LOCAL ITEMS.

Be a man.
Always be a gentleman.
Our George's birthday came off last Tuesday.

A child of Mr. Crouse, of Brush Valley, died on Monday.

Hud Love, of Lemont, gave us a call. He represents things lively at Lemont.

We are told that Mrs. Harper, widow of Mr. John Harper, has taken sick.

Samuel Rapp, of Haines township died on Sunday. He was about 75 years of age.

Esq. Houseman will dispense law and justice across the valley for the next five years.

Jas. N. Leitzeil has 21 sales to cry this spring. James couldn't hire our lungs for such a crop.

George Emerick, our "new man," will take possession of the farm of Simon Harper, near this place.

Mr. Will Lavers, who has been visiting his parents, left for Joliet, Ill., where he is employed.

Mrs. Christ, the wife of Dr. Christ of Lemont, died on Sunday morning. Mrs. Christ was a daughter of Moses Thompson.

Subscribe for the REPORTER, it is not two-sided, silent, or milk-and-water. Always straight-out Democratic, in advocating the right, and opposed to rogues and rogues in all parties.

Mr. Kindry, sawyer at Hewitt's mill near this place, will move his family from Lebanon county, to this place the coming spring. He will occupy a part of Rev. Miller's house on Church st.

The ladies of the Reformed W. H. & F. M. Society, of this place, on Tuesday, in Foundry hall, served oysters, ice-cream, and cake; also warm meals, and had a counter for the sale of fancy goods.

Landlord Rhule, of Potter's Mills, will go into the hotel at Spring Mill, April 1, now kept by H. Shafer. The Spring Mills folks will find Mr. Rhule a gentleman. We did not learn who will take possession of the Potter's Mills hotel.

When the grave yard insurance was the rate ten years ago, one hundred thousand dollars were put on father Tobias, of this town, then an old man, who was expected to die. He was expected to drop off. But Mr. Tobias still lives, and the insurance swindle didn't begin to outlive him.

Miss Annie Dinges was treated to a surprise birthday party, a few evenings ago, by her young friends. Quite a number of nice presents were showered in on her, and the young folks had an enjoyable time out of it.

The next patrons' picnic, on the mountain, is to be continued two days, for the purpose of exhibiting implements, etc., as will be seen by their resolutions in another column. We have frequently urged such a plan in the REPORTER and are glad the experiment is to be made next fall.

The Bellefonte News says: The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the Presbytery of Huntingdon will hold its twelfth annual meeting in Bellefonte, on Thursday, March 3d, in the Presbyterian chapel. The women of all the churches are cordially invited.

In the evening there will be a general meeting in the church, to be addressed by the well known missionary from China, Dr. Hunter Corbett.

George Emerick, of near this place, is a man now, and a happy one to see Sunday evening, as we learn unofficially.

George has taken to himself as a companion, one of our most esteemed young ladies, Miss Emma Harper, daughter of John Harper, dec'd. George deserves a good wife he has her too, with accomplishments thrown in. We wish Mr. and Mrs. Emerick a life of unalloyed happiness and prosperity.

Miss Maggie Alexander, daughter of Amos Alexander, dec'd, died at the home of her brother, Dr. Alexander, in this place on Tuesday morning, of consumption. Maggie was well known at Millheim, her home during the life time of her parents, having made Centre Hall her home since their death. Maggie had a friend in all who knew her—she was a young lady of strictly Christian life, and affectionate towards all in her disposition. From the effects of a white swelling she had been lame for many years. Her remains were taken to Millheim for burial beside those of her parents.

She was long a member of the Reformed church. Her remains were taken from here on Thursday morning to Millheim for burial, accompanied by many friends and relatives.

LOST AND FOUND.

The neighborhood of Greentree, in Penn township, was thrown into great excitement last week, over the disappearance of a deaf and dumb girl, named Funk, aged about 16 years, and who is thought to be of unusual mind.

The parents had refused to comply with some unreasonable requests of the girl which put her into an ill temper. No suspicion however, was had that she was absent until a letter was found on the table, written by the girl, saying that if they wanted to find her the mountains would have to be searched. The girl, of course, was missing. The neighborhood was aroused and the greatest excitement prevailed. Bands of men were made up and search was made through the mountains as far as Poe valley and no girl was found; the excitement grew in intensity, and the opinion prevailed that the girl had committed suicide. The agony lasted over Friday, Friday night, and on Saturday afternoon, when it was resolved to let off the midland thinking she might have drowned herself. This move, however, was cut short by the news that the missing Miss was discovered on the hayrack at Jac. Kerns which proved correct and all the Greentreeans felt relieved and returned to their homes to talk the episode over.

