HUNTING A LOST CHILD.

On last Saturday afternoon a tramp-like elderly man, was observed passing through this place, having a little girl about 10 years of age by the hand. The little one was scantily clad and barefooted. The two had hardly gotten half way up the mountain, when a telephone was received from Lewistown to arrest a tramp having a little girl with him and who was thought to be at or near Centre Hall, at the time, as there was strong suspicion the little one was a stolen child which was missed in Luzerne county since last Decoration day. Constable Booser with Will Ruble were at once sent in pursuit by Esq. Boal, and overtook the party on the top of the mountain, about a mile from here. The little girl fought against being brought back, and showed unusual spunk, but the two finally marched back to this place. Here he declared the child was his, and the little girl, rather bright and ready-spoken asserted the same thing, and threatened to write and telegraph to certain parties about the affair. The man's account was that he came from Danville, and was bound for Flemington, where he intended husking corn to get some money, yet his round about course through Snyder county and hither via the 7 Mountains, looked a little suspicious, and he felt much concern lest his child should be taken from him. He said his name was Dailey.

Telephone communication was at once opened with the father of the lost child at Lewistown, who had reached that point in his pursuit of these two wanderers, and a description was telephoned. His child had dark brown hair—so had this one. His child's eyes corresponded with the eyes of this one. His child had a black mole on the right shoulder, about an inch long—this child had a mark which came nigh answering to this too. Orders were given to hold the wanderers until Sunday, when the father would arrive here for identifying his child. Nothing was identified as to age. The little girl with the tramp seemed to be about ten years, and the lost Luzerne child, named Ulrich, was only five—had this fact been stated over the telephone it would undoubtedly have decided the matter that this child was not Mr. Ulrich's.

Sunday afternoon Mr. Ulrich arrived—nodoubt with a heart full of expectations that he had found his long lost little girl, whose disappearance had almost driven the father and mother to distraction. After fixing costs for lodging the tramps here, he was taken to the room of the little girl, in Meyer's hotel, and one glance brought back the pangs of disappointment, and dispelled hopes so buoyant—for the little girl was not his, and again heart broken, he shed tears of bitter disappointment.

Some four or five dollars were collected in the crowd and given Mr. Ulrich who is a poor man and has spent much money searching for his child. No doubt he had sent a message on the wings of lightning to his family that their little one was found, soon to be followed by another message to break joy into sorrow in that family circle, that it was not the lost one.

The tramp had also shed tears fearing his little daughter was to be wrested from him. For the time being—one heart was made sad and another glad. Now it turned to gladness for the tramp Dailey and to sadness for Mr. Ulrich.

The little girl whose dress was scant and shabby, was washed and given a new dress, and other needed clothing, by Mrs. D. J. Meyer, and with a little sum of money from the crowd, the wanderers again wandered their way up the mountain. The affair naturally, created quite an excitement here.

ROBBERS TAKE A TRAIN.

Greensburg, Pa., October 3.—The passengers of a train running on the Sewickley Branch of the Southwest Railroad had a rather terrifying experience early this morning. The Sewickley road, which is a little branch only ten miles long, runs through the Pleasant Unity coke field. There are plenty of lonesome places along the road, and it was at one of these points, while the train was running at a slow rate early this morning, that a band of negroes, variously estimated at from twenty-five to thirty, jumped aboard and caused a panic by their villainous demonstrations. The party had been lying concealed among the bushes that line the road, and at given signal from their leader, a tall, herculean fellow with a coal black skin, they jumped aboard. Three of the party, with drawn revolvers, entered the cab of the engine and held the engineer and fireman in check, while the rest of the gang scattered themselves through the train and collected the money and valuables of the passengers. As there were only a few of the latter on board no attempt at resistance was made, and the robbers didn't get much booty.

After they had secured about everything of value on the train the fellows, who were more or less drunk, proceeded to drive the engineer and fireman from the engine, and for two hours a drunken ruffian kept control of the throttle, running it up and down the road, most of the time at a frightful rate of speed. At one time the drunken engineer ran the train close to the little town of Mutual. A child that was playing along the track was struck by the cow-catcher and hurled a distance of twenty feet, fortunately, only had his arm broken. When a few minutes later a mule that was placidly feeding on the weeds that grew between the ties of the rickety old road-bed was struck and instantly killed, the whole crowd of drunken darkeys set up a yell of delight and the engine was almost derailed. It was nearly ten o'clock when the negroes got tired of their drunken sport and abandoned the train. Officers are scouring the region in search of the audacious band.

A REPUBLICAN KICK IN HUNTINGDON.

