LOCAL ITEMS.

—Millheim is sighing for water. —D. R. Foreman, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday in this section. —Mr. Dauberman has given his new brick house a coat of red paint. —Ike Tressler entertained the band boys one evening last week, at his home. They report a big time. —A party of Nittany valley hunters who had been in the seven mountains, passed through here on Saturday with a fine deer. —Bilger Brothers are putting up a new saw mill along the pike above Pleasant Gap and will commence taking out timber on the mountains near by. —The Rev. J. M. King will have no service at Centre Hall and Rock Hill churches Sabbath next, Nov. 13, owing to the fact of his quarterly meeting being held at Egg Hill. —In this issue will be found an article on "Los Angeles," Cal., which will be of interest to our readers, as quite a number of Centre county people are located in that section. —The brick work for the new Presbyterian church in this place is likely to go over to next spring on account of the brick not being ready for the edifice and the lateness of the season. —Egghill, at Spring Mills, had a baptism of fire, last week, along with the other mountains. Parties had to be on the watch day and night to prevent fences and buildings from taking fire. —Insane asylums are becoming crowded with chronic cigarette smokers. Very few will stop the practice, however, before getting there, or to the cemetery. Centre Hall youngsters take warning—parents ponder over this item. —Thursday, Nov. 24 has been appointed as Thanksgiving by President Cleveland and Gov. Beaver has fixed upon same day. It may not be as much a thanksgiving day as a time for war upon Turkey. —Dupryne, the freight conductor who died from the effect of injuries received while shifting cars, at Swengel, on Saturday, had four to five thousand dollars life insurance. He leaves a wife and child to mourn his death, at Lewisburg. —The Linden Hall band which had disbanded for a few months on account of a number of the old players moving away, is being reorganized. Philip Meyer has the boys in charge and expects in a few weeks to have them in good trim and even surpass their former standard of excellence. —The mountains in Brush and Penns valleys are on fire and the sky is dimmed by clouds of smoke. Much destruction of timber in the result. These fires are started wantonly, and are a common thing every spring and fall. The fire for doing such mischief is one thousand dollars and a term of imprisonment. —The mountains in the vicinity of Tusseyville are on fire, and the people living along there have been fighting the flames to keep them from burning fences and communicating to buildings. The dryness of leaves and other waste and the high winds which have prevailed all week, have caused the mountain fires to spread very rapidly. —Jenny Lind died one day last week. The Penna railroad declared a semi-annual three per cent dividend. Danville has a boom, and over 200 houses are being erected. Irona and Blaine City, in Clearfield county, close to Coalport are new towns with dozens of houses going up in each. Yellow fever has broken out in parts of Florida. —Wm. H. Lee, a blacksmith, of Shade Gap, went to bed at the Leister house, Huntingdon, Tuesday night a week about ten o'clock. He was found dead by the porter at half-past 10 o'clock next morning. It was discovered that on retiring he had blown out the gas light instead of turning it off, and was suffocated by the fumes. Lee was a married man, aged about 40 years, and had a wife and four children. —Next year (1888) will be a peculiar one in this respect, that the last three numerals which compose it will be the same figures, a circumstance which can occur only once in a century, or more strictly speaking, once in a 111 years it will be a 111 years before another "three of kind" (1999) will be reached.—Ex. Here is one that had four numerals, the year 1111. This can occur only once in every 1000 years. —The Caledonia coal company has struck gas near Pennfield, Clearfield county, which is now flowing above the well. This is the first natural gas well tapped east of the Allegheny mountains. —That's bringing the thing alarmingly close to old Centre, and next we will have drilling for coal on Kerlin's tract again possibly for gas in Greens valley. At all events, there's plenty of room for drilling in this section, gas or no gas.

DESTRUCTIVE MOUNTAIN FIRES.

CLOUDS OF SMOKE OVER HANG THE VALLEY. TIMBERLAND BEING DESTROYED. Rain has not fallen in this section of the state for many days and the result is, old mother earth on the surface is as dry as pink. From all sections come the reports of fires raging in the mountains and destroying large tracts of fine timber. For over a week our valley has been overhung with clouds of smoke which appear to be growing darker and heavier, and at this writing almost obscure the sun. Egg Hill, south of this place, has been burning for several days, the fire having started near Spring Mills and is traveling westward, clearing up both sides as it goes and will stop only after reaching the end of the mountain, about a mile above. At night it is a grand sight to behold. The fire moves forward in battle line, as the combustible material is consumed and lights up the skies with splendor. A more destructive fire has been raging in the Seven mountains, the last few days. This fire we are told started near Boalsburg, the early part of this week and in some places the greedy flames traveled over four miles in a day. On Tuesday morning it was near Tusseyville, and nearly every one turned out to check its progress and save the timberland. By this time it was advancing rapidly, reaching from Tussey mountain across to the Sand mountain, a front of over three miles and cleaning up every thing in its path. They succeeded turning it back in some places, but it still burning fiercely further in the mountains.

