

HOUSEHOLD.

CAPS AND APRONS FOR HOUSE SERVANTS.—One of the greatest difficulties I have met with as a housekeeper is to persuade house servants to wear white caps and aprons.

THE rehabilitation of the apron is a good thing. Many ladies cling to it when it was "out." It is true that the apron of the hour is little more than an excuse for the wearing of embroidery and ribbons, yet there still exist aprons that are worn without any idea of decorative effect that are none the less effective on that account.

TO TAKE THE HEAT OUT OF BURNS.—Garron oil has been found very much better for this purpose than any other application. It is made of equal parts of olive oil and lime water.

THERE can be no rule laid down in regard to watering plants, other than to water no oftener than is really necessary, and when you do water do it thoroughly.

POTATO OMELET.—Six good-sized potatoes, two teaspoons salt one tablespoon butter, a little pepper. Peel and boil the potatoes, when they have been boiling fifteen minutes add one teaspoon salt.

ROAST BEEF.—Remove the bone from the thin part of the roast, lay in a piece of suet that does not project beyond the width of the roast, then fold it around against the thick of the meat.

BAKED LEG OF MUTTON.—Take a leg of mutton weighing six or eight pounds, cut down the under side and remove the bone, fill it with a dressing made of four ounces of suet, two eggs, two ounces of chopped ham, six of stale bread, one onion, a little thyme, sweet marjoram, parsley, nutmeg, salt and pepper; sew up, lay in a pan and put in a hot oven; baste with butter, cook three hours.

FRUIT PUDDING.—To make a plain fruit pudding, take one cup of sugar, one-half cup of butter and two eggs; beat together, then add a cup of sour milk and one teaspoonful of soda.

CORN MUSH.—Put a quart of water on to boil; stir a pint of milk with one pint of corn meal and one tablespoonful of salt. When the water boils pour in the mixture, gradually stirring well; boil half an hour, stirring constantly.

Scrofula

Probably no form of disease is so generally distributed among our whole population as scrofula. Almost every individual has this latent poison lurking in his veins.

Hood's Sarsaparilla In eradicating every form of Scrofula has been so clearly and fully demonstrated that it leaves no doubt that it is the greatest medical discovery of this generation.

COCKLE'S ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS, THE GREAT ENGLISH REMEDY For Liver, Bile, Indigestion, etc. Free from Mercury; contains only Pure Vegetable Ingredients.

CHARLEY'S PREDICAMENT.—They were sitting on the piazza, gazing into the star-studded sky and thinking things unutterable. Said he, finally breaking the silence:

"Agatha, I have been thinking of Browning, immortal Browning; his words were ever like a mystic throb. And Swinburne, too; what a matter of sensuous perspective! I admire both, but in different ways. I hardly know which one I prefer. Agatha, which one do you like best?"

A COUPLE of young ladies bosom friends:—"My dearest Olga, I could not rest until I had come and made an effort to dispel the gloomy thoughts which, to judge from your letter of yesterday, threatened to develop into suicidal mania."

ANOTHER WRECKED LIFE.—First Omaha Youth—"Seems to me Jinkin looks rather shabby. Has he lost his position?"

"Well, n-n-no; the fact is, I—I became engaged again yesterday!"

"What is Woman's Worth?" asked a fair damsel of a crusty old bachelor. He did not know, so she said: "W. O. man" (double you, O man). But a woman feels worth little if disease has invaded her system and is daily sapping her strength.

ROUGH ON M'GINNIS.—Hostetter McGinnis is engaged to Miss Esmeralda Longcoffin, who is one of the belles of Austin and a great flirt.

"Why, what makes you come away so early this evening?" "Miss Longcoffin is not feeling well."

"What's the matter with her?" "She has toothache."

"Hat hat! She tells you that to get rid of you. She probably expects some other gentleman this evening."

"Come, now, don't get huffy. How can she have toothache when her upper and lower teeth are all false? I've been there. I was engaged to her myself some years ago. Toothache! Well, that is a good joke on you!"
