SULLIVAN AND MITCHELL FIGHT THIRTY-NINE ROUNDS.

The Fight Ends in a Draw, Both Men Badly Punished—Arrested and Released on Bail—Gone to England.

Immediately the fight was over, five carriages, containing the principals and their friends and backers, started back for Centre Hall, whence they came, instead of coming on to Chantilly, and they had not proceeded far before they were met and stopped by three mounted gendarmes.

After a night in jail, they were discharged under 4,000 francs bail, and at once started for London. Sullivan's eyes were both swollen and discolored, his lips were cut and puffed up in a way that quite disfigured him, and his left ear was swollen and smeared with blood.

Mitchell had one good eye, but the other, his left, was puffed out in a most extravagant way and united many colors. His ears had come out of the battle safely, but the rest of his head was completely battered.

Sullivan threw his hat into the ring, climbed through the ropes, and waving a bunch of English bank notes in his hand, offered to bet 500 pounds on himself against 200 pounds.

From the first it was evident Sullivan wanted a chance to get his right on Mitchell's neck and knock him senseless at once. On the other hand, Mitchell spent his time keeping his own head out of the way and playing on Sullivan's stomach.

Jack Dempsey Ready to Bet $10,000 He Can Whip England's Champion.
New York, March 12.—The result of the Sullivan-Mitchell fight has renewed interest in a contest which has long been talked of between the Englishman and Jack Dempsey, the Nonpareil, and the matter has suddenly resulted in a proposal for a fight.

RANDALL'S TARIFF BILL

SOME OF THE PROVISIONS AS THEY STAND AT PRESENT.

A Big Cut in Internal Revenue Taxes—Full Rebate to Tobacco Manufacturers—Text of the Bill.

WASHINGTON, March 12.—The text of the Randall combination internal revenue and tariff bill has been made public. The measure takes up 117 pages, and begins with the treatment of the internal revenue.

These laws are defined as including "the taxes on manufactured tobacco, snuff, cigars, cheroots and cigars, and the special taxes required by law to be paid by manufacturers of and dealers in leaf tobacco, retail dealers in leaf tobacco, dealers in manufactured tobacco, peddlers of tobacco, snuff and cigars, and manufacturers of snuff and cigars."

All laws which "impose any special taxes upon manufacturers of stills, wholesale and retail liquor dealers and wholesale and retail dealers in malt liquors" are repealed, with a provision for a rebate of taxes paid for the current year.

Section 6 of the bill allows the Secretary of the Treasury to allow the removal of spirits from bond for use in industrial pursuits without the payment of any tax, and imposes a penalty of $5,000 fine for a misuse of such permission.

Section 8 fixes the tax on distilled spirits from grain at fifty cents per gallon, instead of ninety cents, and allows a rebate on all spirits in bond at the time when the law goes into effect, equal to the difference in the tax.

The remaining sections of the bill are devoted to tariff schedules, which are said to be thoroughly in accord with the desires of the interests involved, and which are understood to have been fixed after a careful consultation with the men who best represent those interests.
