LOCAL ITEMS.

Snow at Lock Haven on Monday, 10 inches; Wilkesbarre 12 inches. Prof. George P. Bible of Lock Haven, is gaining in reputation as an elocutionist.

Rev. Fischer's next regular services will be in the Luth. church, next Sabbath evening.

A reader asks who invented the drum.—It must have been Partridge who was the original drummer.

There seems to be no objection to the proposition that the $150 high license go to the water company.

Harry Meyers of Williamsport circulated on our streets the other day; he has an insurance agency in that city.

Mr. Shires, one of Sprucecreek's most esteemed citizens, now well up in years, gave our sanctum a pleasant call.

James Ziegler is now able to promenade our streets on crutches, having arrived at that stage of recovery from his broken leg.

About half dozen cellars, for new houses at the lower end of town, are under way, indicating improvements in that section.

The widow of Hon. C. T. Alexander has received a check for $10,127.33 life insurance, the amount for which her husband was insured.

The Bush house, Bush's block, arcade and three story dwelling, property of D. G. Bush, dec'd, are advertised at sheriff's sale to make title.

Wm. Rossman, at Pleasant Gap, while chopping wood, on Tuesday afternoon, accidentally cut a deep and serious gash in his head with the axe.

The Centre Democrat insists that Bellefonte is suffering for the want of a board of trade. Perhaps if it had a board of trade, it would suffer in its trade in boards.

Rev. Fischer will administer the Lord's supper in the Centre Hall Luth. church on Sabbath morning, May 1st. Preparatory services Saturday afternoon previous, at 2 o'clock.

Bellefonte ladies had an apron fair last week. We would suggest the Centre Hall ladies get on up with a view to making a walk to the station. They could beat the men all hollow.

S. K. Emerick, of Unionville, gave our sanctum a call. Also at same time Ed. Kishel, of Gregg. Both these gentlemen are Democrats of the old Hickory stripe and first class farmers.

Thirty employees of the J. F. Mann are manufacturing near Bellefonte, have struck for an advance in wages. The proprietor will not comply with the demand and will close his works for a year.

The Tyrone Daily Herald, by capt. C. P. Jones, is on our table. It is a neat, nobby and spirited little daily, and a credit to the editor and the town. Tyrone should give the daily a liberal support.

Rev. Diven preached in the Lutheran church of this place last Sabbath afternoon and evening. His sermons were of deep interest, practical and plain and riveted the attention of his hearers.

John Scott, of Trough Creek valley, claims to have struck it rich in the way of finding a large deposit of iron ore Round Knob mountain, being in close proximity to the E. B. T. R. R. He believes from the present outlook he will be able to handle a large quantity.

A shingle mill at Six Mile Run, about six miles from Philipsburg, caught fire on the 13th, and was entirely destroyed. The mill property was large and valuable, being owned by the Phoenix Paving Mill Company, of Bellefonte. The loss is about $5000.

Messrs. Shires & Kennedy painted the town red—with their fence machines—one day last week. The fire was caused by Mr. Orr's little son playing with matches. Three calves and a lot of hogs were burned. All the farm implements were consumed, together with a large quantity of grain and hay. Small insurance with the Centre County Grange.

This week the orders for flour at the Centre Hall roller mills are ahead of the supply. The two brands for which there is a constant and increased demand are "Cream" and "Calla Lily," now made at the best manufacturing in the U. S. For two essentials, good water and excellent flour, Centre Hall can't be beat.

Lewins has a merchant tailoring establishment connected with the Pa. Branch, under the management of one of the best tailors in the state who never makes a miss in a fit if you let him take your measure. Suits made to order, on all the latest styles, and at low prices.

SAD SHOOTING AFFAIR.

A sad affair occurred Saturday afternoon, the 9th, at Rosecrans, Clinton county, about three miles north of Loganville, which resulted in the death of a boy named Motter, aged about sixteen years. It appears that he and a younger brother were about to shoot at a mark with a revolver, which was not supposed to be loaded. The weapon was at the time in the hands of the younger boy, when to his surprise and horror it was discharged in some manner, the load entering the back of his brother, killing him instantly, as is supposed. The younger boy, seeing what had happened, and not knowing what to do, became frightened and ran away and hid, no doubt fearing punishment, leaving the body of the poor victim lying where it fell. Before night, however, the little one made his appearance and told how the unfortunate affair occurred. The particulars were brought here by the Loganville stage driver, and we presume are about correct. Coroner Mader received no notification of the occurrence, and he supposes most likely that an inquest was held by a justice of the peace. The affair is an extremely sad one and is greatly to be regretted. The whole community at Rosecrans is greatly excited. We did not learn whether the younger brother was arrested or not, but as the shooting seems to have been entirely accidental, there would not be much necessity for that.—Clinton Democrat.