FATAL RUNAWAY AT COBURN.

CYRUS BRUMGARD RUNOVER BY A FRIGHTENED TEAM. On last Thursday afternoon Mr. Cyrus Brumgard, of Miles township, went to Coburn with a two horse wagon for coal, and had his team standing on Campbell's scales weighing the load, when the passenger train passed. The animals became frightened and made a plunge to get away. Mr. Brumgard made an effort to catch one of the horses by the bridle but was thrown forward on his back and was tramped and both wheels of the wagon, which held twenty eight hundred pounds of coal, passed over his breast. The horses started off at a break-neck speed for several rods when the wagon wheel struck a post, turned over and was badly wrecked. Mr. Brumgard was unconscious when picked up and was taken to the hotel near by. Medical aid was summoned immediately. The injuries consisted of a deep gash in his right leg, above the knee, which was open to the bone, and internal injuries to the bowels, passing over his breast. Although in a precarious condition, he was taken to his home where he is improving as well as could be expected. We were sorry to hear that our good friend Cyrus should have such a misfortune befall him, and especially after having passed through a long siege of sickness, this spring.

CONDUCTOR KILLED.

Freight conductor Dupryne was killed at Swengel, on Saturday, 5, while shifting cars. The engine was on the main track, and a car to be shifted stood on the switch; he grabbed a plank and held it against this car so the engine could approach and move against the other end and thus start the car to where it was wanted. Unfortunately the plank upon the plank was so great as to cause it to bend and fasten Dupryne against the freight car, crushing his ribs and causing such other internal injuries that he expired next morning. Dupryne was an Italian, and had been on our road a long time. He was an obliging and well mannered gentleman, liked by all. He was brought to this country when a small boy, under the patronage system, stolen from his native land and put out here to travel with an organ grinder. Some years ago he and two other Italian boys got into a freight wreck at Renovo, in which his two companions were killed and himself severely injured. He was placed in the railroad company's hospital at the above place for treatment, and subsequently became an employe of the road, and by his good behavior was promoted, about a year ago, as freight conductor on the road between Montandon and Bellefonte. He was buried at Lewisburg, and was aged about 35 years.

SERIOUS LOSS BY FIRE.

The large bank barn owned by Michael Conter, on the farm adjoining the property of Jno. A. Woodward, near Howard, was burned on Friday night at 11 o'clock. It was the work of an incendiary, a tramp who was hanging about during the day probably applying the match. All of the contents of the barn were destroyed. Part of the contents were 1400 bushels of corn, 500 bushels of oats, 100 bushels of buckwheat, 40 bushels of rye, 40 tons of hay, 16 fattening hogs, 4 cattle and a team of mules. He had been offered $400 for the mules. The building was worth at least $1500. The contents were very valuable. The property destroyed was insured.—News.

SNOW FLAKES.

Jack Frost is making himself numerous. Fierce storm on Friday which raised clouds of dust. Roads are fearfully dusty everywhere. The mountains all through Clearfield county are on fire, which no doubt, causes the smoke we noticed here for the last two weeks. Communion in the Centre Hall Luth. church, next Sabbath morning. Supt. Wolf is visiting schools, and thus far finds them in satisfactory condition. —The dwelling house of Lot Kimport took fire, one day last week, from the kitchen chimney. A hole about a yard square had been burnt in the roof when the fire was first seen. A timely application of water saved a destructive conflagration that would have followed if a few moments more had been given the flames. Mr. Martz, the hired man, was prompt in pouring water on the burning roof, which checked further progress of the fire. —Will Swab informs us that he has completed his improved corn planter and shipped the model to the patent office for approval. Hope it will be a success and that shops for their manufacture on a large scale will go up right in our midst.

TRIAL LIST FOR SECOND WEEK.

