SULLIVAN'S TRIP TO EUROPE. He Will First Meet Cardiff, Killen and

Nolan-The Difference With Sheedy. Boston, Sept. 11 .- Champion John L. Sullivan is receiving many overtures from managers who are anxious to handle him on his European trip. Men connected with the London Sporting Life York sporting a New paper have also made proposals, which, of course, he could not possibly consider, as the same parties are managing the business for Kilrain and Jem Smith. Sullivan is making better arrangements. The manager he wants, and isendeavoring to arrange details with, is not a resident of New England, but is well known in sporting circles. The champion's intention is to give a few exhibitions before sailing for England, and Patsy Cardiff, on whom he broke his arm, will be one of the men with whom he will be matched for a four or six-round glove fight. Killen and Nolan will also receive his attention. Sullivan will not sail for Europe for several weeks yet, having reconsidered his determination to start between the 15th and 20th of September. He is determined to get there in time for matches with Kilrain and Smith before January 1. He is very severe on Kilrain for lending himself to any scheme for usurping the championship of the ring, and says people will laugh at him

Just before sailing for Europe Pat Sheedy wrote a letter to a friend here, in which he says that all attempts of mutual friends to heal the differences between John and himself are fruitless, and could not possibly succeed as long as the champion allows a lot of leeches to pull him down and fill his ears with fairy tales. "These people," writes Sheedy, "are the ones who have made all the trouble, solely because I would not take them to England with me. I can get along without John, and he certainly can without me. I have no personal feeling whatever in this matter. It is purely and solely a business consideration, on the merits of which John L. Sullivan and Pat Sheedy have agreed to differ."

A PENURIOUS COUNCIL.

Indignation in Richmond Over Failure to Appropriate Money for a Celebration. RICHMOND, Sept. 12.-The citizens of Richmond are indignant over the refusal of the common council to appropriate $15,000 toward defraying the expenses of laying the Lee monument corner stone. This refusal is made the more bitter to them by reason of the fact that the city of Richmond did appropriate $10,000 for the relief of the sufferers in the great Chicago fire. One of their reasons for voting against the appropriation was that the city charter did not authorize it. Other and novel reasons were used by sundry members, such as that they had not yet received cards of invitation to the corner-stone laying; that some of them would not be made aides in the procession; that the pageant was simply ten up to benefit the upper classes; that the proposed monument was to be put outside the corporation limits; that if Lee were alive he would dislike any such pageant, and that the city could not afford the outlay. A subscription has been started by the State to raise the needed amount, and so far about $700 has been subscribed. What has increased the people's indignation has been the prompt offer from several small towns to donate not only a site for the monument, but the entire sum that the city council has refused to give, the conditions of such offers being that the mongreent shall be placed in either one of such small towns. As Audience Falls Through a Floor.

NASHVILLE, Sept. 12-A terrible accident is reported from Needmore, a small inland village three miles north of Man-chester. The Rev. J. M. Carter and Dr. Logan were to speak there yesterday in favor of prohibition. When they arrived they found a big revival in progress and did not speak. The revival was conducted in a two-story church building, the upper floor being used for church purposes and the lower floor given up exclusively to school purposes. Yesterday there was an immence audience in the upper story listening attentively to the exhortation of the minister, when suddenly, and without warning, the rear end of the floor gave way with a crash, carrying sixty or seventy people with it. The fall was thirteen feet, and bardly one of them escaped injury. The injured were quickly rescued from the wreck, and three of them found to be seriously injured. One man is fatally hurt. Every physician in the county was immediately sent for, and the work of relieving the injured promptly begun. No further particulars have been received from the disaster.

What it Takes to Kill an Editor.

MATAMORAS, Mexico, Sept. 10 .- It is reported that the murder of Valeriano C. Altamirano of El Faro was committed by three policemen under orders of a prominent authority. The unfortunate editor had been at a ball at the house of Dona Homposa Ochoa, which he left at 1:30 o'clock, accompanied by Senor Morcelino Cardenas. At the corner of Brisa's pawnshop the pair were stopped by the three policemen, who took Altamirano to the corner of the India bakery by force, where they attacked him, broke his skull with a blow from a pistol, fired five shots into his body, and stabbed him in the left side, leaving him stretched on his back dead. Fourteen shots in all were fired at him by the policemen. Cardenas, who attempted to assist him, was fired on twice, and obliged to fly for his life. The affair has a very black look, as the murdered man was a stanch supporter of the federal authorities against those of the city.

Four Days in a Freight Car. LOUISVILLE, Sept. 11. -When the door of a freight car belonging to the New York, Pennsylvania and Ohio railroad was opened in this city yesterday a young man fell fainting upon the platform. The man after a time explained that he had been in the car four days without food or drink. He said his name was Paul Gorman and that he lived at Jamestown, N. Y. He had gone to Buffalo on a spree with several friends, and when he sobered up he found himself whirling along at a rapid rate, locked up in a freight car.

