

RUSSIAN RHEUMATISM CURE

HAS PROVED TO BE THE REMEDY FOR RHEUMATISM.

My wife was afflicted with rheumatism in her shoulder and arm. She could do nothing for herself and could not sleep in bed. Had to be bolstered up in a rocking chair. Physicians prescribed many patent medicines were used, but the pain still did not ease. I sent for the Russian Rheumatism Cure, and the pain still did not ease. I was using according to directions for one week, and my wife was cured. It was one of those agreeable surprises that you meet once in a lifetime. It is now over four months since the cure was effected, and she can walk, run, bow in the garden, and do all kinds of work as well as ever, and has no symptoms of the old disease. We have no hesitancy in recommending the cure to all similarly afflicted. As S. A. AND STUBBS, Truly yours,

J. F. FISHELL
Thousands of others have been cured.

ALL QUIET ON THE POTOMAC

Washington's Chestnut Hill Law Generally Enforced Yesterday.

WASHINGTON, April 18.—Yesterday was a very quiet day here. The order of the commissioners, based on an obsolete law, directing a closing of nearly all the saloons of business, was generally observed. There were several dealers, however, especially in the down town districts, who kept open, and announced their intention to test the law. The liquor men are believed to have, in nearly every instance, obeyed the order, although the police report that there were one or two violations. It was noticed that two saloon men kept bartenders at their doors and that people were allowed to enter. The cigar stores were closed with the exception of a few places, where the owners informed the police they desired to test the law. All saloons were closed, and no hicks were to be seen on the streets.

The observance of the order as regards drug stores and news stands was much less general. A few of the hotels, notably the Riggs house and the Ebbitt house refused to serve guests with wine at their meals, but this practice did not generally prevail. The police did not arrest those whom they detected evading the law, but reported the facts to their superiors. It is understood that warrants will be issued to-morrow for the arrest of persons reported. Six arrests were made for drunkenness against an average of about twenty on previous Sundays.

The suburban tipping houses all laid in an extra supply of liquor in expectation of a "run," but the rainy weather kept many at home. A large number went across the river into Virginia, where, at the end of the bridge there are four saloons, and obtained a Virginia marshal put in an appearance, however, and although the sale of liquor was not stopped, eight or nine men who became hilarious were escorted to the lockup.

A number of temperance meetings were held, at nearly all of which references were made to the new order of things. The credit was awarded to the ladies.

Killed by a Fellow Lunatic.

PROVIDENCE, April 17.—A death in the insane department of the state institute, at Cranston, on Saturday, proves to be homicide. Alexander Haskins, 58 years old, and Charles A. Wallace, 23 years old, had for some time occupied adjacent rooms in the rooms intended for a single patient. Haskins was melancholy and sleepless, and Wallace, who is young, well built and active, was epileptic. The room was visited three times during the night, but Haskins was found dead in the morning. An inquiry, Wallace told a story somewhat disconnected and rambling, but sufficiently lead to indicate that he had risen upon his sleeping companion and killed him by thumping his head upon the floor. Death was caused by concussion of the brain. A hole in Haskins' head is not yet fully explained, but there is a theory that Wallace had some weapon resembling a spike, though diligent search has failed to find it.

Sheridan Goes for Ingersoll.

WASHINGTON, April 18.—General George Sheridan delivered his lectures, "A Modern Pagan," last evening at the new National theater, before a large audience, contrasting the anti-religious views of Colonel Robert G. Ingersoll. The lecturer was introduced by Senator Sherman, and among the many prominent people present were Senator Beck, ex-Congressman Mitchell, of Connecticut, a large number of members of the bar and many ladies. General Sheridan's preparation was an outburst of thrilling eloquence, describing the anarchical tendencies of infidelity. He portrayed Col. Ingersoll as the assailant of the sublimest teachings of philosophy, of poetry and of science, of ancient and of modern times, without offering a substitute or a better thing. Ingersoll, he said, was employing his genius and oratory in extinguishing the truest source of human happiness.

Eloped With a Blonde.

ROCHESTER, April 18.—Dell Brayton, a well-known bookkeeper here, mysteriously disappeared Wednesday last. It is now learned that Brayton who is a married man, had eloped with a young lady, a beautiful, bewitching blonde, whose acquaintance he made at a church which both attended. Brayton some time ago told a friend that he was a victim of a blackmailing scheme, and said that he was going to leave the city. It turns out that the father of the young woman learned of Brayton's attentions and threatened him with trouble if he did not cease them. The pair it seems, then decided to elope. Their whereabouts is unknown.

Aerial Navigation Accomplished.

BERLIN, April 17.—Successful experiments have been made with a navigable balloon, propelled by an electric motor. The balloon is the invention of a German engineer named Welker, who for some time was employed in America, where he perfected his discovery. The German government has bought the invention, paying for it 1,000,000 marks down, another 1,000,000 which is to be paid in installments. The speed of the balloon exceeds that of a railway train, and it may be stopped and directed at will, moving against the wind.

Chestnut Walnut Dead.

WATERBURY, Conn., April 18.—The death of an old Indian known as Old Walnut, who lived in a hut at Waterbury, is reported to have occurred on Monday last. Old Walnut has been over one hundred years of age. His father was once chief of a tribe that once owned the whole territory for miles around. Walnut is said to have died from the effects of too much whiskey, and had been temperate it is thought he might have lived many years longer.

