KEEP COOL!

and buy at Bartholomew's Store, Cheapest Store in Centre County.

LOCAL ITEMS.

—James Swab, of near Centre Hill, is seriously ill, since last week.

—Sunday night and Monday morning, last, were the coldest, this fall, so far.

—The roller flouring mill is adding additional machinery to increase capacity.

—One evening, last week, a bear came into the streets of Milesburg, and went out again.

—Judge Orvis gave the Reporter a call. The Judge is booked for several Democratic speeches in our valley.

—The sale of the farm of Wm. Emerick, dec'd adjoining Centre Hall, has been adjourned to Saturday, Nov. 12.

—Mr. William Foster, the merchant at Lemont, has purchased Stewart's store at State College and expects to take possession soon.

—A large fly wheel bursting in the Howard rolling mill, a few days ago, will interfere with the running of the works for a short time.

—Wild ducks were said to have been quite plenty last week on the Red mill and Stone mill dams, affording sport for our marksmen.

—A siding is being put down where the railroad crosses the pike, a little below the Fort, for the loading of prop timber from the Seven mountains.

—We are informed that a considerable haul had been made by thieves, of corn and other articles, at Mr. Stumpf's one mile east of here, last week.

—Fauble's clothing house, Bellefonte has been doing a rushing business this season—the reason is they keep a fine assortment and sell at close figures.

—Fun is fun, boys, but throwing gravel against the windows and on the porches of houses, on hollow eve, is not fun, and may prove so to boys who are bad enough to do such a thing.

—The cold weather is coming on us rapidly and there is nothing more cheering than to have one of Reesman's beautiful square parlor heaters in your house to keep everything comfortable.

—We hear many complaints of poultry being stolen in different parts. Set a trap that will spring when a thief is about, and have your shot guns ready to let them know you are wide awake.

—"Can any one tell us where we can get a drink of clear water?" pines the Altoona News editor.

Yes, come to Centre Hall, where we have the best in the world, and cheapest.

—Vote for John Rupp, for Register, on Tuesday, he is an honest, self made man. By industry and application he has fitted himself for any position that a useful citizen can be needed for. His character is without a blemish, and he has been at hard labor since his boyhood.

—Attorney J. L. Spangler of Bellefonte spent Sunday with his parents at this place. Jack spent several months roughing it, camping out in the Clearfield woods. He is hale and robust, having increased his avoirdupois about thirty pounds which he thinks bespeaks an increased democratic majority in our county this fall.

—One of our Spring Mills correspondents advised last week that landlord Bibby would quit the hotel there and go to Baltimore. Mr. Bibby informs us that this is a mistake, and that he will remain in the Bibby house. Correspondents in giving news should always be sure to get correct information.

—Fleming, the fashionable tailor of Bellefonte, is busy day and night putting out work. He is located in Crider's new building in the diamond where everybody can find his room. A good fit and in the latest style is what you get when you leave your order for a suit. Go to Fleming's for fine clothing.

—Stover & Mott's Bellefonte marble works challenge the State for elegance of work, and have no fears to meet any put out by any marble works, not even in Philadelphia. This is no idle boast, but the plain truth and their work everywhere shows it, whether it be a monument, headstone, or anything else in their line.

A BEAR CHASE AT LINDEN HALL.

ANOTHER WANDERING BRUIN KILLED. THE ACCOUNT AS WRITTEN BY OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENT.

Linden Hall and vicinity was considerably worked up over an exciting bear chase on last Friday morning, which resulted in some parties being terribly frightened and the death of a good sized bear. The particulars are as follows: Early on Friday morning, as Frank Swab was on his way to the corn field, he noticed a bear helping himself at a large corn pile, and the bear noticed Mr. Swab, he ran across the field and Mr. Swab returned to the house for his gun. When he returned the bear was out of sight but followed in the direction he saw him go, and when they came to the fence on the opposite side of the field, they found the bear sitting there quietly resting. The bear looked at Mr. Swab, and Mr. Swab looked at the bear, then he turned to Mrs. Swab, and said: "Would you shoot? I believe you would better go for Oscar Stover, he is not as nervous as I am," and off they went, the bear still taking his ease.

When Mr. Swab and Stover returned the bear was not east, and they agreed as the bear had not hurt them they would pursue him no further.

