

THE CENTRE REPORTER.

FRED. KURTZ, Editor and Proprietor

CENTRE HALL, PA., September 8, 1887.

TERMS.—One year, $1.00, when paid in advance. Those in arrears subject to previous terms.

Advertisements 20 cents per line for 3 insertions, and 5 cents for each subsequent insertion.

KEEP COOL! and buy at Bartholomew's Store, Cheapest Store in Centre County.

LOCAL ITEMS.

Barneys' show will be at Bellefonte, Oct. 14. James Children is getting his foundation ready for a house. Mrs. Geo. A. Runk advertises sale of personal property in another column of REPORTER.

Two cents per mile—a two-thirds rate, will be charged to all excursionists over L. & T. & B. E. V. railroads. The various departments have been assigned as follows: General manager, L. Rhoads, to whom applications for tents should be made...

BIG PIC-NICS.

The big pic-nics yet to come off, in which Centre county people will feel an interest, will be, first, the pic-nic of the Centre county Veterans, at Coburn, next Saturday, 10.

The Centre Co. Patrons' pic-nic, Wednesday and Thursday, 14 and 15 inst., on the old ground on Nittany mountain, near Centre Hall, will also be a big and grand affair.

Quite a number of exhibitors have met the Com. of arrangements and obtained permission for exhibiting implements, and live-stock. The party having the Scriptoria views of the Gettysburg battle field will be on hand, and give exhibition—those on Wednesday and Thursday evenings will be free.

The address of welcome will be delivered by James A. Keller, Worthy Master of Centre County Grange; Colonel James F. Weaver will speak in behalf of the Patrons and Adjutant General Hastings in behalf of the state.

Police men have been appointed by the court to preserve order, and to see that there is no violation of the following rules: 1. No person shall be allowed to set up a stand, booth, tent or building for the sale or exhibition of any article or articles...

Next, and last, will be the great Constitutional Centennial, in Philadelphia 15, 16 and 17 inst. This will be on a magnificent scale, of which we have given details in previous issues of the Reporter. Hundreds of thousands are expected to flock into Philadelphia and witness the grand parades, &c.

UNION CO. FAIR. The Union County Fair, Sept. 21 to 24, will be the principal event, for central Penn's this fall. In the absence of a fair in our county, our people will feel an interest in the fair at Lewisburg, especially since the railroad almost brings it to our doors...

COUNTY PROHIBITION CONVENTION. The voters of Centre county, who favor the prohibition of the liquor traffic by statutory enactment and constitutional amendment, and who adopt the principles expressed in the platform adopted by the convention at Harrisburg, Aug. 24th, 1887, are requested to meet in convention at Unionville on Tuesday Sept. 20th, 1887 at eleven o'clock a. m., for the purpose of nominating a county ticket, &c.

OLD FORT. Mr. John Oldenkirk is having the Old Fort hotel remodeled, among the changes will be a gable roof for a front. This is an old landmark, and still a substantial stone building which shows no signs of decay.

On last Saturday afternoon, Messrs. James and Howard Wilson, of Spring Mills, played their second game with Messrs. Harpster and Runkle of this place, on the latter's grounds. The Centre Hall boys came out victorious by winning the first two sets. This is their second victory with Spring Mills.

LAWN TENNIS.

On Wednesday a party from Bellefonte consisting of Messrs. J. Rhodes, Will Furst and Gilbert Beaver accompanied by their lady friends, the Misses Snyder and Edith Furst, of Lock Haven, visited the Cave and on their way home tarried at this place a few hours to witness the second game of tennis between Messrs. Furst and Rhoads, and Harpster and Runkle.

RATS IN THE STATION.

The station building at this place is literally alive with rats, and are dodging in and out of every nook and corner. Of late we have heard of considerable damage being done to freight stored. Grain bags, flour sacks potatoes and almost every kind of fruit, in a few hours time will be ripped open and goods sampled by these troublesome rodents.

FLEMING, THE TAILOR.

Just now has a particularly fine lot of Scotch suitings, Fine Worsteds—plain and fancy, and a lot of superfine Pantaloons. Would also call your attention to some remnants of good goods, that will be made into pantaloons at $5.00 per pair.

SOBER, THE MARKSMAN.

Had an engagement to shoot at Cleveland, Ohio, on September 13th, before the most famous shots in the world, when a tournament was held under the management of the Chamberlain cartridge company.

A FAILURE BECAUSE OTHERS FAILED.

Huntingdon, Pa., Sept. 2.—The sheriff to-day levied on the interest of D. W. Holt, of Phillipsburg, Centre county, in the Cottage playing company of this city on an execution of $12,000.

FOR THE CAMPAIGN.

