> Filling a large kettle with boiling water, Harrel commenced his work by inducing one of the children to entirely undress, after which he suddenly tripped the little fellow up and landed him in the kettle, where he was boiled alive.

The next child, a girl, resisted, but Harrell felled her to the ground with an iron bar and while she was still insensible threw her into the caldron with the boiled corpse of her brother.

The remaining child was the youngest of the trio, and picking it up by the ankles Harrell was beating its head against a tree when, attracted by its cries, the parents appeared and the young murderer fled. The little one's -Mr. C. A. M. Krissinger, of Berlin, skull was so badly fractured, however, that death resulted last night. At last accounts young Harrell was still at large.

> The treaty between Italy and Germany stipulates that if France attacks either country the other shall send an army of 300,000 men to the French frontier.

It is said in diplomatic circles that Germany's treaty with Italy is analogous to the Austro-German treaty, the name of France being substituted for that of Russia.

Most of the Paris papers welcome the publication of the Austro-German treaty as likely to further estrange Germany and Russia, and to bind Russia and France. Some papers anvocate an alliance of England, France, and Russia against the trip e al iance.

The Temps says that there will be no. security in Europe until it is known whether Austria would regard Russian intervention in Bulgaria as a causus belli, ; and whether Germany would permit Austria to settle such a gaarrel singlehanded.

Le Paris says that neither Russia nor France will ever declare war.

The following preamble and resolu tions were adopted at the meeting of Centre County Pomona Grange, No. 13, Tuesday, January 31, 1888 :

WHEREAS, Under the present tax laws of the state, the real estate, the homes of farmers and laboring men are compelled to bear nearly all the burden of township and borough, county and municipal government, or an average tax of seventeen mills on the dollar in Pennsylvania while the "corporations for profit," such as railroads, banks, t-ust companies, telegraph lines telephone companies, electric light companies steam heating companies, gas companies, water companies, mining companies and many others, are exempt from township and borough, county and municipal taxes, and only pay tax to the state not averaging three mills. Building and loan associations, by act of the legislature of 1883, are exempt from all taxation, and the $500,000,000 invested in mercantile business pays a tax to the state of only $400,000, not an average of one mill: and by a decision of the supreme court, on the act of 1885, bonds and notes held by corporations are exempt from all taxation. AND WHEREAS, By the construction of the present revenue commission, to revise the tax laws of the state, one of the largest industries of the state-that of agriculture-is denied representation; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That we enter our protest against such unrighteous and damnable discrimination, which is crushing the farmers of Pennsylvania to the lower level of the farmers of Ireland, England, France and Russia, to that of a tenantry, and robbing the descendants of the pioneers, who made our great state inhabitable, of their homes and farms.

RESOLVED, That we enter our protest against any policy of the national government that will discriminate against the American farmer, or give him a lower rate of protection from foreign imports of agricultural products than is accorded o the manufacturers.

RESOLVED. That we refuse to support any can. didate for either state or national legislative po-sitions who refuses to pledge himself to labor to redress the wrongs perpetrated upon the farmer. through the unjust tax laws of the state, or discrimination in the rates of duty on imports that affect the farmer in his productions.

RESOLVED, That we enter our protest against the professional class usurping the rights and honors of farmers by surreptitiously securing ap-pointments or control of logislative organizations or institutions or appropriations, either under con-trol of county or state, as these honors should and of right ought to be reserved for the actual