The bear was next seen by Samuel Brown and his men who were also in their corn field, and they pursued him with a large dog, but as the bear was the fleetest he soon outdistanced them. He was next seen by Joe Garbrick, Jr., who also was in the corn field at work; he and his dog gave chase and the bear was treed different times by the dog, but as Mr. Garbrick came near he would down and off again. He was finally chased in the corn field of Daniel Tressler. Mr. Tressler and the dog treed him again, and sent his son for the gun, when he was brought to the ground by a well aimed shot by Mr. Tressler. The bear, however, was not fatally hurt and would have escaped again had it not been for the pluck of the dogs, which bothered him. By this time J. M. Ross and Mr. Garbrick were there, and not until the bruin received five balls from their rifles would he give up his bearship. He was then taken to Mr. Tressler's yard and dressed, and weighed 122 lbs.

Messrs. Ross, Tressler and Garbrick received a 1/4 each, and the balance was through the kindness of Mr. Tressler, distributed among the neighbors, all of whom enjoyed it very much. Mr. Swab, however, since explains that his gun was loaded with bird shot.

Alfred Osman bought his father's home just east of Boalsburg, and will move there in a few weeks.

Miss Ellen Noll is off on a week's visit to her uncle, Tone Noll, on top of Nittany mountain. I suppose she will lay in a good supply of chestnuts for this winter.

Alf. Wieland, of Centre Hall, spent Sunday at home.

Burglars visited P. H. Meyers and Will Keller on Sunday night last. Nothing taken or harm done.

J. H. Ross is off to Houtzdale on a business trip. Drude.

Linden Hall, 10-2.

TRIAL LIST. Trial list for first week of November Term, commencing 4th Monday (28th day) of November, 1887:

Susan Gates vs S. Murphy. O. C. Gates vs S. Murphy. A. S. Tipton's administratrix vs Joseph DeHass.

J. Gardner vs Joseph Neff. P. Gray Meek vs William V. Emery, et al. Henry Heaton vs David Lucas. C. B. Sandford vs S. J. Hale's executors.

Wm. Allison, Sr. vs A. S. Tipton's administratrix. Wm. Allison, Jr. vs Penn'a railroad co. Lazarus Moyer vs Martin Haley. Kate M. Filck vs John T. Fowler.

GRANGERS HEAR. The lying Gazette editor, a few days ago, went to merchant Emerick, in Miles township, and wanted him to vote against Noll, because Noll was a granger.

According to this Fiedler must think it a sin to be a granger and he himself must be opposed to grangers. That's the exact logic. Fiedler lied when he told Mr. Emerick that Noll was granger. Any granger, knowing these facts, if he has any respect for the P. of H., will vote against Fiedler's horse jockey, Cook, for sheriff, and support Noll.

Grangers, what say you?

BUSINESS CHANGES. John Spangler and son Reuben have purchased the grocery and meat market of Henry Booser, in the warehouse, next to the hotel, and took possession on Tuesday. They also purchased the building which Mr. Booser had purchased only a few days before.

D. E. Brisbin has purchased the butcher shop of Will Shirk. Mr. Shirk intends moving to Altoona.

James Solt has purchased Will Shirk's stock of groceries and candies. Cal Solt has opened a tailoring establishment in the shop heretofore occupied as a confectionery by Will Shirk.

PETTY THEIVING. For years our neighborhood has been afflicted with petty thieving which of late is growing worse. Farmers complain of all kinds of grain and feed being stolen from the fields, and corn especially. Chickens and turkeys are continually being missed and other articles such as ham, butter, eggs, household furniture, harness and in fact almost every thing of value that can be carried away. There is very little use in trying to reform these moral lepers and parasites. About the best plan that can be adopted is for every one to have a good load of buckshot ready for these night prowlers, and should one of them be crippled, his example would be a warning to others. The community, we believe, would rather support a widow and little ones by voluntary contributions than have a prowling thief around your premises at night.

TREACHERY. We again repeat, there are a few Democrats playing traitor in this campaign. Just a few they were last year, and are in caboot with the lying Gazette while trying to palm themselves off as Democrats. But, in spite of treachery, the county will go Democratic by an increased majority.