The trial list for the first week of court has been published. The second week begins on Monday, December 5, the following causes having been assigned for trial: Alpheus A. Hall and S. Miller McCormick, executors of Samuel Hall, dec'd, vs John W. Cooke, ejectment. Also one for trespass. Charles Witmer vs The Bellefonte and Buffalo Run Railroad Company. Philips Keller vs Mary, P. Over, David A. Over, Jane E. Ingham, and others. Matthew R. Adams vs Robert Valente and others trading as Valentine & Co. John McCloskey and Mathias W. McCloskey, vs D. B. Kunes and Joseph B. Porman, ejectment. The Geiser Manufacturing Company vs Thomas J. Dunkle, trespass. S. Morris Wala and Howard Crow, administrators of T. Conrow, dec'd, vs Benjamin Kitch, debt. E. H. Long and D. S. Kaufman, trading as D. S. Kaufman & Co vs The Farmer's Mutual Fire Insurance Company of Centre county. Samuel F. Foster, use of Rhoda G. Taylor vs John F. Potter. Samuel F. Foster use of Mary Eby, administratrix vs John F. Potter. James Pierpont vs James S. Cross et al. George W. Kelley vs Abraham Hicks, William H. Jones vs Wm. McClure Hammond, executor of John Brett. The Borough of Milesburg vs J. Miles Green. H. M. Confer vs Conrad Long. Michael Grove vs The Bellefonte, Nittany and Lemont Railroad Company. Brockerhoffs, as trustees, vs Jacob Reasner. James C. Waddle vs John W. McGarvey. John Mills Hale, trustee, vs W. W. Hale. The Singer Manufacturing Company vs Wm. H. Every. Jacob Leathers vs Mary Stine and C. B. Horning, adm's. Daniel P. Riesel vs John S. Fisher. O. H. Braisington use of Young Brothers vs E. J. Pruner and D. S. Keller, administrators. Daniel Garman vs W. H. Williams. Bunnel & Aikens vs Ellis L. Orvis. The Safe Deposit Company of Pittsburg vs Ephraim Lewis and others. George R. Boak vs William Watson. Rudolph Mulholland use of George R. Boak vs William Watson. William Grauer vs George Davis. W. E. Zierden vs J. A. McOmber. C. B. Hess vs The Union County Mutual Live Stock Insurance Company. Susan Emerick vs Mary C. Emerick. —Mr. Dale, of Pleasant Gap, was through here a few days ago, to sound the feeling of the people relative to a vacation of the pike, and making it a township road, to be kept up as other public roads are kept up. The part of the pike from the Seven mountains to Milroy was vacated three or four years ago, and no more gates are on that portion. In case the piece between Potters bank and Bellefonte is vacated, the toll gates would be abolished. The Daily News says: The people of Pleasant Gap and vicinity are holding meetings and circulating petitions with the object of asking the court to appoint receivers to condemn the Lewistown and Bellefonte turnpike and convert it into a public road. The petition must be signed by twenty-five or more resident tax-payers. The receivers must assess the damages caused to the owners of the turnpike which are to be paid by the county. If the damages shall be thought excessive the citizens may appeal; if the owners do not consider them sufficient they may appeal. If it becomes a public road without toll gates the respective boroughs and townships through which it passes will be required to repair and maintain it. —More Styles in Ladies and Misses Coats.—Garmans. —Pantalons made to order as low as $4, at the Philad. Branch. —The celebrated Calla Lilla flour sold at Spangler's grocery, this place. —Will Lee's new house, at the station is up and makes a good show. —New made Braids, Brown and Brown midx Blue, etc.—Garmans. —Will Kurtz has moved into his new house, near the railroad station. —A fine magnetic pad, for rheumatism, etc., for sale at Murray's drug store. —John Miller has sold his farm in Miles township, to Benj. Roush, for $10,000. —Calvin Waltz, of Pleasant Gap, was granted a pension this week by Uncle Sam. —Columbia yarns. We sell nothing but full weight 16 oz. Zephyrs by the lap.—Garmans. —In the Philadelphia market chestnuts sell at $3.00, bicorynuts $1.50, and walnuts at 75 cents per bushel. —G. I. Post, of Williamsport, will succeed McMillen as proprietor of the Brockerhoff House, Bellefonte. —Cool weather is setting in and you want a fall overcoat. To get one cheap go to Lewins, at the Philad. Branch. —Rev. Fischer will administer the Lord's supper in the Centre Hall Luth. church, on Sabbath morning, Nov. 13. —The sale of the farm of Wm. Emerick, dec'd adjoining Centre Hall, has been adjourned to Saturday, Nov. 12. —Square parlor heaters at Reesman's stove emporium. Keeps the Princess, Beaver, Rosemont, and others. —The meanest of human kind is always the sneak, and the double faced breeder of mischief. —Fauble's clothing house, Bellefonte has been doing a rushing business this season—the reason is they keep a fine assortment and sell at close figures. —That aged Democratic patriarch, Samuel Hess, of Pinegrove, has become well enough again to go to the polls and vote, a distance of two miles. —The cold weather is coming on us rapidly and there is nothing more cheering than to have one of Reesman's beautiful square parlor heaters in your house to keep everything comfortable. —Daniel Hess feels as good over the sop his party got from the liberal Democracy as he did over our success in getting the railroad. —Chas. Arney seems to be the champion snirnod in this section. Thus far he has bagged twelve pheasants and a nice lot of other game. From two to three pheasants drop every day he goes out.

