THE STATE GRANGE.

WORK OF THE FATRONS OF HUSBANDRY AT HARRISBURG.

Harrisburg, Dec. 14.—At this morn-ing's session of the State Grange, Pat-rons of Husbandry, the reports of Overseer J. G. McSparren, of Lancaster; State Lecturer Girard C. Brown, of York, and Secretary R. H. Thomas, of Mechanicsburg, were read and referred to appropriate committees. In his report Secre-tary Thomas says that twenty nine new granges reorganized. There was an in-crease of 3,000 members, and an increase in finances of $1,000. The treasury will have left $5,000 after paying all expen-

Overseer McSparren in his report! reviewed the success of the Grange in the past year, and advised the overcoming of the prejudice and political bias that in-terfered with the interests of farmers. He protested against farmers being influenced by the press and politicians in the matter of tariff taxes and discrimination. He opposed the repeal of the in-ternal revenue, and favored tariff reform, ternal revenue, and favored tariff reform, alleging that to protect the wool indus try amounting to $45,000,000 the people pay as consomers an excess of $146,000,-000. Mr. M'Sparren also asserts that from 1850 to 1860, under low tariff, the valuation of farms increased 100 per cent., while from 1870 to 1880, under bight tariff it increased hut nine per high tariff, it increased but nine per cent.

The afternoon's session was devoted to hearing the reports of officers.

WIDE AWAKE 1888.

The readers of this wonderful magazine for young people are so accustomed to good reading and pictures that they will wonder how it is going to be better than ever this coming year. But it is.

The new year has already begun with the holiday number just out-a truly great number, larger and richer, more varied, and therefore it must be better than ever before. And the publishers have a primer to send to those who want to know what Wide Awake is going to have in it in 1888.

The wonder is that such a library and picture gallery can be got together for $2.40 a year-a thousand pages and everything fresh and new-stories, history, travels, biography, sketches, anecdote, adventure-and all instructive as well as entertaining. Two worlds are drawn from to make such provision for the education and pleasure of our children.

So high is the best of young people's literature nowadays that we are all of us glad to be young Nine tenths of read ing people prefer it to what is written for them; for it has the rare merit of being easy as well as good.

We know of no Christmas gift so sure of bringing a happy response in a read-ing family. Send $2.40 to Lothrop Com-pany, Boston.

WHAT AM I TO DO?

The symptoms of billiousness are too The symptoms of billiousness are too well known. They differ in different in-dividuals to some extent. A Billious man is seldom a breakfast eater. Too frequently, alas, he has an excellent ap-petite for liquids but not for solids of a morning. His tongue will hardly bear inspection at any time; if it is not white and formed it is rough at all events and furred, it is rough at all events.

The digestive system is wholly out of order and Diarrhea or Constipation may be a symptom or the two may alternate. There are often Hermorrhids or even loss of blood. There may be giddiness and often headache acidity or flatu-lence and tenderness in the pit of the stomache. To correct all this if not ef fect a cure try Green's August Flower, 1-costs but a trifle and thousands attest tot efficacy.

THE ANARCHISTS DURIED. Mrs. Parsons Falls in a Faint at the Sight of Her Hasband's Pallid Face.

CHICAGO, Dec. 19 .- The four anarchists who were hanged on Nov. 11.-August Spies, A. R. Parsons, Adolph Fischer, and George Engel, and Louis Lingg, who cheated the gallows by committing suicide the day before-were placed in their final resting place in Waldheim cemetery yesterday. There was no disorder. The only dramatic feature of the occasion was brought about by Mrs. Parsons, the dusky wife of the dead anarchist. She kept in the background at the cemetery during the preliminary excreises. A few mo-ments before Capt. Black, chief counsel for the anarchists, concluded his address, some one shouted, "Make way for Mrs. Parsons." The solidly packed crowd gave way

A passage was made and Mrs. Parsons, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. William Holmes, came forward. The nearest coffin to her was that of August Spies. Her husband's was the second from this. Mrs. Parson's eyes seemed to pick out the casket in which she was interested. At the mo-ment her gaze caught it she gave voice to a wail which startled the crowd. Captain Black paused in his speech, the throng was startled, then came a scream from Mrs. Parsons which reached to the outer circles of the crowd. Thrice she strove to speak, but the words refused to come out, and she sank fainting into the arms of her friends.

Risking Death to Escape the Flagship.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 16 .- Several days ago a sailor who was imprisoned on the English flagship, Triumph, now lying in San Francisco Bay, jumped through a port-hole and swam ashore, a distance of several miles. He was pursued, but a strong gale was blowing, and darkness coming on he reached the wharves, where he would have perished from ex-haustion but for a watchman, who dragged him to land. His example has been followed by other sailors on the Triumph. Henry Ryder and John Stanley jumped from the Triumph and swam against the outgoing tide for four hours and were found unconscious on the surface of the water by fishermen four miles down the bay from the Triumph's anchorage. When able to walk they made their way to a sailors' boarding-house, and will be shipped on a merchant vessel, sailors being in great demand here.

Brewers Roycotting Prohibition States. CHICAGO, Dec. 17 .- Considerable stir has been caused here by the fact that the Keeley brewing company had instructed its brokers to buy no barly grown in or shipped from the states of Iowa or Kansas. The instructions to the brokers read as follows: "When purchasing barley for our account you must have a guarantee from the seller that the barley was not grown in either of the states of Iowa or Kansas, or shipped from any town in either of those stares." Louis Huck, the millionairs malster, said the deliberations of the brewers' association were held in secret. If there were such a movement as intimated, he would join it heart and soul. The farmers of Iowa were hypocrites, he declared, claiming to believe in prohibition, and raising barley for the manufacture of whisky and bear.

Brown for the purpose of establishing a first class music publishing house somewhere in this section over which Mr. Brown is to have the control. A general branch factory may also be established if a suita-ble location can be secured. Mr. Brown has been engaged to work for the firm, and will at once proceed to hunt up a suitable place. Mr. Palmer is Mr. Conn's business manager and will be directly interested in the new concern.
