CENTRE HALL, PA. THURS, Jan. 5, 1888.

The possibilities of growth in the great northwest seem to be without limitations. This is strongly evidenced by the fact that the iron for over 3,500 miles of new railroads was laid during the past year.

The farmers of Dakota have taken a very practical course toward wiping out memorialized congress to remove the tariff from all articles for the sale of course of the coming tariff revision would embody this idea in legis-

Dakota is claimed as a Republican "state" and this "free-trade" move from that quarter may sound a lit-le quee to the high tariff Republicans in the east.

THE SECRET OF A STRIKE.

The secret of the great strikes and their lamentable failures is simple enough, and here it is.

Under the inspiration of a few soulless and inflated wratches such as have got control of the Knights of Labor, an assothat they must strike. The reasons vary, unjustifiable or fallacious. But that McKeen, president; J. G. Williams, vicedosen't make any difference to the labor bosses. They are enough to inflame the spirits of their unfortunate dupes to the point desired. Other inflammatory and dition of the road as Ives left it is considstimulating arguments, also mostly lies, ered. are heaped before them. They are told to carry them through the struggle. Loud applause. A telegram is read saying that the men at the other end of the line will eat their boots before they give up. Great enthusiasm. The whole district is said to be unanimous and hot for a general revolt, and no surrender is the watchword. Frantic cheering. All the surrounding labor organizations are with them heart and soul, and ready to stand by them, if the struggle should assume such proportions, to their last dollar. Sensation. And so on till the bosses tongues tire of lies and their imagin-ation fails to invent new incentives, and thousand dollars.

placed. The insurance was twenty-six and the assets of the sinking fand to $10,the assembly adjourns in jubilation at the prospect of putting these great im. aginary forces in motion to crush their so-called enemies. All this is the work of the most heartless set of unprincipled impostors that on April 20 last, but she soon after deserted have appeared in modern times. And him and went to live with her father, Robwhen such knaves are driven from in fluence in the ranks of organized laborers, the first and most indispensable employed at the Camden Iron Works, and step in progress from the present state also to James Davis, both of whom are still of decay and dissatisfaction will have been accomplished.

THE HOLIDAYS OVER.

The holidays, in this county, seemed to have passed over pleasantly with all. There was pretty fair sleighing and with weather suited for that kind of enjoyment. Christmas dinners appeared to be all the go, generally with turkey on the platform, and since 1869 has devoted board. The Teachers' institute was a most of his time to lecturing in this treat lasting nearly a week. We are sure we never knew the holidays to pass over with more enjoyment generally than last week. There was less carousing and intemperance and more general enjoyment appropriate to the season. There certainly was room for improvement in this regard and we are glad to note a beginning of it.

CURE FOR RHEUMATISM.

Dr. Ard, of Woodward and other physicians in the eastern end of the valley, are curing rheumatism by the use of oil of winter green, which is administered internally. This is a recent discovery of Dr. Ard's, as we are informed, and the remedy has proven a certain cure in a of Labor have not been able to get Connumber of cases treated by him and gressman Scott's miners to come out for other physicians who have administered | the Columbus scale. A strike may be the oil to rheumatic patients.

Valuable Pictures Destroyed. QUEREC, Jan. 3 .- At three o'clock yesterday morning fire broke out in the seminary chapel, and, despite all the endeavors of the firemen, the build ng and its contents were reduced to ashes. The chapel was one of the oldest on the continent. It was built in 1735, and contained the finest collection of ecclesiastical paintings of the French school in America. Every one of these was destroyed. The monetary loss will be considerable, but the value of the pictures cannot be estimated, as they cannot be re-

LLOYD McCLOSKEY DROWNED IN THE RIVER ON SUNDAY.

On Sunday, 25 ult., about noon, Lloyd McCloskey lost his life at Lock Haven by drowning in the river near the Island. was an eventful day in the history of the Ritchey, near Hyner, to spend Christmas with his mother and we hallow had in He was on his way to his home at tended going up on news express that day. He had stopped over here to see a young lady friend, Miss Katie Christie, and found her in company with another young man named Hayes Farley on the river skating. When young McCloskey joined them Mr. Farley made his excuses and went away, leaving the two together. Under the pier or near it and almost opposite Hanna's house, the ice broke with them and both fell in. The young man did his best to save the young lady and succeeded in shoving her out on the ice, where she was found lying, but in the effort he exhausted his own strength and sank. A couple of boys heard the splash and gave the alarm, and soon assistance arrived, but too late to bone of contention that was fought over | save the unfortunate young man.