Four copies of the REPORTER, for the campaign, for 50 cents. Any one sending us 50 cents with four names, will get an extra copy free for the campaign.

FOUND AT LAST!

Ever since shoes were first made, manufacturers all over the world have tried to produce a shoe at a nominal price that would take the place of a hand sewed, but all such attempts failed, until June 2, 1885, when the J. F. Hill & Co. Improved Sewed Welt $3 Shoe was put upon the market.

SHERIFF'S SALE.

By virtue of a writ of Fieri Facias, Levavi Facias and Venditioni Exposita, issued out of the Court of Common Pleas of Centre county, Pa., and to me directed, will be exposed at public sale at the court house, in the borough of Bellefonte, on SATURDAY, OCTOBER 23, 1887, at 10 o'clock, p. m., the following property to wit:

MARRIED.

On the 4th inst., at the residence of the bride, by J. H. Reifsnnyder Esq., Elias Ritzman, of Poe Mills, and Mrs. Julian Miller, of Millheim Pa.

DIED.

At Centre Mills, Centre Co., Pa., on the 29th ult., Maud Elizabeth, infant daughter of Charles and Clara Grimm, aged 3 mo. and 1 day.

REBERSBURG.

Our merchants, C. Loxe and J. Harter, bought 1600 bu. of potatoes, at 40c, and are shipping them this week; potatoes are a fair crop in this valley.

Our farmers have finished their seeding, and some is up already. The wheat threshes well, and some think we have as much wheat from Rebersburg to Stover's, the east end of the valley, as there was in ten years in one crop, and is good quality.

The traps are still roaming through this valley; as Mrs. Renben Smull was in a corn field picking beans, one day this week she was aroused by the barking of a dog which was by her side, when she looked up she saw a well dressed man within a few steps of her. The dog kept him at a distance, and she ran for the fence and when across she asked him what he wanted, he made no reply.

Ex-Supt. Meyer was aroused on Friday night; he went down stairs, thinking that burglars were about, but found nothing; when he went back to his surprise he found that they were blessed with a fine young daughter. Both are doing well. He is in good cheer, and says the whole Democratic ticket must go in.

Noll will carry a full Democratic vote in Miles twp. The Repuls call him a Bellefonte ringer, we don't care for that, as he is one of the right kind of men and should have the office. He is an upright and industrious man, and makes his living as a stone mason.

COBURN.

On last Thursday evening at the residence of Thomas Hosterman, by Rev. Swengel, Mr. Warren Hosterman, and Miss Orndorf, daughter of J. J. Orndorf, of Woodward, were married. Shortly after the ceremony, the circular saw band severed the bride and groom. They didn't stand the noise very long and made their appearance. They have our best wishes.

A FEW FACTS.

One of the most important items of your yearly expenses is that of shoe leather. You cannot get along without it, and in buying you can not be too careful—shams and counterfeits in this line are abundant, and it is always the best policy to deal only with honest and reliable parties.

—Little bells, kettles and umbrellas—Garmans. —All the new styles in dress goods—Garmans. —A nice line of 5c dress goods—Garmans.

—The valuable farm of Wm. Emerick, dec'd, is advertised at public sale, in the REPORTER. —Any one wishing to purchase a desirable home in Hains tp., read ad. of B. M. Greninger, in REPORTER.

—The Millheim, knitting factory will likely commence operations next week. Every thing is about completed and ready to be set in motion. —The REPORTER, for the campaign, 15 cents. If you want a straight, honest Democratic paper, for the campaign, send your 15 cents for the REPORTER.

—Suits made to order, at the Philadelphia Branch, where one of the best tailors in the state is employed. Satisfaction guaranteed as to prices and fit. —A paper asked: "Is there a wife in the city to-day who makes her husband's shirts?" The following answer was received by return of post: "I do, but he won't wear 'em."

—Get your ready made clothing at the Philadelphia Branch, and you will not be imposed upon and save money besides. Lewis always deals fairly, and sells lowest in the county. —On Monday Mr. D. Fishler staked off ground for a new building on one off his lots near the station. Work has been commenced on the cellar and we are told it will be pushed along as rapidly as possible.

—Mr. Walker, of the firm of Walker & Co., of Bellefonte, Pa., ex manufacturer, has been in McKeesport endeavoring to secure a site upon which to locate a new manufactory. He has selected the ground and has made the owner an offer of $50,000. —Mr. Al. H. Stover and Miss Ida Rishel were married on Thursday 30, by Rev. Chas. T. Steck. All is a son of Mr. Frank B. Stover, proprietor of Stover's meat market, and is an agreeable and promising young gentleman. His bride is the only daughter of Mr. John Rishel, of Spring, and is bright and accomplished.

