LOCAL ITEMS.

—J. C. Harper, lately quite ill, is able to be out again.

—Rev. Fischer distinguished himself on Tuesday by shooting a pheasant.

—A party of hunters alighted from Monday morning's train, intending to strike for Colyer's.

—Wm. Colyer, of Tusseyville, manufactures nail keg heads, and makes frequent shipments of the same.

—Prof. W. Frank Rearek, of Spring Mills, organized a class in instrumental music at this place and is giving our band a few pointers.

—An infallible way to shoot deer is to throw salt on the animal's tail, and shoot immediately. This fall's hunters can try this and find it O. K.

—Mrs. Ludwig, wife of Joseph Ludwig, of this place, is lying ill at her father's, at Selingsgrove, whither she went on a visit a few weeks ago.

—The farm of Wm. Harter, dec'd, 100 acres, near Aaronsburg, was sold to Jacob Moyer, for $85 per acre. This is one of the best farms in that section.

—Work is being rapidly pushed on the new Presbyterian church, in this place, with a view to its completion, if possible, before the close of the year.

—Yony Deiningher dug a short ditch over the water pipes, front of his new house, when asked what he was digging there for, Yony said he wanted to build a house.

—Sam Lewis, the popular clothing dealer, of Bellefonte, was in town bright and early on Monday morning. He is a successful merchant and believes in liberal advertising.

—Dr. Jacobs invested some of his spare cash in a brand new E. flat horn. He takes a great interest in the new band and thinks in a short time will come out in fine style.

—Ellis Hosterman is still bedfast from the hemorrhages which he had a short time ago, and shows no signs of improving. He has his home with his brother, Alfred Hosterman, near Centre Hill.

—Hunting parties are starting for the mountains after deer, but have heard of no venison thus far. A party from White Deer, Union Co., went through here by train the other day, bound for the Clearfield woods.

—Try it: A Huntingdon county farmer saved his hogs from cholera by giving them each a blue mass pill rolled in chop. His neighbors' hogs died and he saved his as stated. He got the prescription from an old German doctor.

—Messrs. Jas. A. McClain and D. R. Foreman of Bellefonte, paid us a short visit last press day and saw us getting out our regular issue for the mail. We suppose McClain was around stirring up the Democratic roosters for a grand crow in November.

—Messrs. Wit McCormick and Jake From, last Sunday, visited the scene of the Colvey murder and brought along a large photo of the home and meadow where the bodies of the parents were found. These pictures are sold by old man Colvey for the support of the child.

—Farmers should remember that when potatoes get so near wheat price, as they were a week ago, it is best to sell, for it will be found that many, in such cases, will prefer bread to potatoes, which will check the consumption of the latter, with its corresponding effect on prices.

—Stover & Mot's marble yard, at Bellefonte, is doing business now on an enlarged scale, and at prices that defy all competition. Their stock of marble embraces the finest and best European and American, and the monuments, tombstones, etc., turned out by them have no superior for elegance in workmanship.

—The show at Bellefonte on Friday drew a large crowd from all sections. Early in the morning, before we ventured from our roost, wagons commenced to pass through town all bound for the same place.—Barnums greathouse. Many went afoot and others by train and no one wanted to get there later than 10 a. m. in the morning to see the parade, any how, if they could not get to the performance in the afternoon. Well, this is a free country and if a free parade comes along the street it is no one's business if you look at it or not.

—On last Sabbath morning Rev. James Arney filled Rev. Fischer's pulpit, in this place, and preached a learned discourse upon the theme of simplicity in instruction of the young mind, and showing the folly of attempting to build up knowledge by first leading the beginner into abstruse doctrines and theories, and apply made his sermon applicable to the theological and spiritual training of the young. Rev. Arney is a son of Jacob Arney, dec'd, of this town, and has for a number of years been pastor of a Presbyterian church in the west. In the evening he filled Rev. Land's pulpit in the Reformed church, at this place.

CONCATENATED HORSESCAPE.

