-A railroad fight began in Indianapolis on the evening of the 11th. The Indianapolis, Decatur and Springfield Company enters the Union passenger station over the tracks of the Indianapolis, Cincinnati, St. Louis and Chithat line, and has been paying for the cut money and proposed building a necessary to cross the tracks of the other company. On the evening of the 11th the Decatur people put 150 men at work, and the crossing was almost completed before the officials of the other road learned what was going on. They then ordered a locomotive and a force of men to the scene and attempted to stop the work. "The crossing was a sort of temporary affair, intended to establish the legal right of the Decatur people, and the Big Four people tried to demolish it by running a locomotive upon it. The locomotive was thrown from the track, and while the Big Four gang was engaged in replacing it, the Decatur people practically completed another temporary crossing. At a late hour the Big Four people had the crossing blockaded with a locomotive and several freight cars."

-The coroner's jury investigating the boiler explosion at Chester, Penna., on the 10th, decided that the explosion "arose from faults originating in the manufacture of the boller plate."

-The steamer Alameda, which arrived at San Francisco on the 11th, from Australia, brought news of the death, in Sydney, of William E. Sheridan, the American tragedian. On the night of May 17th, while sitting as a spectator in a Sydney theatre, he was stricken with a fainting fit and never recovered consciousness. At 3 o'clock on the morning of May 18 he playing an engagement at Adelaide, arrived at Sydney just two hours after her husband's death. His health was poor all the time he was in Australia. Mr. Sheridan was born in Boston on June 1st, 1839, He appeared on the stage at the age of 19, served three years in the Union army during the war, was married in Boston in 1864, and was leading man at Pike's Opera House until it was burned, in 1866. He was for several years a supporter of Edwin Booth, and during the latter years of his life appeared frequently as

-The house of a farmer named Edwards, in Menota, South Manitoba, was burned on the evening of the 11th, and three children, aged from seven to twelve years, perished in the flames.

-James Loftus and Edward Rogers, each 12 years of age, were drowned on the 12th, while bathing at Great Barrington, Massachusetts.

-The town of Trenton, Missouri, and its neighborhood have been infested for a week past by swarms of insects apparently identical with the Spanish fly of the dispensatory. They devour vegetation and blister human beings. "Fully a thousand people in Trenton are at present nursing blisters caused by this insect, and lights in residences at night have been almost abandoned for fear of attracting the poisonous in-

-Governor Torres, of Sonora, has issued a proclamation offering a reward of $500 for the head of each hostile Apache Indian.

-At Savannah, Missouri, on the 12th, Jasper Rhodes killed G. N. Scurlock, his brother-in-law, in a quarrel over a trifle. At De Leon, Texas, on the morning of the 12th, J. T. Allison shot and killed his son-in-law, Henry Scott, during a quarrel over family matters. Scott also shot Allison, who is in a critical condition. Captain A. J. Landman was murdered near Yazoo City, Mississippi, on the evening of the 11th, by two brothers named Collum,

-The United States Treasurer reports that the total circulation-coin and currency-on May 31st, 1887, was $1,297,256,560, being a net increase of $58,566,545, as compared with the circulation May 31st, 1886. The increase by items was as follows: Gold coin, $16,879,944; standard silver dollars. $2,463,384; subsidiary silver, $2,346,842; gold certificates, $10,840,952; silver certificates, $49,956,199, and United States notes, $4,521,722; total, $87,009,-043, which amount was reduced to $58,566,545 by a decrease of $28,442,498 in the circulation of national bank

-The First National Bank of Alliance, Ohio, was authorized on the 11th, with a capital of $100,000.

-While a number of men were examining a charge which had failed in a quarry near Leesport, Penna., on the afternoon of the 13th, it exploded, in-York, on the 13th, Lemuel Hart was Massachusetts, on the afternoon of the get out his brother's body. 13th, Smith Billings and Joseph Thompson, while running to catch a ball, collided with great force. Billings had his frontal bone crushed in and was terribly gashed on one side of the head, and his condition is critical. Thompson was also badly injured and was insensible at last accounts.