Huntingdon, October 3.—The dissatisfaction that began brewing in the Republican party in this county over the result of their late convention has culminated in many districts in a general revolt, and but one nominee is conceded to be safe—John S. Bare, for Register and Recorder. A meeting will be held by the Democratic county committee on the 11th instant to fill up the county ticket. Jere B. Bex, who failed to receive the Republican nomination for District Attorney, has concluded to run independently, and as he will receive the endorsement of the Democrats, his Republican friends are expected to trade the whole ticket for him.

The Messrs Lou and Essie Hensel, of Howard, Pa., are visiting friends at this place. Fires have been started in the new Valentine Co. furnaces, but no iron is yet being made. Miss Sadie Bitner expects to entertain a party of young folks at her home on Friday evening. And Reesman put a large hot air furnace in the Methodist church at Pleasant Gap, this week. Last Sunday seemed to have been a good day for chestnuts—it may be hot for some of the gatherers yet. Millheim will enlarge her town hall, and give it some beautifying touches. Millheim is progressive always. Cool weather is setting in and you want a fall overcoat. To get one cheap go to a sewing at the Philad. Branch. Did you see the beautiful line of square parlor heaters at Reesmans. He has the latest styles and everybody wants one. "Rosemont" and "Beaver" are the names of the square parlor heaters taking the lead this season, for sale by And Reesman. Large quantities of charcoal are being shipped from our station, by lumbermen who have converted the off-falls from their mills into a salable article. Suits made to order, at the Philadelphia Branch, where one of the best tailors in the state is employed. Satisfaction guaranteed as to prices and fit. All the grain fields look in fine condition—some predict the fly has mostly disappeared, and that next year there will be an old-fashioned crop. Still, potatoes will pay best. There was a wedding at the home of Mr. Harry Knarr, near Lemont, last Tuesday evening, when his daughter was wedded to Charley Kuhn, of Boalsburg. Get your ready made clothing at the Philadelphia Branch, and you will not be imposed upon and save money besides. Lewins always deals fairly, and sells lowest in the county.

A BOLD HIGHWAYMAN.

SINGLE-HANDED HE HALTS TWO COACHES AND ROBBS THE PASSENGERS. Austin, Tex., Sept. 30.—A telephone message from San Angelo records another daring stage robbery last night. The robber played a long hand. The country through which the stage route passes between San Angelo and Ballinger, on the Texas and Pacific, is sparsely settled, wild and broken, and the robber, with rough country clothes on, broad sombrero and a red handkerchief over the lower part of his face, selected a desolate, dreary spot, hid his wiry pony hard by and calmly awaited the arrival of the stage from San Angelo. It soon hove in sight, with eight passengers on board, three of them ladies. The bold bandit ordered the driver to halt, at the same time drawing a bead on him with his pistol. He was handed a cap and commanded to put it on and draw it down over his face, and before the half-awake passengers fully realized the import of the stoppage he ordered them in line and robbed each one in turn of all his cash, watches and jewelry. He got nearly $2,000 in money, taking $700 from a St. Louis drummer named Kaufman. He returned the watches and informed the disgusted men and women that they must not move from their tracks. Then he kept them standing there for nearly three hours while he went through the mail bags.

When the stage from Ballinger was heard in the distance he ordered all the passengers into their coach and the driver to his box and commanded that he should drive off as rapidly as possible. Then he stopped the Ballinger stage and two ladies—through the same course. He did not secure over $100 from them, however.

THE SUPREME COURT.

Pittsburg, October 3.—The Supreme Court to day handed down a number of decisions this morning, the most important of which was in reference to the Commonwealth's suit against Silas M. Bely. While Mr. Bely was State Treasurer 100,000 were lost by the failure of banks in which the money was deposited. The suit went against the Treasurer and it was carried to the Supreme Court. Judge Sterrett delivered the opinion. He said that while it appears to be a harsh measure of justice to hold the Treasurer and his securities liable for money deposited under the circumstances, it is impossible to reach any other conclusion without ignoring the authority of well-considered cases cited.

THAT CORRESPONDENT.

MR. EDITOR: There is a certain egotistical writer in our community who furnishes items for a few county papers. The community has long been disgusted with his silly pencilings, and of late he must have had a bilious attack, for his writings have assumed a rather aggressive nature. He had better furnish no more items like in several recent issues, or his progress of becoming a "stumper" may be somewhat retarded, of course his oratorical powers should not be neglected for who knows, but that some day he may startle the world by his eloquence. Tusseyville, Pa., Oct. 4, 1887.

REUNION OF THE 14TH REGIMENT, P. V.