Our neighbor of the Watchman, it appears, had an old family piece, in the shape of a horse, which was prized as an heir-loom, and possibly goes by the name of Methusalem, yet is able enough to be useful and earn his own oats. Bro. Meek, in his kindness of heart, put the animal with Mr. Beezer, of Bellefonte, to earn its board—or oats. Mr. Beezer, after having procepsus at his crib for several days, sold him to Mr. McCully, the livery man. Our boss horsedealer, Will Ruble, who never fails to scent a bargain in horse-flesh, learned of the valuable piece of horse-flesh with Mr. McCully, and trueto his trade, William bought the meek animal and brought it to Centre Hall, and feels highly honored in having the noble roadster to clatter his hoofs over our streets and through our alleys. By this time Bro. Meek gets to learn of the wanderings and vicissitudes of his favorite steed, and on the wings of the telephone informs Bill Ruble that the horse he got from McCully, and M' Cully from Beezer, and Beezer from Meek for his oats, is still claimed by him, Meek, as his property in fee simple, and demanding the return of the beloved critter. Mr. Ruble, who got the nag from McCully, who got it from Beezer, who got it from Meek, takes offense by the forelock, as all shrewd dealers in horse-flesh will do and trades the boss off to some other fellow. Mr. Meek, naturally didn't like the farther wanderings of his steed, and again telephones Mr. Ruble that he will hold him responsible for the horse, having parted with him after due notice.

When this will now end, we can tell after learning the sequel in this concatenation of events in the life of the horse that Meek gave to Beezer, that Beezer gave to McCully, that McCully gave to Ruble, that Ruble gave to ———— May that boss be permitted to end his days in peace, and the lawyers raise a monument over his remains as a benefactor of the bar.

—This boss of course is valuable yet— for when Will Ruble can't trade off a horse, then bet your last chestnut, there's nothing in the critter anymore.

A COLD BATH.

On Friday afternoon, last, while returning home from Barnum's show, two young ladies of our town, Miss Maggie Rishel and Miss Beula Brisbin, got an unexpected fresh water bath, which came high resulting in a case of drowning. The road was well taken up with vehicles returning from the show, and these two ladies occupied a buggy by themselves. Reaching the dam at Valentine's they tried to pass some of the rigs in front of theirs and drove too close to the brink of the dam, and likely by mismanagement of the lines, horse, buggy and occupants, went over the bank right where one of the large springs empties into the dam. The depth of the water is about 12 feet at this point. Luckily there were many others on the road, who at once hurried to the rescue, and Miss Brisbin was about sinking for the third time, when she was reached. Miss Rishel was also rescued before sinking. The hats, wraps of the ladies and the robes floated off, but were also obtained. The horse swam out, leaving the buggy badly used up. The ladies were taken to a house, close by and cared for, and no doubt will long remember the chilling effects of the icy spring water and their narrow escape from drowning. We believe no further serious results have followed this cold bath, as the young ladies are able to be about again.

THE FOURTH TICKET.

On Wednesday afternoon members of the Union Labor party met in the Court House and put a county ticket in the field, which is as follows:

Associate Judge, J. Miles Green, Milesburg; Sheriff, George F. Derr, Boggs township; Treasurer, Thomas M. Way, of Half Moon, Register, James H. Murphy, of Taylor township; Recorder, George W. Young, Milesburg; Commissioners, Geo. E. Speigelmyer, of Gregg township, and John I. Thompson, of Huston township; Auditors, Andrew Gregg, of Potter township, and William A. Krise, of Gregg township. It will be noticed that the Union Laborers have chosen a candidate for auditor from both the Republican and Democratic tickets, which will probably help them to elect someone. Theodore F. Snyder was made chairman of the County committee.

THE POTATO BOOM.

Last week the bottom to the potato boom commenced weakening, and prices went down 10 to 15 cents. As high as 65 and 70 cents were offered farmers, and in consequence thousands of bushels were shipped from this valley. Agents busily canvassed all parts of the valley and the competition caused prices to go up, much to the benefit of the farmer. But so many were bought up that dealers were soon overstocked and the "wild hunt" for potatoes wittid, bringing down prices. Some farmers thinking that prices would go still higher, would not sell, and may thereby have lost their opportunity. At the outset of the "campaign" potatoes sold for 40 cents per bushel.

PHILIPSBURG'S LIQUOR BILL.

We are told that the keepers of bars in Philipsburg, this county, recently agreed to keep an account of the income at those places for liquor sold, during one month and that the sum total showed the amount thus spent footed up $1500. This is a handsome sum of money to drop in that way in a town of 3000 population. Philipsburg is a bright town, and being in a bituminous coal centre, has a large mining population within a circle of ten miles, which seeks that town for a trading point, hence much of the money spent of liquor comes from the miners.

