

SCHROYER'S
CARPET STORE,
Bishop street, Bellefonte, Pa.

They must be selling Carpets at very low prices, as they have so many callers who, after examining their large stock, buy some of them before leaving.

A full line of goods is kept, from the cheapest to the best, consisting of Linen, extra Supers, Tapestry, Brussels, Body Brussels, Velvet Brussels and Moquettes.

I also keep a full line of Window Curtains and Fixtures, Rugs, Ottomans, and House Furnishing Goods generally.

The best and most complete assortment of goods to be found this side of Philadelphia, may be found at my store.

Carpets cut and made ready to put down. Floor Linen, Rugs, etc. Goods offered to the public are just as represented.

HARRY SCHROYER,
Store No. 8, Bishop Street, Bellefonte Pa.

COMMON SENSE

Tells anyone that it is an utter impossibility for a merchant to sell goods continually — A-T C-O-S-T.

A legitimate business can never be conducted on such a basis, as taxes, rent, insurance, etc., must be paid and a living earned. We do not conduct our business upon such a principle, and we only ask a reasonable advance on all our goods. We believe in FAIR AND SQUARE dealing and know that our goods and prices prove what we say. Give us a call and be convinced.

A GOOD HAUL OF FIRE BUGS.

They Did Just What They Were Hired to Prevent.
PLAINFIELD, N. J., Aug. 29.—A gang of night watchmen, paid by private persons to protect property, have been trying to burn up this town for a year and a half, simply to emphasize the necessity for their existence. Yesterday morning seven of the villains were arrested and several more residents are implicated. During the past year the incendiary fires in this city have averaged two a week. Some nights the fire department has been called out for action two and three times. That the police could do nothing in the matter of discovering the guilty parties was long ago shown. Rewards offered by private parties and insurance companies proved unavailing and the common council decided upon a new and secret way of catching the rascals.

There was no apparent reason for the dastardly acts, this task was rendered all the more difficult. Several level heads worked on the scheme, however, and a trap was laid into which, after much nibbling by the guilty ones and changing of base by the lovers of law and order, the desired end was brought about. A man from down east, Edward Murphy, was obtained as a cat's-paw. He came here disguised as a workman and accepted a position in Potter's printing-press works. While working there he quickly made the acquaintance of all the boys about town, and as he acted the part of a hall fellow well and onefree with his money and was always ready to "set 'em up" on drinks, heat once fell into the good graces of his game. After staying at Potter's press works for some time, he was expelled for good and sufficient reasons and applied for work at Scott's press works. At this factory he worked the same game and with as good results. During the whole time he was in correspondence with Councilman Tunis J. Carey, and by the latter was furnished with necessary tools to carry on his scheme.

Saturday evening Mr. Carey, who keeps a store on West Front street, had a call from some cotton wad and kerosene oil. He supplied his customer and then set a watch on him. Shortly after midnight the latter wended his way toward Union avenue, followed all the while by Councilman Carey, Police Officer Patrick Lynch and Edward Murphy, the amateur detective. The first mentioned man proceeded to the house on Union avenue owned by the Lee brothers and lately occupied by a Mr. Nelson, who is now in Europe. The house was worth $12,000. Here he proceeded to arrange for the house in the most approved manner. Just as he struck the fatal match, however, the cry "Hands up!" arrested his attention and he was fairly and squarely caught in the cowardly act. His name is John Jackson and by trade a night watchman. He has for some time been suspended. The suspicion was strengthened about a week ago when Isaac Brown's barn on Broadway was fired.

When captured he at once confessed and gave the names of his confederates and their occupation as follows:
George Reed, machinist; Lewis Van Nest, carpenter; Horace Van Nest, night watchman; Theodore Van Nest, driver for Dr. Fitts; William Hapenny, painter, and Robert Skinner, driver of a vegetable cart. A back and buggy were pressed into service by Policemen Mattox and Lynch, and the above bugs were soon lodged in jail. Jackson, who was caught in the act, is a brother of the Jackson of the celebrated race track at Hartfield & Jackson of Rahway, manufacturers of racing sulkeys. A paper now in the possession of Mr. Carey contains a list of the barns to be burnt in the near future. On that list Mr. Carey finds his own name.