- Five men were killed and a number injured by an explosion of dynamite at -Panama advices to the 4th inst. report a landslide on a farm in Concordia, which killed 16 persons-Pedro A. Restrepo, his wife, nine children

-There was a small riot on the af-Oak Cliff Park, in Hudson county, and a watch from him and left him tied | ment New Jersey. While the festivities were to a tree. Frank Fowler, charged died.

at their height, a man named Winn, who tried to take a short cut through threwn over a fence among some base ball players. These went to his assistance, and several constables also ap- laborer. proached the park entrance, and all were assaulted by the Anarchists with stones and clubs. Pistol shots were cago Company, using 600 or 700 feet of also fired and two constables and a boy were wounded. It was announced on privilege. They grew tired of paying | the 13th, that the District Attorney of Hudson county had taken steps to track of their own. To do this it was bring to punishment Johann Most and a number of his followers for the riotbe made upon the New York authorities fer Most's extradition.

-The Hall & Ordway Manufacturing Company (boots and shoes), of Nashville, failed on the 13th, The firm's liabilities are reported to be $160,000, the individual liabilities $46,-000, and the firm's assets $200,000. The Ohio Steam Heating Company, at Cincinnati, made an assignment on the 13th. Liabilities, $58,000; assets $69,-

-It is said that a careful review of the hop situation in the Mohawk Valley indicates that, barring possible ravages by vermin, one-third of an average crop will be harvested. The decrease in acreage is fully one-third, and the yards' average is only fair. Many yards were not cultivated. Ten and twelve cents is being offered for '85s, and twenty-two cents for prime '86s.

-The jury in the case of Barclay Peak on the 13th returned a verdict of guilty of murder in the first degree. Judge Parker announced that sentence would be pronounced on the 25th inst.

-Peter Betters, colored, was lynched at Jamestown, Ohio, on the evening of the 12th, for having assaulted Martha Thomas, colored, aged 75 years. Stephen Poole, celored, aged 30 years, shot and mortally wounded his wife died. Mrs. Sheridan, who had been and then committed suicide, in Brooklyn, on the 13th. In Scurry county, Texas, on the 11th, James Taylor, a "sheep man," was attacked by four Mexicans, three of whom had knives and one a six-shooter. He captured the revolver and killed all four of his assailants. "Dago Joe," a half-breed Indian, accused of the murder of a white boy, was taken from officers and lynched near Duncan Station, Mississippi, on the 12th

-It is reported from Benson, Arizona, that Lieutenant Johnson's command surprised a murderous band of Apaches in the Rincom Mountains at noon on the 11th, capturing their baggage and horses. "The Indians scattered among the rocks, and evidently will try to make their way back to San Carlos. It is believed that the hostiles are practically helpless in their present condition. The troops are still in sharp pursuit."

-The strike on the ore docks of the on the afternoon of the 14th. The places of the strikers have been filled by colored men and others from Chicago. The new men have been working under police protection, as the strikers threatened "to drive them out of town." On the afternoon of the 14th, George Vactor, a colored porter at the Central Depot, took Superintendent O'Brien, of the railroad company, his dinner to the docks. The strikers, who had gathered in large numbers, beat him in a terrible manner, and would have killed him had they not been driven away by the police. The railroad company "seeing that they would have to act quickly to prevent a bloody scene, loaded their imported colored men into a train, and, amidst a shower of bricks and ore, started away to the suburbs. John Joyce, one of the assailants of Vactor, has been arreeted."

-There was a great panic in the wheat market at Chicago on the 14th, the decline for June wheat being 17 cents. The suspension of three irmsin revenge for his having insisted that Rosenfeld & Co., E. W. Bailey & Co., they owed him a balance of 75 cents on | and Hamill & Brine-was announced, and C. J. Kershaw & Co., asked a delay from their creditors, promising that ample funds should be forthcoming. The panic extended to other cities, but no serious trouble was reported except down, took his pistol from him and and milestoned with solitary palm at Milwaukee, where three failures blew out his left eye, but the man estrees thirty leagues apart, each overwere announced, viz.: Frank Wilson, caped to the surrounding hills and has hanging a "limpid well" (whatever Joseph Wilde Hill, Fleitzbeim & Co., the latter being the Milwaukee branch of C. J. Kershaw & Co., of Chicago. Hooker, Crittenden & Co., closed out all their trades. Their failure depends on the ability of the Kershaw crowd to meet all their obligations.