A VILLAGER AVAGED BY TYPHOID FEVER.

Detroit, Oct. 17.—Iron Mountain, a prosperous village in Menominee county, near the Wisconsin border, has been nearly depopulated by typhoid fever. Nearly everybody is sick, and there are a dozen funerals a day. The local physicians are sick, and medical aid has been summoned from Chicago.

FIRE AT MILLHEIM.

Millheim, Pa. Oct. 16.—Elias Luse & Son's planing mill was burned yesterday at noon. Loss about $1,000; no insurance. Most of the machinery and the finished work on hand, such as doors, sashes, etc., were saved.

"Bellevue Liver Pills" have been the standard remedy for malaria, liver complaint, constiveness, etc., for fifty years.

NEWS FROM COBURN.

Bartges & Son have retired from the grain business and sold their stock to M. J. Decker, of Georges Valley. Mr. Decker purchased the grain house also and will carry on the business with Mr. W. O. Raitrick as manager.

The brick layers have a fair start on the wall of the new church and expect to complete their job in about three weeks if the weather is favorable.

The stillhouse is in running order again and sloop is plenty and you can very easily tell when they are in operation.

Our Station Agent sold some fifty excursion tickets on Friday, for Barnum's big show at Bellefonte, some of the boys had a gay time.

On Tuesday afternoon John Stonebraker's child died. It was in delicate health for some time.

Our two millinery shops are doing a booming business at present. Miss Jennie Stahecker is carrying on the dress making business and has more than she can do.

Yesterday as the down freight was switching a car of prop timber out of a siding above Coburn, George Mench had his left hand caught and had his middle finger smashed.

This morning Sheriff Walker took John Cummings to Danville to the asylum to have him examined. By spells he is quite deranged. O. K.

Coburn, Oct. 18, 1887.

GOING TO DAKOTA.

"Yes, if the people of Pennsylvania like corporation and whisky ring rule that is the kind of rule they like and they ought to have it," said Charles S. Wolfe, the Union county reformer, yesterday, to the Stroller. "I don't like it and I am going to shake the Pennsylvania dust off my feet as soon as possible." Mr. Wolfe, was in the city on business, expects to leave home next week for a trip to Dakota, where he has already made large investments in land. He expects to establish himself in law business, in Bismarck, but may not move his family to that place for a few years until his children who are now at school and in college have graduated. He announces his positive determination, however, of making Dakota his future home, where he will try the experiment of growing up with the country.

"The Stroller," in the Phila. Times. —Mr. Wolfe left on Monday for Dakota, where, we understand, he has already purchased twelve hundred acres of land; six hundred being a little over a mile from Bismarck, the capital.

THE STATE AGRICULTURAL COLLEGES.

Washington, October 18.—A convention of representatives of the agricultural colleges and experiment stations of the several States met this morning in the library of the Department of Agriculture. The call for the convention was made by President George W. Atherton, of the State College of Pennsylvania, for the purpose of affording opportunity for a full consultation as to the best methods of fulfilling the requirements of the Hatch bill, passed at the last session of Congress, and for the discussion of such practical questions in agriculture as may be brought up.

SIFTINGS.

Jack frost is around every morning with a white beard.

Farmers are husking corn—the crop is in good condition.

The Bald Eagle Valley railroad company was authorized by act of Feb. 26 1852, and the L. C. & S. C. by act of April 12, same year.

The first ark launched successfully on Penns Creek was built by Thomas Treasurer, in 1807, at Spring Mills.

The sale of the farm of Wm. Emerick, dec'd was postponed to Nov. 13.

Rev. Fischer, on invitation preaches to a Baltimore congregation next Sabbath.

All the stylish dress cloths and Coats.—Germans.

Dress goods and fine trimming braids.—Germans.

A handsome lace Curtain for 1.35 a pair.—Germans.

Weather has been remarkably fine up to Thursday.

Wm. Colyer has purchased a new ten horse power traction engine, which he may use for running his keg-head factory.

The wheat fields look well and we hear of no ravages by the fly as yet; suppose the frosty mornings are not congenial to the pest.

Electric light was turned on at the State College recently and is furnished to every student in the building for $3 per term, or $9 for the College year.

Suits made to order, at the Philadelphia Branch, where one of the best tailors in the state is employed. Satisfaction guaranteed as to prices and fit.