FURTHER PARTICULARS ABOUT THE AARONSBURG SPOOK.

Recollections of an old Citizen. Mr. Kurtz.—Sir: As you have been publishing some ghost stories which at one time created some excitement in the vicinity of Aaronsburg, in days of yore, and as my memory goes back to the time the unfortunate teamster was killed, I will give you my recollection of the circumstance: The person killed by being run over by his wagon, was Joseph Carson, father of our esteemed friend Joseph Carson, dec'd. The time the accident occurred, was in the year 1818. Mr. Carson at the time lived on the farm now owned by Samuel Brown, in Harris township, two miles east of Boalsburg. He left home with his six horse team, to go to Lewisburg; either on his way down, or on his return, he accidentally got under the wagon, supposed by slipping on the ice, and was run over by a wheel and killed. Mr. Carson was one of our most respectable citizens and a very intimate friend of my father and mother. I recollect very distinctly of his visiting them a short time before he met with his sad accident. My brothers James and John being older than I, would likely have a fuller recollection of the whole circumstance than I have. I also have a very faint recollection of the rumor of spooks and headless persons being seen at different times at or near the oak tree you speak of in the Reporter, which, however, may all have been imagination of superstitious persons. SAM'L GILLILAND, Oak Hall, Pa.

THUNDER GUST.

Thursday night between 9 and 10 o'clock, a terrific thunder gust passed over this section, reminding of the midwinter season. The lightning was vivid and frequent and thunder heavy. There was considerable rain with it, and the weather became cooler thereafter. The rain was a good thing for vegetation.

MILLHEIM POSTOFFICE ROBBED.

Early Thursday morning last, thieves broke into the postoffice at Millheim and breaking open the money drawer took between four and five dollars and a mail key. The postoffice is kept in Smith & Musser's hardware store.

A Tusseyville writer says that attempt to defraud the county out of $18 dollars on a boys' circulation and a subsequent backing out when our vigilant county officials discovered it, was a big drop down in an attempt to swindle by some greenies, and thinks the Reporter should expose that kind of dishonesty more fully as the public in general have faith in the omniscient manner of the Reporter as a friend of what is right. He also wishes us to explain the puzzle and to do that we want the request to come from some other quarter and then our friend will hear a bigger drop than that which was to take the $18 fraudulently from the county treasury. Must be bisle worte, Hen.

The Franklin House, of Millsburg, is no more. The flames attacked it Friday night and worked such destruction that only the ruins are now visible. It also consumed Mr. J. C. P. Jones's restaurant and Mr. A. T. Boog's store. The Franklin House was quite an ancient structure, occupying a conspicuous place on the corner of the square. It was three or four stories in height, the upper part being frame. It was owned by Mr. J. C. P. Jones and Mr. A. V. Butler. During recent years it has been used for dwellings and when the flames ended its existence Friday night Mr. Jones and Mr. Henry Comer, with their families, were its occupants.

The J. F. Hill & Co., $3.00 improved sewed web shoe, the best shoe ever sold for the money. These shoes have all the merits of the Best Hand Sewed work, being as flexible to the foot. Their great advantage over the old style machine sewed shoe is their perfectly smooth innersole. No pegs, tacks or heavy seam of thread to hurt the foot and wear out stockings. They are made of the very best stock throughout, in all the leading styles of high and low shoes and every pair is warranted. Try one pair and you will wear no others. For sale by E. Graham & Son, Bellefonte.

The Lock Haven Express says that the barn on the farm of Ira Oehl, above Washington Furnace in Nittany Valley, was burned on Thursday afternoon with all its contents. The fire was caused by Mr. Oehl's little son playing with matches. Three calves and a lot of hogs were burned. All the farm implements were consumed, together with a large quantity of grain and hay. Small insurance with the Centre County Grange.

This week the orders for flour at the Centre Hall roller mills are ahead of the supply. The two brands for which there is a constant and increased demand are "Cream" and "Calla Lily," now made at the best manufacturing in the U. S. For two essentials, good water and excellent flour, Centre Hall can't be beat.

Lewins has a merchant tailoring establishment connected with the Pa. Branch, under the management of one of the best tailors in the state who never makes a miss in a fit if you let him take your measure. Suits made to order, on all the latest styles, and at low prices.

The Bellefonte Nail works sustain a severe loss in the death of the manager of the works. The News says: No announcement could have been more unexpected than that received this morning giving information of the death of Mr. Samuel Anchenbach. The first intelligence was contained in a telephone message from Mr. William V. Emery, of Williamsport, saying that Mr. Anchenbach had died of cramp, on Sunday in the city of Reading, and that his son-in-law had gone to that city to have his remains brought to Williamsport. A request was at once made for fuller particulars.

