-The house of Dr. De Groff, in Hoboken, New Jersey, was entered by burglars on the evening of the 28th and robbed of $700 in money, $2700 in Adams Express bonds and $1500 in silverware.

-A fire in Brooklyn, on the evening of the 28th, destroyed the cooperage works of L. M. Palmer, a freight house of the Erie Railroad, and some smaller buildings. The losses are $200,-000, of which $130,000 falls on the cooperage. A fireman had three ribs the 31st ult. In Detroit, on the 30th the altars. A rush was made for the broken by a falling wall.

-Celestin Vezeau, his son Charles, Joseph Robindoux, Wilfred Herrieux, Phileas Vanier and Nelson Montreauil, went in a row boat from Montreal to grandmother of Dolan, died during the Nun's Island on the evening of the night from the effects of the shock. treauil were drowned.

-The official list of victims of the disaster on the Pennsylvania Railroad, at Horseshoe Bend on the 27th, shows 3 x killed and eight injured. By the disaster on the Lake Camplain Railroad, on the 27th, the fireman, Tatrow, was killed, and the engineer, Chappell, neighboring counties, which show that so badly injured that he died in a few hours. Another train hand had an about half a crop. The destructive ankle fractured, Mathias Schultz, aged 30 years, a brakeman on the Read- appeared for the past two years, is ing Railroad, was run over at Locustdale on the 28th and so badly injured acres of it are dying in consequence. that he died a few hours later.

-Richard Williams attempted to was crossing the railroad bridge over damage." the James river at Richmond, Virginia, on the 30th ult. He missed his footing and fell to the falls, 60 feet below. He struck the water feet first, and escaped with a broken collar bone and several severe bruises.

-The largest tobacco warehouse in Wisconsin, at Stoughton, was damaged by fire on the 29th ult., to the extent of $100,000. The old Conti Veranda Hotel and several adjoining buildings in New Orleans were burned on the morning of the 29th ult. Loss, $30,-000. A fire in Savannah, Georgia, on the evening of the 30th ult., destroyed David Weisbein's large retail store, and E. Lowell & Sons' large wholesale hardware house. Two other stores were damaged. The total loss is estimated at $125,000 insurance, $75,000.

-A tornado passed over Upper Sandusky, Ohio, on the afternoon of the 30th ult., doing great damage to trees, fences, etc. The spire of the Catholic Church, 200 feet high, was blown over, and the front of the church was wrecked.

-The boiler of an elevator in Huntingdon, West Virginia, exploded on the morning of the 30th ult., completely wrecking the structure, and killing T. H. Reese, John Kelly and W. K. Albertson. A man named John Perry is missing. About fifteen others were injured, three of them severely. "The engine was one of an old locomo ve holler that had been condemned from the Chesapeake and Ohio Road, and the engineer was inexperienced.' The boiler in the Hitchcock Manufacturing Company's works at Cortland, near Syracuse, New York, bursted on the morning of the 30th ult., demolishing the engine-room and part of the lacksmith shop. The body of H. A. Webster was taken from the ruins. Four other men were dangerously injured, one of whom, Frank Scott, is not expected to recover.

-A. G. Hill, book agent for a Cincinnati firm, called at the house of a Mr. Terri, fifteen miles east of Corsicanna, Texas, on the 28th ult., and finding no one in the place but Terri's daughter, grossly insulted her. She ordered him away, and, going to a field, informed her father. The old man followed the agent with a gun, and, overtaking him at a neighboring farm, shot and wounded him so badly that he died in a few hours. William H. Carroll. proprietor of a notorious resort in Wilmington, Delaware, known as the Casino, was shot and, perhaps, fatally wounded on the morning of the 30th ult., by Robert Frankford, bartender in an adjoining hotel. Carroll was the aggressor. He sought vengeance on Frankford, against whom be had a grudge.