The license dodge against Grove may be found to work two ways, gentlemen of the Republican mud throwing brigade and one way will be that you put your foot in it badly.

Dr. Fisher, of Zion, while at Barnum's show on Friday, had a slight wound inflicted upon his arm by an accidental shot. His arm will remain steady enough to vote the Democratic ticket in November.

The opposition have indulged in every species of lies to injure the Democratic county nominees, and now are attempting a petty game of license against our nominees for associate judge.

The tailoring establishment connected with the Philad. Branch is overrun with orders for suits, and it now employs more hands than any other establishment in the county. The suits made by them under the best satisfaction, and the prices are found lower than elsewhere. This accounts for the rush they have there.

What steps will be taken to prevent the board walk to the station from being covered by snow drifts during the approaching winter? This is a matter that should be given thought now, as the walk is likely to be useless during the six months of the year when it is of most use.

Please call and examine our large stock of cloths and cassimeres suitable for any garment in Men's wear—a full assortment of Overcoats "READY MADE". The largest line of Hats, Caps and Furnishing Goods in the county—all work guaranteed to fit or no sale.

MONTGOMERY & Co.

REBERSBURG ITEMS.

The United Brethren held their quarterly Conference here on Sunday. Presiding Elder Shearer was present and is an able minister. The meeting was largely attended.

We have a case of scarlet fever, Mrs. Kerstetter. She was quite poorly, but with some hopes of recovery.

The Spring Mills Creamery paid in cash in Miles township almost 90 dollars for cream for the month of Sept., besides what butter was sold. A good many do not have the water fixed for the cans yet.

The farmers are busy husking corn and some are done, and the corn crop is good.

Commissioner Wolf takes the prize this year. He has the best corn in the township. He sold a valuable team one day last week.

AARONSBURG JOTTINGS.

Dr. P. T. Musser's health having much improved, he can again be seen on the road driving "old dolly."

The grammar school has again opened with eleven pupils in attendance.

Aaronsburg is represented at Bellefonte by carpenters, masons, plasterers and laborers.

Miss Clara Shurtz, who has been staying for nearly three years with her sister, Mrs. Rev. Yearick, started for Kansas on Tuesday afternoon.

Amanda Acker moved to frontstreet to her sister Mollie Miller. Howard Acker now occupies the homestead.

Samuel A. Booser bought a tract of 5 acres from Michael Harper and will erect buildings on it. There is an orchard of apple trees on it.

On the 13 inst., at the parsonage, by Rev. Z. A. Yearick, Mr. Elias Bressler, of Miles township, to Miss Candace Bower, of Haines township.

MILLHEIM ITEMS.

On last Saturday, shortly after dinner, the alarm of fire was given, and we immediately closed our place of business and ran with the crowd which led us to Ellis Luse & Son's planing mill which was on fire. The two large buildings were quickly enveloped in flames which had already made considerable headway, and it was soon found that trying to save the buildings was useless, and everybody went to work to save the machinery, and lumber. Everything was taken out excepting a few shutters and some small tools. With the long rope and hook, belonging to the Hook & Ladder Co., the heavy machinery was all saved. Their loss is estimated a $1500, with no insurance.

The planing mill took fire from the stove pipe.

Considerable petty stealing has been going on here of late, on account of which some of our young Americans left very suddenly for healthier climates.

After a short spell of sickness a daughter of Daniel Geary, living on North St., died last Saturday. She was about 12 years old. The funeral took place on Monday following at 10 o'clock.

A singular affair occurred August 24, 1887, at Linn & McCoy's rolling mill. A man named Daniel Ihre thrust both his hands between the blades of the shears, and in a moment both hands were cut off at the wrists. He was from Clearfield, and said he had heard of these large shears at home, and walked to the forge for the purpose of cutting his hands off. He said they had offended against God and man, and he was afraid he would be tempted by the devil to commit murder. He had already suffered imprisonment in the penitentiary on account of his hands, they having stolen horses against his will, for which he was tried and sentenced to Reek Haven. When his coat was removed, it was found he had wound a handkerchief tightly around each arm, between the elbow and wrist, for the purpose of stopping the blood.

This is an old bit of news, but being so singular a nature, we republish it for the benefit of the REPORTER'S readers.

GREAT FIRE IN CHINA.