-By a fall of top rock in the Delaware and Hudson Company's Mill Creek Colliery, near Wilkesbarre, on mer was killed, Simon Charmesky so badly hurt that he died within an hour, and Michael Fisher and John Bradosky severely injured, the former perhaps fataily

-Wesley and Elmer Fisher, brothers, were crossing a bridge near juring three men, two of them, named Butler, Ohio, on the 13th, with a Francis P. Kauffman and Philip traction engine, when the bridge gave Schaeffer, fatally. At Olean, New way and both men fell into the water fifteen feet below, where they were killed and several others were slightly planed by the engine. Wesley was injured by an explosion of nitro- held under water and drowned. Elglycerine at the works of the Galla- mer was held fast by the feet, but his gher Torpedo Company. During a head remained above water. It took game of base ball at Marblehead, nearly two hours to release him and

-The Mound City Street Car Company's stables and the stables of the Lafayette Brewing Company, in St. Louis, were destroyed by fire on the morning of the 14th, both fires happening almost at the same time. The loss on the brewery stable is $15,000, on the car stables $50,000. The old Watuppa mill in Fall River, Massachusetts, used as a storehouse by the Pocasset Manuthe Inman mines, four miles from facturing Company, was burned on the Chattanooga, on the evening of the evening of the 13th. Loss, $30,000. Swindell Brothers' floating saw mill at Apalachicola, Florida, was burned on off shore on the 13th inst. Her crew the 14th with 1,000,000 feet of boards. have arrived at Pensacola, She was Loss, $50,000. Turnbull's white lead factory in Newtown, Long Island, was burned on the 13th. Loss, $75,000.

-J. C. Chase was robbed by two men ternoon of the 12th, at a pienic of in the woods near Tremont, Massachu-about 2000 New York Anarchists at setts, on the 13th. They took $500 with having forged checks to the amount of $37,000 on Governor Bate, the park, was savagely beaten and of Tennessee, over a year ago, was ar- New York, on the evening of the 16th, rested on the 13th, at Rich Valley, In- rather than have his toes amputated diana, where he was hired as a farm for gangrene. Mrs. Dr. Harry R. Net-

-Four persons, whose ages range from 12 to 45 years, have been drowned near Kalamazoo, Michigan, since the 11th, while boating or fishing. Matthew Rapp was killed by lightning while opening his door near St. Joseph, Missouri, on the evening of the 13th.

-In Jersey City on the 15th Charles ing at Oak Hill Park. A demand will Burch, a policeman, 34 years of age, twice shot and fatally wounded his wife and then committed suicide, shooting himself twice in the breast and once in the head. The couple had been married eleven years and had three children. Burch was a Protestant and his wife a Catholic, and they quarrelled frequently on account of their religious differences. In Columbia county, Oregon, on the 11th, Levi Backus and G. D. Stoddard quarrelled over a division line fence, and Backus shot and killed Stoddard. Backus fled, pursued by a constable. The latter ordered him to hault, Backus, who was armed with a Winchester rifle refused, whereupon the constable shot him dead. It is reported that Caspar Strombach, supposed by the police of Rahway, New Jersey, to be the murderer of the unknown girl found with her throat cut last March, was arrested on the 14th in a small town in Illinois. Strombach was employed as a laborer on a farm near Houtenville. He is about 25 years of age. A telegram from Salem, Illinois, says that Strombach was caught at Iuka, where he confessed the crime to a fellow countryman, named John Bauman, and ations. said he had an unknown accomplice. He identified a photograph of the murdered girl. In Rowan county, Kentucky, on the evening of the 14th, while ex-Sheriff Ramey and his son were riding home from Morehead, they were fired at from ambush, and are believed to be mortally They did not belong to wounded. either of the factions that disgrace the county, but had lately refused to join the Toliver gang

-A prevalence of rabies among dogs and cattle is reported in Calhoun county, Florida. Several persons have been bitten by rabid dogs, and "dog and cattle killing parties are organizing. -J. C. Ryan and Henry Treloar were killed at Crystal Falls, Michigan, on the 14th, by the premature explo sion of a blast. While men were whitewashing an ice-house near New Ringgold, Berks county, Penna., on the morning of the 15th, the scaffold fell, killing Charles Wiest and fatally inuring William Koenig.