LOS ANGELES.

During September and October the grape is in its glory in Southern California. Every day you may see on the streets of Los Angeles great wagon loads of the purple fruit of the vine drawn by six or eight mules or horses. The poorest families can revel in grapes now. In the vineyards the fruit can be bought for next to nothing, and a "grape" that familiar California coin, will furnish a supply for a long time. Everybody eats grapes, and there are many firm believers here in their curative qualities. Those who try the "grape cure" live exclusively upon the fruit and seem well satisfied with their fare, even getting fat. Besides the grape all the temperate fruits are now plentiful, and will continue so until the green oranges, which now bend down the trees, assume their golden hue in January. The streets of Los Angeles are thronged with people from every nation in the world, but the Yankee predominates. The old Spanish or Mexican element is gradually disappearing. They are a generous, cheerful people, but are fond of gambling, and gradually their property has passed into American hands. A present is the opportunity for the Indian tribes held almost undisputed possession here. The Missions introduced Spanish rule, the temporal power of the Missions disappeared when Mexico became independent, and finally, thirty nine years ago, California became a portion of the great Republic. The greatest activity in business still continues to prevail here. Referring to immense hotels are to be built immediately to accommodate the travel. The past season has shown that Southern California is appreciated as a summer as well as a winter resort. The people have subscribed liberally towards the construction of two half million dollar hotels, and work on them has already commenced. Several million dollars of other improvements have also been contracted for. The most serious trouble here at present is the scarcity of labor. Carpenters are getting from $4 to $7 per day, and all the other building trades demand proportionately high wages. Even the hod carriers get $4 per day. There is no branch of Henry George's Anti Poverty Society here. Every man able to work can organize an Anti Poverty Society on his own account, and if he remains poor and the opportunity for it here, a noted physician has lately brought what seems to be a curious argument against California as a health resort. He asserts that there are so many pleasant days in the year that a man is tempted to overwork himself. Not being obliged to take a rest by occasional stormy weather he goes on without thinking until he breaks down. Perhaps there is some truth in this. People advanced in years find great comfort and benefit by a residence in Southern California. The freedom from sudden climatic changes and the ability to live most of the time out doors has doubtless prolonged many valuable lives.

—Ribbons and Laces.—Garmans. —Fleming, the fashionable tailor Bellefonte, Pa. —Mr. Wm. Grosseman, while in town on Tuesday paid us a visit. —Fighting mountain fires kept many voters from the polls, on Tuesday. —Mr. John Foreman brought a rare curiosity to town, it being a double pumpkin, joined like the Siamese twins. —Did you see the fine assortment of square parlor heaters at Reesman's stove emporium? Everybody is bound to have one. —The second grade school, of the borough, was closed for this week on account of sickness in the family of Mr. Jas. Lohr, teacher. —For good bargains read the announcement of Lyon & Co. in this issue. They want to reduce their immense stock and are selling goods at cost prices. —The mountains along Nittany valley are also on fire. On the Zion side the fires have endangered fences and buildings along the foot of the mountain. —Graham & Son, of Bellefonte, have a splendid line of ladies' fine kid shoes, ladies' and children's calf shoes all sizes, with and without heels, driving boots, gum boots, rubbers of all kinds at the lowest prices. —Landlord Musser, of Millheim, was thrown from his buggy on Tuesday and landed on the shoulder from which he has been suffering from an accidental rifle shot many years ago, causing a painful irritation of the old sore. —The 3rd quarterly meeting of the Evangelical church, will be held at Egg Hill church, on Sabbath Nov. 13. Quarterly Conference, 2:30 p. m., Saturday afternoon. Communion services 10 a. m., Rev. R. W. Runyan, of Lewistown, will officiate. —Lamade, of the Grif, paid his fine of $500 to the commissioners and now he and Centre county are square, financially, nevertheless he helped malign a respectable man's character and degraded his profession. —Fleming, the fashionable tailor of Bellefonte, is busy day and night putting out work. He is located in Crider's new building in the diamond where everybody can find his room. A good fit and in the latest style is what you get when you leave your order for a suit. Go to Fleming for fine clothing. —The mountain fires kept many voters at home on Tuesday, to guard their premises—it wasn't the fire so much as the want of water to put it out that defeated the Democracy of the county. Next year we'll have a fire in another direction. —Stover & Mott's Bellefonte marble works challenge the State for elegance of work, and have no fears to meet any put out by any marble works, not even in Philadelphia. This is no idle boast, but the plain truth and their work every where shows it, whether it be a monument, headstone, or anything else in their line. —The Lock Haven markets, the other day, ran as follows: Potatoes sold for 60c a bushel; apples 40 to 50c a bushel; Butter 25c per pound; eggs 25c a dozen; chickens 50 to 75c per pair, and ducks 60c per pair; cabbage 6 to 8c per head; turkeys 40c a bushel; chestnuts 10c per quart.

