readers of the World will all feel an interest in what is going on in and about the reservation: The season at White River will be unusually gay this winter, and soon there will be one continuous round of hilarity, indigestion, mirth, colid and social hatred. Red Horse, the smoke-tanned horse-fiddle maestro, will play and call off again this winter for germans, grub dances and jack-rabbit gorges as usual.

The Ouray War Club will give a series of hops in November under its own auspices, and in December it will hold two germans. In going through these germans no favors will be shown by the club

Mr. and Mrs. Mexican-Hairless-Dog-uponwhom-there-are-no-Flies have been spending the summer at their delightful hostile home near White River. They have just returned for the winter, beautifully bronzed by the elements, and report one of the most exhilarating outbreaks they ever were to. Lop-Ear-Son-of-the-Cyclone received a cablegram last week, on his return from the war-path, offering him a princely salary to come to London and assist in robbing the Deadwood coach. He says the legitimate drama is certainly making wonderful strides. He has heard the American Opera Company in "Nero," and says that no one who has lived on the reservation all his life can have any idea of the strides that are being made on the stage. He has not decided whether to accept the offer or not, but says that if the stage they are going to rob is the operatic stage he will not assist at any price. He says he knows what it is to suffer for clothes himself. The members of the Chipeta Canoeing Club have just returned from a summer jaunt, and are in good spirits. They report that a good time was had and health greatly improved. The club will give sociable and gastric recital at its grounds next week. The proceeds will go towards beautifying the grounds of the club and promoting a general good feeling. Each member is permitted to bring one cash friend.

Tall-Man-Who-Toys-with-the-Thunderbolts will start to-morrow for the home of the Great White Father at Washington. He goes to make a treaty or two and be awed by the surplus in the treasury. He will make as many treaties as possible, after which he will invite the Great White Father to visit our young and growing reservation, enjoy our crude hospitality and cultivate the Ute vote. The widow of Wampo-the-Wailer and affianced of old Fly-by-Night wore a dark coiffure, held in place by the wish-bone of a sage hen, and looled first rate.

Miss Wampo, the elder, wore a neglige costume, consisting of a red California blanket, caught back with real burdock burs and held in place by means of a hame strap.

The younger Miss Wampo wore a Smyrna rug, with bunch grass at the throat. Mrs. D. W. Peek-a-Boo wore a cavalry saddle blanket, with Turkish overalls and bone ornaments.

Miss Peck-a-Boo wore a straw-colored jardiniere, cut V-shape, looped back with a russet shawl strap and trimmed with rick-rack around the arm-holes. Her eyes danced with merriment, and she danced with most anybody in the wigwam.

Little Casino, the daughter of Fly-Up-thereek, of the Uncompaghres, wore the gable end of an "A" tent, trimmed with red flannel rosettes. It had veneered panels and the new and extremely swell sleeves, blown way, in which, as she said, in her naive way, they resembled her father, who was tight half of the time and blown up the rest of the time.

Mrs. Roll-on-Silver-Moon has a painful bullet wound in the shoulder, but feels so grieved about the loss of Little Cholera Infantum that she does not make much fuss over her injury. The funeral of the little one will take place this evening from its late residence, and friends of the parents are cordially invited to come and participate. Wailing will begin promptly at sundown. Major Santee, who is now at home repairing the roof of his Gothic tepee, which was so damaged by the recent storms that it allowed hail, rain and horned cattle to pene trate his apartments at all times of the day or night, says that in the late great Ute war every body wanted to fight except the Indians and the War Department. He believes that no Indian outbreak can be re-garded as a success without the hearty cooperation and Godspeed of the Government and a quorum of Indians who are willing to break out into open hostility. Major Santee lost a niece during the recent encounter. She was not hostile to any one, but was respected by all, and will now cast a gloom. She had no hard feelings towards the sheriff or any one of his posse and had never met them before. She was very plain in ap-pearance, and this was her first engagement. The sheriff now claims that he thought she was reaching for her gun, whereas it appears that she was making a wild grab for her Indian trail.

Major Santee says that he hopes it will be many a day before the sheriff organizes

The following will be the menu :

Reservation soup, strengthened with rain-water; condemned sardines, codfish balls, fish plates, railroad frogs' legs, sage hen a la Colorow, jerked jack-rabbits, roasting ears a la massacre, hot-house clams, rattlesnakes' tongues a la fire-water, prickly pears, fruit of the loom, dried apples and whisky. Dancing will be kept up till a late hour.

The approaching nuptials of Fly-by-Night. a partial widower of Snippeta, daughter of Wipe-Up-the-Ground-with-His-Enemies, will be the occasion of quite a tout ensemble and blow-out. He will marry the surviving members of the family of Wampo-the-Wailr-that-Wakes-Up-in-the Night. He will, on this occasion, lead to the altar Mrs. Wampothe-Wailer, etc., her two daughters and the hired girl. The wedding will take place at the residence of the bride. Invitations are already out and parties who have not yet received any, but who would like to be present and swap a tin napkin ring for a square meal, will be invited if they will leave their address with the groom. In 1880 and 1883 he was the United States representative to the Berlin and London Fisheries Expositions. He also had charge of the Government exhibits at the New Orleans, Cincinnati and Louisville expositions.

In 1877 the State Department employed him as a statistical expert in connection with the Halifax Fishery Commission. He had charge of the fishery features of the last census and has written several books, "The History of the Menhaden," "Game Fishes of the United States," "Oyster Fish eries." "Pisciculture," "Food Fishes of the United States." Mr. Goode is the correspondant of various foreign scientific journals. He will manage the expenditure of two hundred and fifty thousand dollars a year and do it without compensation, as the aw provides none. He receives five thousand dollars a year as one of the secretaries of the Smithsonian Institution.
