LOCAL ITEMS.

J. R. Stam, a former Centre county man, was elected mayor of West Union, Iowa.

Uncle Sam's surplus is going to be reduced some—James McClellan, of this place, was granted a pension last week.

The great question the latter part of April will not be who struck Billy Patterson, but where does Billy Johnson belong, to Gregg or Potter.

Jonathan Kreamer, formerly of near Rebersburg, who went to Kansas some years ago, is back on a visit. He looks well and is prospering in the west.

Mr. Jacob Wagner, of Houserville, a well known miller, died on Saturday or Sunday last, his funeral occurring on Tuesday, the 15th. Age about 75 years.

Mr. A. S. Kerlin, of this place, will return from his western trip about April 1, and will open up a store at the Stone Mill immediately thereafter, under his son Arthur's management.

Land does not seem to have depreciated much in value, in the eastern end of the valley. Last week 18 acres of farm land belonging to John Bowersox, in Haines township, were sold to Wm. Stover, at $100 per acre.

The survivors of the 184th Regiment of Pennsylvania Volunteers expect to hold a reunion at Bellefonte some time next June. Frank Jones, of Mt. Carmel, and Joshua Folk, of Bellefonte, have charge of the preparations.

Mr. R. F. Sample, late mail agent on our railroad, has been appointed to the route between New York and Pittsburgh with a salary of $1350. Ed Woods, of Spring twp., has the place on the L & T. lately held by Mr. Sample.

A charter was granted at Harrisburg, last week, to the Nittany Valley railroad company, with a capital of $75,000. The line is seven miles long and extends from point near Bellefonte, on the Bellefonte and Nittany railroad to the ore banks near Zion.

The smoke stack erected by the Bellefonte Iron Company at the furnace is now about 160 feet high, and it is the delight of the boys to climb up inside of it to the top. Not yet being bricked up inside, it shakes visibly. It will be 172 feet high, the loftiest in the country, says the News.

Our old and esteemed friend, John Emerick, on Church street, were pleased to note, is able to be around town again in favorable weather. His long spell of sickness last summer, has left him frail, yet he bears up well, and is able to attend church and occasionally make a visit down town to have a chat with old acquaintances. We suppose that next to father Tobias, he is the oldest citizen of our town.

The death of Frank, son of James Alexander, has cast a gloom over that excellent family. Frank was a good boy at home and in the neighborhood as well, and had the esteem of all. His death from hemorrhages, was a sad one, and at times the pains of fratricide would cause him to start up in bed. He bore his sufferings like a true little hero, until death relieved him on Saturday, near noon. He was interred at Centre Hall, on Tuesday following.

The funeral was a very large one, notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather.

We regret to learn of the serious illness of Mr. Cyrus Brumgard, of Miles township, from quite a singular cause. About two weeks ago, while shaving he cut a pimple on his cheek which healed up again without giving him any trouble. A short time afterwards a barber who shaved him happened to cut the pimple away, and a rapid soreness like cancer set in which has spread so much that it prostrated Mr. Brumgard and his life is endangered by it, and several physicians have been treating his case. Mr. Brumgard is a man of large, robust frame and in the vigor of manhood.

Haines township has been burdened with a line of paupers, living near Aaronsburg, that has now reached the fourth generation, and running over a period of three quarters of a century, during which some one or the other of the family has been a public charge. While at times through an accident, common to befall a member in most any family, in such a period, may have given cause for being a public charge, yet indulgence was the main cause of the situation in this instance, where there was physical ability to attain to a more respectable position in life; but the life of ease as a pauper is frequently preferred to that of manly self dependence, and the imposition often practiced by such subjects should be guarded against.

A LINE OF CHURCHES.

THE GOSPEL IN FIVE TOWNSHIPS.

The people of the five large townships of this side the county, from Potter on east, can show up as good a record, we dare say, as any equal scope of territory in the provision they have made for the preaching of the Gospel. In these five townships, Potter, Gregg, Penn, Haines and Miles, there are 40 good churches, some of them handsome and costly and none but what is above the average. These 40 churches are within a distance of about 20 miles, and singularly to say, pretty evenly divided between the different districts. Potter has 8, Gregg has 8, Penn has 7, Haines has 8, and Miles has 9. Then there are two more in contemplation at Coburn, in Penn twp., one by the Lutheran, and one by the Reformed. These churches are located as follows:

- IN POTTER. 1 Zion Evangelical. 1 Sprucecreek, M. E. 1 Tusseyville, Lutheran and Reformed. 4 Centre Hall, Luth., Ref., Presb., M. E., and Evang.