-A severe earthquake shook Nogales, Arizona, at 1 o'clock on the affelt. No damage was done. On the and lynched by a mob. evening of the 29th ult., a violent "dry cyclone" visited Nogales, demolishing many huts and unroofing larger build-Up to 10 o'clock on the morning of the 30th ult., no more earthquake shocks were experienced in the Some of the more lightly constructed modern buildings are badly cracked, and it is feared the roofs of many of the older ones are in a dangerous condition.

-There was another death from yellow fever in Key West on the morning most malignant type, and, in anticipatien of an epidemic, the Health Board has applied for the use of the hospital at the United States barracks.

-The 4-year-old daughter of Greenberry Davis died on the 29th ult., of hydrophobia, at Wood's Run, near about seventeen months ago.

-William Showers, 59 years of age, was arrested at Annville, Lebanon county, Penna., at midnight on the 30th ult., on the charge of murdering his grandchildren, William and Samuel, were the illegitimate offspring of Showers' deceased daughter, and it is supposed the object of the crime was to on the evening of the 30th ult. They mother of the children, after she had then committed suicide, in Reading, children, and buried them in the ditch Penna., on the evening of the 30th ult. in Showers' garden. The woman was the divorced wife of a the tragedy. C. R. Jackson shot and New Mexico, on the 28th ult., in a dren were dangerously injured. fight arising out of an old grudge. Policeman Thomas Tyrrell shot and ult., William B. Dolan interfered with Policeman John Klebs, who was trying to quell a disturbance, and was shot dead by Klebs. Mrs. Conner.

28th. They spent the night in drink-lng, and, on trying to get back to the melting snow, at the Mullen tun-Shock, engineer, was killed, and the city early on the morning of the 29th, nel of the Northern Pacific Railroad, the boat capsized and all except Mon- near Butte, Montana, on the 28th ult., which may stop the transfer of heavy freight for some time. The break is about 75 feet in depth and 100 in

-Reports were received in Reading, Penna., on the 31st ult., from various points in Berks, Lebanon, Lehigh and "this year's wheat will realize only Hessian fly, which had entirely disapagain ravaging the wheat fields, and The Colorado beetle, which has inhabited these counties for the past thirjump on a passenger train while it teen years, is also doing considerable

-An earthquake shock which seemed like an underground explosion of great severity," was felt at Jamestown, New York, at 10 o'clock on the morning of the 31st ult. Many people ran out of their houses in alarm. Another shock of earthquake was felt at Benson, Arizona, at 11.55 on the morning of the 30th ult.

-The captain of the steamer Planter, at Charleston, South Carolina, from Georgetown, on the 31st ult., reported seeing three watersprouts off South Island at the mouth of Wingate Bay. "One very large one struck South Island, causing the sand to be torn up and trees to bend as in a hurricane. Captain Hubbard has seen waterspouts in the Baltic and in the he ever witnessed."

-By a runaway accident in Kansas City, Missouri, on the evening of the 30th ult., Mrs. Eleanor Randall was killed, and Mrs. Charles French and her daughter, Emily, were fatally inured. Mr. French was stunned.

-Professor Charles Siedhorf and his wife Matilda, aged respectively 91 and 92 years, after a long and hopeless struggle with destitution, committed suicide on the 31st ult., at Union Hill, New Jersey.

-At Quebec, on the 30th ult., three men, named Pilon, Jeannette and were taken sick while at work, and, medical aid being procured, it was learned that they had been polsoned. Jeannette and Madouin have since died, and Pilon is still very sick. How the men came to be poisoned is a

-The latest reports of the earthshow that a few small bouses were knocked down, several roofs fell in, and several persons were injured. A section of the aqueduct was broken, and the cupola of the Cathedral was cracked by the shock.

A mail train and a freight train collided at Shamokin, Penna., on the evening of the 31st ult., and both were badly wrecked. Several persons were injured, among them J. J. Timmons, traveling passenger agent, and F. D. Strausser, mail agent.

-Near Whitewood, Manitoba, a few near his house, with the head crushed dead body of William Echols, terribly Rabun Gap, Georgia. Charles E1-

-George H. Disque, convicted of the murder of his wife, at Hoboken, New Jersey, was banged on the 1st. He confessed his guilt.

