

'Nasal Voices, Catarrh and False Teeth.'

A prominent English woman says the American women all have high, shrill, nasal voices and false teeth.

But why should so many of our women have false teeth? That is more of a puzzle to the English. It is quite impossible to account for it except on the theory of deranged stomach action caused by imprudence in eating and by want of regular exercise.

Both conditions are unnatural. Catarrhal troubles everywhere prevail and end in cough and consumption, which are promoted by malnutrition induced by deranged stomach action. The condition is a modern one, one unknown to our ancestors who prevented the catarrh, cold, cough and consumption by abundant and regular use of what is known as Warner's Log Cabin Cough and Consumption Remedy and Log Cabin Sarsaparilla, two old-fashioned standard remedies handed down from our ancestors, and now exclusively put forth under the strongest guarantee of purity and efficacy by the world-famed makers of Warner's safe cure. These two remedies plentifully used as the spring and summer seasons advance give a positive assurance of freedom, both from catarrh and those dreadful and if neglected, inevitable consequences, pneumonia, lung troubles and consumption, which so generally and fatally prevail among our people.

Comrade Eli Fisher, of Salem, Henry Co., Iowa, served four years in the late war, and contracted a disease called consumption by the doctors. He had frequent hemorrhages. After using Warner's Log Cabin Cough and Consumption Remedy, he says, under date of January 19th, 1888: "I do not bleed at the lungs any more, my cough does not bother me, and I do not have any more smothering spells." Warner's Log Cabin Rose Cream cured his wife of catarrh and she is "sound and well."

Of course we do not like to have our women called nose talkers and false teeth owners, but these conditions can be readily overcome in the manner indicated.

"JOHN," she said, as she toyed with one of his coat buttons, "this is leap year, isn't it?"

"Yes, Mamie," he answered, as he looked fondly down on the golden head that was pillowed on his manly bosom.

"This is the year when the proposing is done by the young ladies?"

"Yes."

"I hope you don't expect me to propose to you?"

"Why, Mamie, dear, I never gave the matter a thought—I—er—to tell the truth, I've only known you for—that is to say—"

"I'm glad you didn't expect me to propose. No, John, dearest, I couldn't be so immodest. I am going to let you do the proposing yourself in the old-fashioned way. The old-fashioned way is good enough for me."

And the gentle maiden gave her lover a beaming smile and the youth rejoiced that he had found such a treasure of modesty.

FOR CURIOSITY'S SAKE.—In the act of raising the glass to his lips, and looking as if he was preparing to swallow a dose of medicine, the Kentuckian felt the hostess' little girl cling to his coat tail, while at the same time she made an impudent request to be allowed to look on while he imbibed the cooling liquid.

"I don't quite understand," said the puzzled senator. "May I enquire, my dear, why you are so interested in the matter?"

"Oh, yes," cried the child promptly, "I want to see you drink, because mamma says you do it like a fish."

HUSBAND AND WIFE arrive at a country hotel at a late hour of the night.

Husband (to waiter)—What have you got to eat?

Waiter—We have nothing but one beefsteak.

Only one beefsteak? My poor wife will have to go to bed on an empty stomach. How about that, eh?

SHE (laying down book)—I'll read no more! Just think of the horrible savages—breaking a man on a wheel!

He—Um! What are you reading, my dear?

"The History of the Middle Ages."

"Oh, I thought it might be a 'Treatise on Roulette.' I've seen many a poor fellow on that wheel."

STRIPES AND CHECKS.—VISITOR (to convict)—Well, my man, what got you to wearing stripes?

Convict—Forgin' checks.

FIRST WATCH—What's the matter with your face? You look sick.

Second Watch—Yes, I am. I'm all run down.

THE MAN who was arrested for stealing some window glasses said he was seeking more light. And he certainly took lots of pains to find it.

I LOVE you with a deep and undying affection," he sighed. "Can I hope that the affection is returned?"

"Why certainly," responded the matter-of-fact young lady. "I have no particular use for it."

When everything else fails, Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy cures.

Hard cheese may be eaten with the fingers, but the general rule is to use a fork.

"What Drug Will Cure These English Hecures?"

