BISHOP WIGGER'S WARNING. He Declares the Public Schools no Place for Catholics. CHICAGO, Sept. 5 .- In the course of the opening ceremonies of the thirty-second annual delegate assembly of the German Catholic union of the United States here the Most Rev. Bishop Wigger, of Newark, N. J., preached a festival sermon. The sermon he said: "I talk of the children of those who profess to be good Catholics, who pride themseives on the performance of the duties of are just the same as at the beginning of the faith, but who still consider themselves justified in sending their children, whose souls they are responsible for, to the free public schools. I talk to the parents who believe that if they send or bring their whole religious duty toward them has been completed. These parents are blind. Some of them have an idea that the instruction in the public schools is better than in the schools connected with the still remain unchanged as appears in the church. This is a false idea; but admitting even that it is true, what justification can it be for such parents? Do we not know, brother christians, that we are not placed in this world for our material advantage, but to serve God and save our souls? * * * Think of the effects of public schools on your offspring When they grow up does it not result in their falling from grace and saying to themselves: 'Is religion so weighty a matter as the priests and our parents say it is?' Is this not the common result? I warn you, parents, your first duty is to assure yourselves of the eternal salvation of your offspring, and that they can never

PAID DEARLY FOR PLEASURE. Shot to Death for Making Love to Another Man's Wife.

SHELTON, Conn., Sept. 4 -Great excitement has been created in town over an affair that will undoubtedly result in a murder. At 5 o'clock last evening Joseph Bolton, a boss in the copper mill, came heme unexpectedly, and found William Miller, an employe of Wilcox & Howe, in his wife's company. Upon seeing Bolton, Miller rushed out in a state of dishabelle and was fired at twice by Bolton. Both shots took effect in the region of the kidneys, and Dr. O'Sullivan, who was called, did not dare to to ascertain details from country corresprobe for the bullets.

Bolton's wife, who was about thirty years old, is quite pretty. An intimacy rated the above. has existed between her and Miller for some time, and her hasband has threatened to kill Miller at the Erst opportunity.

Boston, Sept. 3. - Judge Nelson, of the United States district court, has denied the defendant's motion for a new trial in the case of David F. Winter, against the New York, Lake Erie and Wester railroad company. The plaintiff was ejected from a car of the defendant company at Olean, N. Y., in February, 1882, although presenting a ticket good to his place of destination, but on which he had stopped over at an intermediate station. The suit against the company was tried several times in the state courts of Massachusetts, verdicts being returned for the plaintiff each time, and was finally transferred to the United States courts, where, in June last, a verdict was returned for the plaintiff for $10,000, and the defendant made the motion for a new trial, which is now de-

BAD OUTLOOK FOR COTTON. Drought and Worms Have Played Havoe With the Crops.

MEMPHIS, Sept. 5 .- The regular monthly totton crop report for the Memphis district which embraces West Tenneessee, North Mississippi, North Arkansas, and North Alabama, published to-day by Hill, Fontane & Co.

"The flattering prospects which were shown in our July report have been dispelled. A drought has prevailed in all the four states, extending from the middle of July up to the present, and the result has been most disastrous to the cotton crop. en most disastrous to the cotton crop. What promised six weeks ago to be the largest yield ever known within the district has been cut short by drought, rust, and worms to below an average crop, and it many sections the yield will fall far short o last year. This is particularly true of Tennessee and portions of Arkansas, Mississippi, and Alabama. It is only 25 per cent. making the average for the district of 30% per cent. The great damage that has been In the evening the president will attend a banquet at the Academy of Music given by the university of Pennsylvania, the American philosophical society and other learned societies of the city.

per cent. The great damage that has been sustained is best shown when it is stated that there is raised annually within the Memphis district 1,350,000 bales of cotton, and the promised yield is cut short 415,000 bales alone within this district. Picking has commenced in every section and will be general throughout the district by the 10th inst. The season is fully two weeks early, which, together with the premature opening of bolls, caused by the drought, the receipts up to date are largely in excess of any previous year. largely in excess of any previous year Corn has suffered, but not to the extent of

> "Good crops are reported from Missis-sippi and Alabama, while the yield in Arkansas and Tennessee is only an average. NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 5.-The recent drought, followed by the worms, has played sad havoc with cotton in that section of the country tributary to this city. The prospects of a large yield have been materially cut off, and all within a fortnight. The damage to cotton is estimated be felt soon. Last year the crop was only a half one, and the present calamity will cause not merely disappointment and loss, but entire ruin to many planters. In order pondence, several gentlemen in the cotton business were interviewed, who corrobo-

RED RIVER RAILWAY TROUBLES.

A Conservative Picnic in Manitoba Turned into a Demonstration.

WINNIPEG, Man., Sept. 4 .- A picnic under the auspices of the Canadian Pacific railroad has been held at Morris, on the Red River Valley railway line, to try and work up a feeling against the allowance agitation. The provincial rights champions were out in full force with rotten eggs, and Messrs. White, Thompson and McLellan, of the dominion ministry, and Messrs. Royal, Daly and Scarth, provincial members of the house of commons, who were to be present, flunked, being afraid to

The result was that the anti-disallowance men took hold of the gathering, sweeping everything before them, denouncing Bir John A. MacDonald, the Canadian Pacific and the dominion government, and vowing that until their rights are conceded the fight would be continued, even if the confederation had to be disrupted. A few hirelings, engaged for the occasion, leaped upon the platform and assaulted R. J. Whitelaw, who was speaking. The crowd immediately interfered and drove the intruders from the ground. Groans were given for Sir John and the govern-

Both were insured.

SIXTY PERSONS BURNED IN A THEATRE.

London, Sept. 5 .- The theatre at Exe ter took fire this evening during the per-formance of "Romany Rye." The occupants of the pit after an awful struggle escaped, but many of them were greatly injured. There was only one exit from he gallery and the rush there was terrific. Scores were trodden underfoot and suffocated. A fire escape was brought to the window and many inside were rescued. Sixty corpses have been removed. The injured survivors were sent to the hospital. The mortality is estimated at one hundred.