-A Judge of Probate named Follett | fence, and discharged. City of Mexico. During the night a has disappeared from Grand Rapids, heavy lain fell, cooling the weather. Michigan, after stealing and forging to the amount of $30,000. He was ruined by speculation. John J. Goodman, 18 years of age, was arrested in New York on the morning of the 2d, for stealing $2000 from the Butterick Publishing Company. He carried the mail of the 29th ult. The disease is of a of the company to the post office each money was spent in gambling. J. J. Hartigan, of Tracey, Minnesota, was Pittsburg. She was bitten by a dog brother for $11.000. The brother went soon as they heard cries from inside. east and had the certificate cashed by a bank in New York. Before cashing the Haven Railroad, on the 3d, ran into a ceived the reply that the money was on severely injuring two others. aged respectively 3 and 5 years. They he had assisted his confederate to have deposit. Powell left Tracey as soon as the certificate cashed.

enable the grandfather to marry a fifty men left Annville for Lebanon, woman who did not want to be burd- Penna, to lynch William Showers, in have them cared for by some other grand-children. The would be lynchers persons. The children disappeared were joined by one hundred and fifty about two weeks ago. Their bodies others in Lebanon, but they were met have been found buried in Showers' by some officials and induced to disyard, with ropes around the necks and perse on the promise that Showers the skulls crushed in, The murderer "should receive full justice." Showers has confessed his crime. Samuel insists that the children were mura penknife near Conrellsville. Penna. | was married to Showers' daughter, on Indian rights."

had been separated for several weeks. | five illegitimate children with as many severely wounded Annie Gring, and Hoffnagle kidnapped and murdered the

-The house of G. W. Johnson, at man named Fox, and jealousy caused Vincennes, Indiana, was struck by lightning on the 1st. All the family killed Peter Fraser, at Albuquerque, were knocked senseless and two chil-

-A panic occurred in the cathedral at Chihuahua, Mexico, on the afterkilled James Carroll, "a pugnacious noon of the 1st, caused by the falling prisoner," at Wankegan, Illinois, on of a candle, which et fire to one of door, and in the panic several children were killed and a number of women were injured.

-An express train on the Pittsburg and Western Railroad ran into a lumber car on the evening of the 1st and fireman severely injured. The collision was caused by the lumber car sliding from a siding to the main track,

-Benjamin Courtright, 30 years of age, accidentally shot himself dead while examining a shot gun at his house in Scranton, Penna., on the 2d. He leaves a widow and two children.

-"A fatal epidemic of some kind" is reported in Goodhope, Edgefield county, South Carolina. Many deaths have occurred, and both the local phy sicians are prostrated. -W. T. Ricketts, a prominent citizen, was waylaid near Owensboro. Kentucky, on the evening of the 31st ult,, by his son-in-law, Vernor Tatum, beaten senseless and stabbed. His injuries are fatal. There was a grudge be- didn't have that brand new silky to 100 rude huts. Each community tween the men. Robert Gravatt, 45 years of age, savagely beat and felo-niously assaulted his brother's widow in Crawford county, Missouri, on the 1st. He has been captured and confesses his guilt.

-The report that a volcano broke out in the Sierra Madre, near Piedras Verdas, Chihuahua, during the first of the recent earthquake shocks, is confirmed by exploring parties. A mass of molten lava is pouring down the mountain side, and extends ten miles forgave her, and things run along is not in all the country such a thing from the crater. The heat prevents a nearer approach than three miles.

-A tornado passed through Western Georgia on the evening of the 1st, doing great damage to buildings and crops. No loss of life is reported.

-The following, among other places South Pacific, but this was the largest having attained a population of ten thousand, or their post-office having returned a revenue of $10,000 or over, the free delivery system will be extended to them on the 1st of July: In New Jersey-Atlantic City, East Orange. In Pennsylvania-Beaver Falls, Carlisle, Chester, Johnstown, Meadville, Norristown, Warren, West Chester.

