The Rebersburg charge of the Lutheran church gave their pastor a vacation of four weeks, which will be spent in York county.

Miss Laura Strohm of Centre Hill, took Tuesday evening train for a visit to Erie, Niagara Falls and other points of interest in that region.

Many pigs are dying, of late, in Miles township. The little grunters seem to be affected by a sort of a hacking cough, from which they pine away and die.

Our old farmer friend, Daniel Bohn, of Linden Hall, called at our sanctum. Mr. Bohn is among the many farmers who had scarce any wheat crop this year.

The Spring Mills Union Sabbath school excursion to Snow Shoe, on Saturday, will take in passengers from all points west of Coburn at $1.25 for the round trip—children half price.

The Presbyterians have dug the foundation for their new church and the erection of the edifice will go forward with all possible dispatch. It will be handsome and neat when completed.

Rev. T. J. Frederick, of Lycoming county, gave us a call. Bro. Frederick is spending his usual summer vacation among friends here. He is doing good work in his Lutheran charge in Nippawose.

The Knights of the Golden Eagle will hold forth at Spring Mills on Saturday 27 with a picnic and festival. Prominent members of the order from a distance will be present and a good time in general is promised to all who attend.

During the last week the Centre Hall ball club received no less than a half dozen challenges from different places in the county. As they have not done any playing and the team is somewhat dilapidated they were unable to accept.

Mr. John Rishel, Jr. of Pittsburg is spending a week at the home of his parents this place. He has been attending a school of pharmacy at that place during the last year and expects to locate in Philadelphia to continue his studies in the same profession.

The walk to the station is getting a little holey already and should be patched before some one gets hurt. The Hoffer estate refuses to pay for the walk, and as we have seen no law that makes the boro' liable, the question as to who must pay for and as to who is liable for injuries from holes in it, is one that occasionally is asked.

The frame work of the new M. E. church, at Spring Mills is up, and looks on the north east by a tower, which is also framed and ready to be closed. The church stands near the grove on the south side of Penns creek, nearly opposite the residence of Dr. Van Valzah. Through the death of Mr. Runk the new church has lost one of its most active projectors and aids.

Prof. Freerer of Sellingsrove, arrived in town on Monday evening to put on new band in trim. Prof. Freerer is well known in this section and in former years taught our boys to handle their horns and at one time placed them at the head in Centre county. Many of the members are in the new organization, along with the new material we expect them to attain to the same degree of musical excellency.

Work on the new Nittany Valley railroad is progressing rapidly. This road starts near Bellefonte and will run east into Nittany valley and will be used mainly for carrying ore and charcoal to the new furnaces at Bellefonte. From grading done thus far we find that it will follow the pike closely from Bellefonte to Pleasant Gap and will make it an exceedingly dangerous drive.

On last Sunday night some unknown party entered our neighbors, Kennedy and Bollingers' residence and left again without appropriating anything. The fellow was heard by both families, wandering about the rooms on the first floor and each thought it was one of the other family. In the morning they found several doors open which had been secured before retiring and upon inquiry found they had had some late caller instead. Nothing has been missed thus far. It has been some years since our place was harassed by these night marauders and if any are in our midst we hope some effective measures will be used to exterminate them.

A DREAM PROPHECY OF THE COLBY MURDER.

COMMISSIONER GRUGAN, OF CLINTON COUNTY, HAS A VISION.

Commissioner Grugan, of Clinton, had a prophetic vision pointing to the murder of the Colby family, which is thus told by him: On the night of Thursday, the 4th instant, as Mr. Grugan lay upon his bed asleep he had a vision, and in that vision he saw a lonely spot, apparently a wilderness, with something like a house or shed but which seemed to him more like boards standing on end leaning against trees, with a small corn crib attached. Then he saw a murder committed near a creek, one person doing the bloody work, but apparently with a knife.

Then in his dream he saw the murderer in another dark and remote spot build a fire and burn some clothes, at the same time secreting something that looked to him like a crow bar and a satchel, putting them in a thicket beneath some underbrush. Then he saw the individual leave the thicket and cross a creek, where he

WASHER THE BLOOD. from his person, at the same time making a mark where he crossed the creek. The last seen of the man in the dream he was going south, and finally disappeared in the woods. Now it must be remembered that Mr. Grugan dreamed this on Thursday night, the 4th instant, two or perhaps three days before the Colby murder was committed, and it made such an impression on his mind that he drafted a draft of the locality. Then he told the dream to his associates at the court house and showed his draft. Of course he was laughed at, and they had a great deal of fun at his expense. At the time of

THE DREAM Mr. Grugan did not know whether the spot he dreamed of was in Pennsylvania, New York, in Europe, or where it was. Now for the sequel. Friday Mr. Grugan, Mr. Brosius, Mr. Herr and Mr. McNair thought they would drive over to the scene of the Colby murder. Mr. Grugan being joking with all along the way because of his dream. Two miles or so they came to a half mile side of the Colby house they stopped for some purpose near a thicket, thickly covered with grapevines. Mr. Grugan says, "Wait, this looks like a familiar spot." He then entered the place.

THE EXACT SPOT he had seen in his dream, where the murderer had concealed the crowbar and burned the clothes. There was evidence that a fire had been built there, but whether recently or some time since could not be told. But strange to tell Mr. Grugan came out of the thicket with a gun in his hands, which has since been recognized as the gun stolen from Colby's house the night or morning of the murder. This corresponds with the crowbar in the dream. No satchel was discovered, we believe, but a shot pouch was. At that point Mr. Grugan's companions ceased to make fun. The dream was coming too nearly to reality. Driving on they reached the spot where the murder was committed, saw the house, and everything corresponds almost exactly with the dream, even to the spot where the murderer had crossed the creek and made the mark, where they found a small pile of stones and saw his footprints upon the bank.

ANNUAL PIC-NIC AND EXHIBITION. The Patrons of Husbandry of Centre county will hold their fourteenth annual picnic on the top of Nittany Mountain, near Centre Hall, on Wednesday and Thursday, September 14-15.

Hacks will meet all trains to convey passengers to the picnic grounds. A number of bands will be present and furnish music. Boarding house and hotel accommodations ample to accommodate all. The grounds will be brilliantly illuminated at night. The grounds will be connected with the outside world by telephone, by which all points in the central part of the state may easily be reached.

Applications for restaurant and boarding house privileges should be made to Messrs. Booser & Brisbin, Centre Hall. All applications for tents, exhibiting privileges, etc., should be made to the chairman, and as early as possible. Hay and straw will be provided on the grounds. Those tenting should provide blankets. All are cordially invited and urged to come.

By order of COUNTY GRANGE. LEONARD RHONE, Chairman, Centre Hall.

MORE ARRESTS. On Saturday evening two tramps were arrested at Rebersburg, for robberies committed at Logansville. They broke into several dwellings and also into a store. A large party went in pursuit, and overtook them at Rebersburg, where they were held until warrants were obtained from Sugar Valley, when they were taken to Lock Haven and placed in prison.

The people of Sugar and Branch valleys are in constant alarm since the robberies and murder were committed near Tylersville, of which we gave an account in last week's Reporter, and women are afraid to remain at home alone, for fear of thieving tramps prowling around. Great excitement consequently exists among the people in those parts.

ARRESTED ON SUSPICION. Three parties have been arrested on suspicion of being connected with the Colby murder, and lodged in the Lock Haven jail. Two of them are fellows by name of Johnson and another by name of Kline, all men of rough characters living in the section where the murder was committed. One of these was heard to have made threats against Colby; the watch and gun belonging to Colby are said to have been found in possession of the Johnsons, which would be strong proof of their guilt.

"CRANKS AND HYPOCRITES."

ON LAST SATURDAY EVENING A TROUPE who styled themselves the Japanese tooth pullers paraded our streets in flashy livery and with great pomp. It was sufficient to arouse our curiosity and we soon found ourselves amid a large crowd which surrounded the wagon to see and hear the performance promised. Their ability to extract teeth without pain was the fact, which a large bundle of cock-eyed corpulence, in the worst of street brogue, tried to impress upon his hearers. Then came the medicine man who could cure anything with his remedies even if it was the worms.

Their attempt to extract teeth without pain was tested by one of our physicians who had a molar crushed and still carries the roots in his jaw. In regard to pain he said it hurt like—well—like a wheel. They soon found that Centre Hall folks were not easily duped, closed up their traps and paraphernalia. Sunday they hid themselves to other pastures more green with the opinion that we were nothing else than a set of d—cranks and hypocrites.

MILLHEIM. On Sunday night our high constable, with a squad of a dozen or more boys, (most of them fellows, if they would see a tramp, a person could not see them for dust,) were out after tramps with a lantern. Brave boys.

Chief of Police Westbrook, of Lock Haven, was in town last Monday evening. The smoke stack of the knitting factory, which is forty five feet high, was successfully set in place last Saturday by John Kerstetter, Jr.

SPRING MILLS. The greatest excitement is the coming of the festival on Saturday, 27th. The Sunday schools have made arrangements for an excursion for the benefit of the poor as well as the rich. We hope a general interest will be in the excursion.

The interest now manifested by our new townsmen, Mr. Eichenhart, may be said to be agitated and bring forth a new Reformed church.

Edward Jordan is home on his summer vacation. J. I. Condo attended the picnic at Centre Hall, Tuesday, with his telescope.

The Spring Mills Creamery company have sold out to Mr. Eichenhart, of Shamokin, who comes to this place highly recommended as a perfect gentleman in every respect. He has been in the business for years in the east and west. He is, no doubt, a man for this place.

OLD MAN COLBY ARRESTED

ON SUSPICION AS THE MURDERER.

The startling news reaches us that Mr. Colby, father of Isiah Colby, has been arrested, and placed in jail at Lock Haven, on suspicion of having committed the murder of his son Isiah and his wife.

OLD MAN COLBY RELEASED. Lock Haven, Aug. 17.—John Colby, the father of the murdered Isiah Colby, who was arrested on suspicion of having murdered his son and the latter's wife, was released this afternoon by Judge Crawford for want of sufficient evidence to hold him.

A TRAMP ARRESTED. Much more probable is it that a man arrested in Lewisburg, was the guilty party. It is related that this man entered the house inquired for something to eat. The lady of the house refused, him, but said she would call her husband. The man replied, "If you call him I will cut his heart out." She then screamed for her husband who entered the house with another fellow, and both talked and arrested the fellow. He is now held for further examination. He is five feet eight inches high, of a complex complexion. He was arrested in Taylorville, Union county, eight miles from Milton. John Baker, the woman's husband, and Elias Clingan arrested him. It is said that he has shaved off his whiskers and now has only a moustache. He gave the name of William Bennon, and stated that he came across the mountains from Clinton county.

WEDDED AT TWILIGHT. On last Thursday evening a host of friends and relatives assembled at the home of Mr. J. A. Reesman to witness the nuptial ceremonies. At seven o'clock in the evening when the day had disappeared and twilight threw its mantle over the earth, Miss Minnie Reesman and Mr. Vance McCormick were united in marriage by Rev. Sarvis of Pleasant Gap. The ceremony was an impressive one and many were the good wishes made to the young couple were pronounced man and wife. After the ceremony came the refreshments, served in elaborate style. The evening was spent in amusements, music, games, and every one seemed happy.

IN BRIEF, AND TO THE POINT. Dyspepsia is dreadful. Disordered liver is misery. Indigestion is a foe to good nature. The human digestive apparatus is one of the most complicated and wonderful things in existence. It is easily put out of order.

Greasy food, tough food, sloppy food, bad cookery, mental worry, late hours, irregular habits, and many other things which ought not to be, have made the American people a nation of dyspeptics.

But Green's August Flower has done a wonderful work in reforming this sad business, and making the American people so healthy that they can enjoy their meals and be happy.

Remember—No happiness without health. But Green's August Flower brings health and happiness to the dyspeptic. Ask your druggist for a bottle. Seventy five cents.

Mrs. From, an aged lady, widow of Jacob From, on Thursday morning, about 2 o'clock, got up out of bed and stepped on the platform on the outside of 2nd story of her home, in this place, and in a bewildered moment, as is supposed, fell to the ground below, breaking her shoulder blade, and has been unconscious since. Wm. Johnson hearing a noise, led to his discovering the old lady, and he had her taken to her apartments and called Dr. Jacobs. From the condition of things in her room it is supposed she was under a fit of derangement before she went out, as things seem generally misplaced and out of order.

Seedtime is approaching and our farmers are dubious over the propriety of sowing wheat, the last two years having proven failures. No doubt the acreage will be less on this account, and some other crops will be substituted so as not to risk too much on wheat. We are inclined to think the failure of our wheat crop the last two years is an exception and not a rule for the future, and that our wheat fields will again groan with golden harvests. At least we hope so. There may not be a return to the old fashioned wheat crop next year, but we look for the failure to play out.

There is one thing that we think Centre county farmers must resort to—that is to bring their land into a higher state of cultivation, and up to a level with the rich acres of our neighbors in Buffalo valley. We must have better farming, that is admitted on all hands, if we expect better crops. Farmers can do much to make their land more fertile—it needs a little help.

MIFFLINBURG AT CENTRE HALL.

A BIG PICNIC.

The Mifflinburg picnic came off on Tuesday, and was a large affair—eleven cars were filled with excursionists. The train reached here at 10 a. m., a large number of our people were at the station to see the excursionists arrive, and they did, with a brass band, hundreds of boxes and baskets, with the best that Union county affords, to please their appetites for dinner and supper. The little army of men, women and children, at once proceeded to Wolf's park, at the lower end of town, headed by the band, and took possession of the ground. Hammocks were hung, swings were put up, and booths erected for ice-cream, lemonade, etc., and all went to work to have a pleasant time.

In the morning the weather was unpromising and boded rain, which prevented about 500 from joining the excursion, who feared a rainy day. The number that did come was between 900 and 700. Soon after the arrival of the train the sun began to break through the clouds, and all was propitious of a bright day—soon all was lovely overhead and corresponding joy among the crowd underneath.

After taking dinner a general stroll was taken through town, and almost the entire party visited the Lutheran church to behold its beauty.

The band also marched through town, discoursing charming music for the benefit of our people. The band is a new one, but it will puzzle some older bands to match it in tooting.

After spending about two hours in town the crowd found its way back to the woods again, followed by many of our own people, where amusements were engaged in, and groups formed for chatting and a general good time was time was had. Lunch was had about 5 p. m., when all was put in readiness for the return at 6. The large crowd left well pleased with their selection of Centre Hall for their objective point. They were well behaved and took with them the good wishes of our people. Come again.