Wicked Macbeth, who murdered good King Duncan, asked this question in his despair. Thousands of victims of disease are daily asking "What will scour the impurities from my blood and bring me health?" Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will do it. When the purple life-tide is sluggish, causing drowsiness, headache and loss of appetite, use this wonderful vitalizer, which never fails. It forces the liver into perfect action, drives out superfluous bile, brings the glow of health to the cheek and the natural sparkle to the eye. All druggists.

It is not now considered improper to take salt with your knife from the salt-cellar.

A Pleasure Shared by Women Only.

Malherbe, the gifted French author, declared that of all things that man possesses, women alone take pleasure in being possessed. This seems generally true of the sweeter sex. Like the ivy plant, she longs for an object to cling to and love—to look to for protection. This being her prerogative, ought she not to be told that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the physical salvation of her sex? It banishes those distressing maladies that make her life a burden, curing all painful irregularities, uterine disorders, inflammation and ulceration, and kindred weaknesses. As a tonic, it cures nervous exhaustion, prostration, debility, relieves mental anxiety and hypochondria, and promotes refreshing sleep.

The basket in which spoons and forks are kept should be lined with flannel.

Some Foolish People Allow a cough to run until it gets beyond the reach of medicine. They often say "Oh, it will wear away," but in most cases it wears them away. Could they be induced to try the successful medicine called Kemp's Balsam, they would immediately see the excellent effect after taking the first dose. Large bottles, 50 cents and $1.00. Trial size free. At all Druggists.

The pineapple is almost the only fruit which requires both knife and fork in the eating.

Nothing Cures Dropsy, Gravel, Bright's, Heart, Diabete, Urinary, Liver Diseases, Nervousness, etc., like Canby's Kidney Cure, Office, 821 Arch St., Phila. $1 a bottle, 6 for $5. At Druggists. Cures the worst cases. Cure guaranteed. Try it.

Delicate tinted napery such as pink or light blue is a poor investment for everyday wear.

Consumption surely cured. To the Editor—Please inform your readers that I have a positive remedy for the above named disease, by its timely use thousands of hopeless cases have been permanently cured. I shall be glad to send two bottles of my remedy free to any of your readers who have consumption if they will send me their express and E. G. address. Respectfully, T. A. SIGGUM, M. IN THE MONUMENT FACTORY.—Friend of the deceased (who has ordered a monument)—That space looks a little bare, (pointing with his cane). Some inscriptions should go in there.

Monument Man—Your friend was a married man, was he not?

"Oh, yes, married four times."

"How wouldst AT REST do, then?"

Miss Brown—You must come to my house some day, Elsie, and play.

Elsie—Got any little boys there, Miss Brown?

"No, dear."

"Goo, little girls?"

"No, dear."

"Then what are they?"

A DREADFUL THREAT.—An Austin colored man, with protruding eyes, rushed into Justice Tegener's office and exclaimed:

"I want Col. Jones, who libs nex' door to me, put under a million dollars bonds ter keep do peace."

"Has he threatened your life?"

"He has done dat berry ding. He said he war g'wine ter fill de nex' nigh-gah he found after dark, in his neighborhood, plum full ob buckshot."

VERY CONSIDERATE.—"Well, John said old man Jordan to his young friend 'you have just married, I hear.'"

"Yes, sir," he answered, with a spring morning smile, "just a month ago, and I want you to go up to dinner with me to-day."

"Have you got a cook?"

"No."

"Well, my boy, s'pose we go to a restaurant this time. You must remember I had a young wife once myself."

FREE TRADE VS. PROTECTION.—"Father," said a young Austin swell with sporting proclivities. "explain to me something about protection. What is the duty on sugar?"

"I don't know anything about the duty on sugar, but I can tell you something about the duty on tobacco. It is my duty to seize all the cigars I can get hold of," and reaching over toward his son's vest pocket, he snatched a handful of Havanas.

"So that's the duty on tobacco, is it?" said the young man. "Well, I may be somewhat muddled on political economy, but that looks a good deal like free trade."

"AN EVASIVE ANSWER.—An Austin attorney, who had many times sent away an impudenc client with equivocal answer regarding his case, was one day disturbed under a press of business by the aforesaid client walking into his office.

