LOCAL ITEMS.

The boys' school will open Monday Sept. 1st and every boy and girl in town should be there.

Mr. Morris Swartz, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday with his cousin, John Rishel, Jr., at this place.

This week Mr. S. K. Emerick left for Scotia Mines, this county, where he expects to engage in the mercantile business.

Miss Bertie Wolf, daughter of Dr. E. J. Wolf, and Miss Ethel Swope, both of Gettysburg, are visiting at the home of Wm. Wolf's this place.

Work on the foundation for the new Presbyterian church, in this place, has been temporarily suspended, in view it seems, of some changes to be made.

A crowd of young folks of town, pic-niced on Nittany mountain on Saturday afternoon, and returned in the evening by the light of the moon. All report a gay time.

The members of the M. E. church at Spring Mills, will hold a festival in the new church on Friday and Saturday evenings, Sept. 2d and 3d. Let all attend.

Miss Blanche Heckman, of this place, and Miss Dewide, of Philipsburg, who was visiting at Rev. Heckman's, left on Monday morning for Martinsburg, where they expect to remain some time visiting friends.

Messrs. Wilbur Harris, of Bellefonte, and Cooper Dare, of Scranton, look in the cave on Sunday afternoon, and Centre Hall in the evening. A unusual, called on some of the young ladies of town before departing.

Spring Mills excursion to Snow-shoe, which had been appointed for last Saturday, did not come off, for what reason, we did not exactly learn. Some say because there were not enough tickets sold, others because of a misunderstanding with the railroad company.

The teeth pullers, traveling with a wagon, jerked about 700 Miles township teeth, from the mouths of about 60 persons, at Behensburg, last week. No doubt they had a bonanza there. At Centre Hall these fellows only jerked three teeth.

Monday Mornings train was well crowded with parties from the lower end of the valley who are on the war-path, and expect to have satisfaction rendered by court. These petty squabbles, insignificant and foolish, always result disastrously to parties engaged.

Rev. Leisenring and family, of Lewisburg, and Miss Atkinson, of Baltimore, who have been rusticating at this place for several weeks past, left on Thursday morning for Lewisburg. During their stay at this place they have made the acquaintance of many of our people, who are anxious for their return next summer.

T. P. Rynder, who composes the greenback party of Penn'a., has announced himself as a candidate for register in this county. There is another out for the same business who will take all the rind of Rynder. If Rynder needs an organ, he knows of one that generally hires out; that will just as soon take a sop from the greenbackers as from the Republicans.

We hear from good authority that parties in Bellefonte, in the interest of the Penna. R. R., are negotiating with the Longs for the sale of the cave and hotel property. The difference of a sale is about five thousand dollars, which may be adjusted, in which event the place will become one of the most famous resorts in the state, and a point towards which tourist and admirer of the wonders of nature will wend their way. There is a future in store for that place and should it become the property of the railroad company our prediction would soon be realized.

The Snow Shoe excursion not coming off as announced, disappointed a number of people along the line who had put on their picnic clothes and hid themselves to the railroad station to board the Snow Shoe train and have a day in the woods. At our station on Saturday morning we noticed a number of young ladies from near Tusseyville, all ready and done up in their "Sunday clothes," and ready to board the train. Of course the train didn't come, and the dear girls didn't get to Snow Shoe, or have a picnic, but slowly and sadly wended their way homeward.

A trip to Philadelphia, on a bicycle was undertaken by Christ Murray, this week. Christ left Centre Hall on his machine on Monday evening and in 25 minutes reached Spring Mills, and proceeded to Aaronsburg, where next morning, accompanied by John Foster, also on a bicycle, the two expect to reach Lewisburg. From the latter place Murray, on Wednesday, expected to reach Harrisburg, 60 miles, then on Thursday go to Reading, 54 miles, where he expects to meet our late teacher, Prof. Manger, and the two go to Philadelphia on bicycles.

ONE MORE ARREST FOR THE CULVEY MURDER.

CIRCUMSTANTIAL EVIDENCE WILL CONVICT THE PARTIES ARRESTED.