Mr. Anchenbach was a member of the Bellefonte Nail and Iron Company, Ltd. He understood thoroughly the mechanical part of that industry and was also a very excellent business man. His part in the conduct of this, the most important industry in our town, contributed greatly to its success. His mission in Reading was in relation to the affairs of the firm.

ROCHESTER CLOTHING HOUSE

Mr. M. Fauble, formerly with S. & A. Loeb's, Bellefonte, has opened a new clothing house in Ammerman's Block, Bishop street, Bellefonte. Mr. Fauble makes a specialty of the celebrated "Rochester Clothing," which is considered by merchants and the public to be the best article in ready made goods. His stock has been received and is brand new in every particular. Along with clothing is a complete line of goods, including trunks, hats, collars, shirts, underclothing, trunks, satchels, etc. Mr. Fauble invites his many friends in Penns Valley to call on him at his new stand and promises to give them better bargains than heretofore.

Mrs. Wolf, relict of Jacob Wolf, of Miles township, now within one month of closing her 55 year, stepped off of the train on Monday morning and is stopping with her son, Wm. Wolf. This aged lady is still in good enough health to make such a visit. Her other sons yet living are Rev. E. J. Wolf, D. D., of Gettysburg, merchant Henry Wolf of Millheimburg, and commissioner John Wolf, of Miles. Three weeks ago all these sons were together at the old homestead in Miles to gladden the heart of their aged mother by a visit under the paternal roof.

The item in last week's Reporter, taken from one of our Bellefonte exchanges, stating that the commissioners had appropriated $2000 to make a park out of the ground between the courthouse and jail, is erroneous. The commissioners have appropriated no money for such a purpose and do not intend to do so.

Protect your horse's shoulders from sores and blisters by using good collars only on them. D. A. Boozer keeps a complete assortment and at all prices.

Buy "Rochester Clothing" at Fauble's.

MORE SNOW.

Following close upon the thunder gust a few days previous, Monday morning last opened with an old fashioned snow storm, the flakes mingled with sleet, coming down so thick and fast as to have been a credit to a January spell, while this is the 18th of April. The depth of snow was about five inches and it bro't out the sleights and the jingling bells.

We regret to learn of the unexpected death of a son of Rev. Dr. Wolf, of Gettysburg, on Wednesday morning, 12 Mrs. Wm. Wolf, of this place attended the funeral of her nephew. The Reporter sympathizes with Dr. Wolf and family in this bereavement.

The Rev. Francis W. Tustin, Ph. D., professor of the Greek language and literature in Bucknell University, Lewisburg, died at his residence on Friday, of congestion of the brain. Professor Tustin was 52 years of age. He had been connected with the university for nearly 30 years.

Men's suits, $3.75 and up. LYON & CO.

Harness oil, best quality, at D. A. Boozer's.

Do you expect to buy a new carpet? Schroeyer's carpet store, Bellefonte makes a specialty of this kind of goods. See card in another column.

TO THE PUBLIC.

The greetings of Spring to all! We have given you no annoyance for six months to read ads, and now hope you will gratify us enough to read this letter and profit by it.

We want to tell you that next week we will make our usual Spring purchases and as before do our utmost to make such selections as will please you. Week after next the stock will be here and we feel confident you will not regret having waited if you postponed your buying until then.

Next week by the use of a liberal amount of water and calomine, we hope to brighten up our room, and make it more inviting.

Wait and be convinced that the place to get the best, most fashionable and at the same time cheapest goods is with

Your obedient servants, WM WOLF & SON, Centre Hall, Pa., April 20, '87.

MILLHEIM.

The shooting on Sugar Valley mountain, mentioned by your correspondent last week, was done by a boy 11 years old, and the unfortunate victim was his brother 13 years old who was shot through the heart while they were playing Indian.

Squire Eisenbuth fell from a wagon one day last week and sustained painful injuries in the back of his head and his back.

On last Thursday burglars forcibly entered the front door of Musser & Smith's hardware store and stole about five dollars in money, some pocket knives and carried off the U. S. mail key.

There will be two new houses erected in this place in the near future by E. W. Mack and Michael Maize respectively.

Joseph H. Fisher of Saubury, arrived in our town last Monday to give our band boys some new music, and an overhauling generally.

Our new borough dads have the back bone, You bet.

Andrew Immel, the former Aaronsburg landlord has rented and taken up his abode in this place.

A party of anglers from our town—we will not mention any names—went to Poe creek on the first trout fishing day and came back with the usual success. "Fisherman's luck," and the usual fish story.

TUSSEYVILLE.

The rain last Thursday night was just what all wished for, and has given the grain and grass a start. Some of the wheat fields look poor around here.

Rev. Diven preached an excellent sermon in our church last Sabbath morning.