-A Lehigh University freshman, New York, Pennsylvania and Ohio named Palmer, from Paterson, New two persons injured, and in Walle Railroad at Cleveland resulted in a riot Jersey, was drowned while bathing in township one man was killed. the canal at South Bethlehem, on evening of the 15th.

-The panic in the wheat market at Chicago, continued on the 15th, and eight additional failures were announced, among them those of Crosby & Co. and M. S. Robinson & Co., large firms. Early in the day C. J. Kershaw & Co. announced that they were able to pay all their clearing house differences and to margin below the market, funds in bank to their account were hours. garn'sheed or tied up in some way, and they failed to go through. Later in the day they sent a communication to the Board saying that they expected to pay in full next morning.

-On the morning of the 16th three masked robbers went to the house of Peter Hawn, in Juniata township, near Huntingdon, Penna., and de manded money from the women, who were alone in the house. While the robbers were at work the men re-George Anker, Hawn's turned. adopted son, shot at one of the robbers folks who have never seen any desert with his rifle, but missed him, whereupon the robber fired at Anker with know pretty well by this time what his revolver, inflicting a fatal wound | Arabia ought to be like. A dreary, in the left breast. After Anker was unending level of burning sand, tastewounded the robber knocked him fully decorated with human skeletons not yet been captured. The other rob- that may be), while bands of dusky bers retreated in an opposite direction.

-While colored schoo's were holdng a picnic in a grove near St. Louis, on the 15th, a gang of colored roughs went to the grounds and after drinking beer refused to pay for it, When Adams, the booth keeper, remonstrated, the rowdies assaulted him with clubs and drew pistols on him. the morning of the 14th, Peter Ceim- Adams went hmoe, procured a Winchester rifle, returned and opened a promiscuous fire on the gang, two of seriously wounded, the latter perhaps Joseph Duquette shot his fatally. wife and then committed suicide, at South Bridge, Massachusetts, on the 15th. It is expected that the woman

-The trouble in the Chicago wheat market continued on the 16th, Kershaw & Co., being unable to meet their obligations. There were fifteen failures in all on the 15th, with $361,000 liabilion Tuesday, the habilities aggregate The suspension was also announced of of an ocean steamer. Griffiths, Marshall & Co., of Minneapolis and Duluth.

-- A report was received at Minneapolis, on the evening of the 16th, that a tornado had visited Grand Forks, Dakota, killing four men.

-The steamship Vidette, from New York for Mobile, foundered 100 miles valued at $60,000 and had a large assorted cargo.

-Two new cases of yellow fever were reported on the 16th, in Key West, making a total of 29 to date. Sixteen patients are now under treatment, three have recovered and ten tleton, of Rochester, committed suicide at her father's residence in Batavia, New York, on the morning of the 17th. York, was shot and killed by Curtis Fiske, in a hotel kept by a widow to whom both were "paying attention." Wales had a handful of red pepper to throw in Fishe's eyes, and also a revolver, but his rival was too quick for him. Wales was a married man. He leaves a widow and one child. Benjamin Hance, colored, aged 18 years, was taken from the jail near Leonardtown, St. Mary's county, Maryland, early on the morning of the 17th, and lynched by a mob. He was charged with attempting to assault a white girl. This is the first lynching in St. Mary's county. "Jack" McKelway. of Mapleton, Penna., was arrested on the 17th on suspicion of being one of the party who committed the robbery at Peter Hawn's place on the 16th.

He was away from home on the 15th until the evening of the 16th, and was not able to explain his whereabouts.