—Please call and examine our large stock of cloths and cassimeres suitable for any garment in Men's wear—a full assortment of Overcoats "READY MADE" The largest line of Hats, Caps and Furnishing Goods in the county—all work guaranteed to fit or no sale. —MORTON & CO. Brockerhoff Row & Humas Block.

A CRY FOR MERCY.

The Chicago bomb throwers who knew no mercy are now crying for mercy. August Spies, Samuel Fielden and Nicholas Schwab signed a petition humbly begging the governor to commute their sentences. These three of the seven condemned men are the only ones who have not written letters to the governor that they would not accept commutation of their sentences, and that all efforts in that direction were without their sanction. The signatures of Fielden and Schwab were secured by Captain Black and L. D. Oliver, who visited the prisoners at the jail and had private conferences with them. All sorts of entreaties were adopted to get Spies to sign the petition but he resolutely refused to do so, as did also Lingg, Engel, Fischer and Parsons. Same petitions were brought to the jail by Dr. Schmidt, Alderman Frank Stauber and H. Linnemeyer, with permission from the sheriff to confer with the condemned men. George Schilling arrived later and joined the party. It was plain that Spies had weakened since the morning conference. He read the petition over several times. After an hour's pleading Spies said, "Well, give me a pen," and with a flourish his name was appended below.

About a year ago Justice of the Peace Cornelius, of Warren, Pa., decided that Geer, a book agent, must pay a borough license. The Warren county Court reversed the decision of Squire Cornelius. And now comes the Supreme Court with a decision reversing the lower Court and affirming the judgement of the Justice of the Peace. This means that book agents must pay municipal licenses the same as other peddlers. After this it will be observed that there are some Squires who knew more than the Court. This reminds us of a case in Huntingdon county where the associates overruled Judge Furst on the license question, and the supreme court sustained the associates against the opinions of the president judge on the same bench.

COBURN.

The election passed off very quietly. The fall vote wasn't near polled, and there was a good deal of scratching and kicking going on. There were a few men that you would be surprised if you knew who they were that elected against the ticket and did all they could against Fiedler and Morris. They let on to be Democrats, but there is no Democracy about them, and the sooner the party gets clear of them the better. Their only reason was, that the friends didn't make the nomination, and you bet here after they needn't come out for office, for they will be remembered. What few Republicans there are in our township worked hard and had every man out. They tried to do some trading but that didn't amount to anything, will tell you more about it next week. The Menagerie at the Still house has closed. Wal Searl's Catacombs committed suicide the other morning; at present he has only his coon and cats. Our citizens were shocked on Sunday evening to hear of Mike Dupryne's death. Mike had many friends here. H. H. Kresmer, John Wahly, A. J. Campbell and others went to Lewisburg, to day, to attend his funeral. —O. K.

KNIGHTS OF THE GOLDEN EAGLE.