ONE THOUSAND PERSONS LOSE THEIR LIVES IN HANKOW.

San Francisco, October 17.—The additional details of the disastrous fire at Hankow received this morning by steamer Rio de Janeiro give the number of lives lost as 1,000 and the value of the property destroyed as 2,000,000 taels.

Newton Hosterman, of Michigan, arrived here Tuesday. He is a brother of Alfred and Ellis Hosterman.

—Did you see the fine line of parlor stoves at Reseman's? He has some of the finest made and at rock bottom prices.

—Rev. Fischer will not fill his regular appointments for Sunday, 23d, as he expects to supply a pulpit in Baltimore on that day.

—The triumph of the Republicans in this county would mean a new court-house in the near future. Taxpayers, think before you vote.

—The freight on shipments from and to the Centre Hall roller flouring mills amount to over six thousand dollars per year. A pretty nice plum for the railroad company.

—A jolly party composed of the youngsters of town besieged the home of Mr. and Mrs. Simon Harper, on Monday evening, the occasion being the birthday of their son Harry. The little folks enjoyed themselves immensely, and all seemed to be of the opinion that birthdays should come oftener.

—Lewin's now has immense piles of ready-made clothing, new stock, for fall and winter, just received. For a ready-made suit, call at the Philad. Branch and you save money. If you want a suit made to order, the Philad. Branch is just the place to have your measure taken for a good fit and low prices.

BATTLE WITH A BEAR IN A CORN FIELD.

On Saturday at noon Mr. Benjamin Gentzel, of Zion, had a most thrilling adventure with a bear, which terminated in a victory for Mr. Gentzel and the death of Bruin. Mr. Gentzel's home is in Nittany Valley beyond Nye Bank just on the path leading from Nittany to Minny mountains. On Saturday a bear started out to make this trip, taking a near cut through a corn field which is in gun-shot distance from Mr. G's home.

Mr. Gentzel was in the field at the time and had his gun with him, though likely he was not expecting such big game. As soon as the bear was near enough, Mr. Gentzel took aim and rapidly sent two or three loads of buckshot into his bearship's hide.

The animal stopped, looked around and when he saw who had given him such an unpleasant reception went for Mr. Gentzel in lively style. Had he caught him Mr. Gentzel would have hugged more energetically than ever before. Mr. G. sprang quickly behind a huge stack of corn-stalks and yelled for help as he knew friends were not far off. Meanwhile, he tried to disable the bear by giving him another taste of the contents of the gun.

Among those who put in appearance and attracted the attention of the bear, which was angry and suffering pain, was Henry Gentzel, a brother of the first mentioned Bruin run at Henry and took one of his legs in his powerful jaws, and might have crushed it had not Benjamin struck the animal a powerful blow on the back with the butt of the gun, breaking the bear's back and also damaging the gun.

The bear is a monster, says the Daily News.

HERE AND THERE.

Columbia yarns, Germantown Saxony, German knitting and Spanish yarn.—Germans.

Century Cloth, Gingham and Blue Calicoes.—Germans.

Ladies, Misses' and Children's Coats at all prices.—Germans.

—Mr. Snook, oae of Millheim's merchants, is quite ill.

—Our merchants will soon receive their new fall and winter goods.

—A fine magnetic pad for rheumatism, etc., for sale at Murray's drug store.

—Rev. S. L. Stiver writes us from Bunker Hill, Ill., that potatoes sell at $1 per bu. there.

—L. B. Stover has opened a general store in the Shafer stand, at Madisonburg, and is doing a brisk business.

—Pinegrove Mills lost one of its school houses by fire, last week, supposed to have been caused by a tramp.

—Cool weather is setting in and you want a fall overcoat. To get one cheap go to Lewins, at the Philad. Branch.

—Millheim's cider press is running out the juice to the tune of 6 barrels per hour, up in the Narrows, where it is run by water power.

—Get your ready made clothing at the Philadelphia Branch, and you will not be imposed upon and save money besides. Lewins always deals fairly, and el, s lowest in the county.

—Charles Bollinger, our next door neighbor, has made arrangements to move to Altoona in a short time, where he enters one of the smith shops of the Penn's railroad company.

—A Mr. Swartz, of Nittany valley, we learn, was one of the victims of the Bohemian oats swindle to the tune of $500. Shame, that any of our people should be willing to be tools for swindling a neighbor.