SHORTS.

The mountains north of Penn Hall are on fire which caused a big smoke Tuesday afternoon.

J. B. Kramer, of Rebersburg, gave us a shake of his hand, Tuesday.

Candidates Kimpfort and Morrison, shook hands with us Tuesday.

A newly married couple from Millfin county, while making a short stop at West Smiths, Tuesday, were treated to a lively toot by our inimitable band.

Look at your tabs and pay up dues on Reformer. All advance paying subscribers gain 50 cents by the highly interesting operation.

Mr. Campbell, of Millheim, flitted into one of the mill houses of Kurtz & Son, and Will Reed flitted to the Old Fort where we expect he will be elected chief Burgess for a year, then buy a farm.

Several new industries will be started here within a few months, provided they are not fought off.

The band on Tuesday evening serenaded a newly married couple at George Flory's.

POTTER'S MILLS ITEMS. Miss Sallie Shirk, of this place, went to Coburn, where she will remain for some time.

Mr. S. E. A. Royer, who was made happy last spring by winning one of Eve's fairest daughters, and who took up his abode at Spring Mills, flitted to the house near this place, belonging to Rev. Samuel Kreider.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ray, of Tyrone, spent a few days of last, and the beginning of this week, among relatives at this place.

Mr. Robert McCormick, an aged citizen of this place, has been ill for some time.

The farmers of this vicinity have now the last of the corn crop stored away, which was an admirably good one, and will soon be ready for thanksgiving feasts, and to compete with others in killing fine porkers.

—New Dress Goods.—Garmans. —Fleming the tailor, Bellefonte, Pa. —Bead Trimming and Fancy Velvets.—Garmans.

—Weather was cold this week, otherwise fine. —Pantaloons made to order as low as $4, at the Philad. Branch.

—Mr. Shires, an old citizen of near Potters Mills, is seriously ill. —John Bright, of Aaronburg, is quite ill, and in a helpless condition.

—George Weaver, of Miles, last week, sold his fine span of gray horses for $512.

—Get one of those beautiful square parlor heaters from And. Reesman and be happy when the cold spell sets in.

—Cool weather is setting in and you want a fall overcoat. To get one cheap go to Lewis, at the Philad. Branch.

—Rev. Fischer will administer the Lord's supper in the Centre Hall Luth. church, on Sabbath morning, Nov. 13.

—Democrats, look out for traitors in the ranks. The vile Gazette plainly betrays that it is in caboot with them again.

—Rev. T. J. Frederick has changed his residence to Harrisburg, Pa., having become pastor of a Lutheran church near that city.

—You may be in need of clothing for winter wear, don't fail to see goods and prices at M. Fauble's Rochester clothing house, Bellefonte, Pa.

—The first ice of the season made its appearance on Monday morning. The dam at Coburn was frozen over, and in some localities the ice was one inch in thickness.

—Mr. Campbell, who recently had charge of the brick mill, at Millheim, has become a citizen of Centre Hall, and holds a position in the Kurtz flouring mills at the station as assistant miller.

—The name of the rad candidate for sheriff spells the same thing back wards as forwards, and he is in for any kind of a trade, which is his occupation as a trader in worn out horse flesh. He gets no boot money this time.

—About half a dozen of deer have been shot, thus far, in the Paddy mountain tract. Last week a party from Northumberland county killed a fine buck, and a party from Millfinburg went home with a deer and a bear.

—The champion marksman, S. K. Sober, on Saturday last, shot twenty-one wild ducks on the Stone mill dam. If we were half as skilled a shootist as our esteemed friend Sober—the champion marksman of the world—we'd have lots of wild duck roasts.

—Please call and examine our large stock of cloths and cassimeres suitable for any garment in Men's wear—a full assortment of Overcoats "READY MADE" The largest line of Hats, Caps and Furnishing Goods in the county—all work guaranteed to fit or no sale." MONTGOMERY & CO. Brockerhoff Row & Humes Block.

KINDNESS REWARDED.

A SOLDIER'S GRATITUDE TO THE MAN WHO RISKED HIS LIFE.

From the Lock Haven Express, 25th.