- IN GREGG. 2 Spring Mills, Presb., and M. E. 1 Georges Valley, Luth. and Ref. 1 Heckmans, cemetery. 1 Greengrove, Evang. 1 Synagogue. 1 Penn Hall, Luth. 1 Union, Ref. and Luth.

- IN PENN. 1 Moyers, Ref. 4 Millheim, Luth., M. E., Evang. and U. B. 1 Coburn, Evang. 1 Bastian Musers, Evang.

- IN HAINES. 5 Aaronsburg, M. E., Ref., Luth. Evang., and old Ref. and Presb. 1 Wolf's Union Church. 1 Harpers, Luth. and Ref. 1 Woodward, Evang.

- IN MILES. 1 Yearicks, Evang. 3 Madisonburg, Luth., Ref., and Evang. 3 Rebersburg, Luth., Ref., and Evang. 1 Wolf's Store, Evang. 1 Stovers.

Years ago some of the charges were quite large. The Reformed charge, under the pastorate of Rev. P. S. Fisher, of Boalsburg, extended from Boalsburg to the lower end of the valley, and his appointments for each congregation came but once in four weeks. The Lutheran charge at the same time was served by Rev. Charles Reese, and embraced all the congregations in Haines Gregg and Miles, with appointments for one sermon once in four weeks for each congregation. This territory has now been divided up into three Reformed charges and three Lutheran charges—three ministers of each of these denominations in the field that once was the charge of one. The M. E. and Evang. congregation have also increased within the last twenty years, although the charges do not number as many. In the same territory there is but one Presbyterian charge, and that is the territory from Centre Hall to Aaronsburg and embraces four congregations, Centre Hall, Centre Hill, Spring Mills and Aaronsburg.

The seating capacity of these 40 churches will average 300, a total of 12,000. In addition to the churches there are several school houses used for preaching in localities where the means go beyond the reach of the people to erect a church. Do 12,000 people accept these churches every Sabbath? Do 6,000, or shall we come down still lower? To serve the various congregations above enumerated there are about 14 ministers with an average salary of $500, or total $7000. The value of the 40 churches will average $4000, a total for the 40 of $160,000.

Really, the people of this valley have done nobly in the gospel work—40 churches in a population of 8400—on an average of every 212 of population. The most expensive of these churches is the Lutheran at Centre Hall costing $13,000; next the Reformed at Aaronsburg, and the Lutheran at Millheim, each costing between 8,000 and 9,000, and the Evangelical at Millheim, cost about $7,000. Twenty-five years ago there were 15 churches in the territory that now has 40. The Baptists, Episcopalians, Catholics, Unitarians and Universalists have no churches on this side the county.

There is prospect of a new church at Harpers, St. Pauls, in Haines township. The church there is the property of the Lutheran and Reformed congregations. There is a move to dissolve the partnership and each of the congregations to have a church of its own, one to purchase the interest of the other in the present church, when the congregation selling out will erect a new one. A meeting was held on Monday evening to consider the matter.

DEATH OF HON. C. T. ALEXANDER.

Hon. C. T. Alexander, died at Aiken, S. C., on Thursday morning last. He went south some months ago, accompanied by Mrs. Alexander, for the benefit of his broken health. He went as far as Florida, but found that climate did not help him, and went to South Carolina, where he seemed to recover a little, but alas, it was a delusion, and the grim messenger, death, carried him off.

Mr. Alexander was born in Millfin county, Sept. 10, 1836. His boyhood was spent in Potter township on a farm near Centre Hall, now the property of Mr. Kurtz. He was a graduate of Dickinson Seminary, read law and was admitted to the Centre county bar. He was one of the prominent attorneys of Bellefonte, and his ability secured him a lucrative practice. He was twice elected to the lower house at Harrisburg and afterwards to a four year term in the state senate. He was an active and useful member and true to the interests of his constituents. He was kind hearted and genial, and leaves many friends and acquaintances to regret his early death.

