LOCAL ITEMS.

—Sharp frost on Monday morning last.

—The grain sown this fall is up and looks finely.

—Mr. Chas. Swartz, of Tusseyville, was one of our callers this week.

—Gov. Curtin can't tell you what time it is, since the Centennial.

—Band Festival at Tusseyville on Friday and Saturday evenings of this week.

—H. D. Vanzet shot three wild ducks on Red and Stone mill dams, Tuesday.

—L. D. Kurtz, formerly of Aaronsburg, is erecting a new dwelling house at Millifenburg.

—Ex Sheriff Spangler has gone to the western counties for another lot of cattle.

—Lutheran Synod at Millifenburg, this week, and Women's Miss. Society at New Berlin.

—Democrats won't be bulldozed this year—that's what makes the rads feel as though it was blue Monday.

—Kennedy & Shires got the long pull on their Snyder county persecutors, and now will let them have a volley from their rifle pit.

—Landlord Brown, of Bellefonte, since the sale of the Cummings house, has leased the Butts house, and will run a hotel there next spring.

—F. A. Foreman, of this place, has moved to Millheim, where he has taken charge of one of its schools. Millheim will find him an excellent teacher.

—John Barefoot, of Fayette township, Juniata county, hanged himself to an apple tree Wednesday. Financial embarrassment is given as the cause.

—The potato excitement is running high among dealers, who are now paying 65 cents per bushel. Look out, so that there is no break in a potato corner.

—Gov. Beaver is having a good time going around to centennials, celebrations, and such, and seems to be making himself popular—at least he hasn't been snubbed yet.

—It is rumored that Chas. Bollinger expects to locate in Altoona before long, and will open a flour and feed store. Charley is a good neighbor and we'd be sorry to see him go.

—J. Will Dinges left on Tuesday afternoon for Annapolis to resume his studies in the Naval Academy. He starts in his second year with good prospects of successfully completing the course.

—This thing of blowing about a year's success, and not paying honest debts, is too thin, or else shows the rogue. The Reporter pays its honest debts, and don't try to get dishonest money from the county.

—There appears to be some dissatisfaction with the change of school books in Potter district, as appears from a letter by "Citizen." If the writer will make his complaint a little more clear, we will give him a hearing in these columns.

—The great strike in the anthracite region, threatens to cause a rise in the price of coal. Wonder whether these strikes are not connived at by the operators, sometimes, in order to have an excuse for putting up prices?

—A young gentleman living in the vicinity of Tusseyville who of late has made himself conspicuous as a correspondent to some of our county papers should be more careful in the future, as his scribbling is making him exceedingly unpopular.

—A collector will call upon persons whose names are upon the Lutheran church subscription books, for money due, in order to make payments due to contractors. It is important that those who have amounts unpaid prepare themselves for the collector, and lay by the sum due.

—Five hundred and thirty-four pensioners from Centre county have their names on the pension rolls at Washington, who each quarter draw $18.24. This would make $72,964 distributed among the soldiers and their widows yearly, averaging nearly $137 to each.

—Thanks to Dr. Atherton for a copy of State College Catalogue, 1886-87. The College is flourishing, and under Dr. Atherton its success is assured, notwithstanding under his first year's control it met its fiercest opposition and misrepresentation. All has been dispelled and the college is rapidly gaining in students as well as in public favor.

MURDERER SHOWERS' CONFESSION NOT BELIEVED AS A WHOLE.

Lebanon, Sept. 14.—The confession and trial of Murderer Showers, his plea of guilt of murder, the motion of his new counsel to withdraw the plea and substitute "Not guilty" on the ground that the confession had been obtained through fear and intimidation, the evidence of witnesses, the testimony of Showers, the applause of the excited people in the packed Court House, the denial by Betsy Sargent of Showers' charges and the general speculation as to her guilt or innocence, is the one topic of all talk in the Lebanon Valley.

The confession was written in jail in the presence of Rev. J. M. Ditzler and Robert Seibert of Anville and Luther F. Horick, Esq. Showers expresses himself very much relieved to-day since having made his confession. He will be brought into court again next Monday, when the degree of guilt will be determined and he will be sentenced.

Information was made last evening before Alderman Kreider charging Miss Betsy Sargent with being an accessory to the murder, but she has not yet been arrested. Her brother Jacob took her home, where she will remain until wanted. The charge against her is not believed by a majority who are aware of Showers' several confessions.

Showers murdered two children—both nephews—by choking them to death with a cord, and then buried them in the garden.

WILL WE HAVE A BIG HOTEL?

More persons than can be accommodated, we are told, come to Centre Hall for summer boarding. The location is healthy, with plenty of valley and romantic mountain scenery, good, pure water, and other attractions, and prices of living cheap.