-It is now estimated at the Pension Office that the number of Mexican pension claims will not exceed 30,000.

-The total coinage of the U. S Mints during May was valued at $4,802,572. The number of standard dollars turned out was $2,900,000.

-In Benton county, Missouri, the 2d, a lawyer named Van Leaton, who had been annoyed by the trespass-Davidson's house. Davidson, also armed, met Van Leaton, and after some hot words shot his antagonist dead. He surrendered to the Sheriff. quake shocks in the City of Mexico saying he acted in self-defence. John Connelly shot and killed Mrs. John Stoddard, and then shot and wounded himself, at Braceville, Illinois, on the morning of the 3d. He was lodged in jail and there finished his suicide by cutting his throat. He had been drinking heavily. At Wagon Mound, New Mexico, recently, a deputy sheriff tried to serve a replevin on William Burns, colored, and the latter resisted. The deputy and Burns drew revolvers and began a fusilade. The deputy's first shot killed a bystander; several other shots fatally wounded Burns. Near Fort Grant. New Mexico, a few days ago, William days ago, the body of Samuel Poole Tellefer and John Rail, ranchmen, was found tied by the neck to a tree quarrelled about some calves and shot each other. Neither is expected to in. (On the morning of the 1st the recover. It is reported from Eckert, Indiana, where two young scoundrels mutilated, was found on the road near named Davis were lynched for assaulting a Miss Flannagan, that Wilwards, colored, has been arrested for liam Kellem, father-in-law of one of the crime. "A scandal is said to be at the Davises, was lynched at the same the bottom of it." Walter and Charles time. Also, that the mob took away Davis, brothers, feloniously assaulted a Andrew Eulow, a step-brother of the posed to be savages, as well as at the fourteen-year-old girl in Crawford Davises, and that the lynchers "will ternoon of the 30th ult., and ten county, Kentucky, on the 29th ult. not tell what was done with him." minutes afterwards a lighter shock was On the 30th ult., Charles was captured William H. Carroll, proprietor of the Casino, in Wilmington, Deiaware, who was shot by Robert Frankford on the 30th ult., died on the morning of the North America there is nowhere 31. Frankford was acquitted by the Corener's jury on the evening of the same day, on the ground of self-de-

-The total number of cases of yellow fever at Key West, on the 3d, is 13, of which 4 have resulted fatally. Six

-The latest particulars of the panic in the Cathedral at Chihuahua, Mexico. on the 1st, show that three children day and it was his custom to steal let- and two women were killed, and sixty ters containing money or checks. The paisons injured. The building is absolutely fireproof, the only inflammable materials being some adjuncts of the recently induced by a stranger named altar, and the exits are ample. Some Powell to start a bank. Powell "put of the witnesses assert that the loss of coast on either side, is thickly populating the bank of the witnesses assert that the loss of coast on either side, is thickly populating the bank of the witnesses assert that the loss of coast on either side, is thickly populating the bank. a certificate of deposit to an alleged eral policemen who closed the doors as

-A train on the New York and New certificate the New York parties tele- number of Italian laborers, near Magraphed to Powell at Tracey, and re- maroneck, killing one of them and

-The trouble between the fullthe Indian Territory, is reported to be -On the evening of the 1st, about growing. Several encounters have resulted in bloodshed. On the 30th ult., a party of whites and half-breeds were ened with the boys, and who wished to jail there for the murder of his two attacked on Buffalo Creek by a party of full-bloods, and several were wounded on both sides, two fatally. It is said that "many of the full-bloods urge year is filled with drift ice, which error, of dishonesty or integrity, every-Choctaw territory, giving as a reason that they are dangerous in stirring up strife between full-bloods and half- eastern coasts of the bay are sights to mate which is put on a man's doing, reflected glories of the heaven. If we Prinkey fatally stabbed his wife with | dered by a man named Hoffnagle, who | breeds, and are constantly encroaching | be admired, cliffs rising in many cases | that is a man's real measure of attain-

RAVING CRAZY.

