—SUMMER—GOODS— In this our stock is complete and have a line of the following goods adapted for summer wear: Seersuckers, Batistes, Satins, etc.

BARTHOLOMEW'S STORE Centre Hall Pa

LOCAL ITEMS.

—Interesting local matter on inside pages this week. —Wm. Pealer, one of Spring Mills' merchants, gave our sanctum a call.

MR. SOBER BEATS THE WORLD.

The Elmira Advertiser, 2, in its account of the Elmira Gun club's trap shooting has some bright laurels for our esteemed friend Sober. It says: Number ten was an exhibition of fancy glass ball shooting by C. K. Sober of Lewisburg, Pa.

—MUSICAL CLASS. Prof. Hayden, of State College, has been in town the last few days trying to organize a class in vocal and instrumental music.

—CHILDRENS' DAY. The members of the Evangelical Sabbath School, at this place, set last Sunday apart for the observance of Children's Day.

—MOWER TRIAL. One of the heaviest mower trials of this season took place at Adam Vonadas, near Madisonburg, on the 28th of June.

—HAND CUT OFF. Lewis Hassinger was unfortunate at Poe Mills, on Wednesday morning. While at work on the saw mill, a board getting fast threw his right hand on the saw and cut off the entire hand.

—DEATH OF JUDGE SMITH. The death of associate Judge Smith occurred at his home, at Pinegrove Mills, on the morning of July 4th.

—CORNER STONE LAYING. The corner stone of the M. E. church, at Spring Mills, will be laid on Sabbath next, July 17, at 2.30 p. m.

—THE FOURTH OF JULY FUNDS. Ed. Reporter: Being a subscriber to the 4th of July fund, would it be out of place to ask a showing up of how some of the money was spent, whether for unnecessary car-rides, hotel bills, etc.

IMPRESSIONS OF THE WEST.

I reached Omaha Wednesday, June 1, at 7 p. m. I was lodged, together with four other delegates, at the residence of a good German lady—a faithful member of our church there.

Omaha has a population of 90,000, according to the census of 1887. It has a banking capital of $4,000,000. Deposits, $13,500,000; clearings 1855, $61,389,128.

Men employed, 877; wages paid, $226,777.17. These were killed the first 5 months of 1887, 27,224 cattle, and 345,000 hogs.

The only regret I have to express concerning Omaha, is its lack of religion. The masses are not on the Lord's side. And what is true of Omaha, in this respect, is true of all the comparatively new west.

On last Sunday afternoon, 10th, the family of William Boal, of near this place, were called upon to mourn the death of Harry, the only son, aged about seven years and six months.

On last Thursday morning the Lath Iron Works, at Howard, was damaged by fire. Early in the morning the watchman discovered flames in the carpenter shop, a portion of the rolling mill building.

On Wednesday evening, 6th, during the heavy thunder storm which passed over this section a bolt of lightning struck the telephone line, along the mountain road above town and did considerable damage.

On the 4th there was an unexpected display of fire works. Harry Shirk went out to see the game of ball and took with him a large sized basket filled with fire works which he expected to retail to the crowd.

people. In the city of Beatrice, during the visit of the General Synod, all the principal business houses were closed, out of respect to the Synod.

LOCAL PENCILINGS. —Ice cream at Shirk's every day and evening. —Our farmers are busy harvesting—such as have any grain.

—The death of Judge Smith opens a chance for a new set of candidates. —Our devil, Simon Dinges, has his trials and tribulations experimenting with a bicycle recently purchased.

—The bulk of the hay-crop in this county, was put away in good order, the weather having been quite favorable for hay-making. —We are sorry to learn that our friend, Geo. A. Runk, of Spring Mills, is still dangerously ill.

—The Fourth opened at midnight by ringing all the church bells, firing anvils and such other appliances as contribute to make a general racket. —The corner stone of the Methodist church at Spring Mills will be laid on Sunday, the 17th, in the afternoon.

—The Centre Hall roller mill continues to be overrun with flour orders, notwithstanding regular night runs are made. Its flour is admitted to be equal to any in the United States. —One day last week the mail pouch was left on the track at the station, the work train went by, somewhat to the surprise of the carrier and shook up the pouch. Several letters were badly torn.

—Master Simon Wolf arrived home on last Friday evening from Loydsville Perry Co., where he has been attending the soldiers' orphan school. The young gent, in his regulation suit, has quite a military bearing. —A steam drill is being used for boring for water at J. F. Alexander's, at the lower end of town.

—Mrs. Chas. Zeigler and two children of Sogargrove, Cain, Co., Ill., arrived here on Wednesday. They formerly were from this section and expect to remain several weeks visiting friends and relatives in the valley.