Charles Galbrith, of Mt. Union,

17th with his head bandaged. He is a friend of McKelway, and an officer was sent to arrest him. Auker, the

-Stephen Washburn, 75 years of age, committed suicide near Saratoga, farmer who was shot, was still alive on the 17th but was in a critical condition. -A despatch from Shenandoah, Penna., says the storm which preflooded and compelled te stop oper-A heavy wind and rain and outbuildings. No casualties were

-Samuel Meyers, Superintendent of the Miami County, Indiana, Asylum for the Poor, was arrested on the 16th on the charge of assaulting and severely beating helpless female inmates of the asylum. The bodies of several of the poor women gave evidence of the reported.

beatings. -Particulars of the tornado in Dakota on the afternoon of the 16th have been received, In Grand Forks twentyfive buildings, including the Catholic church and the University of North Dakota, was destroyed, and four persons were killed. Ten persons were severely injured. In East Grand Forks fourteen buildings were destroyed and two buildings blown away. A railroad train was blown from the track four miles from the town and or cramp colic would rack and wreck rolled over twice, severely injuring many persons. At Marvel and Ardock many buildings were demolished and

-A passenger train and a freight train on the Schuylkill Valley Railroad. collided on the morning of the 17th at Parker's Landing, north of Phoenix- pose the liver became mulish, the apville. Charles De Haven, fireman, was petite would be annihilated, food killed, and George Baxson, engineer, on the Pennsylvania Railroad, collided, on the morning of the 17th, near Rohrerstown, in Lancaster county. An engine and five cars were wrecked, and | ger most imminent, suffering unbear-

M. T. Horner & Co., in Baltimore, was damaged by fire on the 17th, to the extent of $35,000. Fully insured. The Globe Carbon Works in Cleveland, Ohio, were bursed on the morning of the 17th. Loss, $25,000.

What Arabia is Like.

called manuals of geography, and the valuable information of various worthy but Coney Island, New York, we all robbers mounted on horses possessing the singular property of always going at full galop and never needing to be fed, scurry over the pathless waste in a ably where there is nothing to eat, and amassing rich spoil where there is no

But these well ascertained facts are Arabia as it is, which does not agree by any means with Arabia as it ought whom, Jeff Smilh and Henry Hall, he to be. The untraveled traveler sees with amazement Arabian mountains several thousand feet in height, Arabian valleys as green and beautiful as the charming little glens that lurk amid the black lava ridges of Iceland, Arabian fortresses armed with European cannon, Arabian coffee planta tions worthy of the choicest districts of Java and Brazil. Indeed, the whole northern slope of the Coffee mountains of Yemen is still as rich and proties. Including the three large failures | ductive, even after centuries of Turknearly $2,000,000. An additional fail- Mocha was the chief outlet of southern ure was announced on the afternoon of Arabia, little dreaming that it should the 16th, that of John J. Byrant & Co., one day be as magnificently useless as with liabilities estimated at $150,000. a London footman or the head steward

What Became of the Milk.

At an evening gathering a gentleman told a painful story of a little boy sent by his parents for milk. In returning nome the child was accidentally run over and killed. The story was told somewhat dramatically, and with much pathos, and at its conclusion the whole company remained silent for some moments. Then one of the ladies spoke up and said: "And what became of the milk ?"

chicks.

our virtues.

Brass in Students' Lamps.

"A great many people think that the brass in student lamp stands is forced into shape with the common snarling tool of the brass worker, but that is a mistake," said a lamp repairer the No cause is assigned. John Wales, a other day. "The instrument used is prominent citizen of Liberty, New g lathe, the same as is used to turn out iron or wood. A block of wood of the right shape is placed in the lathe, with a flat piece of brass against it, the latter put in motion, and when a high rate of speed is attained a small blunt instrument is placed against it so as to dent it to fit a wooden mold. When this is done the rod is run through the hole, and an iron plate placed in the hollow, so as to make the whole solid, and the bottom is then slightly washed with a composition which gives a brassy color, and the job is done. A good man can turn out nifty an hour. The top and bottom of the oil holder is also done in the same manner, but takes longer. "There is a class of metal used a great deal in the cheaper lamps called britania. This is commonly thought reached his home on the evening of the to be German silver, but it is so soft as to melt at a much lesser heat than solder. So it is of hardly any use for such purposes. I will give an example to illustrate the softness of this metal. A silversmith, to play a joke upon a friend, gave him what seemed vailed in that section on the after- to be a set of silver spoons. The noon of the 17th, did considerable friend waited until he had a few damage. A number of collieries were friends to tea, when he placed these on the table. He had hot coffee for supstorm passed over Galena and other per, and when the guests stirred it the points near the Sassafras river, in spoons soon disappeared, much to the Maryland, on the evening of the 17th, dismay of the host and the amazement doing much damage to trees, wheat of the guests. They were made of this same metal, but it was so soft as to melt with the heat of the coffee.

