HIGHWAY ROBBERY. On Saturday morning while Sugarvalley farmers went to market at Lock Haven, between 2 and 6 o'clock, no less than four persons were robbed on the road of all their money and one of a cumulated property to the value of about watch. The fellow would step out on $10,000, which in the absence of a will, and drawing his pistol on the driver de- relatives. manded a surrender of all money and valuables from the driver, holding the horse until the money was dropped on the ground. Mr. William Clanse had some ladies on his spring wagon. The fellow grabbed his horse with one hand and held his revolver in the other. Mr. Clance had a long whip and bitthe robber a cut across the hand, but he would not let go. The ladies then begged Mr. Clance for their sakes to give the fellow his money and watch, and the stuff went down along side of the wagon. This was about 6 a. m., Saturday. The description that Clance gives of the fellow, he is the same that had the affair on Friday with the Reece children on Friday morning, and he doubtless is the murderer of the Colby family. Mr. Clance describes him as about 6 feet high, red sandy whiskers, side burns and chin shaved, and mustache. The writer passed a man answering this description, at Madisonburg and he afterwards passed through Rebersburg, with a small satchel, umbrells and Garmans.

On Wednesday the jewelry store E. A. Glenn & Co., under the management of Mr. John Kennedy was sold to Messrs Geo. Bushman and Samuel Kreamer of this place. Mr. Kennedy who retired is a first class jeweler and master of his trade, which he has followed for a number of years. Since Mr. Kennedy located at this place he succeeded in establishing an immense trade throughout the valley. His reasons for disposing of his store, are that he wishes for a bucket of water, and was there mur-dered by some fiend—the bucket with chine business which is growing in such chine business which is growing in such proportions as to demand his entire time. The members of the new firm are well known in the vicinity as sober and industrious young men, who are able to conduct the business in a very satisfactory manner.

SNAKE STORY.

The editor of the Daily News is responsible for the truth of the following The other day Mr. Shuman Zimmerman, of Hecla Furnace, was riding along the road, when he saw a large object extending across the path, obstructing his onward course. He thought it was a tree and was going to remove it by the usual method—either by kicking it or burling it saide with his bands-when, to his surprise, it squirmed around and offered to fight. He was about on top of the largest black snake he ever saw. The eyes of the snake gleamed dangerously and Mr. Zimmerman stepped back to reconnoitre. In the emergency, he pulled ont his revolver and shot the snake's