In a conversation with Gov. Curtin the other day, we learned from him that outside capitalists had their eye on this place, for the erection of a large summer hotel. He tells us that a syndicate had this enterprise in view, and the governor is giving it every encouragement, and he thinks there is not a more favorable opening for such a hotel than at this place. We think Gov. Curtin is correct.

In addition to this we find that the erection of a permanent picnic ground in the woods near our town, is also being talked of. Its central location, convenience to the railroad, its extent and level surface free from under brush, and close proximity to the Centre Hall water works, make this woods the choicest spot in the county for such a project.

OUR CENTENNIAL.

Huntingdon and York, last week celebrated their centennial, both with great pomp and eclat, lasting several days. Other counties will follow suit, next year, and in subsequent years, as the centennial may become ripe or reach its 100 rung in the ladder of time.

Centre county was erected Feb. 13, 1800, so we will have to tarry a little spell yet before we can celebrate the 100 anniversary of the birth of our country. Our county was taken from Northumberland, and many records pertaining to this section, deeds and other legal documents, are on file in the court house at Sunbury which once was our county seat. All papers of this nature, prior to 1800, are in the vaults of Northumberland county at Sunbury.

Whenever we get 100 years old we will want old mother Northumberland to come up and join in the dance.

Bellefonte can celebrate its centennial in 1895.

DEATH OF COLONEL KAPP.

Amos E. Kapp died at his home on his farm on the outskirts of Northumberland on Thursday evening, 22nd, after an illness of less than a week. He attended the centennial celebration at Philadelphia and returned home with a slight cold and thoroughly exhausted. Fever set in, and surrounded by his family he passed over the dark and silent river of death as quietly as a child sleeps.

Col. Kapp years ago was known through here as a large stage proprietor, and at one time owned the line from Northumberland through Penna Valley to Water Street.

SAYS HE'S INNOCENT.

Several weeks ago one of our correspondents down the valley, in his letter published that a fancy poultry dealer had cut the eye teeth of Squire Rote, of Haines. Mr. Albert Sherman, of Littlestown, Pa., the party referred to, writes us to contradict this, and say it is false, and that his dealings were fair and square, as he can verify.

We give the gentleman the benefit of the above denial, not knowing anything about the facts.

LOCAL SQUIBS.

—Wednesday morning opened with rain.

—Many horses in this section are sick with distemper.

—If you want a fine farm, read ad. in Reporter, of John I. Thompson.

—The recent "cold snap" has made business brisk among our coal merchants.

—Bartholomew is shipping many hundred bushels of potatoes from our station.

—Mr. Vance McCormick left for Altoona this week where he expects to work at his trade.

—Don't forget the Festival in Hosterman's grove at Tusseyville on next Saturday evening.

—Before you buy a stove you should see the beautiful Parlor Heaters at Reesman's stove emporium, Centre Hall.

—Fishermen are having a harvest of eels in the mountains along Penns creek this fall. Some of them have been threatening to send the Reebrother a mess.

—Get your ready made clothing at the Philadelphia Branch, and you will not be disappointed, and save money besides. Lewins always deals fairly, and sells lowest in the county.

—There is nothing more certain than this, that an ordinary potato crop, even at 30 cents per bushel, will pay far better than an average wheat crop. Cipher on it, farmers.

—Subscribe for the Reporter, and pay $1.50 per year in advance. Try it, at least for the campaign, with four names for 50 cents, and an extra copy for the one getting up the club.

—Our popular landlord, D. J. Meyer, has gone on a trip to Mercer county. During his absence Mr. Meyer will show that she knows how to run a hotel.

—Flensing the tailor of Bellefonte is having quite a run on fall suits. His work gives satisfaction and his prices compete with all. Remember Flensing's tailoring establishment if you want a fine suit of clothes. All the late styles.

—Cider is selling at $2 per barrel. Apples at 30 to 40, according to quality. Potatoes are being bought up, at 35 and there seems to be quite a chase for them by buyers for shipment. One farmer, by name of Wolf, near Aaronsburg, is said to have a crop of 1600 bushels.

—Lock Haven markets: Potatoes 60 cents; apples 40 cents; peaches $1 to $2 per bu.; chickens 50 to 60 cents per pair; butter 20 to 22 cents; eggs 18 to 20; sweet corn, 10 to 15 cents per doz.; tomatoes 80 cents per bu.; egg plants, 5 to 8 cents, and other produce about as last quoted.

—Mr. Dave Bible who spent several years as clerk in Bartholomew's store at this place left this week for Shamokin where he has secured a good position in a large merchant establishment. Emanuel Gettig, of Tusseyville, takes Bible's position and is able to fill it satisfactorily.

—Viewers for a private road, from James Duck's house to the road to Penn Hall, were on the ground, a few days ago, and made a report granting the road. There was much feeling between the contending parties. This was a review, a former set of viewers having reported against said road.