—Lose's planing mill which was destroyed by fire the other day, at Millheim, it is said, could have been saved had there not been a scarcity of water, and that a few buckets of water conveniently wroulc have sufficed to arrest the flames.

—For the information of our subscribers we would say that all credits for money paid on subscription are made on the addresses the first week in each month. Money received after the 1st week will be found credited the 1st week of the following month.

—The Lock Haven market, a few days ago, ran as follows: Potatoes 75c, apples 40c, cider $3.00 per barrel, butter 20c to 22c per pound, eggs, 20c to 22c per dozen, chickens 50c to 60c per pair, cabbage 5c to 10c, lettuce three beads for 5c, peppers 15c per dozen, corn 50c per bushel.

—Kreamer's Millheim hotel is offered for rent. The present landlord, Shafer, thinks of going west. Bill Musser might take it and run it in connection with his, as a branch hotel. Since licenses have been refused in that territory, we suppose hotel keepers find their exchequers a little at low water mark.

—The grain house at Coburn, formerly occupied by Grenoble & Bartges, and recently owned by Maj. Reynolds, has been purchased by Michael J. Decker, of Potter's Mills, for $5500, which includes dwelling and railroad siding. Mr. Will Rearek, son-in-law of Mr. Decker, will have the management of the business of the grain house.

—J. Kyle McFarlane & Co., request us to say that the 600 stoves are not quite all sold yet although they are going fast; and they invite everybody who visits Bellefonte to call at their store, whether they wish to buy or not and inspect the immense assortment of stoves and everything else they have to greet the eye. Everything cheap and the best.

—Information received here from Dr. Alexander speaks of his reaching relatives at Abilene, where Mrs. Alexander was rather worse from the journey, and they remained over a few days for a rest. After continuing through Kansas there was an accident to the train, which threw it off the track, the shock of which was very trying to Mrs. Alexander in her feeble condition. No one hurt, however.

—Sheriff Spangler has returned from his Clarion county cattle trip, and was fortunate enough to sell nearly all his stock before he reached the borders of old Centre, as he only had 13 cows left when he reached his home here. Mr. Alexander can tell interesting experiences between grub in the Clarion region and the rich and fat things so common in Penns valley. For seven days he, Reuben and Mr. Rankin, travelled around without striking a meal that had meat on its bill of fare; at one place they were regaled with a new kind of soup, made of green tomatoes, cabbage and potatoes—it soon after tressed Rankin's stomach. The Sheriff was willing to put up with it all, as he thinks it gave Ruben an idea of the difference between grub abroad and grub at home.

WILLIAMSPORT'S BIG FIRE.

SEVERAL LARGE MANUFACTURING ESTABLISHMENTS TOTALLY DESTROYED.

Williamsport, October 15.—Fire this morning burned the finishing room and warehouse of Kline Brothers & Co., furniture manufacturers; the large frame building owned by the Novelty Mill Company and occupied by that company, J. O. Rodgers & Co. and Scully & Hotchkiss as a planing mill, sash and blinds factory, etc., and a brick building owned by E. Powell and occupied by E. Gundrum & Co's planing mill. All the buildings and contents were wholly destroyed.

The following are the losses and insurance: Kline, Brothers & Co., about $13,000; insurance $6,000; Novelty Mill Company, insurance $19,000, fully covering the loss; J. C. Rogers & Co., $6,000; insurance $4,700; Scully & Hotchkiss, loss, $9,000; insurance $6,000; E. Powell, loss partially covered by $1,000 insurance; E. Gundrum, loss pretty well covered by $1,500 insurance. The fire is thought to have been of incendiary origin. Over 100 men are thrown out of employment.

THE GRAIN MARKET.

Wheat at Centre Hall, Spring Mills and Coburn, 75 for new and 80 for old Corn in ear, 35.

Philadelphia, 81 and 82 for good wheat Oats 35 and 36, Corn 53, Creamery butter, 24. Eggs, 21. Hay, 85 and 95 per 100. Straw, 85 and 90 per 100.

Millheim is in a pitiable plight; It has no whiskey to get on a bender; no beer to quench ones thirst, and no water to put out a fire. The latter may be caused by Providence and the first two by Judge Furst. If in all this death the Judge does not have pity enough to give them license next year, then they will have nothing at all to put out a fire down there.