The horse sale on Tuesday, at Meyer's hotel, was largely attended. J. N. Leitzeil was the auctioneer. The lot consisted of a carload of fine western horses. Horses were purchased by the following gentlemen:

Daniel Weaver, of Miles, bay mare at $125.

David C. Runkle, Centre Hall, sorrel mare, $128.

Samuel Brumgard, Miles, dark horse, 191.

A. N. Corman, of Miles, black horse, $171.

J. T. Corman, of Miles, pair of sorrels, $405.

Samuel Brumgard, Miles, black mare daisy, $305.

Wm. Houser, College, gray horse, $150.

Wm. M. C. Intick, gray horse, $180.

Wm. C. Dr. Nittany, black horse, at $179.

Dark roan horse, $160.

D. C. Keller, Centre Hall, roan horse, $149.

Elmer Swartz of Spring, bay horse, $127.

H. B. Kleckner, gray mare, $190. The average price was $168.

BURNT OUT AGAIN.

The Daily News says: Our friend, Mr. R. A. Cassidy, has met with another severe misfortune. On Wednesday his printing office in Canton, Ohio, was destroyed by fire. This seems the more unfortunate because his presence in Bellefonte was to re-establish his office, the Keystone Gazette, which met a similar fate a few weeks ago. The loss to his establishment in Canton, which was quite a prosperous concern, is $2500, which is partly protected by insurance.

We are truly sorry for Mr. Cassidy, in these heavy misfortunes. To have his printing establishments in both towns destroyed by fire within so short a space of time is an unusual repetition of a dire calamity.

AN AARONSBURG CANDY-SHOP CLEANED OUT.

One night last week the confectionery of Abs. Confer, on 2nd st., Aaronsburg, was broken into by forcing the door, and the entire stock of sweet things, along with tobacco and cigars and with $6 in money were carried off. When Abs. went to his store next morning he found nothing left but the room, the counter, and the stove—the latter, no doubt, was not hot else it would have been carried off too. Thieves down there make a clean sweep. Gell, Abs, des beet der d'wel!

KILLED HIMSELF WITH LAUDANUM.

Henry Keller, a well known butcher of Lock Haven, purchased a three-ounce bottle of laudanum at George Mason's drug store on last Saturday afternoon and swallowed two-thirds of the contents with suicidal intent. He died on Sunday afternoon in great agony. Business embarrassment was the cause. He leaves a large family.

KNEE CRUSHED.

On Monday while a young man named Shreckenkast was chopping down a tree at Meyer's clearing on the Huston farm 2 miles east of Centre Hall, he was hit by a limb of the falling tree which badly bruised his knee. Dr. Jacobs was called and found the leg too much swollen already for definite examination, but fears the knee is crushed.

CONFERENCE AT BELLEFONTE.

The Central Pennsylvania conference of the M. E. Church will convene at Bellefonte on the 10th of March. Many distinguished visitors will be present from outside districts, among whom will be Revs. H. A. Buttz, president of Drew Theological Seminary; Dr. C. N. Sims, chancellor of Syracuse University, and Dr. M. D. Buell, dean of Boston University.

The Reformed fair on Tuesday was well attended and the cash taken in ran up to $84.

Proposals for painting two houses at the r station will be received until Feb. 28th, by Fred Kurtz.

We are told that the burning of Clay Allison's barn at Cedar Run was caused by the explosion of a lantern.

Lightning slung itself around rather recklessly on Wednesday night, and knocked "Holl(o)" out of several telephone poles.

We are pleased to be informed by Wm. Allison that the prospects for the success of the Spring Mills creamery are assured and that prejudices are wearing away.

THE COMMITTEE APPOINTED AT THE JANUARY MEETING OF THE CENTRE COUNTY PATRONS GRANGE, CONSISTING OF MESSRS. LEONARD RHOBE, J. J. ARNEY, JOHN GROVE, L. C. REARICK AND GEORGE DALE, HAVE UNDER CONSIDERATION, AS INTRODUCED, TO ARRANGE FOR HOLDING THE FOURTEENTH ANNUAL PATRONS' PICNIC OF CENTRE COUNTY, FOR TWO CONSECUTIVE DAYS, AND HAVE AGREED BY UNANIMOUSLY PASSING THE FOLLOWING:

Resolved: That we hold the fourteenth annual picnic of the Patrons of Husbandry of Centre County at the usual time (about the middle of September), at the old place on the top of Nittany Mountain; and that it be continued for two days with an exhibition of such farming implements and stock as manufacturers and farmers may desire to exhibit, and that we cordially invite the public to join with us in our annual gathering.

The committees have been offered tents free by the Williams' Grove Lumber-Station Picnic Association, (except as to transportation), and have concluded to accept them.

Manufacturers as offering to exhibit, and will aid in making the implement department interesting and no doubt, farmers having fine stock will be glad of the opportunity to bring it to public notice.

Arrangements will be made for public lectures daily, and in the evening some special entertainment is contemplated.

Tents will be rented at a nominal price to accommodate those who contemplate staying on the grounds. Application for tents should be made early to enable the committee to engage a sufficient number in time. Families are expected to provide their own board and bedding, but no doubt a boarding house will be erected.

It is confidently believed that the public will enthusiastically join the Patrons of our county to have the grandest and most profitable gathering ever held by the farmers of our county.

Last Tuesday was Washington's birthday.

The family of Mr. Willow, of this place, are mostly ill, induced by the unhealthy weather of the last ten days.

Mr. Erel, at Erel's mill, on Penn's creek, died the other day, and was buried on Tuesday. He was confined from rheumatism for a number of years.

Last Sunday, 20, it snowed all day piling up about three inches, but it did not make good sleighing. The roads have been in bad condition for over two weeks.

Nothing is now selling at about cost, at the Philadelphia Branch in order to close out the winter stock and make room for spring and summer clothing. A capital chance for a bargain.

Xavier Greer will farm the place of Wm. Emerick, dec'd, adjoining this town. The premises will, however, remain in the occupancy of the widow and her daughter, Miss Carrie Emerick.

The Lock Haven mill will be fast nearing completion, and will be one of the best equipped in this section of the state. The company expect to be in operation on March 1st in some parts of the works.

Out late neighbor, Mr. Isaac Smith, of Williamsport, landed here by Tuesday evening train. Rumor has it he will move back here again. Would be pleased to have him and his excellent family in our midst again.

The Supreme court refused the application for interference on behalf of the convicted murderers, Josiah McMeen, of Juniata county, and Wm. C. Busch, of Elk county, while sitting at Philadelphia.

On Monday night a coal oil lamp set fire to the window curtains on the 2d floor of Dr. Alexander's residence, from which the fire was communicated to a bed standing close to the window, which was nearly burned before the fire was discovered, and extinguished.

On Allison's barn, burned at Cedar Run, last week, there was an insurance of $3,500 of which $2,000 was on the corn and $1,500 on the barn. About 1000 bushels of wheat, 800 bushels of oats, all the corn but 25 bushels, and all farm implements, including one self-binder and a buggy, were burned.

Farm hardware of all kinds in endless variety is offered by McFarlanes, of Bellefonte. Team collars, plow hoes, fodder chains, plow points and shovels, tractor cutters and such things are sold cheap for cash or short time.

The stock of fence wire is full and includes the best kinds. Write them for prices.

We call attention to the Keystone Mutual Benefit Association, of Allentown Pa. They do a safe, reliable insurance business. The company was organized in 1878. It has been doing business nine years. It pays its claims promptly, and has an excellent record, financially and in every respect. The average cost of $1000 insurance, at the age of 35, has, during these nine years, been only $11 a year.

During a thunderstorm at Hontsdale, Clearfield county, on Saturday last, six men were working near an air shaft over forty feet deep at Excalibur colliery No. 5. A bolt of lightning descended the shaft, knocked them down, and paralyzed some of them completely for a short time. A prop which two of the men were putting in place at the moment was wrenched from their hands with a giant's power and hurled aside.

A fine lot of western horses arrived at our station on Saturday, by rail, and were stabled at Meyer's hotel. A finer lot of horses has not been brought here for a long time. They came in a place horse car, which many of our folks went to see on Saturday and Sunday. We did not see it, but suppose there were cushioned chairs for the horses to sit on; dining tables, and white aproned black servants, hot and cold water, etc., anyhow all said it was a fine car, with the conveniences for feeding and watering horses on route, as required by law.

The Lewisburg News says financial circles are agog over the assignment of Nesbit Bros., the enterprising proprietors of the East Lewisburg planing mill. Their liabilities are estimated from sixty to eighty thousand dollars, but it is thought they will be able to satisfy all creditors and in a short time resume business. Mr. Joseph Nesbit, the leading spirit of the firm, is now confined to the house with a serious attack of typhoid fever and a meeting of the creditors will not take place until he is able to attend. It is the general belief, however, that his wide knowledge of business affairs and practicality will enable him to face about and become as solid as ever.

VALLEY SAND.

—Andy Immel, the Aaronsburg land-lord, will make sale of his personal property—see bills printed at Reporter office—and go elsewhere. Andy is a character.

—Harry Corman will run the Rebersburg hotel as a temperance house, perhaps on Kansas principles.

—Sobor station, in Gregg twp., is the greatest prop timber point on our rail road. Prop timber is now sold by the ton.

—As announced by Rev. Fischer last Sabbath, a collector will be sent out in a few days for the unpaid subscriptions to the Centre Hall Lutheran church. So get ready for his coming as there are several large payments due.

—Phillip and Lowell Meyer will begin a musical convention at Pine Hall, beginning Monday evening, Feb. 28.

—The past Sabbath afternoon Rev. Fischer appeared in his pulpit with his right arm still in a sling. His next service will be Sunday evening, 27.

—The contest in Miles at the late election was over school director involving the question of building or not building a school house for Smoketown, south of Rebersburg.

The Penns valley trade is offered special bargains in ready made clothing, at the Philad. Branch.

—Clark Gramley has started a job printing office at Rebersburg.

HARD WORK.

Hard work—or hard up for work—a friend remarked to me, after four different grants had been given, begging and coaxing of him not to have his suits bills printed at this office. We have no need to send monkeys out on that kind of mission, and are pleased to say we need not resort to misrepresentation for patronage. Our well known course to do what is right brings us the voluntary support of fairminded men. How to injure the good, old Reporter, is the day and night puzzle with some chaps. Why a little over a year ago the Reporter office was systematically robbed—even robbed repeatedly, in the most criminal manner of the word, robbed of its material to keep up an amateur office that was doing work for the delectable fellows that are now, and were then, seeking to ruin the Reporter in its legitimate business. But, in the plenitude of our goodness, instead of sending the thieves to jail, we sent them home with a kind admonition to go and sin no more, and this is what we say to those now monkeying around to rob the Reporter of a little work simply because it will not be the servant of a sweet coterie of played out kickers.

The Reporter fights its battles alone, goes into 'em with delight, and comes out smiling. It sees a half dozen party pests about it, instead of sending them to show up, too, in the course of events as soon as the Democracy again needs that kind of work for its purification. Assess will be slain with the jaw-bone of their tribe. Long live the Republic. Subscribe for the Reporter!

The apostle Paul undoubtedly favored board walks when he announced, "cleanliness is Godliness."

It was Samuel Decker who put in broadsides at the Zion Luth. church fire, he is able to put out another.

The essay, "Mission Spirit," read by Mr. M. Derstine, at the W. H. & F. M. Soc., will bear repetition.

Fresh mackerel at Wolf's and first class article. We've tried 'em and know about it. Hurry up and get some.

We regret to learn that Henry Moyer, an old and well-known citizen of Harris township, has had several strokes of paralysis recently with serious effect.

Jones, Bergen & Co., one of the largest business firms in Luzerne county pronounce the patent flour manufactured by the Centre Hall roller mill superior to Pillsbury's "Best." Quite a credit for Centre Hall.

Farmers and cattle dealers who want to purchase thorough bred stock, should attend Swab's sale near Linden Hall, March 10. Mr. Swab will also sell an exceptional lot of farm implements.

Remember, S. U. Thompson & Co., Bellefonte, are making suits to order, at cost prices to reduce stock. They are the leading tailors of the town and keep up with the times.

One of the largest sales of first-class live stock and implements, will be had by George Swab, at the residence of William Swab, near Linden Hall, on the 10th of March, as advertised in another column. The entire stock is unusually good and it is rare that such a sale is found.