"You here again?" said the lawyer impatiently.

"Yes," answered the client. You told me to come back some other time."

"Well, then," retorted the attorney, "I didn't mean this time; I mean some other time."

A USEFUL DOG.—Lady of the house (to her servant)—What do you mean by giving that dog that good meat?

"I do it to encourage the poor animal."

"Encourage him to do what?"

"To keep on helping me to wash the dinner dishes clean. I don't have to wash them hardly at all, he licks them so clean."

Lady faints.

KING DEATH'S VICTIM.—"There goes a funeral, I wonder who is dead?"

"A man by the name of Briggs. I knew him well."

"What disease did he die of?"

"Oh, he caught a bad cold, and it did him in."

"What business was he engaged in?"

"He was the manufacturer of Briggs' cough remedy."

THE PROPRIETORS OF DR. SAGE'S CATARRH REMEDY
For a case of Catarrh in the Head which they cannot cure.
SOLD BY DRUGGISTS 50 CENTS. The Only Guaranteed Cure.

CATARRH IN THE HEAD.
SYMPTOMS OF THE DISEASE.—Dull, heavy headache, obstruction of the nasal passages, discharge falling from the head into the throat, sometimes profuse, watery, and acrid, and often tinged with mucus; purulent, bloody, and putrid; the eyes are weak; there is ringing in the ears, deafness, hacking or coughing to clear the throat, expectoration of offensive matter; a "nasal twang"; the breath is offensive; small and taste less; together with scabs from ulcers; the voice is changed and impaired; there is a sensation of dimness, with mental depression, a hacking cough and general debility. Only a few of the above-named symptoms are likely to be present in any one case. Thousands of cases annually, without manifesting half of the above symptoms, result in consumption, and end in the grave. No disease is so common, more deceptive and dangerous, less understood, or more unsuccessfully treated by physicians.
If you would remove an evil, eradicate its root. As the predisposing or real cause of catarrh is in the majority of cases, some weakness, impurity, or other faulty condition of the system, in attempting to cure the disease our chief aim must be directed to the removal of that cause. The more we see of this nature, the more we are convinced that thousands of cases annually at the Invalid Hotel and Surgical Institute, the more do we realize the importance of combining with the use of a local, soothing and healing application, a thorough and persistent internal use of blood-cleansing and tonic medicines.
In curing catarrh and all the various diseases of the throat, bronchial, and lung diseases, weak stomach, catarrhal deafness, weak or inflamed eyes, impure blood, scrofulous and syphilitic taints, the wonderful powers and virtues of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cannot be too strongly extolled. It has a specific effect upon the lining mucous membrane of the nasal and other air-passages, promoting the natural secretion of their follicles and glands, thereby restoring the diseased and thickened membrane and returning it to its natural, thin, delicate, moist, healthy condition. As a blood-purifier, it is unsurpassed. As those diseases which complicate catarrh are diseases of the lining mucous membrane, or of the blood, it will readily be seen why this medicine is so well calculated to cure them.
LOCAL AGENT. A local application for healing the diseased condition of the head. Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy is beyond all comparison the best preparation ever invented. It is mild and pleasant to use, producing no smarting or pain, and containing no styptic, irritating, or caustic oil, resin, or other poison. This remedy is a powerful antiseptic, and speedily destroys all small animalcules, so that no matter of dirt or disease can enter the system.
PERMANENT CURES. The Golden Medical Discovery is the natural "balm" of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. It not only cleanses, purifies, regulates, and builds up the system to a healthy standard, and conquers throat, bronchial, and lung complications, when any such exist, but from its specific effects upon the lining membrane of the nasal passages, it aids materially in restoring the diseased, thickened, or ulcerated membrane to a healthy condition, and thus eradicates the disease. When a cure is effected in this manner it is permanent.
Both Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy are sold by druggists the world over, at $1.00 a bottle, 6 for $5.00. Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy 50 cents; half-dozen bottles $2.50.
A complete Treatise on Catarrh, giving valuable hints as to clothing, diet, and other matters of importance, will be mailed, post-paid to any address, on receipt of a 2-cent postage stamp.