The object of such a meeting will be to organize permanently and make arrangements to place an appropriate monument on the historic battlefield of Gettysburg to mark the spot occupied by the regiment in the memorable battle. The reunion will be held in the court house at Bellefonte on Thursday, October 27. Let every member of the regiment who still survives meet with their comrades there.

HOFFER-McCLEARY.

Invitations are out for the wedding of Miss Alma B. Hoffer, daughter of Mr. Geo. Hoffer, of Alexandria, Pa., to Mr. Irwin McCleary. The young lady is well known in this section and deserves a good husband. The happy event takes place on the 13 of October, at the home of the brides parents. The Reporter extends its congratulations to the happy couple.

A CURIOSITY.

Miss Ella Lingle sent a raspberry stem to our office, this week on which were a large number of full grown and ripe berries. They are either a very late berry or it is the second crop for this year, anyhow it is a rare thing to pick raspberries in our climate on the 4th of October.

CHURCH DEDICATION.

The Lutheran church of Pine Grove Mills Centre Co. Pa., will be dedicated Sunday Oct. 10th. The pastor, Rev. A. N. Warner will be assisted by Rev. J. H. Menges of Philadelphia and Rev. S. E. Ferris of New Berlin. The public is cordially invited to attend and participate in all the services on that day.

Shawls and Coats.—Garmans. Slaves and Ruchings.—Garmans. Shawls, Coats and Wraps.—Garmans. A handsome lace Curtain for 1.35 a pair.—Garmans. Dress goods and fine trimming braids.—Garmans. We are informed that 20,000 bushels of potatoes have been shipped from Haines township, this fall. Mr. Samuel Hess, of near Pinegrove, Pa., who was seriously ill of dysentery, is improving from the attack. We regret to learn of the death of Mrs. Noah Musser, which occurred at her late residence a half-mile this side of Fillmore. For a long time she has been afflicted with cancer of the breast. From the amount of legal advice given so gratuitously by some fellows makes you believe they had swallowed "Black stone" whole, chawed up "Pardon's Digest" and taken for desert a bite or two of "State Laws". The appraisers of the estate of R. Hare Powell Sons & Co., filed their report in Philadelphia on Wednesday of this week. The inventory reaches $4,300,000, more than enough to meet all the liabilities of the firm. Fleming the tailor of Bellefonte is having quite a run on fall suits. His work gives satisfaction and his prices compete with all. Remember Fleming's tailoring establishment if you want a fine suit of clothes. All the late styles. Gen. Simon Cameron, of Harrisburg, the oldest surviving Ex-United States senator, is expected at Bellefonte to day. While there he will be entertained by Major Wm. F. Reynolds. Wm. Wolf & Son have received their winter stock of "Towanda Boots" of which they are the sole agents in this section of the county. This make of goods is so well known that further comment is unnecessary. If you have never worn them and buy a pair now you will never buy any others. They have also received a full line of Candeo rubber goods, the best known in the world, and before this reaches you they will have the finest and cheapest lot of gents and boys' hats and caps in the county. They were bought from a large stock of the latest and best styles and at lower figures than ever known here. See their styles before you buy. Surprise also is expressed at the large and fine line of gents cassimeres in stock. None better. The other department is as complete as these. Give them a call.

DEATH OF MRS. SOLT.

Mrs. Margaret A., the wife of Mr. David Solt, died on Monday, September 29, at her husband's home at Houserville. Her death was caused by brain fever, with which she suffered about two weeks. Her husband and one child survive her. The age of the deceased was 24 years, 11 months and 1 day. Mrs. Solt's maiden name was Margaret Alice Klinger.

Everything cheap and the best.

—Aaronsburg is to have a hymenial affair to-day, which will be a pleasurable event and a happy one to the parties immediately interested. The bride is Miss Lizzie Huston, a beautiful and accomplished young lady, daughter of Sam'l Huston, dec'd, and a niece of Jas. P. Coburn, Esq. The groom is Harvey Musser, Esq., of Akron, Ohio, and a son of Dr. P. T. Musser, of Aaronsburg. Mr. Musser is a successful young lawyer, in Akron. The happy pair are esteemed acquaintances of the REPORTER, and we extend them our best wishes.

THE BEEHIVE.

Kerlin's store, at Stone Mill, is busy as a beehive, with an increase of business, and customers attracted by real bargains. They have taken their new goods opened for this season, and compete with any store in this section as to quality, variety, and low prices, and in paying the best market prices for produce, and selling lowest for cash. The Stone Mill store never had a better run of trade. Fair dealing and gentlemanly treatment are the cause.