Jackson says that the chief object to be gained was to create a demand for night watchmen, as there is but small police protection at night. These fellows have been paid by subscription by residents along their route of march, and to collect those subscriptions and keep up the idea of their importance as protectors, these men have terrorized the police were adopted. They went too far, however, and their race is run.

THEY KIDNAPPED THEIR FATHER

A Rich Merchant Put Into an Insane Asylum by His Children.
WILKESBARRE, Penn., Aug. 29.—Mercantile circles are considerably excited over the kidnapping of a prominent clothing merchant, and his incarceration in the Danville insane asylum. His name is Horitz Hoffman, and he formally did business in New York and Brooklyn. Seven years ago he came to this city and opened a clothing store. Six months ago he was notified from England. The father accused his son of conspiring with outside parties to obtain possession of his property. One night last week the son and his sister went before Alderman Donohue and claimed their father was crazy. The next night the old merchant was handcuffed, and dragged off to the Danville asylum. The store was kept open the same as usual and the proprietor was not missed until yesterday, when the scheme was exposed. It is now ascertained that Hoffman is not insane and the authorities at the asylum will not hold him. The arrest of the kidnapers is expected to follow shortly. Hoffman is worth nearly $100,000.

His Hearing Restored by Prayer.

BLUE SPRINGS, Neb., Aug. 25.—The Free Methodists have been holding a camp meeting here for some time, and fifteen persons have professed conversion. Among them is J. J. Bentley, who since 1893 had been deaf in one ear, and for the past three years and up to the time of the meeting totally deaf in both ears. Night before last, during an experience meeting, as a spoke of this as a thorn in his flesh, and asking to be prayed for. All present knelt, and fervent prayers were offered that he might be healed. Suddenly, during the devotions, he sprang to his feet, shouting, "Glory to God! My hearing is restored!" and since that time he has been able to hear perfectly.

Shot Down in the Dark.

TORONTO, Aug. 29.—The body of William Priestman, the Toronto agent of the Chicago Masonic Insurance association, was found lying on the sidewalk on Dufferin street with a bullet hole above the left ear, and his pockets rifled of everything valuable. Priestman, who was about 45 years of age, and leaves a widow and three children, left home at 9 o'clock last evening to visit friends. The police think he was waylaid and killed by foot-pads.

Texas to Have a Candidate for Doorkeeper

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—Texas will have a candidate for doorkeeper of the next house in the person of William H. Nichols of Galveston, at present an inspector in the custom service there. He is a business man of prominence at home and will have cordial support in the race. The other candidates are Captain Donaldson of Tennessee, the present incumbent, and Major Hurst of Mississippi.

SHERIFF KENDALL ENTRENCHED

The War Feeling Spreading Among the Utes—Lieutenant Folsom Dead.
DENVER, Col., August 29.—There is nothing from the front that looks like quiet, unless the presence of the colored troops from Fort Duchesne, who are holding the Utes down. The latter have expressed their disgust of the Buffaloes, as they are calling dark soldiers, but a test of their qualities may change the minds of the bucks.

After the fight Sheriff Kendall did not remain on the field, but fell back to Rangely, a little settlement seven miles distant, where he assumed the defensive and awaited supplies. His force now numbers fully two hundred and he has probably been joined by a company of seventy-three men from Dolores county and Southeastern Utah, who, with Winchester and horses of their own, were discovered on the march to his assistance. Every available soldier at Meeker has been sent forward, leaving only a fair guard for the supplies. There are five hundred Utes from the reservation anxious to punish Kendall and his men for the killing of their braves, but the regulars are keeping them in check. Five companies from Fort Duchesne are in the field and this of itself is an indication of the gravity of the situation. The military authorities claim to have information that the war party includes members of the Uncompahgre and White River Utes, as well as those from the reservation, and if any of these were killed or wounded it may cause an uprising that will bring fully fifteen hundred warriors into the field.

Lieutenant Folsom, who was wounded in the fight, is dead. The wounded men will require General Beardslee as a precautionary measure, has ordered all the women and children on the scattered ranches removed to Meeker. General Crook will now find it an arduous task to enforce peace.