Constable Robert C. Clair, of Mill Hall, received a letter a few days ago from an attorney at Marblehead, Massachusetts, informing him that a man named Thomas H. Hinion, of that place, had died in the month of August and had bequeathed to Mr. Clair all his property which is estimated to be worth $18,000. Mr. Clair was interviewed this morning by a representative of the Express to whom he stated that he had not heard from Hinion for more than fifteen years. During the war Clair was on reserve picket duty; the night after the battle at Hatcher's Run, Virginia. Near the picket line lay a wounded soldier in terrible agony, whose moans and calls for water were more than Clair could stand. He ventured to crawl out to the sufferer and dragged him inside the line, where he was cared for and sent to the hospital. The wounded soldier was Thomas H. Hinion the man who lately died, and who out of gratitude bequeathed his property to the man who saved his life. Hinion, the attorney writes, was a bachelor, and had no relatives in the United States.

AARONSBURG. The wife of William Diehl died at Gunnison, Colorado, on the 19th, ult., and was brought home and buried at Laurelton, Union county.

Miss Caroline Wise, of this place, sold her home for $450, to Israel Weaver.

Jared Harper and wife, of Bellefonte, were visiting friends in Aaronsburg during the past week.

Edward Kister is blasting rock with dynamite on Gephart's farm, near Millheim.

Charles Yarger, who left Aaronsburg some twelve years ago and settled in Wyandotte, Kansas, is at present visiting his father, accompanied by his wife.

STRAW VOTE FOR PRESIDENT. The Williamsport Sun and Banner held a straw vote for President in 1888, six hundred and eighty five ballots were cast with the following result:

Cleveland 453, Blaine 145, Sherman 21, David B. Hill 16, Robert Lincoln 8, Henry George 3, Senator Edmunds 5, John P. St. John 3, Benjamin Butler 3, Samuel J. Randall 3, Abram S. Hewitt 1, James A. Beaver 1, Roscoe Conkling 1, J. B. Foraker 1, Simon Cameron 1, Belva Lockwood 1. And a list of scattering votes which we omit. It is evident that Cleveland is the choice of the masses.

"THE DAVIS." Among all the leading sewing machines manufactured is considered the peer. It is an improved machine combining simplicity, strength and all the modern inventions to put it in the lead of all its competitors. This machine is simple in construction, light running and is a favorite in the household. This machine is sold by Bushman & Kremer, Centre Hall, who have the agency for this county. They just received a new lot and have opened them up in their rooms for your inspection. Throw away that old machine and get a Davis from Bushman & Kremer.

A GOOD IDEA. The railroad companies of the county have decided to use a self-acting coupler on freight cars. All the railroads in the United States voted by letter on the question. The whole number of votes cast was 968, and 474 votes were in favor of such a coupler. All freight cars built in the future will be made on a uniform plan so as coupling is concerned. The new plan will save many limbs and make the life of a brakeman more agreeable. What is known as the Janne type of coupler will be used. There are a number of varieties, and in order to avoid monopoly a sub-committee has been appointed to test all of them.

M. S. FIEDLER. Michael S. Fiedler, one of the Democratic nominees for Commissioner, is a life long, active, working Democrat. He hails from good old Democratic stock. Mr. Fiedler is one of the most respected farmers of this valley, and of unblemished character. He is an intelligent man, and just such a colleague as Mr. Greist should have to back him in his efforts of reform, economy and to have an honest administration in our county affairs.

Vote for Mr. Fiedler, on Tuesday.

Mrs. Smith, wife of a farmer who resides near Sumbury, went to the house of John P. Hass, a neighbor, some months ago to sell some butter, and while in the front yard a dog belonging to Hass, jumped at her and bit her in the arm. The bite was not a severe one and soon healed up. Mrs. Smith, however, had brought suit in Court of Common Pleas, and the jury rendered a verdict in favor of Mrs. Smith, for $400 damages against the Hass estate, Hass having died since suit was brought. We publish this for the comfort of those who keep worthless curs.

Wm. Wolf & Son have bought a large variety of goods in all departments and by the middle of next week will have an immense stock to show to their callers. Come in to see it, even though you do not mean to buy. It will cost you nothing to see the goods and may be you will see something you have never seen and just what you want. It always pays you to see a new line, particularly dress goods and notions in which the styles change constantly. There is always something new and they always have it.
