THE DEAD GIRL'S REMAINS Thousands Look at the Rahway Victim, but

No One Knows Her. RAHWAY, April 4-The murder puzzle becomes more intricate each day. Five thousand people have tried in vain to identify the dead girl, and clue after clue has been run down without resuit. The murderer is strongly suspected of being in Milton, that part of Rahway where the girl was found murdered with gaping knife wounds in her throat, but it is only speculation that places the murderer in the neighborhood. He is likely to be far away by this time. More than a week has passed since the crime was discovered, and the police admit that they have not yet a single tangible piece of evi- rain.

dence to work upon. William Brunt, who is next door neighbor to William Keech, and who has been trying to have Keech arrested as the murderer said that if Keech was not arrested by the Rahway police he would arrest Keech himself. Chief Tooker has no faith in Brunt's insinuation against Keech, and not much regard for Brunt himself. Brunt is on the coroner's jury, and also a witness in the case. Detective Gregory of New Brunswick shares Brunt's suspicion against Keech, and it was reported that Gregory, not having been able to obtain a warrant in Rahway for Keech's arrest, had returned to New Brunswick for one. He said if he got it Keech would be arrested. The local police wished it understood that if Keech was arrested they had nothing to do with it. Chief of Police Tooker received this des-

To-day the body was on public exhibition for the last time at Ryno & Marsh's undertaking rooms. The clothing in which i was found was put on a lay figure, and the knife, the basket of broken eggs, the parasol, the black bag and contents, and the girl's jewelry were on view beside the coffin. Everybody was invited to go and see the body and examine the things and thousands did so. The girl was probably a Dane, Swede, or Norwegian. At least a hundred Danes have recognized her nationality from her clothing, some of which, they have said, was made in the old

Expelled from Alsace-Lorraine.

Paris, April 2 .- M. Antoine a protesting lelegate to the Reichstag from Metz, has been expelled by the German government from Alsace-Lorraine and conducted to the frontier. His expulsion has caused a profound sensation here. It is regarded as a fresh provocation intended to exasperate France and induce the French people to commit some act of retaliation which might be declared beyond toleration.

Attacked by Bulgarian Refugees, BUCHAREST, April 2 .- Three Bulgarian refugees, one of whom is a brother of a man under condemnation for participation in the recent insurrection, attacked the prefect of Rustchuk, whom they met in one of the streets of this city. They fired at him with revolvers, wounding him, and then fled. Two of them were overtaken and imprisoned, but the other escaped by taking refuge in the Russian legation.

Chicago is having another trouble. A telegram of 3 says: Six thousand five hundred carpenters employed by various contractors and shop owners throughout the city and suburbs will cease work tomorrow and building operations in this county will be suspended indefinitely The leaders of the carpenters, who after a long struggle last summer failed to carry out their demands for eight hours and an increase of wages, decided then to renew the contest, and think that now when building enterprise is reviving and carpenters are wanted, the time has come to make employers yield.

The Pennsylvania Railroad people seem to have reconsidered their determination to advance the price of commutation tickets 20 per cent, under the new schedule of rates in conformity with the Inter State Commerce bill.

The local patrons of the road were anticipating that the rates on all monthly tickets would be advanced 20 per cent. They were pleasantly surprised when they went to purchase their April tickets by being informed that the old rates still prevailed.