"This kind of metal can be pressed into shape on a mold; so it is used in | bottom of his trousers leg. the cheapest lamps to some extent, but is going out of use, as good lamps are becoming so cheap as to make it of no object to use it."

The Human Manufactory.

A man may eat and drink heartily all day, and sit and lounge about doing nothing, in one sense of the word; but his body must work hard all the time or it will die. Suppose the stomach refused to work within ten minutes after a meal, the man would die of convulsions in a few hours; or cholera him. Supposing the pores of the skin paratus with which they are connected a goodness and benevolence which, but -should go on a "strike," he would in for it, would be quite impossible. an hour be burning up with fever, oppression would weigh upon the system and soon become insupportable. Suphead would ache to bursting. Suppose the kidneys should shut up shop, danclose, in an hour he could not shut nor open them without physical force, and time is a miracle of wisdom; but to madness. Thanks to those instructive works and drinking is a miracle of benefi-

A Triplet of Girls.

There was born in Goshen, on March 26, 1788, a triplet of girls, who made one | deaf as an adder." of the most remarkable records known. They were Sibyl, Sarah and Susan Hurlburt, children of Gideon and Anna of eighty-seven years this triplet re- dungeon is on the way to victory. mained unbroken, Sibyl dying first at that age, in June, 1875. Her wedded name was Luddington. In October of Measure by man's desires, he cannot the next year Susan (Mrs. Grennell) live long enough; measure by his good style of clothing repulsive to every died at the age of 88. Sarah lived to the right principled mind, living comfort- age of 95, dying on January 11, 1883. Her wedded name was Bushnell. These sisters looked so much alike-particularly Mrs. Grennell and Mrs. Bushnell- and selfish world, he would do well to rarely shaken when confronted with that up to 75 or 80 years of age it was difficult for the most intimate friends to tell them apart; even they could mistake one another among themselves.

> What a Picture Paper Thinks of Paper Pictures.

The newspaper picture mania has got pretty well disseminated through it was a question that none but a the country, and the journals of towns | blind man could ask since any beautiful remote from ordinary means of art object doth so much attract the sight manage to decorate themselves with fashionable illustrations. This shows that the thing has pretty nearly run its | be one of Satan, for I myself have eaten ish misrule, as in the rar off days when course, and that the newspapers will at thy scanty table, and slept in thy presently come back to common sense. | cold bed. And never yet have I seen No doubt there will always be pictures | thee bring one smile to human lips, or in the daily newspapers. For instance, portraits of interesting persons will

To shape the character of a child never been born. aright is a task which perhaps only Millet is excellent food for young and implanted in our nature for wise embroidery of change must be skilfully Self love exaggerates both faults and | by principle, the source of the worst | will never lose its charm and its sources. vices and the most helnous crimes.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT.

On the same stream we never float again.

Life is a short day, but it is a working day.

What makes life dreary is the want of notion.

For a messenger boy-"He who runs may read. "

It is no honor for an eagle to vanquish a dove. Nothing can come out of a sack but what is in it. It is no time to play chess when the house is on fire. When one lives entirely with the course of nature every day is fully Things are ours that we may use them for all, sometimes that we may sacrifice them.

thing when it only urges us to hide our own hurts-not to hurt others. Man must work. He may work grudgingly or gratefully. He may work as a man or as a machine. As reasonably expect oaks from a mushroom bed as great and durable profits from small and hasty efforts.

