Miss tage of it for a day in the woods and at tend the festival which offered so many Reece, who was threatened on the pubie road, and ran away, has also identified Shafer as the man. There seems to be no doubt that he is the murderer of attractions. The principal features of the atternoon were the shooting by Mr. S. K. Sober, the marksman, of whom Mr. and Mrs. Culvey. Aaronsburg took the lead up to the end charge of having committed the Culvey of the seventh inning when the score stood 8 to 8 and the game was stopped on account of an accident to one of the players. As an exhibition of "kicking" murder.

A TIMELY JUDICIAL OPINION.

Judge Henderson, of Lebanon county bas just emphasized an important and timely judicial opinion. A man was brought before him for battering a neighbor who appropriated the green apples on the limb of a tree hanging over his premises from the assailant's lot. The udge, while not upholding the assault, laid down the law to the effect that the owner of the land is the owner of it from his line upward as far as ha desires to make claim to it. This being the law, the prosecutor had the right to the fruit on the branches of the apple tree extending over his lot. He might even have sawed them off. The angry assailant therefore not only lost his apples, but was held for damages beside. This descision should be posted where it can always be seen, as the question is often asked, especially this time of the year, who has a right to the apples, peaches, plums, etc., that hang over the fence. The answer is, they belong to the person over whose land the limb extends.

GAME LAW.

The game law says no person shall kill, or have in his possession after being killed, any gray, black, or fox squirrel, be-tween January 1 and September 1—pen-alty $5 for each squirrel; hare or rabbit between January 1 and November 1— penalty $5 for each rabbit; wild turkey between January 1 and November 1 between January 1 and October 15-penalty $10 for each turkey; upland or grass plover between January 1 and July 15-penalty $10 for each plover; wood cock between January 1 and July4-penalty $10 for each woodcock; quail or partridge between January 1 and October 15-penalty $10 for each quail; ruffled grouse or pheasant between Jan. 1 ed in one car. and Oct. 1-penalty $10 for each pheasant.

INNOCENT.

In the case of Thomas Weaver, of Woodward, against whom there appears to have been a set up job of blackmail. and as we said in last week's REPORTER there was evidence produced in court showing his innocence, we learn upon closer examination that Mr. Weaver's innocence was plainly established and the charge of an assault upon a female, was entirely false, and not at all in keeping with his character and reputation at home. This we have from good authority. The report that he was cleared but got the costs was not correct as to the costs, which were imposed upon the other party, as was right.

GRAND JURY REPORT.

To the Honorable Court of Quarter Sesons in and for the County of Centre: The Grand Inquest of the Court of Juarter Sessions in and for the county of Centre, State of Pennsylvania, August term, 1887. After having disposed of all the indictments presented under the direction of the Court, we have examined the public buildings and find the court room and the several offices and vaults in the basement of the court house to be in good condition. We find the bridge leading from the rear of the Court House needing some repairs on account of some of the flooring being rotten, and we would respectfully recommend the re-

We find the water closets at the rear of the Court House to be in a miserable condition, so much so as to render it a nuisance, and would recommend the entire removal of it and its contents, and a suitable substitute erected with sufficient drain and water pipes to render it a suitable place for the purposes for which is intended. .

In the case of the county jail we find the part occupied by the Sheriff and his family, together with the Sheriff's office, in good condition, except in the ball under the bath room, where the water has run through from the hath room above and caused the plastering to become loose. We also find a pile of filth and rubbish near the northeast corner of the jail yard, which we think should at once be removed. In the part of the jail occupied by the prisoners we find some of the cells damp and wet, appearing to have been caused by defective water pipes, and we find a damp and unwholeome smell pervading the whole of that part of the building, caused by the want f proper ventilation and lack of attenon. The water closets in the different cells are we think, another cause of the condition of the building, and would recommend the removal of said water closets. And we also recommend that all the vermin and fith be removed from the building. We further think that a proper water closet should be erected for he use of the jail with proper drainage pipes leading from it to the general drainage pipes of the town. We also re-commend some suitable bath room for the use of the prisoners. JAS. C. BOAL, Foreman.
