, and although knocked senseless by a blow with the butt of a revolver succeeded in preventing the thieves from securing any plunder.

Although Mr. Goschen had a majority of only eleven against him in the contest for a seat in the house of commons from the Liverpool district, his defeat is felt by members of the Carlton club as a great party disaster.

signed a circular to the board of education asking that the legislature be petitioned to authorize the reopening of the city budget with reference to the item of teachers' salaries. Comptroller Low denounced the proposed reduction of the teachers' pay.

Catherine Baker was found dead in Brooklyn and the man she was living with lying drunk in bed. The man afterward died in the station house.

Robert Pratt, Marquis of Rovagnasca, died in poverty in New York. He was a soldier under Victor Emmanuel and was exiled.

A few days ago a trunk was received at Baltimore by the Adams Express which was found to contain a mutilated and headless body of a man. The trunk had been shipped from New York, and detectives soon traced the crime to a tenement house and arrested an ex-sea captain named Unger, a German, for the crime. Unger denied his guilt, but was held Saturday night the trunk and body were returned to New York and the prisoner was led before the sickening sight. He weakened and made a full confession, and claims that he did it in self-defense. His victim, a German immigrant, had considerable money, but the murderer had not received it when he was arrested.