John Matz, aged 26 years, shot and different fathers. Showers claims that Crazey This and Crazy That, and What Will the Woman do Next?

> As a reporter was interviewing a prominent gents' furnishing goods dealer in regards to the spring styles in hats yesterday, he overheard the following confab between two lately married men:

> "Neat looking silk hats, those, eh, Smith?" "Yes, and that reminds me, I've > got to get me another." "What! another one. Why, it was only three weeks ago that you bought one. What has become of that?" "Gone, Jones, gone. Heard anything about those crazy parties the women are going insane over? Haven't

"No, but what that got to do with hats?"

"Well, I'll tell you. When I bought the last one, I carried it home and hung it on the rack. I intended to go to Boston the next day and wear that hat, but when I went to get it it wasn't there. I asked Mrs. Smith where it was, and she said:

"'O, John, was that your best hat? Such a lovely crazy patchwork basket. by hunger, as they can expect nothing Just come in and see it,' and she took me by the arm and piloted me through the crazy portiere into her sewing room, and I hope to be sunk if she turned bottom up, mounted on three legs, with pompoms dangling on the rim, ribbons glued and landscapes the Moravian missionaries, a few of painted all over it. Well, sir, I was mad."

for a $10 hat to get into. Ruined it, far as Fort Churchill on the west.

didn't it?" "Ruined it. Well I should smile. The mass of ruins was perfect, but I they did they wouldn't get it, for there smooth until Wednesday at supper as money, the only exchange being in time. I was in a great hurry to get back to the office, and I was mighty hungry, too. When I got home my wife was out and so was the fire, and work for the day and prepare to bury ent, as blind as he that cannot. no supper ready. While I stood rumin- him. If the settlement possesses such ating on the prespects of obtaining a a thing as a dinner bell, and the most little nourishment in the way of grub, the door opened and in came my wife with a dozen bundles in her arms, and this is the explanation she gave:

"O laws, there, I'm just tirel to death. But such a nice time. Just been down to Mrs. Sniggles's crazy quilting party, and on my way back lected, a march is made for the Kirote, Franklin Street Church. Such a jolly which consists of about an acre of | just time to get ready to attend the ity. Into this little field go the entire meeting of the ladies' crazy circle and populace, and after chanting the virthe benevolent society for embroidering crazy pantaloons and nicknacks for corpse is taken away on a skin rock ing of the dogs of a neighbor named those poor little Hottentot children, and covered with ice and snow in the Davidson, took a shot-gun and went to | way off somewhere; and that makes me think, John, where is that old day is spent in rejoicing, and the next broken shovel that used to hang in the day, if the deceased was married, his ccal bin? I wish you'd find it. I'll better half makes another choice, and fix it real nice, and we'll hang it over at the end of a week if an agreement the mantle. It will make a handsome be come to, the dead is forgotten and crazy ornament and-' "But I couldn't stand it any more, and let myself out of the front door. I'll tell you what Jones, if this crazy business goes on much further, I'm going to study up a patent crazy straight-jacket. Really, I think the old woman is going off her balance." And Smith paid for his hat and went out.

THE PEOPLE OF THE NORTH. A Visit to Hudson's Bay-Charac teristics of the Mixed Races.

An Ottawa correspondent writes as follows: Those who have never seen life as it exists among the inhabitants of the Hudson's Bay country would be astonished at the extent of civilization among a class of people generally supawful grandeur of the scenery and forbidding aspect of the graveyard coasts along the shores of that northern sea. In all the uninhabitable region of to be found a more bleak, desolate, or dreary waste than between Ungava Bay, off the coast of Labrador on the east, and Fort Churchill on the west and southern part of Hudson Bay proper. Although little is known yet patients are sick and three convales- regarding this weird and frozen region, it has had a growth within the last half century which has been something phenomenal, and having been measured according to its needs by the God of Nature has gone on advancing from age to age, until at the present time, not alone the more fertile islands, but the extent of land back from the breed and talk and chatter even among the misery and destitution which life in a region of perpetual frost and snow must bring. Hudson's Bay itself is latitude 51° and 64° north, and longitude 77° and 95° west, and while about is only about 600 miles in breadth, covering an area of over 500,000 square miles. It is navigable only for about three months in the year-from the middle of June to the middle of September-and for the remainder of the tance, an absolute impossibility. The to the height of from 200 to 400 feet ment in the world.

