THE PRESIDENTIAL PARTY HAS A DAY OF REST.

Mr. Cleveland Rambles Over the Noted Farm -- The Attempt to Wreck the Train a Canard-A Nashville Canard,

BELLE MEADE, Tenn., Oct. 17 .- The presidential train reached Belle Meade at 9:15 o'clock Saturday evening. Immediately upon its arrival ex-Senator Jackson and his brother, General W. H. Jackson, entered the president's car and welcomed the party. The president, Mrs. Cleveland and Col. Lamont entered the carriage of Gen. Jackson to become his guests until Monday morning, while the postmaster-gene ral and Mrs. Vilas, Dr. Bryant and Mr. Bissell accompanied the ex-senator. The other members of the party proceeded with the train to Nashville, and were quartered at the Maxwell house.

The Belle Meade farm, six miles from Nashville, is the oldest of the American thoroughbred nurseries. It covers thirtyeight hundred acres of mixed arable and pasture land, which is in bluegrass of a quality equal to any to be found in Kentucky. The soil is very rich, and one of the best proofs of this, is the heavy quality of its timber, the forest growth being truly magnificent. The cultivatable part lies in a broad plain, surrounded by picturesque hills and wooded slopes, all inclosed by a splendidly built stone wall or rock fence, of upwards of twenty miles in exeither side of Richland creek, and three have given the estate its name, Belle

The park is really a primeval forest, which, with its magnificent trees, its sparkling streams, its hills, dales and the pen of a pastoral poet. Prior to the war buffalo and elk were in the park, but these were killed or driven off by the troops, who were constantly quartered on the place.

The interior of the mansion is baronial; its open fireplaces and glowing wood fires, the solidity and quaintness of the furniture and plate, its family portraits, all remind one forcibly of an English ducal residence. The walls of the various rooms while in the hall hang pictures by Herring, nent artists of the cracks of the turf and The culprits had an ironclad agree- stud bred and owned at Belle Meade. Oatarrh is disgusting. Pneumonia is dangerous. Consumption is death itself. The breathing apparatus must be kept healthy and clear of all obstructions, and offensive matter. Otherwise there is trouble ahead.

All the diseases of these parts, head, nose, throat, bronchial tubes and lungs, can'be delightfully and entirely cured by the use of Boschee's German Syrup. If you dont know this already, thousands and thousands of people can tell you They have been cured by it, and "know how it is themselves." Bottle only 75 cents: Ask any druggist.

The Pennsylvania railroad | company has been experimenting for some time with an automatic whistle, the object of which is to give the signal at grade crossinge, whether the engineer be awake or sleeping. The device is a very simple one, consisting simply of a bar lever connecting with the whistle and extending down to within one inch of the track. At a point six hundred yards from the crossing a protection is placed which, striking against the lever, starts the whistle. Should the engineer be asleep the shrill note of the whistle directly over his head would undoubtedly awaken him.

RAISING A FALSE ISSUE.

The Patriot says Mr. Cooper's sim is to floating in the breeze at one of the princiraise a false issue so as to obscure, if possible the real questions to be decided at the election.

By falsely charging, that the democratic party intends to abolish "the Christian Sabbath" he hopes to divert attention is firmly believed. from the short-comings and misdoings of the late Republican legislature.

The lost, strayed or stolen Revenue bill, the defeat of the Billingsley bill, the veto of the bill taxing store orders, the 'lavish and reckless appropriations, Mr. Cooper wishes to hide from the public view.

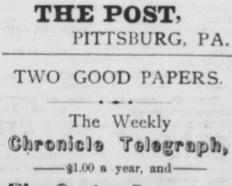

But his frantic efforts are vain and foolish. No man outside a lunatic asylum can be made to believe that B. J. McGrann as State Treasurer and J. Ross Thompson as Supreme Judge can in the slightest degree interfere with the pres- | said that these clerks failed to pass two ent Sunday laws.

No legislature is to be chosen this year and therefore no laws can be changed by the election of the democratic state ticket, but the people can express their disapproval of the course of the late republican legislature.

Mr. Cooper's appeal to a false issue falls shillings per cubic foot, exclusive of carflat as a flounder.