Grand Sir Herald A. C. Lytle, District Grand Chiefs T. B. Jamison, William Cowan, W. F. Taylor and C. Bent-n-Roper will institute Port Matilda Castle, No. 218, of Port Matilda, on November 10th. They will be assisted by the Castles in Centre, Blair, Clearfield and Huntingdon counties. The application for charter contains the names of the most prominent citizens of the borough and vicinity. —Fleming the tailor, Bellefonte, Pa. —New Dress Goods.—Garmans. —Beard Trimming and Fancy Velvets.—Garmans. —Michael Derstine had 19 votes in the borough for associate judge. —Suits made to order as low as $14 at the Philad. Branch. —The Wm. Emerick farm will be offered at public sale, Nov. 12. See ad. in REPORTER. —The best line of general merchandise and at honorable prices you will always find at Wolf & Son's old stand. They make a specialty of Ladies' dress goods and trimmings of all kind, and their stock of boots and shoes is always the best. —The tailoring establishment connected with the Philad. Branch is over-run with orders for suits, and it is now employs more hands than any other establishment in the county. The suits are made by them under the best satisfaction, and the prices are found lower than elsewhere. This accounts for the rush they have there. —From all sections of the county, last week, a wall went up for no reason—the dry spell having reduced cisterns and wells. Amid all, however, Centre Hall never suffers and has an abundant supply, owing to its adaptable water works. —The J. F. Hill & Co. $3 shoes for gentlemen are the best shoes for the money in the county. Every pair warranted to give perfect satisfaction. 50 to 75 pair are worn in Bellefonte alone. Made in lace, congress and waukenphasts. For sale by F. GRAHAM & SON, Bellefonte.

—On Tuesday Mr. Daniel Benschhoff was engaged in loading prop timber at Paddy Mountain Station and losing his balance fell from the top of a loaded car, striking his head on a rock and fracturing his skull and sustaining other severe injuries. He was unconscious when picked up and Dr. Brubaker, of Millinburg, was telegraphed for and arrived a few hours after the accident. Mr. Benschhoff lives at Millinburg. His greatest injury is in his back and he is a entirely powerless in his limbs. A workman in one of the large saw mills, at the same place, had his fingers taken off by a circular saw, this week.

STATE COLLEGE LADS BLOW HORNS BY MEANS OF STEAM RADIATORS.

State College, Nov. 4.—The students of the college celebrated Hallow'een in a novel manner. The majority of the students have rooms in the main college building and each room is heated with steam. The cadets all secured tin horns and connected them with the steam radiators by means of rubber tubes. The horns were then fastened in the windows of the different rooms and at a given signal near midnight steam was turned on. The horrible noise that ensued beggars description. People for miles around were aroused and alarmed. The racket was finally stopped by the janitor turning off steam from the building.

THE THIEVES GOT $600 IN GOODS.

Sellingrove, November 3.—Last night thieves broke into the residence of Ed. M. Hummel, lumber merchant, on Market street, and stole goods to the value of about $600. All of Mrs. Hummel's best dresses, a sealskin coat and shawls, together with several suits of clothing belonging to Mr. Hummel and a lot of silverware, were taken. The thieves got in by prying open a rear window.

DARING BOY ROBBERS.

Camden, N. J., Nov. 8.—A crowd of precious youngsters numbering fully twenty and the oldest only sixteen years old filled Magistrate Cassidy's office last night. Each one was accompanied by two or three chums and there were two fathers and one mother there. Twelve of the boys were under arrest for breaking into Pennsylvania railroad freight cars and stealing goods.

MARRIED.

At the Lutheran parsonage, at Nittany, Pa. Nov. 1st, 1887, by Rev. Brubaker, Mr. John L. Cole and Miss Ida B. Shaffer, both of Zion, Pa.

On 6, by Rev. Dotterer, Mr. John A. Long, of Spring Mills and Mrs. Mary J. Greninger, of Logan Mills.

DIED.

Jennie, daughter of Jas. H. and Annie Lohr at Centre Hall Nov. 7, 1887, age 1y. 7 mo. and 6 days.

RAIN AT LAST.

Thursday morning set in with rain, which has been sig-ed for by all to lay the dust, replenish wells and cisterns and extinguish the widespread mountain fires.

—Wolf's will receive to-morrow morning the first lot of winter dress fabrics ever displayed here. Don't miss seeing them even if you do not buy.

—Sellers' Liver Pills' have been the standard remedy for malaria, liver complaint, costiveness, etc., for fifty years.

DONT

let that cold of yours run on. You think it is a light thing. But it may run into catarrh. Or into pneumonia. Or into consumption. Catarrh is disgusting. Pneumonia is dangerous. Consumption is death itself. The breathing apparatus must be kept healthy and clear of all obstructions, and offensive matter. Otherwise there is trouble ahead. All the diseases of these parts, head, nose, throat, bronchial tubes and lungs, can be delightfully and entirely cured by the use of Roschke's German Syrup. If you don't know this already, thousands and thousands of people can tell you. They have been cured by it. Buy it. How it is themselves. Roschke's German Syrup. Ask any druggist.