On Saturday W. J. Westbrook, chief of police of Lock Haven, and George Verne, chief of Renovo, arrested a man named Shaffer, on the Conestoga road six miles from Pike's mills in Potter county, on the charge of being the murderer of the Culveys. Shaffer lives in Lock Haven and is a member of a good family. It is said that certain questionable actions of which he was recently guilty led to suspicion being fastened upon him. His movements were carefully watched. When he left Lock Haven he was immediately pursued by the officers and arrested, as stated above, making his way through the mountains from North Bend. When found he was at a lumber camp where he had begged something to eat. It is said he was much confused when the officers confronted him and turned pale. On his person were found two silver watches, though neither of them has been identified as the one taken from the Culveys. The officers express the belief that they have the right man this time. He was brought down the Pine Creek railroad Saturday evening, taken to Lock Haven and lodged in jail. A gentleman who has conversed with the officers who have been on Shaffer's track and who arrested him, says that they seem confident of their ability to produce evidence which will convict their prisoner of the atrocious crime.

LATER.

The opinion seems to be widely entertained that "Bone" Johnson, one of the Klimes and Luther Shaffer are the men who know most about the murder of the Culveys, and perhaps they were the perpetrators of it.

The circumstances attending the arrest of Shaffer, his actions and the articles found on his person implicate him most seriously. He is a rather fine looking man, 22 or 23 years of age, and is respectfully connected in Lock Haven. He is now clean shaven, but looks as if he had recently removed a heavy beard from his face.

When at North Bend Shaffer went to a hotel kept by a man named Cleveland and there he pawed a silver watch. This time piece has been recovered and is believed to have belonged to the murdered Culveys. When arrested he showed all the evidence of guilt.

The three men named protested their innocence. "Bone" Johnson's actions in jail do not seem quite natural. He is affecting religion just now and spends his time in singing and praying, being assisted by the Klimes. We have not heard whether Shaffer has tried this dodge or not.

RUMORS DENIED.

Shaffer has not confessed. Neither did he shoot either Chief Westbrook or Sheriff May. At least, neither of those officers have said anything about it.

DEVELOPMENTS ON TUESDAY.

Very important developments were made on Tuesday afternoon in the case of Shaffer. The officials who had seen him in that neighborhood at the time of the murder and also certain witnesses, including Miss Reese, who was assaulted, and a boy who was near by, were taken to the jail and all of them identify Shaffer as the individual they had seen. Thus, a closely-spun web of circumstantial evidence is being woven around Shaffer. A formal hearing of his case will be had on the 30th inst.—News.

A JOLLY PARTY. A LIVELY CREW OF WATSONTOWN YOUNG MEN AT THE HOTEL.

On Monday morning's train were six young gents from Watstown, one of the thrifty and busy places along the Susquehanna. The young gentlemen are out on their annual vacation and selected Centre Hall as the most desirable resort to spend a week to rusticate and recuperate as well. On Wednesday they were joined by three other members of the party, making nine, all of them engaged in business in their native town which at present is enjoying quite a business boom. While here they have been spending their time at the cave, driving through the valley, playing ball, mashing our girls, and having a good time in general. On Wednesday evening a game of ball was played by the Watstown boys and a team selected from this place. The following shows the players and position:

Table with 3 columns: Name, Position, Centre Hall.

The game was interesting as well as amusing. Watstown boys furnished the fun and our boys did some fine playing while in the field. The visitors would like to have had just one run, but they couldn't do it.

A number of the party left on Thursday morning and the rest expect to leave in a short time. They are much pleased with their visit to this place and have decided to pay us annual visits.

WHISKEY SAVED HIM.

On Saturday, 13th, John Marts, who lives on Major Dowart's farm, a mile from Sunbury, was over with a party to Bear Gap hunting teaberries on the mountain. While thus engaged he removed his shoes and travelled the hills barefooted. While stepping over some rocks a copperhead snake bit him in the big toe. He was brought to Sunbury and Dr. A. W. attended him. His leg was very much swollen and his foot turned black, but a liberal supply of whiskey saved his life.

