THE BOMBS.

HOW THEY CAME TO LINGG'S CELL.

Chicago, November 7.—The scheme to furnish Lingg with the bombs which were discovered in his cell yesterday, was evidently farefully thought out by some of his copartners in crime on the

Several days ago a fancy soap box was brought to the jail, and just now, in the heat of excitement, the officials cannot Sword Bearer, but can't give up the say who delivered it.

They may know who it was, but if they do they will not say so until they have made some arrests.

The box was a harmless looking affair and it was handled by the deputy in the rough manner jail officials usually do those things. A hasty examination dis-closes the fact that to all appearances it contained nothing more than a few delicacies for which even such a "human tiger" as Lingg has an appetite.

Had the police and deputies known that there were bombs lying around loose in such close proximity they would not have felt so easy, but they were ignorant of any danger, and they would probably have continued so had it not been for the raid on Lingg's cell. It was then that the insignificant looking soap box was discovered to have a false bottom, and it was underneath it that the four bombs had been smuggled into the

"THE DAVIS,"

Among all the leading sewing machines manufactured is considered the peer. It is an improved machine combining simplicity, strength and all the modern inventions to put it in the lead of all its competitors. This machine is simple in construction, light running and is a favorite in the household. This machine is sold by Bushman & Kreamer, Centre Hall, who have the agency for this county. They just received a new lot and have opened them up in their rooms for your inspection. Throw away that old machine and get a Davis from Bushman & Kreamer.

A HANDY POCKET ATLAS.

An attempt to put in pocket size the contents of a large reference Atlas is usually accompanied by rough, inaccurate, and inelegant engraving and printing, but in the New Pocket Atlas of the World, published by Ivison, Blakeman & Co., 753 & 755 Broadway, New York, this is not the fact. Ninety one Maps containing nearly every geographical point of interest throughout the world, are given, and each is a gem of the engraver's art. Delicately yet distinctly colored, these maps are exquisite illustrations of the best color printing to-day obtainable. While the Maps leave nothing to be desired by way of fullness, they are fully up to date, and show every recent discovery, or change of boundary.

One hundred and twelve pages of terse, wellarranged, and accurate information concerning every important country or state on the globe, follow the maps in this compact volume. In fact, the book is not only a comprehensive Atlas, but also a condensed Gazetteer of the whole world, and all put in an attactive and substantial binding, and sold for fifty cents. If not found at your booksellers, on the receipt of this sum the publishers mail it to any address.

A POKER LAWSUIT.

The Supreme Court of this Commonwealth, at Pittsburg, was entertained Wednesday by a discussion of the beauties of that fascinating yet hazardous game vulgarly yeclept "stud-horse poker." The game was brought to the notice of the court upon a writ of error from Common Pleas Court No. 2, wherein T. B. Wilgus sued to recover for money lost by him at play with A. H. Newell, and the latter appealed from the lower court.

It appears that one summer afternoon in 1885 Wilgus, Newell and two others got up a little game of "stud-horse poker." When the game broke up Wilgus was $150 ahead and Newell had dropped $460. After supper Wilgus and Newell played a two-handed game of casino, the latter coming out a winner to the extent of $655. A month later Wilgus entered suit against Newell to recover the $655 lost by him at the evening game, basing his action upon the act of 1794.

When the case came up for trial Wilgus acknowledged that the money lost was not his own, but belonged to his wife, a nonsuit was asked for upon that ground but refused by Judge Ewing Newell then pleaded as a set-off to the debt the money he had lost in the game with Wilgus in the afternoon. Judge Ewing charged the jury to the effect that no set-off could be considered in an action of this kind, and instructed the jury to return a verdict for the full amount lost by Wilgus. The jury retired and in a few minutes returned with a verdict in favor of the plaintiff for $250. Judge Ewing refused to receive this verdict, stating to the jury that they had ignored his first instructions to exclude the afternoen game of poker from their consideration, and told them the lowest verdict they could return would be $630. The jury then returned a verdict in favor of Wilgus for $705.

William Reardon, Esq., in his argument before the Supreme Court on behalf of Mr. Newell, said: "It appears that two interesting games of poker occurred on the same day. Wilgus had luck by daylight but lost by gaslight. The learned judge who tried the case decided that what Wilges won from Newell by daylight could not be set off against the amount lost by gaslight. Whilst technical set-off might not be the proper term to apply to this sporting transac tion, it is difficult to see why Newell should have recovery against him in an action for debt for all he won by gas light, when Wilgus had in his pocket several hundred dollars of Newell's money won by daylight.