He was associated with Mr. Meek in the publication of the Watchman and with Judge Orvis in the practice of law. His remains were brought to Bellefonte for burial.

Peace to his ashes.

HORSE DIED.

Wm. Shirk, of this place, lost a horse from colic, the other day. He had traded the animal only a few days previous from Dr. Ed. Miller of Unionville. It is supposed that overfeeding brought on the colic. The horse was worth about $100. We are sorry for Mr. Shirk.

A WAIL FROM MILLHEIM.

MILLHEIM'S COUNCIL.

ED. REPORTER.—In a late issue of the Journal, we noticed a flattering editorial on last year's council, but since the annual settlement their financial ability does not meet, or merit any praise. In fact their account shows the most reckless expenditure of the public money, regardless of protests of the taxpayers or the consideration of their interests, or to their benefits, expending about $250 in raising three crossings, when the original costs did not exceed $10 each, thereby obstructing the road to a free and easy travel, and leaving the balance of the streets without proper public crossings, and the reconstruction of ones no more convenient or better than the one taken up; also turning the drainage of the streets into private cellars and the public well on Main st., depriving the citizens of the use of the water which they have enjoyed for nearly a century, and endangering the health of the community by allowing said nuisance to remain in the centre of the town. Now if that kind of a council don't need what we washing, the Journal is off, and that is only part of their mismanagement, the balance will appear in the statement if allowed by the Auditors, if not, it will appear in the future. TAXPAYER. Millheim, 3, 21, 1887.

(Our columns are open for brief communications—avoid personalities—but are not responsible for opinions therein.—Ed.)

Last Thursday, March 17, was Mr. C. F. Deininger's birthday and he resolved not to let this, the 19th anniversary, pass by without proper solemnities for such an occasion. A large number of invitations were sent out to the young folks of vicinity to spend the evening at Meyer's hotel, in this place, to which nearly every one gave a hearty response by their presence. During the evening Mr. Deininger invited the assembled guests to visit the dining room, where there four long tables extending the entire length of the room, laden with all the delicacies of the season, and Mr. Meyer's larder certainly was well stocked on this occasion. The bill of fare was extensive and embraced turkey, cold meats, preserves, tropical fruits, and everything the heart of a hungry man could desire, it was a feast fit for the Gods—and the young folks as they surrounded the festive board seemed to eat for the health of the young gentleman, and expressed a silent wish as they arose that he might "live long and prosper." The orchestra furnished the music for the occasion.

Trout fishing season opens on the 15th of April, and don't forget it.

George Clark, of Half Moon township, has found an excellent quality of fire brick clay on his farm.

Mrs. Mary Crozier makes sale of her personal property, as will be seen advertised in another column of the Reporter.

General D. K. Heckman, of near Loganville, Clinton county, recently sold a team of horses to a Tyrone man for $25.

Subscribers who pay the Reporter in advance can have the three months premium or deduct the price 50c. for same, as they prefer.

At the recent session of the Clearfield county court 76 licenses were granted, 56 refused, 2 applications withdrawn, and 2 held for further consideration.

Mr. Grice's new store room at Unionville, is being arranged ready for his occupancy and it will be one of the coziest and best store rooms in the county.

New goods, spring styles, low prices and first class workmanship are the inducements offered by S. U. Thompson's leading tailoring establishment of Bellefonte.

Martha Shortlidge, mother of Wm. Shortlidge, of Bellefonte, died at Media, Delaware co., on the 21st inst. She was 84 years, 10 months and 4 days. She was a member of the Society of Friends.

On Monday and Tuesday of this week almost two hundred barrels of "Calla Lilly" Flour were shipped to merchants in the central part of the state, from the Centre Hall mill.

Overseer Smith has now scored his 31st snow for this winter. One more will fulfill the number prophesied by a weather smeller and Pap Smith has kept tally to see how near the prophet would hit it.

NOTICE.—The committee on Permanent Certificates will convene at Bellefonte, April 8 and 9. Applicants for examination are requested to bring their Professional Certificates with them. C. L. GRAMLEY, Chairman.

