missioners, and you have rest against getting a new $100,000 court-house for three years at least. A new and expensive court-house is a pet scheme of the rads

A new court-house, a new court-house, every thing for a new court-house, is the song of the radical bosses of this county. The way to head off that kind of fancy and expensive job is to vote for Greist and Fiedler.

The governor in refusing to call an ex_ tra session of assembly to pass the stran. gled revenue bill, has caused the state to loose one million dollars, and the county of Centre $7000. Vote the Democratic ticket in November.

No true K. of L. will allow himself to be bambozled into voting for Cook, for sheriff, on the ground that he has joined that organization. Such an attempt is an insult to the order and to every individual member of it. As a real man of labor Noll towers as high above Cook as a church steeple does over a mullen stalk.

Inside the abbey many of the unexpected visitors remained covered, and indulged in whistling, while others mounted the pedestals of the various statues, or mingled with the people present, who for the most part left the building.

I'he crowd as a rule chewed tobacco, and expectorated everywhere regardless of the surroundings until the first lesson was announced, when the reader was loudly jeered, completely drowning his voice. The second lesson was similarly received. Canon Prothero then preached a sermon taking for his text Romans, chapter xii., verse 1. In his discourse he argu d that the punishment of the law breakers was necessary for the good of the community. This was received with cries of "Oh!" "Oh !" and "Bosh !"

The preacher earnestly appealed for order, and exhorted his hearers to try and uproot evil and plant good instead. "That's what we are going to do," was

Canon Prothers now threw his notes aside and addressed himself to the roughs. Vote for Greist and Fiedler, for com. He said: "Legislation could alone provide a remedy for hunger and suffering, but everybody could express sympathy.' [Loud laughter, followed by a voice, 'That's all we shall get."]

Canon Prothers continued; "Charitable agencies might do much —" [A voice — We don't want charity, we want work.] The reverend gentlemen enlisted the attention of the mob when he advocated state assistance in times of distress.

At the close of his remarks the mob hissed and marched out of the abbey, cordially cheered by their comrades in waiting outside

The whole then proceeded, shouting and hooting to Trafalgar square, where the leaders denounced the church and police. Several arrosts were made of brawiing persons and thieves.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 24.-Several prominent ministers of this city yesterday made purity of elections their pulpit themes. tist church, said :

Every Christian man has a duty to perform at the poils next Wednesdry. As ministers and churches we have held aloof too much from politics. We have kept away from the primaries and even the polls, fearing contamination. The result is we have relegated the sacred trust committed to our care into the hands of unscrupulous men and unconscionable demagogues, machine politicians and bloated rumsellers. Do not be led by the nose by as vile a horde of political demagogues as ever lived. Act like men, not like cattle.

"Let not the political butchers lead you like sheep to the slaughter. God holds us responsible as citizens as well as christians. WHAT AM I TO DO?

The symptoms of billiousness are too well known. They differ in different individuals to some extent. A Billious man is seldom a breakfast eater. Too frequently, alas, he has an excellent appetite for liquids but not for solids of a morning. His tongue will hardly bear inspection at any time; if it is not white w. and furred, it is rough at all events. The digestive system is wholly out of order and Diarrhea or Constipation may be a symptom or the two may alternate. There are often Hermorrhids or even loss of blood. There may be giddiness and often headache acidity or flatulence and tenderness in the pit of the stomache. To correct all this if not effect a cure try Green's August Flower, it costs but a trifle and thousands attest its efficacy.