Candidates are moving around, and several have shaken hands around here. One will be taken and the others left. You can look out for a full Democratic vote for the ticket next fall.

Some of our farmers think of planting oats or barley in their poorest grain fields, which is a good idea.

One of your particular friends (over the left) was here the other day, from your place, and said they were bound the Reporter should be run out. Some of our folks call that big talk, when one considers the source. Don't be scared, Mr. Reporter, as long as you are faithful to the Democracy, they will stand by you.

For all wool cheviot checks and silk mixed cloths, of the best quality, at the lowest price, you will find Lyon & Co., just the place.

DOUBLE WEDDING.

Thursday evening witnessed one of the most interesting social events that has taken place in Berlin for many years, being a double wedding at the residence of Mr. C. A. M. Krissinger. A large number of friends from at home and abroad were gathered at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Krissinger in honor of the occasion. The house was handsomely decorated with flowers and rare plants until it was indeed a bower of beauty and fragrance.

The happy parties united in marriage were Mr. William L. Kurtz, of Centre Hall, Pa., with Miss Annie M. Krissinger, of this place; and Mr. Robert Filson with Miss Agnes Peterson, both of this place. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. E. Fischer, of Centre Hall, Pa., assisted by Rev. C. B. Gruver, of Berlin. The brides were a vision of loveliness, and the grooms looked justly proud and happy as they were united to the charming creatures at their sides.

The brides were attired in beautiful and becoming costumes of white adorned with lace and flowers, and the grooms were in the conventional black. After congratulations refreshments were served and all adjourned to the dining room, where a most elegantly arranged table met the view, laden with all the substantial and delicacies, tempting alike to the eye and the palate. After due justice had been done the delicious viands, the guests spent a most enjoyable evening enlivened with instrumental music.

The brides received a large number of handsome presents, both useful and ornamental.

Among the guests from a distance were Rev. and Mrs. W. E. Fischer, Mrs. Frederick Kurtz, Mr. Charles Kurtz, Mr. Harrison, of Somerset; Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Philson, and Rev. L. Young, of Meyersdale; Dr. and Mrs. W. R. Krissinger, of Glencoe; Miss Sadie Critchfield, of Stoyestown.

Mr. and Mrs. Philson will remain in Berlin, but Centre Hall will be the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Kurtz, and while Berlin regrets to lose one of her fairest daughters, Centre Hall society is to be congratulated upon gaining a member who will add to it real goodness and grace.

ANOTHER CHANCE FOR PUZZLE WORKERS.

The Judge's second Prize Offering. In behalf of the GRANT MONUMENT FUND.

In spite of its more or less complicated character, the JUDGE'S Grand Word Contest, just ended, has proven a great success. By it JUDGE has enlisted over 300 energetic, spirited and intelligent workers for the Grant Fund, has materially swelled the total previously received through the Grant Monument Committee by the completion of a good sized check, and has in addition distributed $600 among 80 successful and happy puzzle workers as a reward for their labor and ingenuity. JUDGE now inaugurates a second contest, an even more popular character than the first—a contest in which every school child can engage and stand an equal chance with older competitors.

Every person who, in conformance with governing rules, sends to the JUDGE Grant Fund, on or before June 15th, 1887 (11 o'clock noon), 5c. and the names of the eleven most popular living men in America will be entitled to participate in the contest. The money thus received will be appropriated as follows:— Twenty-five cents will be at once credited to the Grant Fund. The remaining twenty-five cents, after deducting the legitimate expenses of advertising, will be placed in a common fund to be divided among the six competitors having the fullest list of the most popular men as indicated by a majority of all the lists sent in. The new contest is, in fact, based upon the principles of an election, each competitor virtually acting in the nature of a ballot, and the six lists containing the greatest number of the eleven names shown to be the most popular by a majority of all the lists will be the successful prize papers.

The amount of the prizes will depend on the amount of money received, or in other words, on the number of competitors. The names and contributions of competitors who so acknowledged (and the progress of the fund shown from week to week in JUDGE. Governing rules in this week's JUDGE, or circulars mailed, a receipt for postage. Requests for a pie of paper must be accompanied by ten cents. address,

THOMPSON'S

Our new cutter has proven what we predicted—first-class.

We forgot to mention that the old hands, who were here before the firm dissolved, are still with us. From experience you have found them to be second to none. As half is in the making of the garment, we think this is another big reason why you should try us.

Since our last writing we have received more goods suitable for Spring and Summer wear, which for nobbiness and style can't be beat.

We desire to call your special attention to our large and complete line of trimmings.

All who have seen our silk and stiff hats seem much pleased with them, both as to shape and price.

Latest styles in collars, just out April 1st, we have already in stock.

Keep your eye on this space. S. U. THOMPSON.