The Indians Open Fire With Fatal Effect-All Have Surrendered Except Twenty, CROW INDIAN AGENCY, Montana, Nov. 7 .- Saturday morning Scout Campbell and Interpreter Tobacco Jake were sent to the Indian village, ordering the chiefs to come to Gen. Ruger at headquarters. Pretty Eagle harangued the camp, and Takes Wronkle, Crazy Head, Iron Fork, Dancing Woman, Kearney, Two Belly, and Spotted Horse rode to Gen. Rugers quarters. The following parley then took place:

Gen. Frank Armstrong-I have been sent by the Great Father to settle the trouble. You must give us everything and turn over the chief besides the men. Gen Rug er will settle it his way. That's neace fronting the Indian position. The Indians soon began riding about and singing war songs. At the end of the time allowed the Indians to come in with the bad young men the calvary advanced, the infantry took position, and the Indians opened fire. At the first volley Corporal Charles Sampson of troop K, first cavalry, was shot dead. Private Eugene Molloy of troop K was wounded four times. The Indians took a position in the rifle pits and in the brush. The Hotchkiss rifle planted its first shot beyond the Little Horn. The next fell in the Indian camp and one Indian and a horse were killed. The calvary now advanced upon the Indians, driving them into the brush. Sword Bearer was killed, being shot twice in the skirmish fire by G. Troop, first calvary, commanded by Capt. F. C. Upham and Lieut. J. B. Aleshire. The Crow scout Fire Bug also claims to have fired the fatal shot.

Nearly all of them came into the agency, only about twenty escaping to the hills. The latter are now being pursued by cavalry. The above names cover all the casualties except one man who was slightly disabled by a fall.

Five Indians are reported dead. There s no danger to the settlements. WASHINGTON, Nov. 6, -Secretary Lamar late yesterday afternoon received this telegram from the Crow agency; "Gen. Ruger and troops are all here. Indians encamped below agency. Demand made for surrender of Indians engaged in troubles of Sept. 29. If not given up immediately they will be taken by troops. If resistance is made Indians must take consequences. When arrested they should

"ARMSTRONG." The authorities at the interior department consider the situation decidedly grave, anp are of the opinion that no delay should occur in the arrest of the malcontents. It is thought that the moral effeet of a quick and firm movement is necessary at this time to prevent this rebellious spirit from spreading to the Sloux in Dakota and the Indians on the great northern reservation of Montana.

OPERATORS YIELDING.

The Striking Miners of Pennsylvania Have Been Offered an Advance.

HAZLETON, Pa., Nov. 6 .- The rumor that others. For further information adwas circulated last evening to the effect that W. T. Carter & Co. were willing to operate their Beaver Meadow and Coleraine mines at an advance has been substantiated.

The operators made a proposition to their men to have them go to work at an advance of four and one-half per cent. but no action has yet been taken by the workingmen, as they have no power to act. District Assembly 87 alone can decide whether a resumption of work shall take place at Carter & Co.'s terms.

Some of the men are willing to accept the company's terms, while others are willing to remain idle until a better advance is proffered. The feeling in the region is that the strike will soon end.

The Name of Gladstone Applauded. CINCINNATI, Nov. &-The Rev. Joseph Parker, of London, in his lecture here Friday night incidentally mentioned the name of Gladstone, when he was interrupted by long continued applause. Thanking the audience for their interest in the man and his cause, he promised to say something more about Mr. Gladstone at the close of his lecture. He did say a few things about Mr. Gladstone, mentioning that his cause was receiving many new adherents in England and predicting that Mr. Gladstone would live to see his policy of home rule in Ireland adopted. At Mr. Parker's suggestion a message of congratulation was unanimously ordered to be cabled to Mr.

WHAT AM I TO DO?

The symptoms of billiourness are too well known. They differ in different individuals to some extent. A Billious man is seldom a breakfast eater. Too frequently, alas, he has an excellent appetite for liquids but not for solids of a morning. His tongue will hardly bear inspection at any time; if it is not white and furred, it is rough at all events.

The digestive system is wholly out of order and Diarrhea or Constipation may be a symptom or the two may alternate. There are often Hermorrhids or even loss of blood. There may be giddiness and often beadache acidity or flatulence and tenderness in the pit of the stomache. To correct all this if not effect a cure try Green's August Flower, it costs but a trifle and thousands attest its
