Editor Hart, of the Wheeling Intelli gencer, recently found himself in a somewhat confused state of mind over the conflicting reports of the effectiveness of the Maine prohibitory law. As the sub ject of a prohibitory constitutional amendment was being agitated in West Virginia. Editor Hart took his wife with him and made a journey to Maine to see for himself whether prohibition refused. did really prohibit. He first visited was surprised to observe a guest seated two hours' stroll about town and, return- whose estate he worked, had a hand in kidted over forty saloons where liquor was sold openly by the glass.

Thinking that perhaps Portland did not furnish a fair sample of the effectiveness of Maine prohibition, Mr. Hart and his wife then visited Augusta. He re- alyoching. mained there two days, and visited twenty places where liquor was sold openly, nine of them being in a single street, within a distance of four hundred yards. He next visited Bangor and drawn $50,000 on forged pay orders have found that in the hotel at which he stoped it was only necessary to press an electric button to be served with liquor of any variety and in any quantity he wished. A tour of the city revealed as many open liquor saloons in proportion to population as he had found in Portland and Augusta. He also visited several other towns of more or less importance, in not one of which did he find any diffichlty in procuring all the liquor he desired. Editor Hart returns to Wheeling profoundly convinced that unless Wes. Virginia can procure a more effective kind of prohibition than the pioneer prohibitory State enjoys a prohibitory constitutional amendment will be of very little use in restricting the use of alcholic stimulants.

PENNSYLVANIA ON THE TARIFF.

Mr. William A. Scott, says the New York Herald in a lengthy editorial, is a Pennsylvanian, a coal miner and a manufacturer. It is in some ways a striking circumstance that a Pennsylvania manufacturer should make what is the strongest and ablest argument against high issued the pardon upon the condition that protection for a liberal tariff that has been made this session. But a Pennsylvanian and a manufacturer has reason to impose any condition he choose in granting know, better than most others, the injur- a pardon, and that in case the condition is ious effects of extreme protection. Mr. Scott, as will be seen in his speech, does not deal in glittering generalities. He does not trouble himself with theories. His speech is the talk of a business man, used to accurate book-keeping. able to show where labor and capital stand when the profits of monopoly are divided. Mr. Scott's analysis of the proportions of labor and material used inthe business of steel rail manufacturing, for instance, shows how small is the reward of labor and how monstrous the profit grabbed by the protected capitalists in this business, which is "protected" in the present tariff from eighty-five to one hundred and two per cent.

HORRORS OF A CUBAN PRISON. Inmates Beaten and Kicked, and Their Fingers Broken and Crushed.

HAVANA, Cuba, May 25 .- Revelations as o the treatment of prisoners now confined in the Cubans Fort his caused considerable talk and is being noticed by the press. The disclosures shows the most cruel and inhuman practice on the prisoners. Seventy prisoners are under arrest and four of

They put his fingers in a gauge and screwed them up, each turn crushing the bones. They beat him unmeroifully, too, and he may die. Antonio Molerio was arrested on the Morales estate by Temento Saluz. He was beaten and for forty hours had no food. Saluz told him that if he would swear that the Mayor and three Aldermen of Madenga were implicated in the kidnapping of Senor 000000000000 Alentado he would set him free. Molerio

Florencio Diaz Betancourt was arrested by Saiuz. He was beaten till he fainted. On Monday he took a asked to swear that Fernando Mena, on ing, informed his wife that he had visi- | napping Antonio Gelindez, and refused to do so. Both his hands will have to be amputated.

These exposures have arroused the people. Protests have been sent to Madrid. The press calls on Capt.-Gen. Marina to take steps in the matter at once. If Saiuz was caught on the street their might be

THE POPE DEFIED.

Seldom has any religious authority is. sued an order which has met with such indignant protest as the recent Papal rescript against the "Plan of Campaign" in Ireland. Although Roman Catholic prelates have explained it as relating only to matters of morals, and not at all to politics, it has been universally recognized as a political blow at Irish agitation, and a powerful blow in favor of the British Government. Forty Irish members of Parliament have voiced the sentiment of the Roman Catholic people of Ireland in a vigorous paper, which declares in detail that the allegations on which the Pope has based his decisions are false and unfounded, that the silence of the Pope in regard to the wrongs committed by the Government is deplorable, and finally that "while unreservedly ac knowledge the spiritual jurisdiction of the Holy See, we, as guardians of those civil liberties which our Catholic forefathers resolutely defended, feel bound to solemnly reassert that Irish Catholics can recognize no right of the Holy See to interfere with the Irish people in the management of their political affairs."

Thus far not a note is heard from any quarter indicating that this is not the sentiment of all the Irish Catholics. It therefore appears that the Papal interference has been utterly without effect to modify the situation. Correspondents of the daily press represent that it has developed intense hatred for the English Catholic among the Irish and completely destroyed the personal popularity of the Pope in Ireland. It has served a useful purpose, however, in making all this Papal intermeddling with politics appear in its true light, as futile and ridic. ulous where it is not dangerous and vi cious.