—An Arab woman, one of a party peddling at Tyrone, was taken sick and lay down with her head on the railway track on Monday. A train came along and killed her. She leaves a husband and child, who are living near Jerusalem. —Mr. Chas. P. Hewes, chaperoning the Misses Lela Harper, Lydia Harris and Maimie Butt's, of Bellefonte, and Miss Roush of Altoona, spent the 4th at Centre Hall, and illuminated our sanctum with their presence before quitting the town.

—Rev. Fischer announced on last Sabbath, that he will preach at this place a series of sermons, commencing next Sunday evening by taking "Baptism" as his theme. The discussion of conversion, justification, sanctification, and revivals, will be included in the series and invites all to come and hear them. —Gov. Beaver will have an opportunity to appoint an associate judge to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Judge Smith.

—Gov. Curtin, Judge Orvis and Hon. J. B. Linn, spent an hour in the Reporter's sanctum, on Fourth; also in the evening, editor Frank Bible, chairman McClain, M. F. Hess, of Harris, and a number of candidates, enjoyed the shade and cool breeze that fanned our front on Independence day. —A lively Fourth of July was celebrated in a basket, carried by Harry Shirk, on the evening of the 4th.

—Some 30 or 40 of Bellefonte's juvenile population are encamped at Cherry Run, whither they were transported by rail over a week ago. They are supplied with tents, and provisions are sent daily by their pa's and ma's, who are supplied with a cook. We had a pressing invitation to visit them and show them how to catch the speckled beauties and camp over night with them and came dasted near accepting. —Mr. Derstine, of Rockford, Ill., in company with his brother, M. Derstine, of this place, gave us a pleasant call, on Monday morning.

—On Wednesday evening, 6th, during the heavy thunder storm which passed over this section a bolt of lightning struck the telephone line, along the mountain road above town and did considerable damage. The telephone poles for a distance of a quarter of a mile were splintered and shattered and in several places pieces were hurled fifty feet. The phone in the bank at this place was gutted, the inside of the instrument being burnt up. The ground wire and other connections were melted and wood work was badly charred, and it is a wonder that it did not take fire. —On the 4th there was an unexpected display of fire works.

—The Potters Mills drum corps will hold a festival on Pinebluff, on Friday and Saturday 22 and 23 inst, day and evening. —Nine new names booked on 4th of July was not bad, when we consider that no one solicited. —Sulky plow, advertised in Reporter, can be bought at a bargain by applying at this office. —Carpets of every grade, style and price, an entire new stock, largest and handsomest in the county, at S. & A. Loeb's. —Ice cream every day ad evening at Shirk's ice cream parlor.

—A large assortment of fly nets suitable for all classes of work at Bartholomew's store. —Oil-cloths, every pattern and width new and beautiful stock, at S. & A. Loeb's, and very low in price. —Read what S. U. Thompson has to say of big bargains in another column.

—When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

—We are having a heated term. —Hats, caps, boots and shoes, at S. & A. Loeb's, new stock and very low. —A lone musician with a harp entertained our people on Wed. evening. —G. A. Beaver, son of the Governor passed through here on Monday on his bicycle. —Lon Hassinger, who had his right hand cut off at Poe Mills, Wednesday, formerly lived at Centre Hall. —Miss Jennie Katherman, of Lewisburg, is visiting at the residence of Mr. A. L. Katherman, of this place. —The knitting machines of Messrs. Crawford, at Millheim, were transferred to the new factory building last week. The factory will be in operation in two weeks. —There is likely to be an unpleasantness about the new walk to the station, as to who shall pay for it. The land owners adjoining claim the law was not observed in the matter. Anyhow, the walk is a convenience.

MARRIED. At Centre Hall, July 2, by J. C. Boal, J. P., Rudolph Young and Elizabeth Butler, of Clearfield, Pa.

DIED. In New Berlin, July 6, Sem Schoch, aged about 80 years. Funeral Sunday at 10 a. m.

SPRING MILLS ACADEMY. The Summer term of this Academy begins on Monday, July 18th, 1887. Special attention will be given to those preparing to teach. Good boarding, from $2 to $2.50 per week.

W. P. HOSPERMAN, A. M., Principal.

CAUTION NOTICE.—HAVING PURCHASED ED at Constable's sale on July 5, 1887, the following personal property of A. Hoover, one spring wagon, and all the defendant's personal property, I will leave same in the possession of Mrs. J. A. Hoover, at my pleasure.

CAUTION.—MY WIFE, ANNA, HAVING left my bed and board, without cause or provocation, all persons are hereby cautioned against selling her anything on my account, as I will pay no debts contracted by her.

BIG BARGAINS. —IN— SUITS. —

Owing to the fact that we have a large stock on hand, and rather than carry it over, we have decided to make up suits for the next thirty days at about cost.

These prices will be for CASH ONLY. To those in need of clothing this is an opportunity not to be missed.

We mean just what we advertise. Dont miss this chance; we can save you money.

Next door to post-office, S. U. THOMPSON. BELLEFONTE, PA.

SCHROYER'S CARPET STORE. Bishop street, Bellefonte, Pa.