WESTERN GRAIN.

On account of the failure of the wheat crop in the valley our mills must be supplied from other sections. This week five car loads of hard red winter wheat were ordered from Indiana by Kurtz & Son. This grain they find makes the finest flour and can be had at same price delivered at the mill as grain from the valley.

THE NATIONAL GUARD WILL ATTEND.

It is now a settled fact that the entire division of the National Guard of Pennsylvania will participate in the parade on Military Day during the celebration of the Constitutional Centennial, at Philadelphia, next month.

COURT.

Court met on Monday, Judge Furst presiding, with associates Munson and Rhoads. There was little business of importance. A blackmailing case from Woodward was settled, between a woman and a young man of that village, in which it appears the gentleman had abundant evidence to prove his entire innocence.

Commonwealth vs. Benjamin Conley and Rachael Conley for maintaining a nuisance. Jury called and sworn, who returned a verdict of not guilty; county to pay costs.

Commonwealth vs. Warren Hoover and Mary Hoover, assault and battery. Nolle prosequit as to Mary Hoover. Guilty as to Warren Hoover. Sentence $10 fine and costs.

Commonwealth vs. Thomas C. Weaver, indecent assault. Sentenced to pay costs.

Commonwealth vs. Frank Morfe, assault and threats. Sentenced to pay costs.

Commonwealth vs. Samuel Long, selling liquor without license. Plead guilty.

Commonwealth vs. John Adams. Sentenced to pay costs and to remain 10 days in jail. This man was arrested for being a tramp. The excitement attending the Culvey murder and the highway robberies led to his arrest. When examined in court he gave several names.

Cases settled are Commonwealth vs. Frank Campbell, surety of the peace. Same vs. Frank Hunter, John Bathurst and Joseph Fisher, drunkenness. Same vs. Anna Washington, assault and battery.

DEATH OF JUDGE HOY.

Adam Hoy, Esq., late president judge of this judicial district, died at his home, in Bellefonte, on Monday night, at 1 o'clock. Judge Hoy had been in failing health for over a year; his death resulted from Bright's disease.

Adam Hoy was born in Spring township, Sept. 6, 1827. He graduated at Pennsylvania College, Gettysburg, in 1850. He read law with H. N. McAllister, and was admitted to the Centre county bar in 1855. He was a successful practitioner, and one of the leading members of the bar. He was married Dec. 26, 1865 to Miss Louisa M., daughter of James D. Harris.

On Tuesday morning the death of Mr. Hoy was announced in court by Judge Orvis, whereupon the court, out of respect to the memory of the deceased, adjourned until 2 o'clock. A meeting of the bar association was held immediately after court adjourned, and Judge Orvis was called to preside. Appropriate committees were appointed relative to the attendance of the association upon the funeral of the deceased, which takes place on Thursday afternoon, at Bellefonte.

A BELLEFONTE TEACHER HIGHLY HONORED.

Mr. James R. Hughes, who is a graduate of Princeton College, has been, during the past school year, an instructor in the Bellefonte Academy, of which his father, Rev. James Hughes, is the Principal. His superior merits as a teacher are apparently recognized at one of the most important educational centres in this county, as has just been given practical proof in an invitation received by him to become an assistant teacher in Princeton Preparatory School, an institution under the control of his alma mater, Princeton College. He did not ask for the position—indeed, he did not know it was vacant—and the offer of the position was as much of a surprise as it was a source of gratification to him. We are much pleased to learn that he has concluded to remain at the Academy for the present in the capacity of an instructor.—News.

VETERAN RE-UNION.

The next annual re-union of the Centre County Veteran club, will be held in the woods, at Coburn station, and the folks down there are going to make it one of the best yet held for the boys. There will be a big time, lots of good things for the inner man, and a general good time for the boys in blue and all the rest. The re-union will be held in a few weeks.

On last Monday morning Wm. Inhoff, of Millinburg, died, aged 67 years and 7 days.

He was a well known landlord, and years ago ran a huckster team regularly between Millinburg and Aaronsburg.