abruptly from the water's edge, and being composed of a glacier-like substance which, being even coated with ice and frozen snow, shine in the sunlight until it is almost impossible to look at them for any length of time. The residents of this section are not properly Esquimaux, but a cross between this and the French and Indians, who have come in for the purpose of hunting and fishing, and finally settled down among the natives to live as they do and share with them in the privations which no other life affords, On an average, in the summer months, the thermometer stands at about 45° above, while the temperature in the winter runs as low as 600 below zero and will average about 250 below. Fish are scarce and can be caught only in the river, of which on the east there is only the Great Whale, while on the west there is the Hayes, Nelson, Churchill, Moore, Albany, Weeknisk, Main, and Abbititbe. Seal abound in plenty, but are extremely shy and hard for the natives to get at, while porpoise and walrus are equally difficult to get hold of, Were in not for the small furbearing animals which are about the shores the poor half-breeds would stand a very good chance of perishing in the way of favors from the Hudson Bay Company's stores, a few of which are along the coast. The natives live in little villages composed of from fifty has its place of worship and its church burial ground, which is consecrated by whom are to be found wandering about from village to village, from the east-"Well, that was a queer predicament ern extent of the settlement down as These faithful, beloved men expect no recompense for their services, and if fish, oil, or furs. Whenever one of a tribe dies the rest of his family-meaning by that the entire settlement-stop of them do, the oldest man in the village goes about from hut to hut and rings the bell in front of each until the occupants come out, both big and little, and, falling into line, march after him. When the circuit has been made, and big and little are all col-

Prosperous Seal Islanders.

the no longer sorrowing ones begin

life over again.

On the island of St. George where 25,000 seals are annually taken, $10,-000 is divided among the natives each season. A first-class share last season | proved by trials. amounted to $525. When it is taken into consideration that besides this cash paid for services rendered by each dealer every native family on the Island has a comfortable home, with fuel, lights, medical attendance and schooling free of charge, it will not to learn late than never. seem an exaggeration to claim for it would be hard if not impossible to Improve. With such advantage over his fellow Aleuts it is hardly to be wondered at that the seal islander should consider himself a trifle better than his poorer cousins. Great is the flutter in the social circles of Oonalaska fields of St. George or St. Paul arrives on one of the company's steamers in search of a wife. In affairs of this kind the priest of the parish has great influence, and it has been whispered that, these good men manage to hold back the choicest articles in the way of marriageable damsels until less desirable stock has been floated, thus preserving a healthy tone to the market. However this may be, marriages are always occasions of general and profuse

Chipping Irving's Tombstone. I confess I beard not without a secret pleasure that the relic hunters so chip and hammer the stone that marks Irving's grave as to make its frequent renewal necessary. It did not seem to life is impossible. As the flowers folme a grievous wrong, nor in any true low the sun, and silently hold up their sense a profanation of the grave, but petals to be tinted and enlarged by his rather a testimony to the lovableness of really an inland sea, extending between Irving's character, and an evidence of the wide extent of his fame, that, from whose voice commands, whose love filling the circle of the educated and warms, whose truth make fair our blooded and half-breed Choctaws, in 1,000 miles long at its greatest distance, refined among his countrymen, has now come to include that lower stratum of part in such silence only. If the soul onr common humanity which has only instinctive and, so to speak mechanical in some kinds of deafness a perpetual ways of expressing its feelings.

the expulsion of every white man in renders navigation, even for a short dis- where we go that will take root in His tonies. It is the calm lake which somebody's life.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

Unstained honor is the best monu-

Trifles make perfection, and perfection is no trifle.

It is better to fight for the good than to rail at the evil. A sunny temper gilds the edges of life's blackest cloud.