Pride helps us; and pride is not a bad

There are a good many hard times in this life of ours, but we can always bear them if we ask help in the right way.

There is in every true woman's heart a spark of heavenly fire, that beams and blazes in the dark hours of adversity. Truth is the seed whereof welfare is the fruit; for every grain of truth we plant some one will reap a harvest of welfare.

Grief knits two hearts in closer bonds than happiness ever can; and common sufferings are far stronger links than common joys.

A wise self-discipline in the maturest is not so easy or so common that we may reasonably expect the young to be exemplary in that respect. When a man becomes firmly convinced that he is a gentus, it is then that the fringe slowly begins to form on the

One of the illusions is that the present hour is not the critical, decisive hour. Write in on your heart that every day is the best day in the year. Never be sorry for any generous thing you ever did, even if it was betrayed. You can not afford to keep on the safe side by being mean. No man, however wise, can look far ahead; but the man who is the best equipped with knowledge and readiness will win the prize in the near future. The business man who does not advertise always wants to get close to the business house that does. Every real-estate man knows this to be true. Enthusiasm is the lever by which men are raised above the average level -meaning thereby the glandular ap- and enterprise, and become capable of

> The harmless pleasures that make youth sweet, the opportunities that educate, the society that ripens the character, gives a rank that money cannot buy. As they, who for every slight infirmity would be loathed, sharp pains would take physic to repair their health, do severely injured. Two freight trains invade the small of the back, and the rather impair it; so they, who for every trifle are ready to vindicate their character, do rather weaken it.

No one can measure grief except by actual experience. One never forgets but this proved to be a mistake. The the tracks were blocked for several able, and death more certain, would be the bitterness of gall, having once speedy and most unenviable result. If tasted it; but not having done so, -The paper and rag warehouse of the little work-shops of the eye should laughs at the wry faces of these who would fain forget.

God made both tears and laughter. in another hour he would be blind, or and both for kind purposes; for as if those of the tongue should close, it laughter enables mirth and surprise to would become dry as a bone and stiff as | breathe freely, so tears enable sorrow steel. To keep such a complication of to vent itself patiently. Tears hinder machinery in working order for a life- sorrow from becoming despair and

> The cashier of a business house in New York finds that the following notice, posted in front of his desk, serves a useful purpose: "Never address your conversation to a person engaged in adding figures. There is nothing so

The truth cannot be burned, beheaded or crucified. A lie on the throne is a lie still, and truth in a dungeon is a truth still, and a lie on the throne is on (Beach) Hurlburt. For the great period the way to defeat, and truth in the

There appears to exist a greater desire to live long than to live well. deeds, and he has not lived long enough; measure by his evil deeds, and he has lived too long.

When one thinks that nobody cares for him, and that he is alone in a cold ask himself this question: "What have I done to make anybody care for and love me, and to warm the world with faith and generosity?" It is generally the case that those who complain the most have done the least.

It was a very proper answer to him who asked, why any man should be pleased with beauty? That of all men that it is in no man's power not to be pleased with it.

Oh, cursed poverty! I know thee to dry one tear as it fell from a buman eye. But I have seen thee sharpen the tongue for biting speech, and harden continue to be given; but miscellaneous the tender heart. Ay, I've seen thee fancy pictures will be bounded. They make even the presence of love a burhave no proper place in the daily press. den, and cause the mother to wish that the babe nursing her scant breast had

Each one can do something to those who have been wisely disciplined regulate the innate love of novin youth are thoroughly competent to elty within himself, so as to make it perform. Few know how to go about available for good. First of all he it; fewer still possess the requisite pa- | must recognize and not ignore it, then tience and equanimity to adhere per- he must make it the exception and no sistently to the rules under which alone the rule. He must accept sameness, it can be accomplished. The great not as an evil to be done away with, difficulty is with those strong propensi- but as the necessary and serviceable ties, which, wholesome in themselves, waip and woof of life, on which the purposes, may become, if unregulated and sparingly introduced. This novelty will be kept fresh and invigorating.