LAWN TENNIS.

TWO INTERESTING GAMES PLAYED WITH BELLEFONTE.

Lawn tennis is becoming the game among the young men of our town. Base ball fever which was at such a high pitch last season and the early part of this year has subsided and tennis has taken its place. The game is practically a new one at this place as it was introduced here but a few months ago, and our players are beginners. On last Saturday afternoon a game was played between Messrs. Scott Harris and Jas. Hughes, of Bellefonte, and Messrs. Isaac Harpeter and Will Runkle, representing the home team. The game was an interesting one interspersed with brilliant "services" and "returns" on both sides. The following is the score:

Table with 2 columns: Name, Sets.

Centre Hall won the three first sets, the best in five, and were victors. Like Alexander the great, our boys longed for more to conquer and accordingly arranged for a game with Messrs. W. S. Furst and Jas. J. Rhoads, of Bellefonte, who enjoy the reputation of being experts with a racket. This game was played on Monday afternoon at this place with a large attendance. It was by far a better game. The score this time was somewhat different as will be seen.

Table with 2 columns: Name, Sets.

Furst & Rhoads 6, 6, 6, 8, Harpeter & Runkle 2, 4, 0, 6, in which Bellefonte won the four successive games.

A CRAZY WOMAN.

A crazy woman is reported as ranging in the woods between Sugar and Lusk run. It is said that she has been seen near the Powder houses on Lusk Run and on the mountain near Sugar Run by parties out huckleberrying. She is dressed in black, and some assert that the apparition is a man in disguise. A woman who was picking berries happened to look up and saw her approaching, and spoke to her, but the crazy creature made no reply, only uttering a sort of gibberish. Just what is in the story nobody seems to know exactly, but there is considerable excitement in that locality.—Cl. Democrat.

THE UNION CO. FAIR.

Those Lewisburg people seem determined to have our people go down en masse to attend their fair September 21 to 24. They have obtained excursion rates on all regular trains, and will have special trains up in the evening. This will be a good opportunity to visit Lewisburg, as there will be trains from Lewisburg to the fair ground every half hour. The town is in a boom and they expect to give a fine show.

LOOK OUT THIEVES.

Dr. Jacobs desires us to say "that if the man I mean thief—who stole more than a bushel of half-ripe peaches from trees in my chicken yard and also broke my trees, will call for what he misused, he will be warmly received and well taken care of. If friend or foe be hurt, after night, in my chicken yard—either by gun or trap—I will be responsible.

INSTALLATION.

On Sunday night the Boalsburg Lutheran church was filled to overflowing with an appreciative audience gathered to witness the installation of the recently elected pastor, Rev. W. A. Trostie. Revs. Warner and Fischer delivered the addresses, the former to the people the latter to the pastor.

SOBER WILL GIVE AN EXHIBITION.

We have been informed that Mr. S. K. Sober, the marksman, has consented to attend the Knights of the Golden Eagles' picnic at Spring Mills on Saturday and give an exhibition in glass ball shooting. His reputation is sufficient to insure a large attendance; shooting begins at 3 p. m.

On account of the lateness of the season, the gathering aforesaid has been postponed for next year.

At Shamokin, early on Monday morning fire destroyed Luke Fiddler colliery barn together with ten mules, one thousand bushels of grain, many tons of hay and sets of harness. Forty mules were rescued. Work in the colliery has been stopped. The barn was the property of the Mineral mining and railway company. The loss exceeds $10,000.

Another large invoice of Barb Link fence wire is just received by J. K. McFarlan & Co. of Bellefonte. This wire has become very popular because it makes the best fence and is so easy to handle and put up. More fence can be made with this wire in a day than with any other as it don't "kink" or "snarl." It can be taken down and rolled up again with ease. Write for prices.

The officers of the Union Co. Fair have made arrangements with the Superintendent of the P. & E. railroad to have excursion rates on regular trains from all points between Williamsport, Shamokin and Bellefonte and Lewisburg during their fair; also have a special train up the L. & T. road in the evening of the three last days of the fair. This will give our Centre Co. friends a chance to spend the whole day on the grounds, says the Chronicle.

