LOCAL ITEMS.

James Lingle, of near this place, is on the sick list.

Sam Small, the evangelist, is reported dying.

Barnum's show will soon make a tour through the state.

Gov. Beaver was at Bellefonte a few days ago to shake hands with old neighbors.

Mr. J. A. Swavely now presides over the local department of the Centre Democrat.

Joseph S. Lingle has been appointed storekeeper and gauger at Bellefonte. A good appointment.

Mr. Hewitt moved his engine and saw mill last week to the Van Tries tract a little east of the former job.

Ex-Postmaster Johnston, of Bellefonte, who some time ago fell and fractured a rib, is still confined to his house.

Wm. Wolf has a lot of mechanics at work on his property on Church st., which he will have completed in a short time for occupancy.

Last Friday a stove upset in the dining room of A. V. Miller, Pleasant Gap, and the carpet and furniture were slightly damaged by fire.

Mr. Samuel Brooks, who is soliciting for the benefit of the Bellefonte Re-publican in our valley, spent a few hours in this place on Friday last.

The Tyrone Herald, one of our most valued exchanges, has entered upon its twenty-first year, as bright, spicy and prosperous as it has ever been.

Mr. Cal Meyer, who has been working with his brother, Simon, on the saw mill near town, left for Lebanon co., where he will remain for some time.

Ellis Hosterman, was in town, on Monday, the first time in several months. He seems to be gathering strength again, and we trust will soon find himself in good health.

At last summer has come with a bound, but not with a spring. Monday was quite warm, and so were the two previous days. Housekeepers have taken to garden making.

Adam Mark, an old and respected citizen of Sugar Valley, died on the 29th ult. His remains were interred in Loganville cemetery on Thursday. Mr. Mark was in his 86th year.

Misses Lulu Harper, Lydia Harris, and Bessie Muffley, of Bellefonte, accompanied by Mr. Hard Harris, of same place, on Tuesday afternoon, drove to Centre Hall, and saw the sites.

The taration water works of Centre Hall, the large hose were screwed to a plug by Ike Harpster and a 3-4 inch stream thrown higher than a three story front. Cussed water company.

Rev. Diven will fill the pulpit for Rev. Fischer, in the Centre Hall Lutheran church, next Sabbath afternoon. Rev. Diven is traveling in the interest of the Missionary Institute, at Selinsgrove.

The services in the Lutheran church, on Easter were attended by an unusually large audience. The sermon, by the pastor Rev. Fischer, was appropriate to the great holiday. The pulpit was profusely decorated by the ladies with plants and flowers.

The streams in our county, at the present time are in better condition for mills than they were for several years past. This was true the past winter. For instance Penns creek, Fisher's mill has been able to run full time for several months; just on several other streams.

Will Conley goes to Milesburg to engage in the mercantile business, in which he will become a partner with Mr. Holmes. Will is a promising young man, with a bright future before him, and we wish him success. Peter F. Keller, of Kansas, formerly of Centre Hall, has arrived here with his family to visit his old home and friends. He left here some six years ago.

We feel mighty strong now—had a handshake and talk, last week, with John L. Sullivan. We told the strong man we knew all about him, and had seen his picture. He told us he had heard of the Reporter too, that Curtin had mentioned it in a talk over his campaigns for congress. The great and strong will come face to face sometimes.

Shannon McCormick, of Ferguson township, on Monday came high having a freight train passing over him at the station. He was about to cross the track when his foot was caught by the rail, and he fell across the track, the freight being just a few yards from him and in motion. Picking himself up hurriedly, he made his escape from certain death.

ACCIDENTS.

Mrs. Potter, mother of Fergus Potter, of near Linden Hall, on Sunday night, fell out of bed and sustained a dislocation of the hip. She is a very aged lady, being 88 years old, and the accident may prove serious on account of her great age. Dr. Jacobs was called and is doing the utmost for the unfortunate lady.

Miss Sadie, a daughter of John Bitner, of near this place, on Saturday sustained a severe sprain of an arm, by falling from a spring wagon, her dress having caught as she was about to alight from the vehicle, she was thrown violently to the ground.

Tilman Klinefelter, of near Tusseyville, met with a serious accident, on Thursday, last on his sawmill. One of his hands having come in contact with a saw, a part of the hand, including several fingers, was cut off, which will be a very unfortunate thing for Mr. Klinefelter, who is a worthy and industrious man. Dr. Jacobs was called to dress the mangled hand.

DEATH OF MRS. NEFF.

Mrs. Sarah C. Neff, of this place, died on Thursday evening, 7, after a continued illness of nearly one year, during which period she was confined to the sick room. The deceased was a daughter of John Motz, of Woodward, who died many years ago, and a sister of J. C. Motz of the same place. A noteworthy fact is that she died on the same date and month that her husband, Dr. Neff, died. His death occurred about 5 p. m., April 7, 1880, while her death took place about 10 p. m., April 7, 1887. Her age was 56 years, 1 month and 16 days.

Mrs. Neff was a consistent member of the Lutheran church, and a supporter of all church work, especially of the L. H. & F. M. S. She lived a Christian life. Her only child, Mrs. Flora Bairfoot, survives to mourn the loss of a fond and loving mother. Funeral took place on last Monday morning, Rev. W. E. Fischer officiating.

AN OLD DAME.

Mrs. Corman, of Miles township, mother of Henry Corman, celebrated her 95th birthday last week, and still looks as if she were here to stay a while yet.

Her husband died quite a number of years ago. They were among the early settlers, and helped to clear the soil of its primitive forests, until a good sized farm, now one of the best in Brushvalley, was their reward. Mrs. Corman went through all the hardships of an early settler's life. She assisted her husband in all farm work; felling trees, preparing new ground, harvesting, attending to stock, and reared a large family, all of whom became good and useful citizens as also did their descendants. The Cormans are among the oldest and most respectable families of our county. May mother Corman live to see other birthdays yet.

DEATH OF WM. McCORMICK.

Potters Mills has lost an old and respected citizen in the death of William McCormick, on last Monday morning. Mr. McCormick was one of the best citizens of that locality; a church member a Christian in his deportment and industrious in his habits. He was a carpenter by trade and a first class mechanic. He was a sterling, old fashioned Democrat and one of the Reporter's most esteemed friends. His death was caused by tumors in the intestines from which he suffered for nearly two years.

LARGE FUNERAL.

The funeral of David Finkle, on Sabbath morning at the Cross Church, in Georges Valley, was a very large one. The church did not hold all the people present. Rev. W. E. Fischer officiated at the services.

Mr. Finkle died from the effects of a blood tumor upon the thigh. He was long a resident farmer in that section, and much esteemed in that neighborhood.

The J. F. Hill & Co., $3.00 improved sewed welt shoe, the best shoe ever sold for the money. These shoes have all the merits of the Best Hand Sewed work, being as flexible to the foot. Their great advantage over the old style machine sewed shoe is their perfectly smooth insole. No pegs, tacks or heavy seam of thread to hurt the foot and wear out stockings. They are made of the very best stock throughout, in all the leading styles of high and low shoes and every pair is warranted. Try one pair and you will wear no others. For sale by E. Graham & Son, Bellefonte.

On Tuesday, Rev. W. E. Fischer, Mrs. Fred Kurtz, Wm. Kurtz, Chas. Kurtz and Walter Kurtz, boarded the evening train for Berlin, Somerset co., where the marriage of Wm. Kurtz and Mrs. Annie Kissinger, is to take place Thursday, 14th. The wedding will be a double one, another couple are to be joined at the same time and place, and the same clergyman, Rev. W. E. Fischer. The Reporter will endeavor to take it all in, at this distance, and imagine the good things and happy time to be had, and will throw in its best wishes and congratulations.

The first car load of glass sent away from the new factory at Bellefonte, was shipped last week to the Pullman Palace Car Company, Pullman, Ill. It was only a short time ago that the old factory was destroyed and that very large and complete buildings have since been erected on the site. The new glass works are pronounced a success and great credit is due to the energetic men of Bellefonte who have charge of this new enterprise.

At Dale's store there has just been unpacked a new stock of dry goods, notions, clothing, hats, boots, shoes, groceries, fish, and other goods, at low prices, and you will be convinced that Dale & Co., are up to the times for low prices, and latest styles. All kinds of produce wanted.

Prof. Manger's select school opened on Monday. His roll for the first week, will foot up no less than thirty students, with quite a number more to come. The young men can always look back with pride upon the Prof. as their Alma Mater.

Flis, his guaranteed to all having a suit ordered at the Paid Branch tailoring establishment, under Mr. Jackson, the boss tailor of this state. Samples for goods, and prices low.

Since the removal of McCormick's furniture rooms up town they've added to their stock and offer inducements that can't be matched by any other furniture establishment.

For all wool chevot checks and silk mixed cloths, of the best quality, at the lowest price, you will find Lyon & Co., just the place.

TEN TRAMPS NEARLY SUFFOCATED.