THROUGH THE WHIRLPOOL.

The Voyage Successfully Made in a Small Air-Chambered Craft.
NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y., Aug. 29.—C. A. Percy, a young man who works in a wagon-shop here, made a trip through the Niagara rapids and whirlpool in a life-saving craft of his own invention, upon which he has been at work four months. The boat is 17 feet long and 4 1/2 feet wide. It has large air-chambers at either end and a 300-pound weight attached to the bottom. The boat weighs 900 pounds. Percy took his boat to the Maid of the Mist landing, on the American shore, and went down the path and changed his clothing. Five minutes later he crept into the boat and swung off toward the rapids. The boat was carried directly across the whirlpool and as it reached the Canadian shore Percy came out and took the oars and pulled for Hall's elevator. He was well pleased with his craft and expects to introduce it to the life-saving service.

Was the Conductor Murdered?

MOUNT HOLLY, N. J., Aug. 29.—The dead body of Joseph A. Southwick, a well known citizen of Pemberton township, and for many years a conductor on the Amboy division of the Pennsylvania railroad, was found in the Hancocks creek, in Birmingham, by a party of men who had been hunting for him all night long. A stream of blood trickled down the face from a wound just above the eye. How Mr. Southwick met his death is a mystery. Friday afternoon he borrowed a boat from a friend at Birmingham to go fishing. Later the boat was seen drifting down the stream empty, with one of the oars gone. The coroner's physician, Dr. Hollingshead, was quite sure the wound in the head was not made by a pistol-ball, and thinks it may have been caused by a fall or a blow. Mr. Southwick was 63 years of age.

Forcing the Archbishop's Hand.

CHICAGO, Aug. 27.—Archbishop Febsau, of Chicago, has declined to open the coming national convention of German Catholics on the ground that he has other engagements, and the projectors of the scheme regard this as evidence that he is unfriendly to the convention. The invitation was designed to force the archbishop's hand.

Reading Railroad Earnings.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 27.—The July net earnings of Reading were $447,029 in excess of those of July 1896. The statement for eight months show net earnings of $3,752,432 in excess of those of the same eight months ago.

SOUTH JERSEY HORSES DYING FAST.

The southern part of New Jersey is now being visited by a most fatal and widespread horse disease. Dr. A. T. Sellers, a skilled veterinary surgeon, of Camden, who has been fighting the epizooty from the start, said last night that over 700 horses have either died or are on the verge of death, and are now suffering from the disorder which made its appearance two weeks ago.

The alarm among horse-owners is universal, and many of the more valuable animals are being taken out of the State to save their lives. The veterinary surgeons are receiving calls by mail, telegraph and telephone from all parts of the afflicted sections for their attendance on sick animals, and they are utterly unable to meet all the demands that are being made upon them.

IN BRIEF, AND TO THE POINT.

Dyspepsia is dreadful. Disordered liver is misery. Indigestion is a foe to good nature. The human digestive apparatus is one of the most complicated and wonderful things in existence. It is easily put out of order. Greasy food, tough food, sloppy food, bad cookery, mental worry, late hours, irregular habits, and many other things which ought not to be, have made the American people a nation of dyspeptics. But Green's August Flower has done a wonderful work in reforming this sad business and making the American people so healthy that they can enjoy their meals and be happy. Remember—No happiness without health. But Green's August Flower brings health and happiness to the dyspeptic. Ask your druggist for a bottle. Seventy five cents.

CHOICE SEED WHEAT.

The undersigned has choice seed wheat raised by himself, and an improved quality, guaranteed to do better in this section than the old worn out kinds. One is the New Mediterranean, and the other the Housar wheat, both a species of red wheat, bearded. This year's crop is judged to yield 30 to 35 bushels to the acre. The crop is not yet threshed, but its extraordinary yield will be made known in due time, when threshed. It is a hardy and rugged grain, which does not lodge and stands the most vigorous winter. For samples of wheat apply at REPORTER office, or to Em. Reish, Centre Hill, J. B. SMITH, a33t