FORWARD, GRAND ARMY.

St. Louis, Sept. 25.—The Future City, as St. Louis was once satirically called, is now a Fairy City, although the smoke is still here. Everything is ready for Grand Army week and preparations have been made for the reception of 100,000 soldiers. These are beginning to arrive, and by Tuesday the veterans will all be here to capture the city, which will surrender gracefully to them.

The city parks will be a succession of camps, 3,000 tents being scattered picturesquely among the bricks and mortar of every day buildings. These can accommodate 30,000 men, and the houses in the vicinity will furnish the meals at a quarter of a dollar for each veteran's appetite. The markets are overflowing with the good things of the farms, gardens and prairie, and the visitors will literally live off the fat of the land. Like New York, St. Louis is noted for being a boarding aggregation of humanity, a great proportion of the widows and smart wives of the town keeping open house at so much per week, payable in advance. This hitherto impregnable wall will be under a flag of truce this week, and no veteran need buckle his vest-strap instead of partaking of a square meal.

- Our $1.00 Cashmere reduced to 75c.
 - Our 75c Cashmere reduced to 55c.
 - Our 50c Cashmere reduced to 38c.

CALL FOR A CENTRE COUNTY UNION-LABOR CONVENTION.

The farmers who are opposed to having the prices of their products made in England; the soldiers who believe that the government is able to and should do them the same justice it has already done the bondholders; the skilled and unskilled laborers who believe that the present low rate of wages is both unnecessary and made by monopoly; and all who believe that the people's money should be among the people and not locked up in the United States Treasury, are invited to meet in County Convention, in Bellefonte, on Wednesday, Oct. 12th, 1887, to protest against the said evils, and to put a full county ticket in the field.

Each laborer, soldier, or farmer's organization will be entitled to one delegate, and each borough, ward or township to one delegate each. Delegates will be required to agree to support the platform and ticket of the Union-Labor party.

IN BRIEF, AND TO THE POINT.

Dyspepsia is dreadful. Disordered liver is misery. Indigestion is a foe to good nature.

The human digestive apparatus is one of the most complicated and wonderful things in existence. It is easily put out of order.

Greasy food, tough food, sloppy food, bad cookery, mental worry, late hours, irregular habits, and many other things which ought not to be, have made the American people a nation of dyspeptics.

But Green's August Flower has done a wonderful work in reforming this sad business and making the American people so healthy that they can enjoy their meals and be happy.

Remember—No happiness without health. But Green's August Flower brings health and happiness to the dyspeptic. Ask your druggist for a bottle Seventy-five cents.

MARRIED.

By Rev. J. M. King, Sept. 17, 1887, at Evangelical parsonage Centre Hall, Mr. Andrew Horner and Miss Carrie Fleisher, both of Tusseyville, Centre Co., Pa.

By Rev. J. M. King at same place, Sept. 28, 1887, Mr. John A. Mann and Miss Debba Gardner, both of Howard, Centre Co., Pa.

On the 15th of September, at the Lutheran parsonage, by Rev. M. L. Ditzler, Mr. Edward Swartz, of Millheim, and Miss Cora Stoyer, of Aaronsburg.

White and red wheat, rye, shelled corn and barley wanted at the Centre Hall Roller Mill—for which the highest market prices will be paid. Grain taken on storage.

"Sellers' Liver Pills" have been the standard remedy for malaria, liver complaint, costiveness etc., for fifty years.

HERE AND THERE.

—Read Powers advertisement in another column.

—Had a cool wave Friday and Saturday last.

—Mr. Eichenhart, proprietor of the Spring Mills Creamery, moved into the Runk mansion, this week.

—Arb Katherman is keeping bachelors hall—his wife and family are away visiting friends.

—Potatoes are in demand for Ohio as well as for the coal regions. The price has gone up to 55 cents.

—Cool weather is setting in and you want a fall overcoat. To get one cheap go to Lewins, at the Philad. Branch.

—A strike took place in Centre Hall recently. Next time guess they will have to send for Master Powderly, or bust.

—The "Royal Princess" is the name of those beautiful square parlor heaters sold by And Reesman. Every body is getting one.

—Rev. Fischer left on Wed. afternoon for Millifenburg to attend the Lutheran Synod which convenes at that place this week.

—Are you going to the show? If you are, buy your boots and shoes at Powers' and you will have enough money to buy your ticket.

—Flensing the tailor, at Bellefonte, opened up a line line of goods for fall suits. Keep an eye on what he has to say in regard to suits and prices.

—By paying for the Reporter in advance, you get it for $1.50 per year. Those who wish to avail themselves of this offer, had best remit at once.

—The Reporter, for the campaign, 15 cents. If you want a straight, honest Democratic paper, for the campaign, send your 15 cents for the Reporter.