They came near having a big funeral at the furnace Monday morning of last week. As one of the employes was looking through the room the next morning his eyes fell on a tramp in a place where gas accumulates to a considerable extent. Considering the fellow in danger from suffocation he tried to rouse him, but he was already too far gone and had to be pulled out. Thinking there might be more in the same condition the men made a search and discovered nine others about as near dead as the first. They were all removed and laid out in the room to recover and possibly looked whiter than they had for many days. It was an hour before they were all fully revived.—Lewistown Gazette.

NEW TAILORING ESTABLISHMENT.

Mr. W. I. Fleming has opened a new tailoring establishment in the room formerly occupied by C. Dale, next door to First National Bank, Bellefonte. Mr. Fleming is a first class tailor and has had years of experience. He opens up in new rooms, has a new stock of goods for spring and summer, and is prepared to cut and fit them in the latest styles. Mr. Fleming offers special inducements to trade from this section of the county. Young men wanting a fine wedding suit or anything in the line of first class tailoring will find it to their advantage to call on Mr. Fleming as he guarantees a good fit, and reasonable prices.

A NEW PARK.

It is said that the appropriation made by the county commissioners was one of $2,000, to be expended upon a park in Bellefonte. The site selected for this purpose is the plot of ground between the court house and jail. This piece of ground is the last one we expected to see turned into a park. It is a barren hillside and has a grade of about forty-five degrees, the next thing to impossibility of access. The best thing that can be done with this rockribbed hillside would be to fence it up and rent it out for a goat pasture.

An infant son of Rev. Land, of this place, which was suffering from whooping cough, was found dead in its cradle on Friday morning. The parents had sat up during the night nursing the little one, and as it became quiet and fell asleep, they likewise sought relief in sleep. On awaking in the morning the child was found dead. Supposed death was caused by the rupture of a blood vessel.

Gov. Curtin arrived at his home in Bellefonte on last Wednesday evening. The last chapter of his public life took place in the last session of Congress he was a peer among his countrymen and a leader in the party. We suppose the Gov. will spend the remainder of his years at his home resting from the struggles and busy scenes of the last quarter of a century of our country, in which he was a prominent actor.

ROCHESTER CLOTHING HOUSE.

Mr. M. Fauble, formerly with S. & A. Loeb, Bellefonte, has opened a new clothing house in Ammerman's Block, Bishop street, Bellefonte. Mr. Fauble makes a specialty of the celebrated "Rochester Clothing," which is considered by merchants and the public to be the best article in ready made goods. His stock has been received and is brand new in every particular. Along with clothing is a complete line of gents' furnishings, hats, collars, shirts, underwear, trunks, satchels, etc. Mr. Fauble invites his many friends in Penns Valley to call on him at his new stand and promises to give them better bargains than heretofore.

SUICIDE.

On the 9th, inst. Fares Keister near Millmont, hung himself.

In the afternoon of same day he worked in the garden; at supper time he did not appear. Mrs. Keister and an adopted daughter went to the barn and found him. For several weeks it appears his mind was somewhat affected. Mr. Fauble apprehended no danger. His age is about 58 years. He left a widow but no children.

The trustees of the church at Tusseyville, will offer the old school house at public sale, on Saturday afternoon 16th at 2 o'clock.

Col. James F. Weaver and wife, of (Town Cottage), near Milesburg, gave a birthday party in honor of their son, J. Willis Weaver—27th birthday.

J. L. Spangler, esq., of Bellefonte, will deliver the address at Lewistown on Decoration day. Lewistown will then know that old Centre has some orators.

The high license bill would make the license for the Centre Hall hotel $150. It is likely the water company will petition that said bill be paid into its treasury—all would approve of that.

Bruce B. Cottle died at his residence in Lewistown on the 2nd, from hemorrhage of the lungs. His remains were interred in the cemetery at Millroy. He was about 26 years old.

Prof. Manger has returned from his visit to his home in Berks county. He informs us that the wheat fields in that county do not look any too promising, though not as bad as in Centre county.

MILLHEIM.

Samuel Campbell, of the firm of E. C. Campbell & Son, is suffering with a sprained ankle.

The tin roof is on the knitting factory.

The old blacksmith shop, known as the Albright shop, was sold to H. H. Weiser for $20, and must be removed in 30 days. Good.

Mrs. Harvey Coufer, and Mrs. W. H. Miller, all of this place, are seriously ill.

Squire Herring, of Gregg twp., was in town on Monday.

Candidates are beginning to loom up thick everywhere for the different offices to be filled in the county.

We learned through Mr. Geo. Harter, the stage driver from this place to Loganville, that a Mr. Motter, living on the mountain north of Loganville, was shot on Sunday evening, whether by accident or otherwise we did not learn.