W. H. Treaster writes us from Paulding county, Ohio: This is a poor place for a poor man to make a living. Paulding county is nothing but a swamp hole; it gives me good enough for niggers, but it will be good old Centre yet.

Pap Shiffer, lately a resident here is still able to pay his old home a visit notwithstanding his age. He and Wm. Tobias, are no doubt, the oldest men around here, and both are well preserved in their mental faculties, though bodily frail.

Get your spring suit at S. U. Thompson's, Bellefonte, a large assortment of goods to select from and a first class cutter to make you a good suit. They keep a complete assortment of hats, ties and gents' furnishing goods in the latest styles.

On the 1st day of June, a good many years ago, druggist Mary says he saw Mr. Treaster, of Harris township, plowing in his field with an overcoat on and heavy gloves on his hands. Winter lingered blazed long in the lap of spring that year, and must have taken a sleeping powder.

The overseers of Gregg and of Potter will have a trial at April term over the citizenship of Wm. Johnson Gregg claims he belongs to Potter as a charge and Potter claims he belongs to Gregg. Billy just now abides at Centre Hall, as a calm looker on while the two territories wrangle over him—Centre Hall, in the mean time, being neutral ground.

Our young friend Mr. D. B. Foreman, of near this place, was appointed clerk in Prothonary's office on last Saturday by Lew Schaeffer the present incumbent. Mr. Foreman is a deserving young man and secured the appointment upon merit alone and is to be complimented upon his success, from the fact that there were almost a dozen applicants for the same position. We heartily endorse the appointment and know it will be approved by the Democracy of the county.

A NEW CAPITOL.

A MOVEMENT TO CHANGE ITS LOCATION TO BELLEFONTE.

At Harrisburg, on last Friday, Mr. Woodward presented the following resolution:

Whereas, There is a widespread sentiment that the needs and the dignity of the State of Pennsylvania have outgrown the small, dingy, and inadequate Capitol buildings at Harrisburg; and

Whereas, A bill looking to the erection of new and proper buildings is now pending in the House; and

Whereas, The city of Harrisburg is not centrally located in the State, and for other reasons is not best adapted to be its capital city; and

Whereas, The town of Bellefonte, in Centre county, is located at the geographical centre of the State, and is, in all particulars, the proper place for the State Government centre; and

Whereas, As Virginia is to the nation the mother of Presidents, so is Centre county to the State the mother of Governors; and

Whereas, The Hon. James Milliken and other public-spirited citizens of Bellefonte have expressed a willingness to furnish suitable ground at that place larger than the ground now occupied at Harrisburg, free of expense to the State; therefore, be it

Resolved, If the Senate concur, that a committee of three members of the House and two members of the Senate be appointed to visit Bellefonte and examine into and report to this Legislature upon the expediency and benefits of locating new buildings at that point.

On motion of Mr. Mackin the resolution was laid upon the table.

SPRING MILLS.

Domar Smith, of Penn Hall, contemplates reading medicine with Dr. Van Valzah this summer.

The Reformed Sunday school intend holding an Easter entertainment on Sunday evening April 10.

Geo. Smith and Lizzie Heckman, on Tuesday evening, were made the happy party by the bonds of matrimony. May happiness and peace follow them to the far west, to which point they intend to start in a few days.

The day schools closed this week, with the exception of Mr. Graves's.

The "Nights of the Golden Eagle" met on Tuesday evening, and having part of here from other Castles, they had the installation exercises.

Miss Lizzie Fisher, of Boalsburg, is in this section endeavoring to raise a class in instrumental music.

The Challenge band is very thankful to the two parties for the composition and presentation of the new march. Let us all hear it.

Sine Bitner and mother intend starting for Air, Adams co. Neb.

Harry do not forget that moving time is at hand.

Geo. Hennigh is going to Aaronsburg this spring to blacksmith on his own hook.

John Horner has gone to Kansas.

W. B. Bitner, the "butter king" has been employed to haul cream for the Spring Mills creamery.

Prof. Bitner, of Millersville, visited friends and relatives here last week.

Warren Krise left on Monday last to attend the State Normal school at Lock Haven.

Mr. John Leitze and family, will soon move to Bellefonte.

Miss Amanda Grove will teach a subscription school here, before harvest.

Mrs. Robert Chamberlain and son, of Kansas, are visiting friends in this place.

Fred Krumrine has given up the notion of moving to Georges Valley.

LINDEN HALL.

Miss Ella Messinger is making an effort to raise a subscription school for this summer at Rock Hill. Hope she will succeed.

Mr. G. S. Everts, of Pine Grove Mills, now occupies the house vacated by G. L. Baumgardner. One farmer seems pleased as they have been without a blacksmith for some four months.

Miss Ellen Noll is spending this week with friends in Bellefonte.

I almost forgot to mention the funniest thing that happened in this town for some time. Last Sunday morning two of our prominent ladies thought they would take a sleigh ride to Boalsburg to Lutheran church, wiser heads advised them to take the buggy, as there would be no sleighing out side of our town limits; but, no, in the sleigh they would go. When they reached the large hill on this side of Boalsburg, they met folks retreating from the meeting they had started for, then about 12 m. They did not care to cause a sensation in the quiet town of Boalsburg, and turned their sleigh and poor horse towards home. We heard that they partook of a heavy supper when they got back.

James Johnson and wife spent Sunday with Mr. Hefty, of Centre Hall.

Mr. Henry Sheets, of Cincinnati, Ohio who some forty years back lived where G. W. Campbell now lives, has been visiting friends and relatives for a week or more.

J. F. Ross shipped three car loads of fine walnut logs from this station on Thursday.

FIGHT AT COBURN.

A lively knock down was the cause of a sensation at Coburn, on Friday last, between a Mr. Bilymer, of Poemills, and freight conductor Troxell. Bilymer accused the other party of having disturbed his domestic happiness which Troxell denied, and was in turn called Troxell denied, and was in turn called some hard names by the citizen of Poemills, which Troxell resented by slapping his accuser and knocking him down several times. The affair created quite an excitement, and it is thought will lead to further serious results.

GETTING BETTER.

The widow of John Harper, of near this place, recently seriously ill, is fast getting better.

Cyrus Brumgard is mending up again from the singular, but serious trouble mentioned elsewhere.

Merry Ekinoroth, of Pleasant Gap, Dr. Jacobs informs us, is rapidly improving and able to be up.

James Zeigler is broken leg as can be expected from a driving log.

SHORT ITEMS.

Commissioner Wolf is recovering from his last weeks illness.

A road view was to have been held in Miles township on Tuesday for a new road from Wolf's Store to Bowersox's about one mile in length. Bad weather interfered. S. G. Herring, D. A. Musser and W. A. Tobias are the viewers appointed.

Daniel Brumgard, of Rebersburg, favored our sanction with a call. He informs us the grain fields down there look fair.

Melchior Crozier thinks of moving to Altoona.

A son of Michael Hess, of Harris, is in the employ of the Altoona street car company.

Miss Hannah, the teacher, and scholars from the station, agree with the Reporter, that a board walk to town would be a good thing.

D. Brian has taken charge of the pike from Centre Hall to the seven mountains heretofore under Mr. M. Conner.

The county superintendency seems to have settled down to the re-election of Prof. Wolf. We are informed there will be no other candidate in the field. This would make the third term, or nine years for the present incumbent, and the schools of our county will be certain of an efficient head for the next term. When a change is made we trust that the present high standard will be maintained and that no denominational, political or other influence, other than eminent fitness, will be allowed to affect the choice.

The following Centre county pensions were granted on Tuesday: D. S. Erb, Pinegrove; R. F. Blair, Benore; Jacob Harnish, Snowsfoot.

Joshua Hoy, of Marion twp., gave our sanction a call, on Wednesday; he reports the grain fields in that section not having the most promising appearance, for which the frost and freezing may be the cause. Mr. Hoy was born and raised within ten miles of Centre Hall, on a bee line, yet strange to say, this is the first time he ever was in our town: During the coming summer we expect "business" will cause our friend Hoy to come around occasionally.

Thursday was a bright day.

Ice 5 to 6 inches thick was formed during the late cold spell, and thus late in the season we are able to fill our ice-house with 6 inch ice.

Geo. Emerick now wields the lines for a 4-horse team, and means to farm on a larger scale.

