FRED. KURTZ, Editor and Prop'r

CENTRE HALL, Pa., June 15 1887.

TERMS.—One year, $1.50, when paid in advance. Those in arrears subject to previous notice.

A FEW SPECIALTIES.

We have recently made an addition to our stock of summer goods and would call the attention of the ladies to some of the goods which we are sure will please them and offer them at rare bargains.

We think we can show you the finest line of Parasols to be found in the county. We have them in best quality of silk with deep lace trimmings and in different styles and colors.

In this our stock is complete and have a line of the following goods adapted for summer wear: Seersuckers, Batiste, Satins, etc.

LOCAL ITEMS.

—Dog it, cut your Canada thistles —The Huntingdon car works, long idle, will soon start up.

—Rev. Steck of Bellefonte will deliver his lecture "The hero recognized and unrecognized" at Spring Mills on next Saturday evening.

—Miss Laura Strohm of Centre Hill, who has made quite an extended tour through some of the western states returned home on last Monday.

—A large party of ladies and gentlemen arrived at Lock Haven on Saturday upon a raft, having made the trip from Clearfield, 150 miles, in two days.

—The mortality among horses and colts, in our county, seems to be abating —the number that died must have reached some 60 in the last three months.

—We hear another Centre county lad carries off honors. The young man is Mr. Cal Johnstonbach of Boalsburg, who was graduated from a medical institution at Cincinnati last week with first honors in a class of sixty-two members.

—On Wednesday, the 1st of June, Rev. Edmund C. Baird, a baptist minister, died at his home in Central City, New York.

TWO OATS MEETINGS.

The parties who suffered by the Bohemian oats operations, in this county, met at Brown's hotel, on Tuesday, to consult as to what measures to adopt, to reach the parties who took them in, and recover their losses.

ANOTHER MEETING.

A meeting was also held in this place, on Thursday night, last, in mischief hall, by the board of managers of the oats company.

NEW CHURCHES.

We recently gave a list of the churches in this valley, the number being quite large. In addition to those there are no less than six new ones in view.

CATCHING EELS IN THE DARK OF THE MOON.

Mr. Henry Royer, of Egg Hill dropped into our sanctum on Monday to attend to some business, and pay us a visit.

On last Thursday afternoon during a heavy thunder gust which passed over our valley, the house occupied by Mrs. Burkholder and daughters at Centre Hill was struck by lightning.