The Philad. Branch has marked down the price of overcoats and winter suits in order to close out stock before spring. Prices were low heretofore but are put down now to near cost, and a better bargain in clothing is not to be had in the state than Lewins offers.

We see it noted in Bellefonte papers that Centre Hall is to have a new park within the next year. If that means that we are to have a new place to hatch strife, quarrels, lawsuits, etc., among neighbors, churches, and in the community, then we say keep out your bank we are having a surfeit of that sort of deviltry. A bank, however, in which only banking is done, might be a desirable thing for many, judging from expressions we hear.

At Tyrone, the other day, there was an appearance of an ice-cold spring. The citizens were talking in the street near the public buildings, when suddenly in the middle of the roadway, water began to gush up from the ground in a stream four or five inches in diameter. In a short time it wore a channel for itself six feet deep, and is flooding the surroundings with its overflow. The water is ice cold, and to all appearances is an inexhaustible spring.

The sacrifice sale of Boots and Shoes still continues at E. L. Power's, next door to Bash's burnt block. Don't delay any longer if you want the best bargain ever offered in boots and shoes. None of these goods were touched or damaged by the fire and every article is as good as can be found in any store in the state. Don't miss this splendid opportunity to save money on an article

Gov. Curtin has frequently given it as his opinion that Centre Hall will be the principal town of this valley. If our people would stick together and encourage every move towards improvement it would do much to help the growth of the town. Our mechanics and laboring men are interested in this and should be able to see who is their friend and keep shy of those, found in every town, who fight against all who show a spirit of enterprise.

PENNS VALLEY INSTITUTE.

This school will commence its Spring session of ten weeks, on Monday April 11th, 1887. To all who contemplate attending school, we extend a hearty welcome to enter our schools. The complete instruction will be adapted to the wants of the students.

—Mrs. Agnes Crozier is administratrix for the estate of Joseph Crozier.

—Some outside party intimates to us a desire to erect a brick building near our railroad station for business uses.

—There was some heavy thunder on Wednesday night, equal to the July product of thunder. This winter is making its mark as the thunder, still the lightning rod man hasn't heard the early call.

—The Milton Argus says: Rev. W.H. Gotwald, boarded Erie mail last, at 2:15 o'clock this morning, en route for Florida, where he expects to spend several weeks to come, in perfecting plans and arranging his business affairs in connection with his new position as general manager of a town and improvement company there.

—At the horse sale on Tuesday, some spirited bidding was done. A fine black mare was being sold and parties of this place were anxious to have the handsome beast but Brushvalley bidders always went 'em a dollar better. Sam. Brumgard represented Brushvalley and took the mare at $205. Our Brush-valley friends took six of the finest animals with them.

—Ex-assemblyman Abner Murray, of Boalsburg, gave the Reporter a call. He tells us there is a little railroad and ore excitement in his section. The Collins Bros are now taking leases for the ore lands in the neighborhood of Boalsburg with a possibility of swinging the Buffalo Run railroad around that way in case the ore fields in Harris township should pan out well enough to warrant it—and Boalsburg might get a railroad yet.

LINDEN HALL.

Mrs. John Babb has been quite ill for a week or more.

Henry Meyer, Sr. who has been laid up for some two weeks is slowly recovering.

Samuel Cherry and wife, of Bellefonte spent Tuesday with J. W. Keller and wife.

On account of the sickness of his father, F. H. Meyer had the convention at Pine Hall postponed until next week, commencing the 28th.

J. H. Ross is agent for the Oliver chiller, plows at this place, and will always keep a full line of repairs.

Subscribers to the Reporter who change their residence this spring should notify us of any change in post office, giving the name of the new and of the former post office.

The leading tailoring establishment of Bellefonte, is the firm of S. U. Thompson & Co. They keep up with the latest styles and employ first class workmen. They keep the latest styles in the line of collars, ties and gent's furnishing goods. A visit to their store, next door to post office, will convince you.

Go to Lewins if you want a bargain in ready-made clothing. No deception in anything sold, and assortment complete for men and boy's clothing.

MARRIED.

On Feb. 6, at Centre Hall, by Rev. W. E. Fisher, Mr. Ezra C. Harter and Miss Minnie E. Coldren, both of Georgesvally, Pa.

On 20 inst., by Rev. Swengle. J. W. Winkelbush and Miss Kate F. Hess both of Woodward.