Cost of a Strike.

NEW YORK, April 18.—At the meeting of the Brooklyn Central Labor union, the framers reported that their strike was over, the bosses agreeing to the demands. The executive committee of the Framers' association reported the cost of the strike was $1,800 of which $2,000 was paid to the men in cash, and the remainder was lost in time. The plumbers' laborers demanded an increase of 25 cents a day in their wages.

They Went Sailing on Sunday.

BALTIMORE, April 18.—Five young men hired a sail boat at the foot of Eutaw street. Three of them were Frank Harman and two brothers named Baughman. The other two were unknown to their companions. They sailed their boat across to Curtis Bay, in the middle of which the boat upset, throwing all five into the water. Harman and the Baughman brothers were rescued, but the two strangers were drowned.

Prisoners Revolt in a Penitentiary.

RALPHIGH, N. C., April 17.—In the state penitentiary here about 5 o'clock last evening a prisoner drew a knife and refused to obey orders. He was knocked down by the guards and taken to the hospital. Most of the convicts then refused to go into their cells. The city police force and the governor's guards went to the aid of the penitentiary authorities.

PRESENTS FOR HIS HOLINESS.

All Governments Contribute to His Coming Jubilee Celebration.

LONDON, April 16.—The growing power of the pope's political influence in Europe is shown by the unusual attention paid to him and by the preparations which are being made on all sides for the celebration of the jubilee anniversary of his entrance to the priesthood. The day of the ceremony is now fixed for the 31st of next December. There will be an exhibition opened in the gardens of the Vatican on the 1st of the objects of art sent to the Holy Father in honor of the occasion. All the archbishops and bishops throughout the world have been invited to be present at Rome during the festivities. The dome of St. Peter's will be illuminated three nights previous to the jubilee day. This will be the first occasion on which this has been done since 1870. It is said that every parish, however small, throughout the world will be present in this jubilee. All the crowned royalties in Europe will send presents. Queen Victoria will send the pope a copy of the coronation medals. The Empress of Austria will send a brilliant diamond which is valued at $15,000. The Portuguese sovereigns likewise send rich presents, that of Queen Dona Maria Pia, who is the sister of King Humbert, being an altar cloth worked by herself. The President of the French Republic has already sent two immense silver chalices, one brilliant diamond which is valued at $15,000. The French archbishops and bishops are bestirring themselves to send gifts worthy of the occasion. The archdiocese of Lyons sends a satin chasuble embroidered with gold, bearing the arms of the Pope and of the City of Lyons. The monks of Lérins have prepared a volume of marvelous illuminations magnificently bound in velvet. The archdiocese of Paris has decided to present a tiara of gold ornamented with diamonds, sapphires and rubies. The German catholics will send the pope a collection of all literary and scientific works published in Germany under his reign, expressly bound for his acceptance. The entire series will consist of over twenty thousand volumes. The exhibition will be well worth seeing, as it will consist of an incredible number of things. The sultan's offering to the pope is a ring set with diamonds. The Italian government has announced that the jubilee offerings for the pope will be allowed to pass the frontier without being opened, and will be delivered at the Vatican free of all customs duties.

Bison William and the Britishers.

LONDON, April 17.—It required three trains to haul Buffalo Bill's Wild West show from the London docks to the grounds of the American Exposition. The Indians and cowboys came up on the last train, and the great sensation among the hundreds of English people who had collected in the neighboring streets and in the windows and even on the roofs of the adjacent houses to see them. An extra force of police was sent down to keep order, but they were hardly able to keep back the crowd when the Indians passed to their camping grounds where they pitched their tents in plain view of everybody. Buffalo Bill remained on the ground all night and established a volume of "dead" line, outside of which he refused to allow any of his people to go.

Rochefort Attacks the Pope.

PARIS, April 18.—M. Rochefort has a violent article in L'Intransigeant directed against the Pope, who, he says, sacrificed France to Germany in 1871, and is now aiding in the work of Germanizing Alsace-Lorraine. The article concludes: "If most of our ministers were not known to fast on Fridays the government would answer these insults by recalling the French ambassador to the Vatican and suppressing the religious budget."

Fears of an Indian Uprising.

INDIAN TERRITORY, April 18.—Great excitement prevails all through the Kiowa reservation. It is feared by many that the Kiowas may at any moment go on the warpath. A regular pitched battle took place at the cow camp of Great house and Bush. It was started by the Indians running through the camp yelling and flourishing their guns. The cowboys came out victorious with a few serious wounds. The Indians on the Kiowa reservation have been constantly killing cattle. A few days ago they were caught stealing cattle by the cowboys, who undertook to capture them, but the Indians made off with their plunder.

Crushed to Death in an Elevator.

ROCHESTER, April 17.—Leopold Heffmeyer, of the firm of Garson, Meyer & Co., of this city, was found this forenoon in the elevator shaft of the Garson building dead, the body being doubled up and terribly crushed, the trunk being forced into a space but eight inches in width. Heffmeyer, it is supposed, was caught between the elevator and the side of the well while trying to step from a landing to the elevator platform. The dead man was a resident of New York city, and had been in Rochester but a few months. He has a wife and two children living in New York.