—Suits made to order, at the Philadelphia Branch, where one of the best tailors in the state is employed. Satisfaction guaranteed as to prices and fit.

—Mrs. Charles Horner, of near Penn Hall, died on Tuesday afternoon. We did not learn the cause of her death. She leaves a husband and five children.

—Lewins has fall overcoats and a new stock of suits for men and boys, cheap and down to cost. Suits made to order, too, and satisfaction guaranteed.

—The trial of the murderers of Mr. and Mrs. Culvey has not yet commenced. The Clinton county court will finish up the minor cases before attacking this important one.

—Little, sour, bitter, dry and shriveled peaches are sold on our streets this season for one dollar and fifty cents a bushel. Ge whi! We'll invest our money in pop.

—Miss Della Spangler, of Joliet, Ill., is visiting at the home of her uncle, Mr. D. C. Runkle, at this place. Miss Spangler is quite a vivacious young lady and is a brilliant conversationalist.

—Our schools are under fair headway. Prof. Little, of the grammar department, seems to be the right man in the right place. Centre Hall can boast of as good schools as any in central Penna.

—"Gathering chestnuts on Sunday" would be quite an appropriate theme for some of our divines' discourses at this season. There are plenty of wayward ones wandering over the mountain every Sabbath.

—Will Swab, of this place, completed a model of a new cornplanter, the result of his own ingenuity, which he expects to send to Washington to obtain a patent. It is quite a simple device and in our estimation is a good idea for that purpose.

—About two weeks ago Miss Sadie Ross of this place, cut an ugly gash in her hand and severed an artery. The wound has caused her considerable annoyance since, by the opening of the injured blood vessel, which is very slow in healing.

—John Noll, we mean Sheriff Noll, of Pleasant Gap, has been helping the stone cutters at the Presbyterian church the last few days; although a candidate for office he goes about his work the same as ever. John is a good stone cutter and will make a boss Sheriff. We predict a handsome majority for him next Nov.

—H. A. Walker, son of Mr. Phillip Walker, the latter living in Clintonville and the former at the pike opposite, had his left arm broken two weeks ago, while loading lumber at Zeigler's saw mill in little Sugar Valley. He was walking on a plank with a scantling in his arms, when the plank slipped off and he fell to the ground, the scantling falling on his arm.

—Please call and examine our large stock of cloths and cassimeres suitable for any garment in Men's wear—a full assortment of Overcoats "READY MADE!" The largest line of Hats, Caps and Furnishing Goods in the county—all work guaranteed to fit or no sale."

MONTCOMERY & CO.

The last hope of Jacob Sharp, the New York bribe giver, is dead. The supreme court has affirmed his sentence and he will be sent to Sing Sing on Friday next. The leading opinion was written by Judge Daniels, but there are three other opinions filed in the case. The court however, has unanimously come to the conclusion that no error prejudicial to the defendant appears in the record and that the jury was justified by the evidence in convicting him. While there is room in the heart of almost every one for a sincere pity for this aged man who ran his course of grand long before punishment overtook him, and while there can be nothing but admiration for the devoted conduct of his faithful wife, still no good citizen can help but rejoice that justice has not miscarried in this case.

From Italy, the cholera returns for the past 24 hours are: Messina, 118 new cases and 49 deaths; Catania, 6 new new cases and no deaths; Palermo, 3 new cases and 3 deaths.

The Guatlois publishes a report, without vouching for its truth, to the effect that the remains of Napoleon have been stolen from his tomb at Hotel des Invalides and scattered to the winds.

Napoleon's ashes scattered to the winds ought to raise a breeze, at least.

AN OLD MAN'S CRIME.

WILLIAM SHOWERS CONFESSES THAT HE KILLED HIS TWOLITTLE GRANDCHILDREN.
Lebanon, Pa., Sept. 23.—William Showers, the aged murderer of his grandsons, was brought into court at 9:30 o'clock this morning to be tried. Some thirty aine witnesses, all residents of the vicinity of Anville, where the murder was committed, were in court. A Frank Selizer, esq., counsel for Showers, is confined to his room, seriously indisposed, and District Attorney Ehrgood stated that he was willing to postpone the case until to-morrow. A sensation was then created by the handing of a written confession to Judge McPherson, which covers five pages of legal cap paper. Showers confesses that he killed the two little boys, as charged in the two bills of indictment. Judge McPherson read the confession amid an almost breathless stillness in the court room. Betsy Sargent, the would-be housekeeper of Showers at Anville, and who was to have married him, is implicated as an accessory in the confession. Showers says the woman held the light while he buried the deed was done, and while he terrified them, and that she assisted him from beginning to end. The woman's friends do not believe she can be guilty of so heinous a crime. Her arrest was made this afternoon.