The Sept. No. of The Historical Journal is already before its readers. Frontispiece—Appearance of the Central Part of Williamsport 45 years ago. The leading article is the Journal of Samuel Macay, whose tomb is marked by a disintegrated monument on the farm occupied by Jas. C. Himmelreich, near Vicksburg, in Union county. A dozen articles follow, all of interest to citizens or former citizens of Buffalo Valley. John F. Meginness, Williamsport, $2 a year.

It is Watterson who says that "some people estimate the ability of a periodical and the talent of its editor by the amount of original matter. It is a comparatively easy matter for a frothy writer to string out a column of words upon any and all subjects. His ideas may flow on in a weak, watery, everlasting flood, and his command of language may enable him to tie them together like a bunch of onions, and yet his paper may be but a meagre and poor concern. Indeed, the mere writing part of editing a paper is but a small portion of the work. The care, the time employed in the selecting is far more important, and the fact of a good editor is better shown by his selections than anything else; and that, we know, is half the battle."

A destructive storm visited Union county, last Friday afternoon. The Sat. News speaks thus of the damage done:—

Information was received from Kelly township where the whole county has been laid waste. Mr. E. K. Kling's house and barn were unroofed, the wagon-shed completely destroyed, fences broken down, and traces left of a fine orchard and the whole corn crop ruined. Mr. John Hummel was quite as unfortunate and sustained actually as great a loss. Many others are heavy losers, but it is late and we are unable to get the facts before going to press. Over in Chilliwaqua township the roof of Mr. Levi Toll's barn was blown into a field fifty feet away, trees uprooted, corn laid flat, and fences swept away.

The Buffalo Flouring Mill was also partly unroofed.

TO THE PUBLIC:

We take this means of announcing to the people of Penns Valley and the public in general that we have purchased the jewelry establishment of E. A. Glenn & Co., at Centre Hall, and have taken charge of the same at the old stand. The entire stock of jewelry, watches, etc., were bought by us, and will be prepared to attend to anything in our line of business. We have made this venture upon pure business principles and hope that our dealings with one and all will merit a liberal patronage. It will be our aim to serve our friends and patrons. We make it a rule to handle nothing but genuine goods and will always be responsible for what we sell. We have in stock a fine line of gold and silver watches for ladies or gentlemen, which are of the best make and reputation. If you want a watch—see our goods and prices before purchasing, as we feel confident that we can suit you. Our stock of solid gold rings and jewelry is complete and of the latest designs. We claim to have as good an assortment of clocks and timekeepers as can be found in the county. We also make a specialty of silver-ware and cutlery, which is open for inspection.

We have the agency for Centre county for the celebrated Davis, New Home and American sewing machines, which are the best in the market.

We are prepared to do all kinds of repairing pertaining to our business. Remember, all work attended to promptly. In short we say, come and see us in our new location, whether you buy or not.

Yours Respectfully, BUSHMAN & KREAMER.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT AFTER September 1st, 1887, coal will be sold only for cash or its equivalent. Positively no credit. R. E. BARTHOLOMEW.

CHOICE SEED WHEAT. The undersigned has choice seed wheat raised by himself, and an improved quality, guaranteed to do better in this section, than the old worn out kinds. One is the New Mediterranean, and the other the House wheat, both a species of red wheat, bearded. This year's crop is judged to yield 30 to 35 bushels to the acre. The crop is not yet threshed, but its extraordinary yield will be made known in due time, when threshed. It is a hardy and rugged grain, which does not lodge and stands the most vigorous winter. For samples of wheat apply at Reporter office, or to Em. Reish, Centre Hill, Pa. J. B. SMITH, 4334 Cowan, Union co., Pa.

STORE STAND, DWELLING, AND SMITH Shop, at private sale. A two-story dwelling house, No. 1, store stand with stock of groceries, and one of the best blacksmith stands in the valley, is offered at private sale by the undersigned. All kinds of choice fruit
