NO FURTHER DISTURBANCES.

No More Attempts at Lynching—No More Trouble Feared.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 2.—Everything is quiet about the jail and Court House square. The meeting agreed upon by the mob leaders did not materialize, and it is generally allowed that all danger of mob violence has passed. Turner and Patterson spent a miserable night. They refused to eat and could not sleep with any peace. They were called upon by two colored ministers, who endeavored to pacify them, but only partially succeeded. During the night the prisoners were visited by numerous citizens who out of curiosity wanted to see them and hear what they had to say. The men were in adjoining cells, and each could distinctly hear what the other said. When Turner was asked if Patterson was guilty he would reply in the affirmative, and Patterson never failed to reply that it was not true. A dispute would then follow, each swearing by all that was true and holy that he was right and the other wrong. Both prayed incessantly, and when the mob was fiercest they literally rolled on the floor in fear and agony. When the prisoners were told that the militia and galling gun had appeared, they grew composed and rested under a feeling of safety.

The statement indicating that Patterson was able to prove an alibi is not generally believed. It is strongly contradictory of another story told by Patterson a few days ago, when he claimed that he had been assisting a lady to move at the time of the assault. This, upon investigation, was found to be totally false.

HAIL STORM IN MINNESOTA.

Four-Ounce Hail Stones—Considerable Damage Done—Snow in Utah.

ST. PAUL, May 2.—One of the severest rain and hail storms ever known here occurred late yesterday, lasting only fifteen minutes. An average of 150 window panes to the block were broken all over the city, and sidewalks were flooded and carried away. The state capitol and public buildings and churches were badly damaged. Hail stones weighing four ounces crushed through the skylight and landed on the stone floor of the Ryan hotel. One or two frame houses in the suburbs were overturned, and the damage by the storm is not less than $50,000.

SALT LAKE CITY, May 2.—A heavy snow storm which continued in squalls for about twelve hours, left the ground thoroughly soaked.

Tears For Bishop Binney.

HALIFAX, Nova Scotia, May 2.—A dispatch from New York announcing the sudden death there on Saturday evening of Bishop Binney. The bells of the various Episcopal churches were tolled, and the news quickly spread through the city. St. Luke's cathedral was draped in mourning and touching references to the deceased made by the clergy. Bishop Binney was for 36 years in the Episcopal office in this province, and at the time of his death was one of the oldest prelates in Canada occupying sees. As a prelate Bishop Binney had an eminently successful career, and his name is on the lips of the people all over the diocese. As a citizen he did much to advance the public institutions of Halifax, and was a favorite with all classes and denominations.

Rural Sensation in Illinois.

GRENADE, Miss., April 30.—The Rev. C. F. Stiver, rector of the Episcopal church of this city, was shot by Capt. W. P. Fowler, a leading member of the same church, and died soon after. The assault took place at Capt. Fowler's house, where the rector was boarding. The first shot was fired in his room, and he was followed to the door and shot again. The murdered man made an ante-mortem statement in which he said Fowler was justified in the shooting, and requested that he should not be prosecuted. Fowler refused to make any explanation. He is a traveling man and had just returned from a trip. It is alleged that the rector had taken undue liberties with Mrs. Fowler, who complained to her husband on his return. The rector was young and popular. There is great excitement over the affair.

Brother Kills Brother.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., May 1.—A report comes from Gainesville of a shooting affray. As Charles Bailey was going home he was attacked by his own brother Ellie who shot him dead. Five shots were exchanged between the two brothers and the assaulting brother was dangerously wounded, a ball striking him in the left breast and lodged in the back just under the skin. Charley Bailey had threatened to kill his brother on sight. Bad blood has existed, according to report, between the two brothers for some time, and some say that Ellie was justified in killing his brother on account of the latter's threats.

Supposed to be Dynamite.

BUFFALO, N. Y., May 2.—A car porter of the Buffalo, New York and Philadelphia railroad, while at work in the Louisiana street yards about 10 o'clock Saturday morning, found a bomb, which is supposed to be a dynamite bomb. It is about 4 inches in diameter and 8 inches long, and it was attached a fuse several feet long running through a cork. The attention of the company's detective was called to the matter, but he took the fuse only with him. The police of the second precinct have taken the matter in charge, although it has been kept very quiet.

Returned and Surrendered.

SARATOGA, May 2.—Ex-Chief of Police William F. Mahedy, against whom four indictments were found, two for perjury and two for misdemeanor, and who disappeared January 22 last, suddenly reappeared before County Judge Lamoreaux at Ballston Spa and surrendered himself. He gave bail in $1,000 on each of the perjury indictments to the July term of Sessions. Mahedy is the officer who became involved in trouble in New York several months since in connection with the Lardon blackmail case.

A Triple Burning Accident.

CITY OF MEXICO, April 30.—A footman attempted to place a demijohn of brandy on a high shelf. He had set a candle at the foot of the ladder he was using, when the ladder slipped, and down he and the demijohn fell. The latter smashed, and the brandy catching fire, he was in a moment covered with flames, as were three women servants, who tried to rescue him. The unfortunate man and two of the women were so terribly burned that they died soon after in great agony.

Cattle to be Quarantined.

HELENA, May 2.—Gov. Leslie has issued a proclamation forbidding the importation of cattle from the states of Illinois, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Delaware, Virginia, Texas, Vermont, and the District of Columbia, except upon a certificate from the territorial veterinary surgeon that such cattle have been quarantined for 90 days and are free from disease.

DELUGED WITH LETTERS.

Mr. Powderly Gives Warning That He Cannot Answer Them All.

PHILADELPHIA, April 30.—In the Journal of United Labor, issued to-day, T. V. Powderly says:

All assemblies and members of the order are hereby notified that such correspondence as may reach my address between the 4th and 24th of May will not receive an answer. I will during the whole of that time be away from home, and will be at work in the interest of the order. When I return, the mail of each day as it comes will receive such attention as I may be able to give it. I will have no time to go over the pile that in spite of this notice will be sent in. I am literally deluged with letters. I have appealed to the order to stop sending me letters, but no notice is taken of my protest. If I drop everything now and take up the letters awaiting me, it will take one year of my time to reach the end of them. I must appeal no longer. From this time forth assemblies must correspond with the proper corresponding officer. If I continue to devote my whole time to correspondence I cannot do that for which I am elected. The order expects something more from its chief officer every day, but I am not getting it. I get no time to think or act for the welfare of the order or if you disregard this general order and send letters to me, I will simply turn them over to the general secretary. I have a more important mission to perform. I am pestered with invitations to attend banquets, entertainments, and meetings, and I cannot attend to my legitimate duties and leave. It will avail nothing to invite me. I will not go. My throat is not strong enough to speak in public. The order has grown and is growing stronger every day, but I am not getting it. I get no relief from unnecessary labor that I may perform my duties as general master workman.

LEGISLATORS AT WAR.

A Rhode Island Railroad Committee Proceeds from Words to Revolvers.

FALL RIVER, May 2.—The railroad committee of the Rhode Island legislature went over to Tiverton to see about building a railroad from Tiverton to Little Compton. After a long walk over the proposed route they all adjourned to the Lawton House to hear argument for and against the new road. Peter Cook, a wealthy resident, who favors the plan, made a bitter speech, calling the names and making many cutting allusions. At last Col. Alexander, owner of the hotel, got angry and, jumping to his feet, shouted, "You lie." "Your word is not to be trusted," said Cook to the colonel. "I wouldn't trust any man who would set fire to his own house." Col. Alexander had no answer to this. He cooled, making this a heavy home thrust. He was very angry. He raised his heavy cane and plied it lustily over Mr. Cook's head until some of the committeemen restrained him. Revolvers were drawn, and the committee made a stampede. At last order was restored. The matter will be taken into the courts.

Discrimination in Spite of the Interstate.

CHICAGO, April 30.—The discrimination which has been made by the various passenger associations in the matter of granting reduced rates for certain conventions are arousing considerable comment. Among the organizations which met with a refusal are the hotel men's mutual benevolent association, which meets at Washington, D. C., next month; the medical societies of the city, the Iowa medical association, the synd of the reformed Presbyterian church, the league of American wheelmen, the annual convention of wool growers, and a dozen other organizations which hold their conventions during the ensuing two months. On the other hand, the reduced rates have been granted to the numerous societies whose conventions will be but sparsely attended, and the charge is made that special discrimination has been manifested against the gatherings which seem likely to bring together a large number of people.

Desertion of Naval Apprentices.

NEWPORT, R. I., April 30.—A number of naval apprentices have deserted from the training ship Jamestown, but the lads cannot be of much value to Uncle Sam, as only $1—the smallest reward ever offered—is all that will be given for their return on board the ship.

Current Foreign Topics.

ROME, May 2.—Advices from Massowah say that General Saleitti, the Italian commander there, has proclaimed a land and sea blockade.

PARIS, May 2.—Among the dividends attracting attention here is that of 19 per cent. declared by the Petit Journal company, whose profits for the past year were $1,105,000. The company now claims a circulation of 1,000,000 copies daily.

ST. PETERSBURG, May 2.—The trial of the persons charged with plotting against the life of the czar has been concluded. All of the accused were found guilty. Seven were sentenced to death and the others to servitude for life.

It is reported here that the English and Russian Afghan Boundary Commissioners cannot agree.

The czar has resolved to journey south notwithstanding adverse police reports. It is expected that he will start in a fortnight.

VENICE, May 2.—King Humbert unveiled a statue of Victor Emmanuel here. There were thousands of spectators present, and much enthusiasm was displayed.

ANOTHER CHANCE FOR PUZZLE WORKERS! The Judge's second Prize Offering

In Behalf of the GRANT MONUMENT FUND.

In spite of its more or less complicated character, the JUDGE'S Grand Word Contest, just ended, has proven a great success. By it JUDGE has enlisted over 3000 energetic, spirited and intelligent workers for the Grant Fund, has materially swelled the total previously received through the Grant Monument Committee, and has in addition divided a good sized check, and has in addition divided $500 among eight successful and happy puzzle workers as a reward for their labor and industry. JUDGE now inaugurates a second contest of an even more popular character than the first—a contest in which every school child can engage and stand an equal chance with older competitors.

Every person who, in conformance with governing rules, sends to the JUDGE Grant Fund, on or before June 15th, 1887 (12 o'clock noon), 50 cts. every day, and the names of all the competitors in America will be entitled to participate in the contest. The money thus received will be appropriated as follows:

Twenty-five cents will be at once credited to the Grant Fund.

The remaining twenty-five cents, after deducting the legitimate expenses of advertising, will be placed in a common fund to be divided among the six competitors having the fullest list of the most popular men as indicated by a majority of all the lists sent in. The new contest is, in fact, based upon the principles of an election, each competitor voting for the man he deems the most popular by a majority of all the lists will be the successful prize papers.

The magnitude of the prizes will depend on the amount of money received, or in other words, on the number of competitors. The names and contributions of competitors will be acknowledged (and the progress of the fund shown) from week to week in JUDGE. Governing rules in this week's issue of circulars mailed, a receipt of postage. Requests for copies of paper must be accompanied by ten cents. Address,

"GRANT FUND," THE JUDGE PUBLISHING CO., 28 Park Row, New York City