—Farmers who take their county papers are generally exempt from being defrauded out of their money by rascals traveling about the country in the guise of agents. We make it a point to expose every swindle that comes to our notice, and it would be a good thing if every farmer would subscribe for and read the REPORTER. —On Tuesday afternoon, of last week, while Frederick Rouse, of Freeburg, was returning from the field to avoid a shower, he was struck by lightning and he and the horse he was riding were instantly killed. Mr. R. was employed on the farm of F. E. Hilbish, was married and the father of a large family. —Post

—We congratulate our friend Decker, from across the valley, on his nomination for county commissioner, but we fear that the returns will show in November that he was slaughtered by the little bed bug ring, the Gazette will Fiedler while Decker is being betrayed. It is settled matter that the Gazette ring is to knife John D. Decker. —Mr. J. Will Dinges, arrived home last Thursday from the Annapolis Naval Academy, to which place he received an appointment one year ago. This is his first vacation and in the last year Will has developed into a young man and displays quite a military bearing. He expects to remain several weeks, when he will return and start in with the second year class. —Did you ever hear the like how they talk about the Lewisburg Fair? Every paper in the vicinity is telling about it. They offer big money for trotting. Last fall they did have the fastest trotting ever seen in this section. Their space is being rapidly taken up, and they expect to astonish old farmers with their display this fall. You want to go down and take a look at it, Sept. 21-24.

—Let's have a decent street through Centre Hall. We have seen fifty towns in the last six months—big and little—and not one with its main street in as bad condition as the pike thro' our town. Loose stones, washed out gullies, and mudholes, are too conspicuous to be passed by without complaint. This should not be thus, is a common remark. —A telegram from Lewisburg to the Grif says: Lemuel Rank, who repairs furnaces at the nail works, is compelled to go in before they are entirely cooled off. One day last week he put an egg in his hat upon entering, being in there some time. He brought the egg to Dr. Hyatt. Upon breaking the shell the inside was found to be cooked hard. This is a remarkable illustration of the degree of heat the human body can endure without injury. —Work on the foundation for the new P. resbyterian church, in this place began on Monday, and will be pushed right along with all possible speed. We notice that James Ruble has the basing of this part of the work, and the general superintendence is in the hands of Mr. D. Rishel, who is a member of the building committee, which is composed of the following gentlemen: J. C. Boal, Wm. Goodhart, Rev. Kerr, Josiah Daley, Joseph Gilliland, G. L. Goodhart and David Brishin. The selection of a new location produced entire harmony and is commended by citizens generally. —A special train will leave Bellefonte for Coburn at 9:45 a. m., after the arrival of the B. E. V. train from Tyrone, on Saturday, September 10th, for the picnic of Veteran Club of Centre county. Fare from Bellefonte to Coburn and return one dollar; from all other points between and including Lemont and Coburn, 2 cents per mile for distance traveled. Those wishing to return from Coburn at 3:30 p. m. on the regular train can do so and arrive in Bellefonte in time for the 5 p. m. train west. All who wish can remain at Coburn until 6:30 p. m.

MARRIED.

On the 4th inst., at the residence of the bride, by J. H. Reifsnnyder Esq., Elias Ritzman, of Poe Mills, and Mrs. Julian Miller, of Millheim Pa.

DIED.

At Centre Mills, Centre Co., Pa., on the 29th ult., Maud Elizabeth, infant daughter of Charles and Clara Grimm, aged 3 mo. and 1 day.

TO THE PUBLIC: We take this means of announcing to the people of Penns Valley and the public in general that we have purchased the jewelry establishment of E. A. Glenn & Co., at Centre Hall, and have taken charge of the same at the old stand. The entire stock of jewelry, watches, etc., were bought by us, and will be prepared to attend to anything in our line of business. We have made this venture upon pure business principles and hope that our dealings with one and all will merit a liberal patronage. It will be our aim to serve our friends and patrons. We make it a rule to handle nothing but genuine goods and will always be responsible for what we sell. We have in stock a fine line of gold and silver watches for ladies or gentlemen, which are of the best make and reputation. If you want a watch—see our goods and prices before purchasing, as we feel confident that we can suit you. Our stock of solid gold rings and jewelry is complete and of the latest designs. We claim to have as good an assortment of clocks and timekeepers as can be found in the county. We also make a specialty of silver-ware and cutlery, which is open for inspection. We have the agency for Centre county for the celebrated Davis, New Home and American sewing machines, which are the best in the market. We are prepared to do all kinds of repairing pertaining to our business. Remember, all work attended to promptly. In short we say, come and see us in our new location, whether you buy or not.