Our band, with their new instruments serenaded in "Strausburg" on last Monday evening, owing to their brisk march to their room. They must have made out pretty well; they are still short some funds to pay for the instruments. We urge the candidates who will visit our town during the campaign. E.

LINDEN HALL.

J. Irvin Ross, and son, Elmer C. from Pine Grove, were on a business trip to this place on Tuesday.

Farmers are as busy as nailors, plowing and getting ready to sow their oats and barley.

D. Hess is the hardest working man in town. He is busy assisting the masons and carpenters who are erecting porches at the residence of J. H. Ross.

Last Friday was the day J. F. Ross and party took up the walnut logs brought from parties near Linden Hall, and it was a big day for Linden Hall. The Duke proposes having a monument erected on the station ground in memory of the "heroes." DUKE.

Brussels Carpets from 55c up to the best velvets. Lyon & Co.

The annual election for directors of the L. & T. railroad is published in another column.

Mr. Wm. Henny, of Potters Mills, gave the Reporter a call. He speaks of some of the wheat fields in that section being rather poor.

The new sawmill of Whitmer & Co., at Coburn, is one of the new enterprises at that place which will add to its business. The mill is a large one and gives employment to quite a number of hands.

Go to Loeb's, if you want to see the finest lot of dry goods in Central Penna. All the latest and most handsome styles—assortment complete, and can suit any taste. A special bargain offered in handsome dress goods at Loeb's.

The Centre Hall roller mill is having orders for Calla Lilly flour as fast as it is manufactured. This brand of flour is being taken the lead wherever it has been introduced, and it is helping to make quite a reputation for our little town.

BARGAINS FOR ALL.

Frank's Great Novelty Store has resumed business at the South East corner of Allegheny and Bishop streets, Bellefonte. Bargains for all.

A CARD TO THE PUBLIC.

We have now on hand our full line of spring and summer cassimeres for merchant tailoring, which we are prepared to manufacture into suits at very low prices. We have secured the valuable services of Mr. Jackson, the well known Bee-Hive cutter. He needs no special recommendation, as he has been known here for 14 years or more. We are determined not to be undersold and guarantee all goods to fit or no sale. We claim nothing beyond the fact that we give perfect satisfaction to all who deal with us. Give us a call and be convinced. Yours truly, S. LEWIN.

THE VERDICT UNANIMOUS.

W. D. Sult, Druggist, Bippus, Ind., testifies: "I can recommend Electric Bitters as the very best remedy. Every bottle sold has given relief in every case. One man took six bottles and was cured of Rheumatism of 10 year's standing." Abraham Hare, druggist, Bellville Ohio, affirms: "The best selling medicine I have ever handled in my 20 year's experience, is Electric Bitters." Thousands of others have added their testimony, so that the verdict is unanimous that Electric Bitters cure all diseases of the Liver, Kidneys or Blood. Only a half dollar a bottle at all Drug Stores.

ANOTHER CHANCE FOR PUZZLE WORKERS.

The Judge's second Prize Offering

In Behalf of the GRANT MONUMENT FUND.

In spite of its more or less complicated character, the Judge's Grand Word Contest, just ended, has proven a great success. By it JUDGE has enlisted over 300 energetic, spirited and intelligent workers for the Grant Fund, has materially swelled the total previously received through the Grant Monument Committee by the contribution of a good sized check, and has in addition divided $500 among eight successful and happy puzzle workers as a reward for their labor and ingenuity. JUDGE now inaugurates a second contest of an even more popular character than the first—a contest in which every school child can engage and stand an equal chance with older competitors.

Every person who, in conformance with governing rules, sends to the JUDGE Grant Fund, on or before June 15th, 1887 (12 o'clock noon), 50 cents and the names of the eleven most popular men in America will be entitled to participate in the contest. The money thus received will be appropriated as follows: Twenty-five cents will be at once credited to the Grant Fund. The remaining twenty-five cents, after deducting the legitimate expenses of advertising, will be placed in a common fund to be divided among the six competitors having the fullest list of the most popular men as indicated by a majority of all the lists sent in. The new contest is, in fact, based upon the principle of an election, each contestant being a voter, and each ballot, and the six lists containing the greater number of popular names shown to be the most popular by a majority of all the lists will be the successful prize papers.

The magnitude of the prizes will depend on the amount of money received, or in other words, on the number of competitors. The names and contributions of competitors will be acknowledged (and the progress of the fund shown) from week to week in JUDGE. Governing rules in this week's JUDGE or circulars mailed on receipt of postage. Requests for copies of paper must be accompanied by ten cents' address.