The world deals good naturedly with good natured people. Charity is a first mortgage on every human being's possessions. Every duty we omit obscures some truth we should have known.

Great hearts alone understand how much glory there is in being good. True merit is like a river; the leeper it is, the less noise it makes. If you keep pegging away, the chances are you won't go barefoot.

The first and last thing which is reuired of genius is the love of truth. Hidden virtue is often despised, inasmuch as nothing extols it in our eyes. To help one another is our wisdom.

our renown and our sweet consolation. To be honest as this world goes is to be one man picked out of ten thousand. Conscience is the voice of the soul; he passions are the voice of the body. There cannot be a greater treachery

The reproaches of enemies should quicken us to duty, and not keep us from duty.

than first to raise a considence and then

Work is the law of our being-the living principle that carries men 'and nations onward. Fear small temptations rather than great ones. These come only now and then—those every day. To an honest mind, the best perquisites of a place are the advantages it.

gives a man of doing good. I have lived to know that the great secret of happiness is this: Never suffer your energies to stagnate.

Pleasure must first have the warrant that it is without sin; then, the measure, that it is without excess. Nothing will make us so charitable or tender of the faults of others as by horoughly knowing our own. To all intents and purposes, he who-will not open his eyes is, for the pres-The three things most difficult are-To keep a secret, to forget an injury, and to make good use of leisure. Unnatural deeds do breed unnatural troubles. Infected minds to their deaf pillows will discharge their secrets. Life is before you-not earthly life alone, but life, a thread running interminably through the warp of eternity. To endeavor to work upon the vulgar with fine sense is like attempting to just dropped into the crazy tea at the as it is called, the village church, hew a fine block of marble with a razor. Children are travelers newly arrived time: and I've finished those crazy ground simply inclosed by a wall of in a strange country; we should theresuspenders for you dear, and I've got stone near the middle of the commun- fore make conscience not to mislead them.

No errors are so trivial but they debut it should be repented of and renounced.

Every beautiful, pure and good common burial plot. The rest of the thought which the heart entertains is an angel of mercy, purifying and guarding the soul.

> Let a man learn that everything in nature, even motes and feathers, go by laws and not by "luck," and that what be sows he reaps. Oh, how small a portion of earth > will hold us when we are dead, who ambitiously seek after the whole world while we are living!

> As the medical properties of some plants can be adduced only by distillation, so our good qualities can only be > Great efforts from great motives is the best definition of a happy life. The e isiest labor is a burden to him who has > no motive in performing it. As long as thou shalt live seek to improve thyself, presume not that old age brings with itself wisdom. It is better

There is always hope of a man so long these hyperboreans a state of life which as he can be pupil to criticism. A man who cannot endure to be told his faults cannot maintain his virtues.

Money and time are the heaviest burdens of life, and the unhappiest of all mortals are those who have more of either than they know how to use.

There are some people who never have a cheering word for the struggler. when a dusky hero from the bloody They make life just as hard as possible for all who are striving to do right. Teach self-denial and make its prac> tice pleasurable, and you create for the world a destiny more sublime than ever issued from the brain of the wildest There is no death, but a change of > state. We die, yet we live, what wondrous love, oh, God! no death! We carry ourselves to the other world, otherwise we go not there. You say you have doubts, you little cymling-head! No wonder. Now, if you will pull up one of your doubts by enjoyment and everybody seems happy. the roots, you will find something on the tap root, and the name of that something is sin.

The whole law for a noble and devout life is not altered by reason of any new circumstance. It still remains true that a mind silently waiting before God is the condition without which such a shining, so must we, if we would know the joy of God, hold our souls, will, hearts and minds, still before Him whole being. God speaks for the most be full of tumult and jangling noises, his voice is little likely to be heard. As noise in the head prevents hearing any other sounds, the rush of our own We are sowing seeds of truth or fevered blood and the throbbing of our own nerves hinder us from catching mirrors the sun, the least cat's paw would bear God our souls must be in