Killed by a Gaug of Roughs. PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 12.-Charles Fitzgerald, living at 2,000 Edgely street, was killed by being beaten and thrown down several months, is much worse. For the the steps in the rear of a saloon in that past ten days his condition has apparently neighborhood. Fitzgerald had entered the saloon with a gang of roughs, who ordered drinks and attempted to force him to pay for them, which he refused to do. A scuffie ensued, during which Fitzgerald met his death. No arrests have yet been made.

Canada Adds to Her Debt. OTTAWA, Ont., Sept. 9.—The statement of the public debt of the Dominion, just issued by the finance department, shows the total net debt on Aug. 31 to have been $228,-494,461, an increase since June 30 of $3,467,-

WILLIAM O'BRIEN ARRESTED. Taken While Bidding Labouchere Good.

Dublin, Sept. 12 .- Mr. O'Brien was arrested yesterday while seeing Mr. Labouchere off on the steamer. He spent the day at Ballyrack with Messrs. Dillon and Harrington. He received a telegram from Mr. Labouchere and Mr. Brunner requesting him to accompany them to London. Mr. O'Brien, accompanied by Mr. Harrington, went on board the Kingston boat for the purpose of declining the invitation to go to London, when a detective met him and said he would not be arrested if he pledged himself not to go to England. Mr. O'Brien refused this condition, when he was taken into custody and escorted to the Imperiel hotel by the detective, who informed him that he could stay there all night if he would give a promise that he would not make a speech. This promise was not given, and Mr. O'Brien addressed a crowd from the balcony of the hotel.

In the cosrse of his brief remarks, he said; "So long as there is breath in my body my voice will not be silent until I am gagged. I am proud to suffer for Mitchelstown. When in Kingstown I was told I would not be arrested if I did not undertake to go to England. That shows that the government is beginning to dread us in

of the hotel was very enthusiastic. Mr. O'Brien, in an interview on the subject of his arrest, said that he had no intention of going to England when he boarded the boat. He merely went there to see Mr. Labouchere. As to making a speech at the hotel, he said he had no idea of doing so until the detective mentioned it.

MITCHELSTOWN, Sept. 12.-The town was quiet all day. The victims of the fight on Friday will be given a public funeral to-day which will be made the occasion of a great temonstration. The man Shinnick and the boy Casey are dying from the effects of the wounds they received on Friday. Casey's ante mortem deposition has been taken. He states he was standing near Shinnick, at one corner of the square, when Head Constable O'Sullivan came to a window of the barracks and fired at him. Four witnesses confirm this statement. The nationalists say that they have evidence to establish the identity of the man who shot Ri-

Contigents of nationalists from all the surrounding towns promise to attend the funeral. The procession will be an enor mous one. The police refuse to allow the cortege to traverse the regular route to the cemetery, which passes the barracks. The nationalists consider this a great integrity, as they will be compelled to go through the Protestant part of the town. They claim that they have a right to take the usual route, promising to resort to no violence. The coffin of the old man shot dead on Friday-whose name was Lonergan, not Riordan-is inscribed as follows:

MICHAEL LONERGAN, Murdered Sept. 9, 1887. Requiescat in Pace.

The funeral will begin at 2 p. m. Dublin, Sept. 12 .- Messrs. Labouchere, Hooper, Brunner, and other members of parliament addressed a meeting in Cork on Saturday, called to denounce the action of the government. Michael Davitt spoke at a meeting in Dublin Sunday. He declared that he would adopt every word and meaning of Mr. O'Brien's speech at Mitchelstown. Irishmen would deserve the contempt of the world if they allowed themselves to be bunted from their cabins like beasts. He complained bitterly against the constabulary for slaying their own kith and kin in cold blood even without a word of com-mand from their officers. If the slumbercold blood even without a word of command from their officers. If the slumbering embers of retaliatory vengeance were faced, as in 1381, he hoped they would not be. The blame for any evil wrought upon Ireland would fall upon the instigators of the Mitchelstown massacre.

UPS AND DOWNS OF BASE BALL. A GENTS Philadelphia Has Crowded New York Out of Position-Notes,

New York, Sept. 12. - Those sanguine individuals who have been looking for New York to go into second place and even hoping for first place, are very much "down in the mouth" now. It is not likely that New York will again get higher than fourth place this season. It had a golden opportunity the past week, but failed, as usual, to get there. From first claim on second place it has dropped to fourth. Meanwhile Philadelphia has continued the steady gait and is now hunting Chicago very close for second place. Another week like last week will put her in second. Detroit also continues to gain steadily and it is not probable that the Michiganders can now be headed off. The standing to date is as follows:
