The Gazette, last week, again has a severe attack of ringbone. Poor fellow. likes the B. O. ring, though.

Since the Gazette's ring got flunked on Tuesday, it is left alone in company left without decent company.

There is every reason to believe that Mr. Cleveland will be re-nominated for President, by the Democratic national convention, by acclamation. The sentiment of the Democracy, north, south, east and west, seems to look that way.

Democrats, be on your guard, we have good authority for saying, that a plot has been hatching to betray the party in this county, next fall. With the late experience, Democrats will be wiser and know how to again head off any such diabolical scheme. Certain parties are known to be in cahoot with the enemy.

The Gazette got a kick on its ringbone on Tuesday, at the Republican convention. Now who got licked? Has our neighbor another ring to haunt it? Suppose you take your little B. O. ring of satans here, and the remnant of what was left of you on Tuesday, and go aringing on some lonely island,-you will have all the ugly cusses to start a little sheol.

Fiedler's paper still shows that it is in cahoot with the few fellows over here. and their organ plotted to break down the Democratic ticket last fall. Fiedler pats them and they post Fiedler. Quite a sweet ring, that, Democrats will say. This ring is planning now a new conspiracy against the Democracy of the county. A REPLY.

The communication of "Many Demo crats" coming to me as it has unsolicited, requesting me to be a candidate before the Democratic County Convention for the office of Co. Commissioner has been duly considered by me. With you I agree that the office of Commissioner is the most important office to the tax payers of the County. The sentiments you express concerning our present Commissioners I heartily endorse, they certainly deserve great credit for conducting the affairs of the county with such marked ability and economy. The greatest care those of their friends, and it and watchfulness should be observed almost impossible to learn the that the same good results may follow as tter were unaulmously passed by the County has been manifested in the present efficient management. At your solicitation I therefore consent to have my name used as a candidate for said office, subject to the usages of the party, and if nominated, will use all honerable means to be elected, pledging in case of my elec-tionmy best efforts in the administration of the important trust. Very Respectfully, G. L. GOODHART.