Mr. Burris, of Woodward, will be the new landlord at Potters Mills.

Our old friend, Philip Musser, in Haines township, on 19, celebrated his golden wedding. Mr. Musser is now 72 years of age, and the father of ten children, of whom five have died. The celebration was of the surprise order. Mr. and Mrs. Philip Musser have lived a happy life together of 50 years.

Mr. Oscar Emerick of this place, will open a select school at Pleasant Gap, April 10.

It will be to your advantage to see goods and prices of suits at S. U. Thompson's tailoring establishment—Bellefonte, if you want a new suit.

Henry Swab and Samuel Davis, farmers of Linden Hall, gave our sanction a call.

Plant walnut trees on your bare and worthless hillsides, in 40 to 50 years they will be worth a fortune to your heirs.

Prof. H. F. Bitner, of Millersville, spent several days in this section visiting relatives.

Mrs. Geo. P. Bible, of Lock Haven is visiting friends near this place.

Tuesday was disagreeable; wind high and a wet snow in the air. Wednesday was more clear, with a cold, raw wind.

Calla Lilly flour has been entered on the list as one of the standard No. 1 straight grades. This brand is manufactured at Centre Hall roller mills, and sold in every part of central Pennsylvania and through the anthracite coal regions. Centre Hall is getting a little reputation for its excellent roller flour, which competes with the best.

Look out! all-fools day is creeping along to catch you. Now don't be laughed at.

The News says on Friday night a man who registered as Henry Bowen Reading, registered at the Brokerhoff House. Mr. McMillen was informed by a guest that the fellow was a hotel thief, and spotted him. Next morning he left the hotel with a bundle which upon examination was found to contain several blankets belonging to the hotel. Mr. Bowen now resides in jail.

Mrs. E. N. Brown, nee Alexander, writes us from Kansas, March 17: We have had a very pleasant winter; farmers are sowing oats, planting potatoes and making garden. We are well and like Kansas better every year.

MARRIED.

March 10th, 1887, by Rev. John Brubaker, Mr. T. C. Eddy, of Lantz, and Miss Mary Dorman, of near Hubersburg Pa.

On — Miss Rebecca Young, of Haines, and Rev. Sohler, Evang. minister of Sullivan county.

By Rev. Yenrick, on 23d, Mr. Geo. S. Smith, of Illinois, and Miss Lizzie, daughter of John F. Heckman, of Gregg. The wedding at the home of bride, was a grand affair.

DIED.

On the 23d ult. at Lemont, of typhoid fever, Mary E. daughter of G. S. and E. B. Hennigh, aged 18 years, 3 months and 22 days.

A CARD TO THE PUBLIC.

We have now on hand our full line of spring and summer cassimeres for merchant tailoring, which we are prepared to manufacture into suits at very low prices. We have secured the valuable services of Mr. Jackson, the well known Bee-Hive cutter. He needs no special recommendation, as he has been known here for 14 years or more. We are determined not to be undersold and guarantee all goods to fit or no sale. We claim nothing beyond the fact that we give perfect satisfaction to all who deal with us. Give us a call and be convinced. Yours truly,

SAMUEL LEWIS.

P. S. Call and see our ready made clothing. Children's suits from $1.00 to $5.50, good, all wool goods. Men's suits in proportionate prices. Be sure to give us a call. S. LEWIS.

ACCIDENT INSURANCE.

CLEVELAND DINGES, Special Agent "Pacific Life and Accident Insurance Co."

Dear Sir: I have the honor to acknowledge the exceedingly prompt and satisfactory treatment by your company, of my claim for $5571, indemnity for injuries received by being thrown from my horse on Jan. 27th, 1887. I mailed the proof on Saturday and Tuesday morning brought me the draft, thus consuming less than 48 business hours in the entire transaction. This is insurance that means, and I heartily commend the "Pacific Company" to all desiring valuable insurance. Very truly, W. E. FISCHER, Centre Hall, March 12, 1887.

The "Pacific Life and Accident Insurance Company" issue the most liberal life and accident insurance policies on very reasonable cash premium. Inquire of A. D. Lundy & Co., state agent, of Cleveland Dinges, special agent, Williamsport, Pa.
